The Railroads Can Rob the People IF

They Can Arrange to Keep American Ships from Free Use of the Panama Canal.

Copyright, 1912.

In a cartoon printed several days ago our artist showed the Panama Canal with American ships held back by American locomotives.

That was a picture of fact, although many citizens do not know it.

All the solemn talk about "treaty obligations" about our duty to England, our national honor, is merely so much "railroad talk," a good deal of it well paid for by railroad.

We are told that it is dishonorable, unfair, treacherous, etc., to permit American SHIPS to use the AMERICAN CANAL, unless we also let English ships use the canal, without charge.

And the so-called friends of national honor—who are in reality gentlemen and newspaper subsidized or controlled by railroads—have actually managed to compel all but coastwise American ships to pay toll, like foreign vessels.

The railroads want no free use of the canal by American coastwise ships, and they fight such use through the politicians and newspapers that they own, for a simple reason.

The railroads make money carrying freight from the Atlantic to the Pacific. And the more they can CHARGE the more they can MAKE. Hitherto ships carrying freight from New York to San Francisco had to go all around South America. Therefore, the railroads could charge for freight carried 8,000 miles across the continent as much as it would cost to send a ship all around the continent. And, in addition, the railroad could add a charge for quick freight as against necessarily slow ocean freight.

Now ships will go from New York to the Pacific Coast through the canal, and the cost of water freight will be very small—UNLESS THE RAILROADS CAN MANAGE TO FASTEN A TOLL ON AMERICAN FREIGHT USING AN AMERICAN CANAL. The railroads are trying to do, in the high-sounding name of national honor, treaty rights, etc.

For, don't you see, every dollar that railroad influence can lay as a tax on American shipping in the canal IS A DOLLAR THAT THE RAILROAD CAN ADD TO ITS FREIGHT CHARGES.

Let our Government charge American ships $2 a ton for using the canal, and the railroads can at once add $2 a ton to their freight rate.

Quite simple and clear, is it not?

Remember that when you hear the pitiful sobbing talk about protecting poor Great Britain against such an "outrage" as letting Americans, who built the canal and paid for it, give free use of it to American ships.

England, a matter of fact, is very little interested in the matter, except that England's rich men own the Canadian Pacific Railroad, and they, like our railroad owners, are working to fasten a tax on American ships in ORDER TO ADD THAT TAX TO AMERICAN FREIGHT SHIPPERS.

Fortunately the matter is pretty well understood.

This country will let all American ships use the canal without charge very soon. And our coastwise shipping will be free at once.

The Congress in this instance will not be used as a railroad freight collector. One Senator the other day introduced a resolution to set aside the existing treaty with England entirely—a thing we have a right to do at any time. There is no doubt that whatever may be necessary will be done to make and keep the American Canal FREE TO AMERICAN SHIPS.

Even the railroads, after they lose their foolish fight, will find it a good thing FOR THEM to help the general American prosperity.

Free use of the canal and low freight rates will bring lumber to the Atlantic Coast from the Far Northwest and bring fruit to the East from California and other Pacific States.

Eastern products will go at low freight rates through the canal to the Pacific. Business will grow—business will find encouragement, labor, industry AND—the railroads will share in the benefit of a canal UNITING THE COUNTRY MORE GLOBALLY AND MORE CHEAPLY.

For every carload of cheap freight going through the canal and taken, apparently FROM the railroads, there will be two extra carloads of high priced freight FOR the roads. Profitable long hauls will increase and profitable short hauls as well.

And within ten years intelligent railroad men will thank the Panama Canal and free me of it by Americans for prosperity such as they have never seen.

MEANWHILE, IT IS IMPORTANT TO REALIZE THAT THE RAILROADS AND THEIR MANAGERS, NEAR-SIGHTED AND USUAL, ARE THE REAL POWER FIGHTING TO SHUT AMERICAN SHIPS OUT OF AN AMERICAN CANAL in the name of our holy duty to England.

stair. I could see nor hear no one." The telephone call from Mrs. Edmond was evidently the signal when they quizzed her Saturday following the killing of Mary Phagan. The girl and her mother, Mrs. Edmond, now at 17, South Forsyth Street, came to the factory to get the girl which the girl did not get the week before.

Assigned by Detectives. In the office were detectives, eager to seize every available lead. Mrs. Edmond and the girl, and were rewarded by Monteith, who remained in his office on the afternoon of this fatal day.

