OVER HALF OF SHREVEPORT PLEDGED TO ATLANTA

Contestants for 1914 Convention 'Have Narrowed Down to This City and Memphis.'

By JAMES B. NEVIN. DALLAS, TEXAS, May 12--Atlanta now claims, as pledged, 260 of the 460 votes in the Imperial Council for the 1914 meeting place. Memphis still is alive and the fight has seemingly narrowed down to the two cities. If Atlanta should lose the committee's recommendation the Georgians will carry the fight to the convention floor.

Potential Forer. Adair declares it is all over but the shouting. 'Atlanta will be the shrine Meas in 1914, unless I am very badly mistaken,' he said. The first cheering was received by Atlanta when the delegation arrived Sunday morning. It was the strongest vote of Texas as 'saved up' for Georgia. Then followed Oklahoma, New York, Pennsylvania, Oregon, British Columbia and Honolulu to the Georgia standard.

Memphis, however, still is a menace to Atlanta's chances. The Tennesseans claim that they were first in the field for the meeting, and they are using this argument constantly. 'Memphis' tactics may result in a dark horse selection. The committee on the next meeting place will make its selection Tuesday and inform the Imperial Council of its action either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

Atlanta Best Advertiser. 'Far and away the best advertising bill for the honor of entertaining the shrine next year is Atlanta. This form of the Yaxas Temple has been perfectly exact in Shreveport for many months, and there isn't a vestige of a mistake in its Texas metropolitan. 'Let us not hear of that great 'Atlanta spirit' and the amazing things it has accomplished heretofore. There is a feeling in the atmosphere that everything is about over, so far as next year's session is concerned, except the hurrahing for and congratulating of Atlanta.'

Bill, nobody is fretting. There was no sort of let up, not as much as a 'hint' at it, until after the vote has been taken in the Imperial Council, and Atlanta officials declared the winner. 'Port Adair's Nobles have undertaken to convince the Shriners of two things--First, that Atlanta wants the Imperial Council to be its guest next year, sincerely and earnestly, and second, that Atlanta will accept and entertain and take care of the gathering most handsomely. 'We have convinced them that we have the hotel accommodations, and we will take the bill. Write to the place as down.'

TORNADO WRECKED TOWN. GREAT BRIND, KANSAS, May 12--A tornado is reported to have struck a little town in Bradford County, Kan., killing three persons and doing considerable damage to the place as down.

BURNS CALLED INTO PHAGAN MYSTERY ON WAY FROM EUROPE

Famous American Detective Cables He Will Return Immediately In Response to Col. Felder's Plea For His Services to Capture Slayer.

William J. Burns, the world-famed detective, probably will take charge of the Phagan case.

The man who unearthed the dynamite outrage and brought the McNamee brothers to justice, will in all probability come to Atlanta within the next few days and lend his efforts toward clearing up the mystery of the death by strangulation of Mary Phagan.

This information was made public Monday following correspondence between Colonel Thomas B. Felder and Mr. Burns. The detective was called to New York by Mr. Felder's office, it is developed. Upon Mr. Burns' return by the citizens of Marietta and Marietta of the staff of work on the case he journeyed to New York for a conference with Attorney General Clegg and Mr. Burns, on the case will be a view in setting the great detective to work.

Monday it was announced that Burns was on his way to Marietta to confer with Mr. Felder on the Phagan case. Mr. Burns' warm personal friendship for Mr. Felder would be a large measure to draw the wizard into the local mystery investigation. The history of their acquaintance dates back to the South Carolina diamond graft case, which Mr. Felder prosecuted and on which the detective was employed. It was there the two met.

When the Phagan murder was committed and its baffling details confronted Atlanta police, Mr. Felder lost no time in communicating with his friend. 'That the man who has struck terror to the hearts of criminals by his marvelous knowledge of their ways and his wonderful deductive powers will quickly clear up the mystery is declared certain by those who have followed his work.

TAG DAY RECEIPTS CERTAIN TO ESTABLISH NEW RECORD AT ATLANTA GIVES LIBERALLY

Atlanta capitulated Monday to the irresistible force of the city's fastest young women. It was a willing, but costly surrender. Each of the thousands of captives, as a token of surrender, gave up some part of his or her hard-earned money and received a tag, which indicated the money was for the benefit of the Sheltering Aras Orphans' Home.

