

Atlanta Edition of The American... Atlanta, Ga., Sunday, June 1, 1913

Captain Scott's Tragic Death in Polar Wastes Told in Photographs

THE SUNDAY AMERICAN, in this issue, publishes seven pictures—the only ones in existence—showing the last dash of the ill-fated Scott expedition to the South Pole.

death in which Captain Scott and his brave comrades perished; and lastly they show the cairn marking the final resting place of these heroic men.

These pictures are the most remarkable ever published of a similar tragedy and give some idea of the terrors of the Antarctic wastes.

DRSEY'S GRILL AILS TO MAKE DONLEY PAID IN IT LAND IN KILLING

es Not Deviate in Least From Detailed Story Despite Traps to Snare Him.

ANK APPEARS PLEASSED

isoner Tells His Friends That Sweeper's Affidavit is Good News to Him.

A grueling cross-examination of a witness... Did Not Accuse Conley.

Frank... Police Seal Meeting of Two.

Fish Overrun Lake At Piedmont; Carey Lifts Ban on Angling

Public Invited to Tangle Mischiefous Bream That Persist in Nibbling Fair Bathers' "Tooties."

Fish have become so plentiful in Piedmont Park and so persistent in nibbling fair bathers' "tooties."

All entreaties of enthusiastic anglers have been rebuffed by Manager Carey.

The lake was stocked with thousands of little bream by the Federal Government three years ago.

"June is to be the annual fishing month," said Manager Carey.

"No one person at all catch over six fish."

"All fish caught beneath pan size must be thrown back."

Cigarette Wins Wife For Austrian Officer

New York, Chicago, Budapest Gift Likes Brand of Tobacco and Brand of Very-Solid Love.

NEW YORK, May 31.—I'm on the verge of the finest soldier in Austria and all because of a cigarette," said Miss Rosa Roth.

Miss Roth was smoking in a cafe in Budapest.

Did Not Accuse Conley.

Frank... Police Seal Meeting of Two.

VANDERBILT TO GET $1,000,000 FROM CARNEGIE

Benevolent Is to Build and Maintain Laboratories in Charge of Eminent Scientists.

ONE-FIFTH AVAILABLE NOW

Income, From Remainder To Be Paid Annually to Medical School of University.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Although many stations have declined for the reason, as they admit, that they are poor spellers and "were not going to stand up there and make barned fools of themselves."

The challenges had its origin in the comment by Chairman Underwood of the Ways and Means Committee.

Suspicious Sailors Damage Inspector

Vessel's Accident and Kalar's Refusal to Make Trial-Trip Brand Her "Jonah Ship."

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE AMERICAN.

LONDON, May 31.—A large portion of the equipment and furnishings of the inspector have been irreparably damaged by vandals.

These acts are believed to have been committed by workmen who were engaged at being forced to accompany the ship to a desolate part of the coast near Carlsberg.

Georgia Man Drowns Saving Friend's Life

John D. Arley, of Savannah, Victim of the Sea at Wrightsville Beach.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 31.—John D. Arley, 33 years old, lost his life at Wrightsville Beach this afternoon in a boating accident.

At Villa Rica.

But meager reports from the storm-swept district have been received, because the wind played havoc with telephones and telegraph wires.

The storm seemed to have originated in the mountains at the headwaters of the Chattahoochee and Etowah rivers.

Reports from Fairburn are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

GALE SWEEPS ATLANTA; ONE DEAD IN STATE

Storm in Which Does Heavy Damage in This City Covers Wide Area.

MANY SECTIONS ISOLATED

Loss Here From Terrible Wind Will Reach Thousands—All Traffic Halted.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

Ethel Barrymore in Quarantine

Little Daughter Has Diphtheria

Ethel Barrymore (Mrs. Russell Griswold Colt), and her two children.

Storm in Which Does Heavy Damage in This City Covers Wide Area.

MANY SECTIONS ISOLATED

Loss Here From Terrible Wind Will Reach Thousands—All Traffic Halted.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

One man is dead and another seriously injured as the result of the storm that swept over Atlanta and adjacent territory Saturday afternoon.

A man named Besser was killed by lightning at the river bridge just out of Cartersville.

STEVENS BOY TRAPS NEGRO PAIR SOUGHT AS SLAYERS

Son Points Out on Atlanta Street Two Suspects in McDonough Road Fire Mystery—Success Comes as Hunt is Given Up.

Prisoners Are Placed in Solitary Confinement Preparatory to Grilling—Both Are Caught in Falsehoods, Police Declare.

Wilkes, Who Says That He is a Preacher, Admits He Marked Bible Found in His Cabin Near the Scene of the Tragedy.

To a youth of 16—Wade Stevens—once himself suspected of playing a part in the burning of the McDonough Road fire, which killed a young girl and her mother.