Monteith said she did not know Mary Phagan, and probably had never seen her.

Dorsey, being popular with his employees and kind.

Investigation within the 24 hours has been the stimulation of another day. The police report that the first day's findings reported to have been in touch with Mary Phagan at the time of her death.

Mrs. Nancy Caldwell, of 10 Gray Street, an acquaintance of the girl, was questioned concerning the fact, however, that she had not been with Mary Phagan the day she was found. In conversation with the Phagan girl on the afternoon of the killing, she was asked if she had known of the disappearance of a girl at Marietta.

Dorsey also evidence, from his records, that the girl probably came to her death at the hands of her father, but in the upstairs latrine.

The following affidavit, signed by the girl, states that she passed the factory about 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 25, and passed to the office of Mr. Dorsey, given him by "Chief" Duthie, Landford, he being represented by Attorneys John M. McTolland and W. M. Smith.

SHRINERS AT JACKSON AND MERIDIAN GET BIG WELCOME

"We Are Going to Bring Home the Bacon," Official Announcement of Atlanta Convention at Former Mississippi City.

"Circus Day" in Shade When Yaarab Special Comes to Town. Hosts Vote Queen City's Representatives Irresistible.

JACKSON, Miss., May 10.—(Special)—Jackson men and women are going back to their Saturday afternoon duties with a smile that won't come off for days. They have just met the "Yaarab Special" from Atlanta that made its joyous way through the city, and they will not soon forget the meeting.

It is a wonderful party, this bunch that Atlanta has sent to the convention in Dallas to bring back assurance of the Shriners' convention in Atlanta for next year. At least, all Jackson knows that way about it.

And Jackson welcomes them well. A fair bit of the city was at the station this afternoon to greet them and to tell them of their kind wishes.

The group, however, a delegation was first to speak. Forrest Adair and some of the others to speak, but everybody spoke. This was no day for formality. The more the talked, the more the singing, the more the bantering, the tie between Atlanta and Jackson grew.

Then one of the Atlanta men, who could not be ascertainable because of the general miasma, leaped to a full view of the populace. He was a stout blond.

"Sure, everybody was happy."

"How happy?" he shouted.

"Just like us," assured him every body was.

Enterprise newspaper man of the Mississippi capital sought to interview dignitaries of the Shriners. The man did so by an imposing delegation, who after much deliberation, produced a signed statement.

It was agreed to "brick back the bacon."

J. LEE BARNES,
"HAROLD CARPENTER,"
"JOHN COUCH,"
"V. A. FOSTER."

Then, all too soon, the train pulled out, according to the schedule, but not without the fact that Jackson, Miss., was having the time of its life and that there was no intermission or rest not often experienced by this conclusion:

The men who Atlanta Shriners picked to represent Atlanta's cause are irresistible.

Shriners About "Joy."

The stout blond gentleman was on the observation platform when the train reached the end of the world, and he was still smiling when he was all returning home again to the happiness of Jacksonites.

Lunch on the "Yaarab Special" made its way west. The stout blond evanescence was on the observation platform when the train reached the end of the world, and he was still smiling when he was all returning home again to the happiness of Jacksonites.

Launched on the "Yaarab Special" made its way west. The stout blond evanescence was on the observation platform when the train reached the end of the world, and he was still smiling when he was all returning home again to the happiness of Jacksonites.

"They truly like their owned the railroad," observed a trap caller of Jackson.

Wife Watches Cell to Keep Man Awake

Keeps All-Night Vigil Under Doctor's Orders to Keep Husband From Sleeping.

PHILA., May 10.—Miss Ramona Borden, 17-year-old daughter of Galt Borden, multi-millionaire New York mill dealer, whose mysterious disappearance from a New Jersey mansion several weeks ago has been the subject of a day-to-day search for her, was locked up.

Credence was given the report, by Mrs. Conley, that her husband had made all sorts of threats against her and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Conley, when she left the hotel where he and his wife resided, police headquarters, in a cell and asked that his wife be permitted to remain outside and keep him awake.

The police were puzzled, but when it was explained that Conley had spells of nervousness and that his wife might keep him awake at the orders of his physician, the question was granted.

Monica Stover, a girl who has been raised in an important milieu.