One of these tags was supposed to insure the "tagger" against being surrounded again by a group of the fair soldiers and submitting to another depletion of his exchequer. But it didn't.

The person who had any appearance of prosperity was a marked man. Few escaped without the signs of repeated surrender. Many proudly wore as many as a half dozen of the lavender tags.

Records Sure to Go. Before the Tag Day campaign was in progress long it became known that all records would be broken. The record last year was $5,100. By noon Monday the girls were bringing in buckets full of nickels, dimes and dollars to headquarters in the Peters building. The huge display of wealth was soon tied up in bags and the "leader" set off on a tour of inspection.

The campaign was well organized. Before the average business man had finished his breakfast, the girls were being mobilized at headquarters. By the time that this same business man was in the street early in his automobile en route to his office, the mobile army with hundreds of tags was waiting for him.

There was no excuse. On every corner there was one or other of the attractive, smiling girls stationed. If a person succeeded in getting by one of them without buying a tag it was only to be repeatedly stopped until he finally gave in.

The girls stood at the doors of all the public buildings. They swarmed into the offices in great numbers, attempted to make any resistance. He who did not give in was not a very comfortable man. They even invaded the Capitol, leaving everyone from Governor Brown down to the most humble attendant.

"I am sure we are going to break a record for the amount of money taken in," said Mrs. C. J. White, of the central committee. "Even if we don't we will have broken our record and that is in the number of pretty girls we have had to see in the public places."

than they were in 1912. Miss Mabel Lee Harkin is of the opinion that the men would have a Tag Day, too, if they knew how much fun it is. Miss Mabel Harkin finds the men very nice and generous, not one in a hundred refusing to help.

Mrs. W. H. Seabrook is at the Rembrandt Life Building. In charge of a party of girls. She expresses herself as delighted with the contributions. Mrs. Frances Seabrook, of Westminster, Md., is joining her and says that the Atlanta men are much more liberal than those of Baltimore.

CITIZENS OF CALIFORNIA TO VOTE ON JAPANESE LAND LAW

SACRAMENTO, May 12.—That pressure from the national administration had forced a delay in the anti-alien land legislation and that the legislature would at once order a special election in October to consider the anti-alien bill under the referendum and more drastic measures under the initiative, was reported here this afternoon. It was reported that Governor Johnson had agreed to this plan, but he would make no statement regarding the subject.

SACRAMENTO, May 12.—Referendum of the anti-alien bill to the people of California has been determined on by the Democratic leaders of the State. This was learned to-day following the receipt of a telegram from President Wilson to Governor Johnson asking him to veto the measure.

The bill was scheduled to reach Governor Johnson to-day from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, where it has been filed. It will avail itself to recall to your attention the amendments proposed to the bill. As the President has already laid his hands upon the subject, it is unnecessary to repeat the details.

It passes over the question affecting treaty rights for a second time. The President has already laid his hands upon the subject, it is unnecessary to repeat the details. The bill is to allow men to express their views on the subject by a vote at a special election.

The decision of the administration to veto the bill is a power to veto any land legislation which reaches after a series of conferences between the President, Secretary Bryan and John Bass Moore, counselor of the State Department by Ambassador China.

The Governor to-day admitted receiving the message from President Wilson, transmitted through Secretary of State Bryan, but refused to have the bill enacted by the California Legislature. It was generally believed here that eventually he would sign the measure.

It was learned that petitions calling for a referendum vote on the measure have been prepared and sent to various central points in the State. The moment the anti-alien land bill becomes a law these petitions will be circulated. It is confidently expected that a sufficient number of names to insure the call of a referendum election will be secured within a few hours after the circulation of the petition starts.

Wilson Asks Johnson To Veto Anti-Alien Bill. WASHINGTON, May 12.—President Wilson, through Secretary of State Bryan, has made a formal plea to Governor Johnson of California to veto the anti-alien land bill.

The President directs me to express his appreciation of your cooperation in the carrying out of the land bill before you are called upon to vote on it. It is believed that the Japanese Government is preparing to send a large number of immigrants to California.

The bill was scheduled to reach Governor Johnson today from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, where it has been held up.

It was avowedly nothing to recall to your attention the amended suggestion to the Legislature and President Wilson has already laid before you his views upon the subject. It is unnecessary to repeat them.