The lad, who was arrested a few days ago in Chattanooga at the recommendation of a clergyman, first dispiritedly denied the charge.

The searchers, Detective Royster of the local force; Lee M. Johnson, a close friend of the Stevens family; and young Stevens, were just about to give up the hunt after an exhaustive automobile tour of the city.

There are two men and a few moments later Walter Wilkes, a Negro, who had been supplied with a revolver, household and street sign, and an Indian hall-door, were hanging around the place.

Both suspects, denying their guilt, are held in cells in the police station in solitary confinement.

Raw Food Champion On Trans-U. S. Hike

Athlete Tests Efficiency of Uncooked Diet for Those Taking Violent Exercise.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Larry Bink, 41 years old, a member of the Irish-American Athletic Club, will leave Coney Island on a long hike for San Francisco some day during the coming week in an effort to prove that a man can thrive on an uncooked diet, though taking violent exercise.

When the family physician diagnosed the almost asphyxiated baby as diphtheria, the mother hastened with the child to the hospital.

Reports from Fairburn are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

ACCESS FORCED TO ABANDON THEATRICAL ENGAGEMENTS AND TRIP TO EUROPE.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Ethel Barrymore, in private life Mrs. Russell Griswold Colt, is spending a two-week quarantine in the Altmar hospital in this city, where her 13-year-old daughter is confined with diphtheria.

When the family physician diagnosed the almost asphyxiated baby as diphtheria, the mother hastened with the child to the hospital.

Reports from Fairburn are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

Heavy wind and rain were reported at Newnan, in Coweta County.

Reports from Marietta are that the storm was intense in that section.

The Weather. Unsettled Sunday. Local shower. Monday fair.

VOL. I. NO. 9. Copyright, 1913, by The Hearst Company.

ATLANTA, GA., SUNDAY, JUNE 1, 1913. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

WHICH OF THESE CALLS IS FOR YOU? Calls from country to city by those who want good help. As usual, the people at the Summer resorts need all the efficient assistance they can get.

SUNDAY AMERICAN AND DAILY GEORGIAN WANT AD SECTION

Continued on Page 4, Column 2.

CONLEY'S NEW POLICE FILED IN TWO DAYS OLD POLICE REPORTER

Attorney Rosser Is Reflected in Policy of Silence of Man Accused of Murder of Mary Phagan--Negro Is Trying to Free Self by Falseness.

By AN OLD POLICE REPORTER.

Developments came thick and fast during the past week, and one is able to approach consideration of the Phagan case to-day with more assurance and ease of mind than heretofore.

Distinctly here the clouds lifted, so I think, from about Leo Frank and from yet are they in the deep brown of the ocean buried, they have nevertheless taken it to be a necessary part of the sunshine in Leo Frank, searching eagerly at that falling ray of blessed and three-welcome light, may think Conley did it in order to be way of an impulse of sympathy or impulse of self-interest.

If I were a detective, I would not, I think, be so sure of Conley's guilt, and should begin to complete in solemn and certain analysis the shifts and shadings of his story.

In my opinion, however, stated that Conley is an uneducated man, that all the way through, and that the truth is not in his favor.

His statement appears to me to be a confession, and that the truth is not in his favor.

Leo Frank's favor that he has been pronounced.

Would believe in anything, certainly, if Frank did it, he should be able to show that he was the one who did it, and that he was the one who was guilty of the crime.

There can be no compromise here, either Frank is guilty or he is innocent, and the truth of that is what we must get at.

They will be "good and true," to say.

For twelve men, looked carefully, the trial and the defense each excelling in their own way, and the result, a jury likely to be in a jury verdict.

At least, that is the theory of the case.

Solomon cited three strange things as the strands of all things—the way of an eagle in the air, a serpent upon a rock, and a man with a nail.

Frank's innocent of all.

In Solomon's day, however, they did not have trial by jury, and I feel sure its majority would have added the way of a jury with a defendant who had not exceeded "strange things!"

The wind blows in where it lists, and no man knoweth where it cometh or whither it goeth, and by the same token, the verdict of a jury is not a matter of mere speculation.

Therefore, although the uncertainty of these people who delight to indulge in speculation, and who are so ready to engage their minds, that they killed Mary Phagan? Second, what was Frank's defense? Third, what was the jury's verdict? Fourth, what was the result?

One thing is certain, that the jury will acquit Frank unless there is some evidence of guilt, and that will be the result of the case.

There will be no recommendation of mercy, if it is found guilty, for that would make it obvious.

Therefore, although the uncertainty of these people who delight to indulge in speculation, and who are so ready to engage their minds, that they killed Mary Phagan? Second, what was Frank's defense? Third, what was the jury's verdict? Fourth, what was the result?