Remember the Times:

"The minute I got to the office door, she went in five minutes later. I wanted to say, 'I'm sorry at the cliche.' I wanted to say, 'I know it was time to draw my money. I would have looked at it, though. I suppose it is always curious to me to think, 'What's the best way to do this?'"

According to Frank's statement, he was in his office from 11 o'clock until 7:30, when Lemuel Blawie, his foreman, came to him.

Blawie told him, he said, Mary Phagan came in about 10 o'clock, to receive her pay.

Monica Stover is certain that the Congresswoman had an engagement with her husband, and that he had been raised in an important milieu.

FERTILIZER HIT BY NEW TARIFF, SAYS PROTEST

Business Men Receive Message From Washington, Following Passage of New Bill.

The following telegram, which explains itself, was received from Washington to-day by some of the leading business men of Atlanta:

"We are deeply concerned over the new tariff bill. It is a terrible hit to our fertilizer industry. The American Congress, pledged to tariff reform, taking off of the free list an article on name." This I am advised was done yesterday when the House of Representatives voted to pass the Washington passed the tariff bill putting a tax of ten per cent on all fertilizers. My understanding is that ten per cent is an ad valorem tax while the old Republican tariff of 30 cents per hundred pounds which was now removed from the free list and became a law August, 1909, since which time ammonium has been free.

"You must know about the interests involved in the fertilizer industry and that this infant industry has greatly prospered in our years of free trade. The manufacturers and importers ought to protest to our Representatives, both in the Senate and the House, against this law which is directly against the farmer, and the manufacturer, and ought to insist itself to revise the tariff and bring about a more reasonable rate. The fertilizer industry adds to the cost if they tax sulphate of ammonia."

"The price of sulphate of ammonia is higher to-day than it was in 1909 when the duty of 6¢ per ton was imposed. The fertilizer industry is healthy and needs no protection."

DISCONTENT AND STRIFE SIGNS OF CHANGING ORDER

Everybody Is Dissatisfied Now, But Then, There's a Reason.

By B. C. FORBES.

Dissentient, ferment, class clashes have invariably attended great forward movements. Reforms are always of necessity, and, indeed, revolution is often the result of direct strife, struggle and achievement; conflict in the jungle is a cause of reproduction. The formation of associations, manhood, in fact, in itself justice which suffuses the actions of things.

Only the dead are still, it has been remarked. The American people, in this reasoning, are very much alive; for stillness was never more consequential by its absence than it is to-day.

Let not employees imagine, however, that they alone are dissatisfied; if they alone are finding that they not cargoed with care, then, rest assured, alone want change.

Do you know any one class that is not owing anything?

Let us glance around.

Take politics first. The "Old Guard" have been routed and the younger race of politicians find the clamoring of the public a source of power and, insisting that entrenched "bosses" be shorn of their privileges. Moreover, the professionals find no longer room for them in politics. They look upon with reverence, a man's credit does not rise one hundred per cent if he be seen walking down Fifth Avenue with Chamber of Deputies or other similar successors. The politicians have lost their hales and the veterans regard the times as out of joint. Upset legislators, too, find that a good walk will not be exuberantly happy.

What of the wealthy? For years they have looked up to him and held in awe. The Government, at that rate, has apparently, cut them out of their business operations, the tax gatherers did not trouble them. All that has changed. The Government and Big business, for multi-millionaires have escaped being dragged before legal or legislative tribunals, and now the Federal Government is obliged to visit the cities with "go to" rich a steady percentage of their incomes. The cost of living, too, has fallen heavily upon those dependent upon incomes from permanent investments; for the securities purchased years ago are not commensurate with current prices of commodities. And these are only the most tragic instances. Who besides the poor wallow in these days of applied democacy?

Railroads, the greatest employers of labor and the largest spenders in the country, are almost ready to throw up their hands. The railroads are the only ones whose wares multiplying, more than one railroad manager is ready to hand over the job of running the railroads to the Government.

Our greatest manufacturers are in a state of almost total idleness. They are still, and other industries are not far behind. Sabotage, too, has denied that he would quit if the tariff were cut, but that is exactly how steel men have been forced to do. An armful, laden with steel rails, beams, shapes and machinery. That world, wall, is not going to stand.

The horse either was frost to pass and the cow to go, and pleased to stand by the roadside. The half mile track stands start. The cow was a male winter.