He is fully alive to the importance of removing any root of discord which may create antagonism between American citizens and the subjects of Oriental nations residing here, but he is impelled by a sense of duty to express his views upon the subject.

It is a postscript commends itself to your judgment the President will be pleased to co-operate in a systematic effort to discover which line the Governor may sign or veto in connection with land.

The decision of the administration to postpone any land bill until after the next session of the legislature is being watched with interest by the public.

Navy Short of Coal, Battleships and Men. WASHINGTON, May 12.—Alarming developments at the State Department and the White House following the delivery of Japan's protest against the California alien land bill, regarded practically as an ultimatum, has called attention to the unpopularity of the two offensive and defensive arms of the Government.

First, there is only a deceptive pretense of fighting America in ships at sea with Japan and the United States.

Second, there is not coal enough in the Pacific coast nations to maintain a battle fleet for one month on cruise.

Third, no preparation has been made by the Navy Department except to remedy the fatal negligence by establishing a sufficient coal base anywhere outside the limits of the United States proper.

Fourth, the United States will be forced, in case of hostilities in the Pacific, to make its base at San Francisco or at Puget Sound. It has not one ship there.

The Navy Department has a working arrangement with the transcontinental railroads by which they could be utilized in emergency, but so far, no specific contract for the shipment of coal to the Pacific coast has been made.

The total coal on hand in the navy yard at Puget Sound was 341,751 tons. There were contracted for 64,845 tons, which, if true, according to officials of the Navy Department, would be used in the Pacific.

OVER HALF OF SHAREHOLDERS PLEDGED TO ATLANTA

Constant for 1914 Convention Have Narrowed Down to This City and Memphis.

By JAMES B. NEVIN. DALLAS, TEXAS, May 12.—Atlanta now claims, as pledged, 250 of the 460 votes in the Imperial Council for the 1914 meeting place. Memphis still is alive and the fight has seemingly narrowed down to the two cities. If Atlanta should lose the committee's recommendation the Georgians will carry the fight to the convention floor. Potentate Forrest Adair declares it is all over but the shouting. "Atlanta will be the Shrine Mecca in 1914, unless I am very badly mistaken," he said.

Make Big Noise for Atlanta. If there is anybody in Dallas who does not know that Young Tombs, Nobles of the Myrtle Shrine is here, and has come to bring the Imperial Council to Atlanta, let them know he must be deaf, dumb and blind. The campaign on behalf of Atlanta was started the day after the arrival of Potentate Forrest Adair stepped off the train in this town. He was the first of the members of the Council to be here, and he was determined to get the vote of the town, whether or not he needed it.

Atlanta Best Advertised. Pay and away the best advertised center for the honor of entertaining the Shrine next year is Atlanta. The facts of the Young Temple have recently secured in "Shrineism" are many more, and there isn't a visiting Shriner in this Texas metropolis who hasn't heard of that great "Atlanta center" and the amazing things it has accomplished heretofore.

WILSON ASKS ANTI-JAPANESE BILL BE VETOED

Governor of California Gets Urgent Request to Delay Crisis in Acute Situation.

PRESIDENT OFFERS HIS AID

Tells Westerners He Will Be Glad to Assist in the Correction of Alien Evils.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—President Wilson, through Secretary of State Bryan, has made a formal plan to Governor Johnson, of California, to veto the alien-land bill. The message to California's Governor was framed at the White House last night. It sets forth in diplomatic language the urgency of the situation created by the demands of "Viscous Chindia, the Japanese Ambassador."

The message to Governor Johnson follows:

Two Courses Open.

The President directs me to express his appreciation of your courtesy in delaying action on the land bill now before you, until its provisions could be communicated to the Japanese Government and considered by it.

His Excellency, Baron Chinda, has, on behalf of his Government, presented an earnest protest against the measure. As you have before you two alternatives, viz. to approve the bill, or to withhold it, it will avail nothing to recall to your attention the amendments suggested to that legislation.

He passes over the question affecting treaty rights for two reasons: first, because the bill passed by the Legislature is expressly intended to conform to treaty obligations; second, because any conflict complained of would be a matter for the courts, but the President feels justified in expressing anxiety that his desire that action on the subject be deferred to the extent that he expresses the desire the more freely because the Legislature can be recovered at any time if the welfare of the State requires it.