One thing is certain, that the jury will acquit Frank unless there is some evidence of guilt, and that will be the result of the case.

There will be no recommendation of mercy, if it is found guilty, for that would make it obvious.

Therefore, although the uncertainty of these people who delight to indulge in speculation, and who are so ready to engage their minds, that they killed Mary Phagan? Second, what was Frank's defense? Third, what was the jury's verdict? Fourth, what was the result?

One thing is certain, that the jury will acquit Frank unless there is some evidence of guilt, and that will be the result of the case.

There will be no recommendation of mercy, if it is found guilty, for that would make it obvious.

Therefore, although the uncertainty of these people who delight to indulge in speculation, and who are so ready to engage their minds, that they killed Mary Phagan? Second, what was Frank's defense? Third, what was the jury's verdict? Fourth, what was the result?

One thing is certain, that the jury will acquit Frank unless there is some evidence of guilt, and that will be the result of the case.

There will be no recommendation of mercy, if it is found guilty, for that would make it obvious.

Therefore, although the uncertainty of these people who delight to indulge in speculation, and who are so ready to engage their minds, that they killed Mary Phagan? Second, what was Frank's defense? Third, what was the jury's verdict? Fourth, what was the result?

One thing is certain, that the jury will acquit Frank unless there is some evidence of guilt, and that will be the result of the case.

There will be no recommendation of mercy, if it is found guilty, for that would make it obvious.

Conley's Story Cinches Case Against Frank, Says Lanford

He Has Told the Whole Truth--There's Not a Lawyer Who Can Shake Him,' Asserts Chief.

JIM CONLEY has told the whole truth--there's not the shadow of a doubt about it. We feel perfectly satisfied now with the case against Frank. If we had the least suspicion that his story were false, we could not feel satisfied--we would be puzzled and worried just as much as when the crime was first committed.

Conley's evidence cinches the case against Frank.

Frank will go on the witness stand in the trial of Frank and tell his story just as he has told it to the officers. There's not a lawyer in the whole United States--no matter how shrewd he may be--who could shake that negro's testimony--because it's the truth. No person could doubt this after seeing him re-enact that tragedy in the pencil factory Friday. It was the most dramatic and remarkable spectacle ever witnessed here, and thoroughly convinced us that the negro was acting a role vividly impressed on his mind from already having portrayed it in tragic realism.

Conley's story makes the case against Frank direct and positive. It is no longer a case of circumstantial evidence. We were already convinced that we could convict Frank with the web of circumstances woven about him, but now we have direct evidence on which to rely, and which is corroborated by this maze of condemning circumstances.

Conley will make no further confession--there's none for him to make. There is not a feature of his story that causes me to doubt that he has told all he knows.

From the very first we suspected that Frank was guilty, but we were never prejudiced against him. We have entertained every possible theory and worked on many different lines, as have all of the detectives on the case, and have been open to conviction. But every bit of real evidence unearched pointed to Frank, and now the confession of Conley makes it all plain--NEWPORT LANFORD, Chief of Detectives.

POLICE REPORTERS HAVE BEEN TREMENDOUS AID IN SOLVING MYSTERY

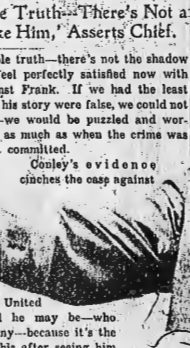

Perhaps as many of the great murder mysteries of history have been solved through the efforts of newspapermen assigned by newspapers to "cover" criminal cases--as have been solved by detectives. At any rate, the police will always admit that police reporters have had a large part in the solution of the mystery in a case of this sort the police reporters' analysis is particularly valuable. In the case of the Phagan murder, the police will admit that the police reporters' analysis is particularly valuable.

Public Opinion Made. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Jim Conley, who has told the whole truth about the Phagan case.

Today Is Mary Phagan's Birthday, Mother Tells of Party She Planned

Parents Intended to Give Child Happy Surprise--Now They Will Strive to Flowers on Her Grave in Marietta Churchyard.

By MIGNON HALL.

This will be the saddest Sunday with Mary Phagan's family since that fatal Sunday just five weeks ago when the little girl's body was found hidden away in the basement of the National "Bowl" factory.

For today is Mary's birthday, and it had been planned by her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coleman, that they would give her a party. If she had lived it would have been celebrated last night in her little home on Monday Street, where she had spent the past fifteen months of her life.

Most of her life she had lived in the country, her mother said, and she had always worked for Mrs. Coleman. Her mother said she had a little pocket with a little bit of a heart on it. It was pretty, and Mary took a great liking to it and wore it all the time. It had bought another one just before she got killed.