FORMER JUDGE CANDLER ON LACK OF RESPECT FOR THE LAW

John S. Candler, now Atlanta, and former Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and previous to this Judge in the Superior Court, made an address to the graduating class of the Atlanta Law School in which he said:

"The idea of taking an ignorant man, working on him until 4 o'clock in the morning, then flaring a flashlight in his face and saying, 'We know you killed somebody,' is worse than the Spanish inquisition. Such a practice has no place in the law, and that's why the public are losing confidence in and respect for the officers of the court."

"A detective who would voluntarily go on the stand ought not to be believed. The purpose of a detective is to find evidence, and not to swear that the evidence he has is true. The detective is tortured to convict the man whom his evidence involves; and, therefore, he is not a competent witness."

SHRINERS GET BIG WELCOME AT MERIDIAN AND JACKSON

"We Are Going to Bring Home the Bacon," Official Announcement of Atlanta Convention at Former Mississippi City.

"Circus Day" in Shade When Yaarab Special Comes to Town. Hosts... Vote Queen City's Representatives... Irresistible.

JACKSON, MISS., May 10.—(Reuter)—Jackson men and women are back to their holiday afternoon duties with a smile that won't come off for days. They have just met the "Yaarab Special" from Atlanta, and the joyous crowd went through the city, and they will not soon forget the meeting.

It is a wonderful party, this bunch that Atlanta has sent to Jackson, and some of the others to speak, but every speech was made. The more the singing, the closer became the tie between Atlanta and Jackson.

And Jackson wished them well. A fair of the delegates from the states, this afternoon, to greet them, and then to tell them of their good wishes.

The crowd grew. A delegation was there at first to "ring the changes," and some of the others to speak, but every speech was made. The more the singing, the closer became the tie between Atlanta and Jackson.

Then one of the Atlanta men, whose name could not be ascertained because of the general muddle, leaned over to the speaker and said:

"Sure, Everybody Wants Happy, is everybody happy?" he shouted.

Jackson, Miss., assured him everybody was.

Enterprising newspaper men of the Mississippi capital sought to interview digests among the Atlanta delegation, who were by an interesting delegation, who, after much deliberation, produced a signed statement.

It was as follows:

"We are going to bring back the bacon."

"J. LEE BARNER,
FRED PATERSON,
GRAHAM PELLMAN,
JOSEPH COUCH,
A. F. FOSTER."

Then, all too soon, the train pulled out, according to the unanswerable railroad schedule, and the Atlanta delegation, who had been to the conclusion: The man whom Atlanta Shriners picked to represent Atlanta's cause was irresistible.

Still, serious About "Day."

The train passed into the distance, and he was still smiling. His introduction as to the uniqueness of Jacksonville.

Luncheon will be served at Vickburg, where the train crosses the Mississippi River, and ends at West Point. Other delegations are promised at the Hill City, though only a short stop can be made.

At all stops, the Shriners will be in the Shriners, the second city of Louisiana. Shriners report has a bunch of live Shriners, and is in thorough

Accuser of O'Hara
Now Denies Charge
Maud Robinson Admits Signing Affidavit, but Says It Contained No Allegation of Immorality.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Maud Robinson, who signed an affidavit charging improper conduct against Harriet O'Hara, Lieutenant Governor of Illinois and chairman of the Senate Women's Committee, has admitted to-day before a sub-committee appointed to investigate the affair. She denied absolutely that there had been anything improper in her relations with the Lieutenant Governor.

She admitted signing an affidavit, but said it contained no charge of immorality.

O'Hara testified that she had never had improper relations with O'Hara. When she was questioned concerning the affidavit, she said: "I signed it before I left Chicago. I signed it before I left Springfield. She said the affidavit was made at the instance of Samuel Davis, of a Negro woman.

O'Hara said the affidavit was only to make a bluff with and that it would not be made public under any circumstances," she explained.

ELECT INFANT CLAUSE FACES PRESBYTERIANS

Proposed Change in Confession of Faith Likely Not To Be Made by Assemblies.

UNION OF CHURCH PROPOSED

Popular Statement of Doctrine
One of the Big Questions To Be Wrestled With.

VITAL questions of worldwide interest, will come before the Presbyterians at their meeting in Atlanta. Perhaps the most interesting of these is whether the "elect infants clause" in the confession of the Southern Assembly to be made in the "elect infants clause" to remove all ground for the suspicion that all infants are not saved.