He is fully alive to the importance of removing any root of discord which may create antagonism between American citizens and the subjects of Oriental nations residing here, but he is impressed by some of the data on this point, and he hopes that you will see fit to allow time for diplomatic negotiations, and to postpone the proposed law for friendly negotiations—negotiations that have shown themselves willing to cooperate in the establishment of harmonious relations between their people and ours.

President offers aid.

If a postponement commends itself to your judgment the President will be pleased to co-operate in a systematic effort to discover and correct any evils that may exist in connection with land ownership by aliens.

The decision of the administration to urge Governor Johnson to use his power of veto to postpone the bill legislation was reached after a series of conferences between the President, Secretary Bryan and John Hays Moore, counselor of the State Department, and frequent calls at the department by Ambassador Chinda. It was realized that any further attempt to have the bill enacted by the California Legislature would be fruitless, since Secretary Bryan's reply to Sacramento was unambiguous and the Legislature is to adjourn next Tuesday.

Until Governor Johnson's reply is received the Government probably will make no reply to the protest of Japan further than to acquiesce in the Ambassador with the fact that every possible effort has been made to have action in California delayed, pending settlement of the problems involved by diplomacy.

To be sure, the immediate thing in hand is the session of the Imperial Council now on in Dallas, but the first thing an Atlanta delegate says to a brother Noble, after making himself known, is "How about the Imperial Council thing for Atlanta next year?"

MOBILE, ALA., May 12.—August Belling, member of prominent family here, while attempting to enter a front window of the home of Charles Schreiner, of the Commercial University street, was mistaken for a burglar and shot by the latter.

There is a feeling in the atmosphere that everything is about over, for the year's session of the Imperial Council has been perfectly secure in attendance for many moons, and there isn't a visiting Shriner in the Texas metropolis who hasn't heard of that great Atlanta spirit, and the amazing things it has accomplished heretofore.

There is no difficulty in convincing people that Atlanta is a fine place to visit at any time and for any purpose. Everybody has heard of Atlanta, and knows it is a great city. The very term "Atlanta spirit" comes readily to the lips of every Atlanta man; unless aware. Some have wondered, however, if a city the size of Atlanta can take care of the Imperial Council, and the big influx of visitors it brings into a city always.

"When I show them that we are prepared to take care of 40,000 visitors in five days, however, they get away from that point in a hurry. The boys attending the Imperial Council, I believe, generally run around forty thousand."

"I hope the boys back home understand how enthusiastic our bunch is. We have come here to land the next year's meeting, and we are going to land it. You see, the Georgian that I say we are coming home with the boys."

PHAGAN CASE IS DELAYED

Not Likely to Go to Grand Jury This Week

More Time Taken to Strengthen Evidence

Evidence in the Phagan case may not be presented to the Grand Jury this week. This was the intimation given by Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey Monday morning, as he began the process of elimination of the unimportant matter contained in the great mass of evidence collected by the Coroner's jury and police officials.

The postponement of its presentation to the Grand Jury is to permit the collection in systematic form of all the essential details of the evidence. Dorsey declared Monday that the case would not be given to the Grand Jury until he carefully had sifted all of the evidence obtained.

He explained Monday morning that he had no idea at what time the case would get to the Grand Jury, other than that the latest possible moment after a "case is made out." Foreman L. H. Beck, of the Grand Jury, asserted the jurymen were under orders to hold themselves in readiness for a call from the Solicitor to sit on the case.

"While the jury has the right to ask the Solicitor to present the case at any time, we will wait until he says he is ready," said Beck. "We are holding ourselves in readiness and can assemble in a comparatively short while."

The Solicitor said to-day that the case may be presented to the Grand Jury at an early date, but that it would be held up by the fact that a great deal of the evidence is still being collected by the Coroner's jury and police officials.

Mr. Dorsey also made it clear to-day that he was depending largely on the efforts of his private detective, who he said is in the country, who will be looking for the murderer of the man who was killed in the case.

The detective's name is not known, but it is believed that he is working on the case under the direction of Assistant District Attorney H. C. Beck, through City Detective Frank P. Hester, who is in charge of the Pinkerton work in connection with the city police.

Mr. Beck was reported by Mr. Dorsey to have been in the city for some time, and he is believed to have been looking for the murderer of the man who was killed in the case.