Mother Broken-Hearted. The mother's life was a tragedy. She had a father who had worked for her, and she had a mother who had worked for her. She had a little pocket with a little bit of a heart on it. It was pretty, and Mary took a great liking to it and wore it all the time. It had bought another one just before she got killed.

Conley's story makes the case against Frank direct and positive. It is no longer a case of circumstantial evidence. We were already convinced that we could convict Frank with the web of circumstances woven about him, but now we have direct evidence on which to rely, and which is corroborated by this maze of condemning circumstances.

Conley will make no further confession--there's none for him to make. There is not a feature of his story that causes me to doubt that he has told all he knows.

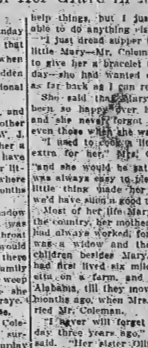

From the very first we suspected that Frank was guilty, but we were never prejudiced against him. We have entertained every possible theory and worked on many different lines, as have all of the detectives on the case, and have been open to conviction. But every bit of real evidence unearched pointed to Frank, and now the confession of Conley makes it all plain--NEWPORT LANFORD, Chief of Detectives.

Public Opinion Made. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Mrs. W. J. Coleman, mother of Mary Phagan.

Conley's story makes the case against Frank direct and positive. It is no longer a case of circumstantial evidence. We were already convinced that we could convict Frank with the web of circumstances woven about him, but now we have direct evidence on which to rely, and which is corroborated by this maze of condemning circumstances.

Conley will make no further confession--there's none for him to make. There is not a feature of his story that causes me to doubt that he has told all he knows.

From the very first we suspected that Frank was guilty, but we were never prejudiced against him. We have entertained every possible theory and worked on many different lines, as have all of the detectives on the case, and have been open to conviction. But every bit of real evidence unearched pointed to Frank, and now the confession of Conley makes it all plain--NEWPORT LANFORD, Chief of Detectives.

Public Opinion Made. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Mrs. W. J. Coleman, mother of Mary Phagan.

Conley's story makes the case against Frank direct and positive. It is no longer a case of circumstantial evidence. We were already convinced that we could convict Frank with the web of circumstances woven about him, but now we have direct evidence on which to rely, and which is corroborated by this maze of condemning circumstances.

Conley will make no further confession--there's none for him to make. There is not a feature of his story that causes me to doubt that he has told all he knows.

From the very first we suspected that Frank was guilty, but we were never prejudiced against him. We have entertained every possible theory and worked on many different lines, as have all of the detectives on the case, and have been open to conviction. But every bit of real evidence unearched pointed to Frank, and now the confession of Conley makes it all plain--NEWPORT LANFORD, Chief of Detectives.

Public Opinion Made. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

DORSEY HINTS AT PLANS OF STATE

Continued From Page 1.

Public Opinion Made. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Conley Badly Frightened. There are those who wonder who Frank, innocent, if he is, so positively declines to see the public in the case for the public information. In the first place, I may answer to him, Frank has employed for his defense the most discreet and successful attorney in Atlanta, Lanford Rosser, and ever has been the representation of silence when allowed to speak in the matter of a thing things to himself. He has known Solons has nothing to say about Frank and to talk particularly when he (Rosser) was asked to make any public statement, by declining to try his case in the public papers. Frank has employed such common sense.

Established 1865 EISEMAN BROS., Inc. Incorporated 1912

READ WHAT WE SAY!

AND LEARN WHERE AMERICA'S BEST CLOTHES ARE TO BE HAD. We are exclusive representatives in Atlanta of SEVEN OF THE MOST NOTABLE MAKERS OF MEN'S CLOTHES IN THE COUNTRY.

Amongst such a superb and representative collection of models, every style is thoroughly and exhaustively represented. The ENGLISH, and Semi-English, the NORFOLK in every version of the vogue; the conservative cut, too, all at their very best; handsomely tailored; beautifully finished; intensely correct in line; and made of highly finished fabrics in the popular colors, and modish mixtures.

Cool Canadian Crash Suits!

Extremely light in weight; two-piece models, coats tailored lined; all seams piped with silk; handsomely finished; fine fitting garments. Made of GENUINE CANADIAN CRASH in tan, light and dark, solid colors, and with peniciled effects. Extremely neat, dressy and comfortable.

$15--to--$35 Mohair Suits

Unconscious in weight, neat in appearance, and serviceable, the MOHAIR SUIT is a popular favorite, and thousands of men wear them. We have a splendid collection of MOHAIRS in dark colors, with pin and shadow stripes. All sizes, for all phases of slims and statures of stouts, as well as the range of normal sizes.

Cool Straw Headgear $1.50 and Up

Unconscious underwear of unconscious weight, 800 the garment up.