This will come up in consideration of section 3, chapter 10 of the Confession of Faith and will not be new with the General Assembly of this church. The proposed change has been thoroughly discussed and recommended by a number of assemblies, but no change proposed as yet has been adopted.

The proposed change in this paragraph which was approved by the Bristol Assembly causes the Presbyterians to wonder if the elect infants dying in infancy are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit who works when and where, and how he pleases. Those who are regenerate, who are incapable of being outwardly called by the ministry of the word, this wording to be substituted that they are "the elect infants of God" and which reads: "Elect infants dying in infancy etc."

Presbyteries Have Voted.

The Presbyteries have taken vote on the proposed change during the spring meetings and the action of the General Assembly in September will determine the words of the new paragraph of the Confession of Faith will be determined by the vote of the Presbyteries. The Presbyteries, however, that three-fourths of the Presbyteries will favor the proposed change and it is not unlikely this question will be discussed at the meeting of the Atlanta assembly, though nothing during the Atlanta session has been true during other assemblies.

There is a growing desire on the part of some prominent ministers to be the first to make this change from the Confession of Faith and thus obliterate all ground for the supposition that one infant in every thousand does not die in the womb.

It is felt that it is probably that more than one overture to that effect will be presented to the Atlanta assembly.

Among the questions of particular interest to the South is the proposed union of the United Presbyterian Church with the United Methodist Church and this question will be turned over in the report of the Committee on Conference, appointed by the Assembly of 1912, which came in.

In joint session with a similar committee appointed by the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church has prepared a basic of union for the two churches and the final details of union will be presented to the General Assemblies of both churches for action.

Terms Not Made Public.

Judge Frank D. Dorsey, a singularly commanding figure in the General Assembly of 1912, has agreed upon several points, but the two assemblies of Conference decided that as a matter of courtesy to the Assemblies of both churches it should not be given publicity until

Guards Watch Lieutenant Paterno, Who Would Escape Imprisonment Through Suicide.

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.

ROME, May 10.—Lieutenant Paterno, serving a life sentence for the murder in 1912 of the queen's waiting maid, has been granted a furlough, recently converted to the penitentiary in Porto Longone to-day. Owing to the prisoner's dread of solitary confinement and determination to end his life, four warders have been detailed to guard him day and night.

The doctors ascribe his suicidal mania to cowardice. They have given him morphine to cause sleep, social stimulants to prolong his life.

The authorities have tried to hide Paterno's resolve to kill himself lest his example be followed by others desiring to end their sentences of solitary confinement.

Other convicts who have ended their lives generally concealed their determination, but Paterno calmly announced his intent to end his life. The warders are unable to preserve his life at all costs that he may expire his crime according to law.

President Sympathizes With Japan,

His Views.

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.

LONDON, May 10.—The London Evening Post, in its editorial, says:

"No doubt the action of the Imperial Legation in passing a bill depriving Japan of the right to land, placed the President in a very difficult position.

"Japan resented this legislation, demanded indemnity, threatened to withdraw from the League of Nations, and claims it is a violation of the Treaty between herself and the United States so far as known Presbyterians have been told the Japanese complaints, but he had no obvious means of compelling the U.S. to accept his demands.

One of the difficulties is that Japan's complaint is that the U.S. has not been able to prove that the Chinese were responsible for the killing of Miss Borden, the other resembled one of Mrs. White's slaves who was a member of the previous runaway party. When Mrs. White was approached in New Haven, she reported she denied that she was the same woman who confined in the Borden girl's escape from the sanctuary.

At the offices of Mr. Borden it was said to-day by Mr. Borden's secretary that the girl's father had been known to him in New Haven.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—To keep her husband awake, as directed by physician, Mrs. Elizabeth Conley of Philadelphia, N. J., sat in front of a gas lamp at 12 o'clock, when her spouse, John Conley, 40 years old, was locked up.

Conley's conduct had made all sorts of trouble against him and was mentally unbalanced. Conley and his wife entered police headquarters, and his wife pleaded to be kept in a cell and asked that his wife be permitted to remain outside and keep him awake.

The police were puzzled, but when it was explained that Conley had been a nervous man and that his wife must keep him awake at the order of his physician, the request was granted.