The case is believed to be one of the most important ones that have come up in the history of the city, and it is believed that it will be one of the most important ones that have come up in the history of the city.

FORMER JUDGE CANDLER ON LACK OF RESPECT FOR THE LAW

John S. Candler, now Alderman, and former Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and previous to this judge in the Superior Court, made an address to the graduating class of the Atlanta Law School in which he said:

"The idea of taking an ignorant man, working on him until 4 o'clock in the morning, then taking him in a flashlight in his face and saying, 'We know you killed somebody,' is worse than the Spanish inquisition. Such a practice has no place in the law, and that's why the public are losing confidence in and respect for the officers of the court."

"A detective who would voluntarily go on the stand ought not to be believed. The purpose of a detective is to find evidence, and not to swear that the evidence he has is true. The detective is interested to convict the man whom his evidence involves, and therefore he is not a competent witness."

MILITANT RIOTS GIVE BIG BOOST TO INSURANCE

Damage Already Reaches Into Millions--Golf Links Are Protected Against Loss.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS GUARDED
Attack on House of Lords Planned by Suffrage Leaders as Next Move.

LONDON, May 11.—Inquiries instituted at Lloyd's have developed the fact that the insurance companies are reaping a golden harvest as a result of aggressive insurrection. Business has received a great impetus both from the insurance of golf links as well as from the fire risk.

Numerous golf clubs have insured against revenue losses as the result of militant interference, while others have taken out policies insuring golf greens against damage by suffragettes. The premiums charged are 25 per cent in excess of the normal rate of the underwriters liability being $250 on each green.

Estimates of the financial loss caused by suffragette outrages, prepared for the Home Secretary, put the amount at $5,000,000. This sum does not include the expense of employing large numbers of constabulary, military and watchmen to protect ministers, public buildings and meetings.

Arrests Check Riots.

In spite of the general increase of the past week and although the militants are keeping up a strong bluff, their organization has been broken by recent arrests of leaders. The militant are now being committed as the handiwork of suffragettes working independently, and the authorities believe that the removing of the central controlling influences will break up the conspiracy of destruction.

250 SHRINER VOTES OUT OF 460 PLEDGED TO ATLANTA

"TAG DAY" SECURES LARGE SUMS FOR UNFORTUNATE CHILDREN

MORE THAN HALF OF SHRINE VOTE PLEDGED FOR ATLANTA; BOOSTERS SURE OF VICTORY

By JAMES B. NEVIN.
 DALLAS, TEXAS, May 12.—Atlanta now claims, as pledged, 250 of the 460 votes in the Imperial Council for the 1914 meeting place. Memphis still is alive and the fight has seemingly narrowed down to the two cities.
 If Atlanta should lose the committee's recommendation the Georgians will carry the fight to the convention floor.
 "Patents' Forrest Adair declares it is all over but the shouting." Atlanta will be the Shrine Mecca in 1914, unless I am very badly mistaken," he said.
 "The first meeting here is covered by Atlanta," he said. "The second meeting will be at the Shrine in Memphis, and the third at the Shrine in Atlanta." Atlanta will be the Shrine Mecca in 1914, unless I am very badly mistaken," he said.

U. S. to Prosecute Firms Cutting Pay As Tariff Revenge

"They'll Land Behind Bars if They Try to Intimidate Congress," Says Senator Williams.
 WASHINGTON, May 12.—The criminal clauses of the Sherman anti-trust act and the prosecuting power of the Department of Justice will be used in defense of the reductions in duty prescribed by the Underwood tariff bill.
 If combinations are found among employers to restrain trade and intimidate Congress by cutting wages and closing factory doors, criminal suits will be instituted.
 "The protected interests are coming to us with the same old plea that they are threatened with ruin," said Senator Williams. "They threaten to cut wages or assert that it will be necessary to cut them. This is plain, by intended to intimidate Congress if it should be discovered the interests are combining in this purpose, the Sherman anti-trust act is sufficient broad to cover such acts, and we may land behind bars those combinations." TAG DAY RECEIPTS CERTAIN TO ESTABLISH NEW RECORD; ATLANTA GIVES LIBERALLY

Atlanta capitulated Monday to an irresistible force of the city's fairest young women. It was a willing, but costly surrender.
 Each of the thousands of captives, as a token of surrender, gave up some part of his or her hard-earned money and received a tag which indicated the money was for the benefit of the Shiloh Army Orphan's Home.
 One of these tags was supposed to insure the "tagger" against being surrounded and seized by a group of the fair soldiers and submitting to another depletion of his exchequer. But it didn't.
 The person who had any appearance of prosperity was a marked man, and his tag was a sure thing.