'HESS' Shoes, Blucher Models, English Last--Fine Modish Tans--$5--$6--$7

Eiseman Bros., Inc.

11-13-15-17 WHITEHALL

CUBA GABLES NATION'S THANKS TO MR. HEARST

ADMIRAL SIGSBEE PRAISES BUILDERS OF MONUMENT

I break my usual reserve and refer here, voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Continued From Page 1.

A young officer engaged in deep-sea exploration for the Government. He said in part: It lies on white bottom, in the water, and cold nearly to the freezing point. At or near that point I also found the bottom profusely covered with frozen stems, the heavy long stemmed sea lilies of varied hues and extreme delicacy of shape.

The Maine at the time of her destruction was under my command. I knew her people in life, I saw many of them when they were dead. I saw the bodies of the officers and crew around by the Maine will remain with me till I die.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Admiral Thanks Hearst. I break my usual reserve and refer here voluntarily, to my connection of fact and sentiment with the Maine in order that I may venture to attach to myself for this moment a sufficiently representative character regarding the Maine and her dead to offer my hearty appreciation and my sincere congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, to General James Grant Wilson, and his committee, to the subscribers to the fund, to the sculptor and architect, and to all others whose patriotic efforts have contributed to the erection of this noble and beautiful monument which we know accords with the hallowed sentiment of a whole people—ADMIRAL SIGSBEE.

Scott's Bitter Disappointment--He Arrives at the Pole Only To Find Capt. Amundsen's Tent and Flag

THE upper photograph shows Captain Scott peering into the tent erected by Captain Amundsen at the South Pole. The tent is in excellent condition, and one which would furnish adequate protection against Antarctic weather. Standing about it, from left to right, are Captain Oates, Petty Officer Evans, Captain Scott and Dr. Wilson. This is a most remarkable photograph, showing, as it does, the arrival of the Scott party at the South Pole, and at the same time the evidence of the triumph of Captain Amundsen. Flying above the tent is to be seen the Norwegian flag which Amundsen left flying as evidence of his victory.

In the lower photograph Captain Scott and his companions are shown starting their final dash over the ice and snow to the South Pole. Hauling the heavy sledges themselves, they covered the distance of more than 50 1/2 miles on skis. Some idea of the difficulties of their travel may be obtained by a glance at the weighted sledges shown in this picture.

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY

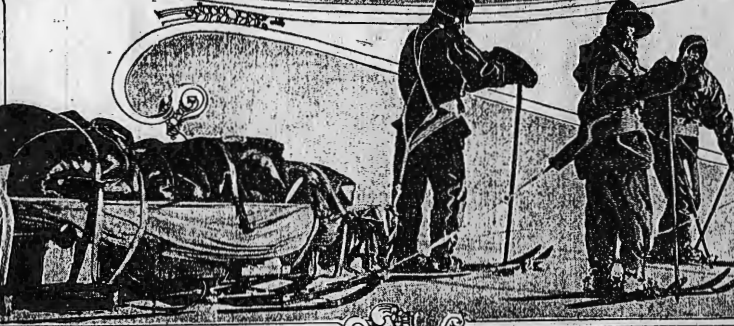

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY

The Maine and Her Crew

By JAMES J. MONTAGUE.

THE sea gull whistles above her grave,
The moon sets by at night,
And trails along from wave to wave
A waft of silver light.

THE clinging coral wreathes her round;
The star dust, through the deeps
Sifts down to raise the funeral mound,
Where quietly she sleeps.

THE unmarked grave; but still her name
The world shall echo through,
As shall the story and the fame
Of her devoted crew.

YET while the traces with scented breath
Shall stir the created deep,
The story of that night of death,
Shall make the pulses leap.

On field or deck, by land or sea--
Such glory as was theirs.

ATLANTA GLANS TO 'GATHER' IN JUNE FOR PICNIC

Scots of City to Make Merry and Arrange Annual Outing at Meeting This Week.

A "gatherin' of the clans" has been called by W. A. Somerville, secretary of the Atlanta Scottish Association, for June 4 at 8 o'clock in the evening to formulate plans for the annual outing of the association.

The "gatherin'" will be held in the K. of P. Hall, in the Kiser Building. Hunter and Errol Stewart, and all who "claim" old Scotch ancestry are urged to attend and have a voice in the completion of the arrangements.

Secretary Somerville and Chief Cruikshank have sent out to the members of the association the following characteristic Scotch postal card:

"The 'gatherin' o' the clans' o' the Atlanta Scottish Association, on Friday, June 4, 1913, in the K. of P. Hall, Kiser Building, Hunter and Errol Stewart, are invited to attend and have a voice in the completion of the arrangements. 'Dinna forget to meet us at auld 'dook at eight on the sixth day o' June. 'Scotch sangs, Scotch stories and Scotch frolics will mak' ye glad ye can!'"