RAMONA BORDEN REPORTED AGAIN TO BE MISSING

Multi-Millionaire Milk Dealer's
Daughter and Her Mother Leave
New York Hotel.

WHEREABOUTS NOT KNOWN

Two Girls, One Answering Description of Runaway, Join Woman in New Haven.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Miss Ramona Borden, 15-year-old daughter of Otto Borden, multi-millionaire New York milk dealer, whose mysterious disappearance from a New Jersey mansion several weeks ago caused a stir, has now disappeared to-day and is to be missing again.

Credence was given to the report by announcement at the Vanderbilt Hotel, where Miss Borden and her mother have been staying, that both left the hotel and that their present whereabouts are unknown.

The first hint that Ramona had run away came from Dr. W. H. Clark, to whom she had gone with Mrs. Helen Seldon White, wife of a rich Cleveland, Ohio, chewing gum manufacturer, to remove her son from a New Haven orphanage.

Reported in New Haven, a dispatch from New Haven reported that a woman answering Mrs. Borden's description may have joined at the residence here, the party going to a hotel where they registered as "Mrs. W. J. White and daughter, Niagara Falls, N. Y."

One of the girls, who was the other resemblance of Mrs. White's slave who was a member of the previous runaway party, was Mrs. Helen White, who reported she denied that she was the same woman who confined in the Borden girl's escape from the sanctuary.

Surprise to Father.

At the offices of Mr. Borden it was said to-day by Mr. Borden's secretary that the girl's father had been known to him in New Haven.

WASHINGTOM, May 10.—It is understood that the name of Mrs. H. H. J. Ham withdrawn as postmaster at Gainesville is understood to be under investigation by Thomas M. Bell, Congressman from the Ninth District, who has no knowledge of it and is not a party to it.

It is well known that Congressmen are not fond of keeping the names of their constituents off their desks, and the Gainesville master, as he thinks, Gainesville being his home town, his wishes should have prevailed. Then, too, the President's name, the day after Mrs. Harris' name was sent to the Senate, to discuss the Gainesville postoffice appointment was made.

Surprise to Father.

At the office of Mr. Borden it was said to-day by Mr. Borden's secretary that the girl's father had been known to him in New Haven.

VITAL QUESTIONS OF WORLD INTEREST TO FACE ATLANTA PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLIES

Proposed Change in "Elect Infant Clause" of Confession of Faith and the Union of United and Southern Churches Attracts Much Attention.

officially presented to these two bodies.

Rev. H. C. Reed, D. D., of Columbia, S. C., is chairman of the Committee of Conference for the Southern Presbyterian Church and the following members of the committee constitute the other members of this important committee: Rev. R. L. Morris, D. D., of Atlanta; Rev. J. F. Tannen, D. D., of St. Louis; Allen Hall, of New York; and the moderator of the Assembly of 1908; and W. F. Stevenson of Clermont, S. C. The General Assembly will await the presentation of an order of service with great interest, then the report of the Committee on Conference, and there is no matter of greater importance in come before the body than the question of the union of the two churches.

The standards held by the United Presbyterian Church are the same as those held by the Southern Presbyterian Church and in the same body. The other proposed change is with reference to the basis of representation in the General Assembly. The basis of representation at present is one minister and one ruling elder for each Presbytery except in those Presbyteries where there are more than three ministers. It is proposed that those the representation in the General Assembly shall be two ministers and one ruling elder for each Presbytery except in those Presbyteries where there are more than three ministers. The proposal also provides that the additional number of churches increase the representation.

Plan Graduated Scale.

The change proposed recommends that every Presbytery shall be represented in the General Assembly by one minister and one ruling elder and that if the number of ministers and ruling elders in the Presbyteries and ministers on the roll number more than three, then the representation shall be entitled to increase its representation to the Assembly with one minister and one ruling elder for each four thousand communicants and ministers.

During the meeting of the Bristol Assembly the Presbyteries have taken action with regard to the proposed changes in the Confession of Faith. The answers of the eighty-nine Presbyteries will be tabulated shortly and if three-fourths of the answers favor the proposed changes it is expected the point in all probability, that the proposed changes will receive the consideration of the entire of the two churches.

The Other Big Features.

There are two other questions to come before the General Assembly which will attract much attention.

The Federal Council and the brief popular statement of Doctrine will be considered. The Council will be dissolved and withdrawn from membership in the Council and the proposed changes will be considered.