Mayor Declares He Earns Pay Watching Council Politicians

Makes Hot Reply to New Attack by Thomas—Speech Continues to Grow.
 "If I did nothing more than watch the Council I would more than earn my salary," declared Mayor Woodward Monday in answer to Albert Thomas's charge that the Mayor's office had become a necessity in the city government.
 "As a matter of fact," continued Mr. Woodward, "the charges are not worth the waste of breath in answering them, still I want to assure the people of Atlanta that I have my hands full watching the politicians, and I am going to continue to watch them and their activities."
 Councilman Thomas's attack on the Mayor, the second he has made within a fortnight, has been much more discussed than his first, because it follows Council's vindication of the officials accused of graft.
 "Politicians assure that the breach between the Mayor and a number of the Councilmen is beyond hope of repair."

CALL DETECTIVE BURNS TO UNRAVEL PHAGAN MYSTERY; HURRIES BACK FROM EUROPE

William J. Burns, the world-famed detective, probably will take charge of the Phagan case.
 The man who unearthed the dynamite outrage and brought the McNamara brothers to justice, will in all probability come to Atlanta within the next few days and lend his efforts toward clearing up the mystery of the death by strangulation of Mary Phagan.
 This information was made public Monday following correspondence between Colonel Thomas B. Felder and Mr. Burns since the discovery of the body in the pencil factory.
 Mr. Burns is now on his way from Europe, and will arrive on Tuesday of the following day. Upon his arrival in New York he will confer with Detectives there and then proceed to Atlanta.
 Credit Largely Due Felder.
 The services of Mr. Burns have been secured largely through the efforts of Mr. Felder. It has developed that Mr. Felder's retention by the Atlanta Police and relatives of the McNamara brothers to work on the case in New York for a considerable period of time was a factor in his being called to Atlanta.

CITIZENS OF CALIFORNIA TO VOTE ON JAPANESE LAND LAW

Democratic Leaders Decide on Referendum Following President Wilson's Request for Johnson's Veto.

SACRAMENTO, May 12.—Referendum of the anti-alien bill to the people of California has been determined on by the Democratic leaders of the State.

This was learned to-day following the receipt of a telegram from President Wilson to Governor Johnson asking him to veto the measure.

The bill was scheduled to reach Governor Johnson to-day from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, where it has been held up. The session of the Legislature ends to-day and under the provisions of the constitution 30 days elapse during which time the Governor may sign or veto the bill.

Wilson Asks Johnson To Veto Anti-Alien Bill. WASHINGTON, May 12.—President Wilson, through Secretary of State Bryan, has made a formal plea to Governor Johnson of California, to veto the alien-land bill.

The message to California's Governor was framed at the White House last night. It sets forth in diplomatic language the urgency of the situation created by the demands of the Viscount Okuma, the Japanese Ambassador.

Two Courses Open. The President directs me to express his appreciation of your courtesy in delaying action on the land bill before you, until its provisions could be communicated to the Japanese Government and considered by it.

It is my conviction that the Japanese Government, presented in earnest protest against the measure, as you have before you two alternative bills, will approve or veto it with all the care and deliberation that it will afford.

The measure in California is a two-pronged attack. It is directed against the Japanese, and it is directed against the Chinese.

Raymond Burns, son of William J. Burns, on the case with a view to getting the arrest detective to come here.

At that time the older Burns, was in Europe investigating the disappearance of William J. Burns, and upon being called by Mr. Volker's desire he returned to this city to assist him in his search.

Munday it was announced that Burns was on his way to Hartford to see the police.

It was definitely learned Monday that Chief Lanford had not completely eliminated New Lee, the negro night watchman of the pencil factory.

When the Phagan murder was committed and the baffling details of the crime unfolded, Mr. Volker lost no time in communicating with his friend.

With that in mind, Mr. Burns was called to this city to assist in the investigation.