Big Picnic Planned. The annual picnic of the Atlanta Scottish Association is being planned for the first Friday of this month in the K. of P. Hall, Kiser Building, Hunter and Errol Stewart, and all who "claim" old Scotch ancestry are urged to attend and have a voice in the completion of the arrangements.

The picnic will be held in the K. of P. Hall, Kiser Building, Hunter and Errol Stewart, and all who "claim" old Scotch ancestry are urged to attend and have a voice in the completion of the arrangements.

Beats All How "GETS-IT" Gets Corns!

"How I Did Suffer From Corns for 'GETS-IT' Out 'Corn' All in a Few Days!"

The monument to the man of the ill-fated battleship Maine. The friendship of the United States toward Cuba was demonstrated by the invitation asking our officers and troops to actively participate in the ceremonies.

The ceremony which was held on the 25th of May was held in New York to represent the Maine.

The monument to the man of the ill-fated battleship Maine. The friendship of the United States toward Cuba was demonstrated by the invitation asking our officers and troops to actively participate in the ceremonies.

The ceremony which was held on the 25th of May was held in New York to represent the Maine.

The monument to the man of the ill-fated battleship Maine. The friendship of the United States toward Cuba was demonstrated by the invitation asking our officers and troops to actively participate in the ceremonies.

The ceremony which was held on the 25th of May was held in New York to represent the Maine.

The monument to the man of the ill-fated battleship Maine. The friendship of the United States toward Cuba was demonstrated by the invitation asking our officers and troops to actively participate in the ceremonies.

The ceremony which was held on the 25th of May was held in New York to represent the Maine.

The monument to the man of the ill-fated battleship Maine. The friendship of the United States toward Cuba was demonstrated by the invitation asking our officers and troops to actively participate in the ceremonies.

The ceremony which was held on the 25th of May was held in New York to represent the Maine.

The monument to the man of the ill-fated battleship Maine. The friendship of the United States toward Cuba was demonstrated by the invitation asking our officers and troops to actively participate in the ceremonies.

The ceremony which was held on the 25th of May was held in New York to represent the Maine.

The monument to the man of the ill-fated battleship Maine. The friendship of the United States toward Cuba was demonstrated by the invitation asking our officers and troops to actively participate in the ceremonies.

The ceremony which was held on the 25th of May was held in New York to represent the Maine.

Maine Monument Fund Raised by Public With Aid of Hearst Papers

NEW YORK, May 31.—The fund with which the National Maine monument was built was raised by William Randolph Hearst's newspapers. The idea of the monument to the Maine was conceived by the late Senator John A. Spooner. It was his wish that the nation should honor the Maine by erecting a monument to her memory. The fund for the monument was raised by the Hearst papers, which have been accumulating since the original fund has been expanded to $1,000,000. The monument will be erected in the city of New York. The fund for the monument was raised by the Hearst papers, which have been accumulating since the original fund has been expanded to $1,000,000. The monument will be erected in the city of New York.

McKee Welcomes Postoffice Inquiry

Reports of Congestion and Inefficiency in Atlanta Station Vigorously Denied. Postmaster Hugh McKee Saturday contradicted reports of congestion and inefficiency in the local office. The reports emanated in dispatches from Washington, which said that the Atlanta postoffice was to be investigated with a view of determining the cause of alleged delays in handling the mails.

SEABORN WRIGHT CARRIES WAR ON LIQUOR TO MACON

MACON, Ga., May 31.—Having closed up one liquor club in Stone Creek, Seaborn Wright, the famous prohibitionist, will go to Macon to carry on and shut the speakeas there. He will appear in the afternoon at the city auditorium under the auspices of the Law and Enforcement League.

Oil Mill Men to Meet in Atlanta

Joint Convention of Superintendents and Machinery Experts Opens at Army June 4. The joint convention of oil mill superintendents and machinery men will be held in Atlanta at the Auditorium-Armory June 4 to 6. Indications point to an attendance more than double that of any previous year.

WELTNER TO SPEAK ON GRIME TO SUFFRAGISTS

Philip Weltner will speak at a meeting of the Atlanta Equal Suffrage Association Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the City Hall. His subject will be "Grime and Its Cure."

public of Cuba on this solemn occasion can but cement the friendship between the two nations. COSMO DE LA TORRE, Secretary of State.

of the money was realized by giving public entertainment. In addition to the personal check, Mr. Hearst contributed toward the original fund of $10,000, which is not considered as a part of the fund, because it was the cost of executive management. The fund has always been banked in the name of the National Maine Monument Committee, and trust fund interest has been accumulating until the original fund has been expanded to $1,000,000. This amount would have been sufficient to carry out the building of the monument as originally planned. However, when the present site was settled upon, the municipal art commission, requested that the beautiful entrance gates be added, and this additional burden was cheerfully assumed.