Two changes in the form of government will be proposed and will be considered by the General Assembly. One is with regard to the union of the church and the proposed change which would give the Synod and the General Assembly the power, at their discretion, to consider the case of trial come before them on appeal of the judgment of the Committee of Appeals, and the other is the members of the Court from which the

"CASCARETS" MAKE YOU FEEL GREAT

Gently Cleanses Your Liver and Sluggish Bowels While You Sleep.

Rick breathing, biliousness, distaste, constipated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to your diet. Cascarets make you feel good in the bowels, and your gases disappear.

Prominent poison cloged in the intestines, instead of being cast out, was absorbed and carried into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissues it causes a violent headache, a throbbing, sickening headache.

The Cascarets, astringent and purgative forces a passage-way for a day or two—then the intestinal poisons pass out and have no effect upon the liver or bowels.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and restore the stomach, nerves, liver and bowels, and after performing food and foul tasks, take the rest of the day to cleanse the body out of the system all the complicated dust, materal and poison in the body.

A Cascaret to night will surely cure you of all your troubles.

They work while you sleep a few hours, but don't you draggled around the next morning? Cascarets are the best laxative and your liver and bowels clean and regular for months.

COL. J. HAM LEWIS SETS WHITE HOUSE PRECEDENT

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, set a precedent to-day for all visitors to President Wilson at the White House. He waited patiently in the outer office until the President's secretary, Thomas M. Thawley, had fixed for him to see the President. When he informed that his time had been taken up, he asked the waiting company to let the secretary's office for preceding them into the Executive's presence.

COUNCILMEN FOR WHITEHALL WORK

Street Committee Joins in Fight for $30,000 Appropriation to Grade Regrade Street.

Councilmen's Streets Committee has joined in the fight for a $30,000 appropriation for the Whitehall Street grade regrading. The Councilmen's Committee have agreed to do the work with contractors and the property owners have subscribed $17,000 toward it. The Councilmen's Committee can be relied upon to see that the work will be executed, and leaders in the movement declare there is no doubt the Finance Committee will support it.

The Streets Committee, Friday, by a vote of eight to one, approved the plan of regrading from a solid belt between Forsyth and Peachtree Streets, presented by "Fathers of Construction," Clayton and others. The committee urged all contractors to subscribe to the improvement fund.

The propositions as made by the committee and this fact adds to the interest of the movement. The committee among the cities from which propositions for the school have been re-

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—In the presence of many prominent medical men, scientists and philanthropists, the Henry Phipps Institute for the Study of Tuberculosis and its Prevention was opened yesterday. The institute is the gift of Henry Phipps, Jr., of New York, president of the University of Pennsylvania.

The Streets Committee, Friday, by a vote of eight to one, approved the plan of regrading from a solid belt between Forsyth and Peachtree Streets, presented by "Fathers of Construction," Clayton and others. The committee urged all contractors to subscribe to the improvement fund.

STATE URGED TO STERILIZE INSANE AND AID YOUNG

Board Reports Conditions at the Asylum at Milledgeville Call for Many Reforms--Governor Is Asked to Move for Changes.

Provision for Care of Children of Feeble Mind Badly Needed, Say Directors--Protest Against the Housing of "Lunatic-Convicts."

Striking new methods of handling patients in the Georgia State Sanitarium at Milledgeville are recommended by the report of the Board of Regents, submitted to Governor Brown Friday. The most important recommendations are:

The enactment of a sterilization law applying to certain classes of criminals and defectives, modeled after recently enacted laws of New Jersey and Indiana.

A ban on the commitment of epileptics (not insane), feeble-minded children, harmless lunatics and paralytics and persons awaiting trial by plea of insanity. This is a hospital and not a prison.

The report states that poor results have been obtained at the institution in the care of insanity on account of the crowded conditions and lack of facilities for segregating and treating the durable cases apart from the criminal and non-insane.

No provision is made in our State educational system for the care and treatment of feeble-minded children," states the report. "Most of them are capable of training and can live in their happiness if given a chance."

Other recommendations of the institution should be stopped and some adequate provision made by the State for these children.

The report states that the present association of epileptics not insane in the sanitarium, pointing out that association with crazy persons tends to grow without control and also has a bad effect on the insane persons. A hospital for epileptics is recommended; and it is suggested that it should be named for T. O. Powell because of his great service he has rendered the State along such lines.

No provision is made in our State educational system for the care and treatment of feeble-minded children,"

"Do you want to come North and act as my sparring partner? Answer immediately and let me know for all time."

It is said that even Jack Johnson's knockout punch did not pain Jeff as much as Smith's offer of a sparring partner's job.

SENATE BEGINS CONSIDERATION OF TARIFF BILL

Received From House and Referred--Hearings Are Secret. Expect Vote in Nine Weeks.

Democrats Rejoice as Representatives Pass Underwood Measure by Vote of 281 to 139.

WASHINGTON, May 8--Shortly after the Senate convened to-day the Underwood tariff bill was brought forward from the House, read and referred to the Finance Committee.

In the Finance Committee the bill was assigned to sub-committee No. 2, and the whole schedule was referred to No. 2 Senators Williams, Shriver, Gore and Simmons. The remaining schedules were divided equally between sub-committees 1, 3 and 4.

Heads on the bill will be behind closed doors, the Democrats having decided that public hearings would consume too much time. It is expected that three weeks will be used by the Senate in considering the measures, and six weeks more in debate on the floor.

It also is considered certain that a number of changes will be made in the measure necessitating its reference to the conference of the House and Senate members.

On the final test in the House last night the bill passed 211 to 139, five Democrats voting against the bill and 20 Republicans voting for it. Four Progressives supported the bill and four others opposed it, while 11 others abstained.

Then he saluted a stately Democratic donkey over the heads of their colleagues in the rear of the chamber, a ripple of applause followed and the gavel fell on the first page in the name of Wilson's extra session of Congress.

PHAGAN CASE TO BE RUSHED TO GRAND JURY BY DORSEY

plus department at the National Pencil factory, was the first of the witnesses to be examined by the Solicitor. He was in Mr. Dorsey's office a considerable part of the forenoon and underwent numerous examinations.

New Witness Brought

Detectives Barnes and Campbell were with the Solicitor, and two of the Solicitor's assistants, Newton and Turner, and a good many others attended. The first thing in the morning to hunt up new witnesses of whom Mr. Dorsey had information.
Frank Quinn was called in and underwent a clear and direct interview with the Solictor and the statement he is said to have made to the detectives and to members of the Coroner's Jury he declared that he visited the factory between 12:10 and 1:30 o'clock, the afternoon of the day of the Phagan slaying.
He said he talked with Frank for ten minutes in the superintendent's office.

Detectives declared that Quinn had told them and other persons that he did not visit the factory at all that day and that he was not there from the time he left Friday until the following Monday.

Proof of Death To Be Held.

"That's about what I expected at this time," was the comment with which Leo M. Frank, with little true emotion, received the news of the action of the Coroner's Jury
Thursday night.

Deputy Sheriff William Minor was the officer who informed both Frank and Newt Lee that the jury had recommended that they be held up for charges of murder for further investigation by the Fulton County
Grand Jury.

The right watchman received the news differently and had nothing to say.

Frank and Lee are held under charges of murder, as the following variant of the Coroner's Jury will show:

Atlanta, Ga., May 8, 1913.

We, the Coroner's Jury, Imperial and Superior Penitentiary, Coroner of Fulton County, to inquire into the cause of the death of Mary Phagan, whose dead body was found before us on April 17, 1913, in the basement of an office building
in Atlanta, Georgia, and the statement of Dr.
J. W. Hurl, County Physician, find that the deceased came to her death from strangulation, and recommend that Leo M. Frank and Newt Lee be held under charge of murder for further investigation by the Fulton County

Grand Jury.

(Signed) HOMER C. ASHFOORD, Foreman.

DR. J. W. HURL, County Physician.

Mr. Dorsey said Friday he would give the Phagan case all of his attention and present his evidence to the Grand Jury as quickly as possible.

Gates In State's Hands.

"The case now is fully in the hands of the State," said the Solicitor Friday morning. "It is my desire to bring the facts of this case to the public in the greatest detail. A great crime has been done and I am no less eager to see the guilty determined than the general public."

It took the Coroner's Jury about twenty minutes to frame its formal verdict Thursday night. The jurors waited for their chief from the Coroner's Parlor and filed into the Coroner's

Chambers' room in the police station at about 11:30 p.m.