Frank V. Bensusan 10
A. Oberstein 10
W. Whelan 10
New York State Society 10
Daughters of the Revolution 50
General's Daughters of the Revolution 100
Charles D. Sweeney 100
E. H. Tomlinson 100
D. Francis O'Leary 100
Miss Lina Hobbs 100
Regimental Headquarters, Cavalry National Guard 5
Company G, Seventh Regiment, C. N. G. 10
Company B, Seventh Regiment, C. N. G. 10
Solomon Heitzler, Lowell, Mass. 10
Through Boston American 10
Governor Eugene N. Fox 10
W. F. Kinder 10
Lithuanian 10
Mary E. Bond, Auxiliary No. 4, Minneapolis, Minn. 10
Mess Samson, Boston 10

10,000 GROCERY EMPLOYEES TO FORM PARADE

Workers From 980 Stores Will Join in March Celebrating Half-Holiday Pact.

Two thousand delivery wagons and automobiles, easily decorated, forming a parade three miles in length, will pass through Atlanta Wednesday afternoon.

Nearly every retail grocer has agreed to close each Wednesday afternoon during the months of June, July and August.

A squadron of police will head the parade, followed by Harry L. Schlegel and Mrs. Catherine, who will be marshals of the day.

Participating in the parade will be the 10,000 employees of the grocery stores in Atlanta and kindred cities.

Joining in with the Atlanta march will be the retail grocers of East Point and College Park, while all the other suburbs are expected to join in the movement.

The Men Who Found the Bodies of Captain Scott and His Comrades---Memorial Cross Erected to Dead Heroes

IN the photograph on the left are shown pictures of the four men who actually discovered the frozen bodies of Captain Scott and his fellows.

Williamson may be seen the snow glasses with which Arctic and Antarctic explorers protect their eyes from the terrific glare of the reflected rays of the sun.

MERCER TO GIVE DIPLOMAS TO 100 ON WEDNESDAY

Commencement Exercises of Baptist University at Macon Now in Progress.

MACON, Ga., May 31.—The annual commencement exercises of Mercer University are held in progress here today.

The commencement services will be preceded at the chapel tomorrow morning by the Rev. W. W. White, pastor of the Baptist church of Macon.

Graduation on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock will occupy the afternoon of Tuesday.

Seventy young men will graduate from Mercer this year, 21 being in the law class.

Postal Bank Grows Here Despite Atlanta's Neglect

B. W. Farrar, in Charge, Says Institution Establishes Confidence of Strangers.

The postal savings bank established in the United States government is not the success to Atlanta that it is in other cities.

Atlanta's Neglect

Atlanta's neglect of the postal savings bank is the cause of its slow growth here, according to B. W. Farrar, who is in charge of the institution.

BRING THIS AD Examining Cleaning Painless Extraction Free Until June 10th we have decided to make our regular $10 set of whalebone teeth for $3.00.

OUR OFFICES ARE COOL AND SANITARY Eastern Painless Dentists 38! PEACHTREE ST. NEAR WALTON

WAR ONE DAY ONLY WAR BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG A Master Production in five (5) complete reels. History's greatest battle shown in moving pictures that cost $75,000.00 to produce.

ATLANTA GIRL RECOVERS JEWELS FOR ROME YAOYR ROME, Ga., May 31.—A handsome watch chain, recently stolen from the home of Stacey Yancy by a burglar, has been recovered and returned to the owner by an Atlanta girl.

Foreign born white persons, who seek to hide their savings and their bank books for safe keeping, now bring them to the lawyer's bank as is proved by statistics.

More Changes Are Planned. The act that created the system is to be amended so to extend its popularity its most important feature, children under ten years old will be permitted to have accounts, and depositors will be given the privilege of drawing on their deposits.

EXCURSION RATE TO THE EAST VIA SEABOARD. The Seaboard and Great Northern Atlantic coastlines have agreed to offer a special excursion rate for the summer months.

Here Is the Enemy for the Nation to Fight

Flies Will Kill This Year More Americans Than Will Ever Be Lost in a Battle.

We Talk About the Japanese Invasion and Prepare for It, Wisely. Why Do We Tolerate and Ignore the Annual Invasion of an Enemy More Deadly and Dangerous Than All the Yellow Men of Asia?

LT is not very interesting or exciting to talk about flies. They are not as romantic as venomous serpents.

They are not as huge and impressive as wild elephants or roaring lions.

They are not as mysterious and awe-inspiring as the plague or the "Black Death."

But the fly is more poisonous to-day than all the snakes of the world combined, infinitely more dangerous than all the ferocious animals.

And here in our civilization and so-called perfect science the fly destroys life on a scale that may fairly be compared with the ravages of the plague in days when the population was smaller, ignorance and indifference greater.

The fly kills tens of thousands of children every year.

The fly causes more blindness in children than all other causes combined.

The fly spreads every known disease to children and to adults, for it frequents every disease breeding spot and hunts purposely for filth.

Early in the season KILL FLIES.

In the middle of the Summer KILL FLIES.

And in the Autumn and in the Winter, if you can find them, still KILL FLIES.

Treat the fly as our ancestors of the old days treated the red Indians and the wolves.

First shut them out of your house, make sure that they won't get in, then kill them off as rapidly as possible and pray for the day when you will no longer have to protect your house against them.

Screen your windows.

Screen your doors.

New fly screens made of wire netting that will not rust are more important than a new coat of paint on a new automobile, for fly screens mean protection for children.

Protect your house from the flies, and as absolutely as possible, or nearly so, protect your food supplies and protect your babies' faces separately.

As the children asleep keep mosquito netting over it.

Keep your sugar bowl, butter dish and food supplies covered.

This talk about flies published to-day in the various Hearst newspapers will go into more than two million different homes of American families. It is only by the earnest, intelligent co-operation of those families and the others in the country that the fly can finally be abolished.

The citizens should combine, the national, State, city and village governments and the people with them, to wipe out the

Facts About the Fly

Scientists have been studying the housefly several years, and all of them unite in saying that this insect is more deadly and more dangerous to human life than the tiger or the cobra. It is the most dangerous insect on earth.

In New York City alone the fly causes thousand of deaths from typhoid fever.

It causes more than seven thousand deaths annually in this one city from other intestinal diseases.

Every Autumn there is a rise in the death rate from typhoid.

This rise is traced by the scientists directly to the fly.

An expert recently examined a fly found in South street. It was carrying on its legs and in its mouth more than 100,000 bacteria.

It had been walking over filth on the water front. The expert caught it on the edge of a glass of milk unseen enemies of man, the flies that carry all the diseases, or very nearly all, and the mosquito that alone infects men with malaria and yellow fever.

THE THING CAN BE DONE, for it has been done by governments in Cuba, in Panama and in New Orleans.

The trouble is that the country will not take the matter seriously.

We look with pity and contempt upon the ignorant Egyptian woman who allows the flies to gather in black clusters on the poisoned eyes of her sleeping child and who tells us that it is wrong to take their lives.

And we laugh at the ignorant Hindoos with their vile monkeys of Benares, and their ridiculous religion that protects even the vermin on their bodies.

But our indifference and carelessness are as stupid and as harmful as their religion, and without religious excuse.

Don't forget that if you see flies their breeding place is nearby filth. It may be behind the door, under the table, or in the cuspidor.

If there is no dirt or filth there will be no flies.

If there is a nuisance in the neighborhood write at once to the Health Department.

Do not allow decaying material of any sort to accumulate on or near your premises. All refuse should be removed at once or covered with lime or kerosene.

Keep all receptacles for garbage carefully covered and the cans cleaned or sprinkled with oil or lime.

See that your sewerage system is in good order. Pour kerosene into the drains.

Cover food after a meal. Burn or bury all table refuse. Screen all food exposed for sale. Buy no food that has been exposed to flies.

Every manure pile should be covered, on the farms and everywhere else. The intelligent farmer knows that this increases the value of the fertilizer more than thirty per cent. It decreases the breeding of flies to a greater degree. The manure pile, the heap of filth, such are the breeding places of the fly.

No accumulation of filth in stables or elsewhere in a big city should be permitted to stand more than six days. It takes the common fly nine days to hatch. Compel by law the removal of manure from stables every six days—and you remove the unhatched fly from the city.

This should be worked out by government through pressure of public opinion. When we have some slight threat of smallpox or of Asiatic cholera, we are all excited, health boards become active and quarantines are established, although there is very little danger now in such diseases.

Yet, with the buzzing flies everywhere, carrying disease germs on their spongy feet to the faces of the children, depositing these disease germs on food of all kinds, to be eaten later, and although these flies cause annually tens of thousands of deaths that are unnecessary, WE REMAIN CALLOUS AND INDIFFERENT.

If the foot and mouth disease breaks out among cattle, the county and State are quarantined. Hog cholera, sheep diseases and other cases are watched and suppressed with all the energy of the Government.

And in the meanwhile we have in every city the billions of disease-carrying flies hurrying from the accumulated filth to the table, and there is no effort for a change.

And we have the swamps breeding their endless billions of mosquitoes to keep alive malaria in the blood of human beings, and there is no real war against that plague. It is useless except for the protection of the individual family to suppress the fly nuisance in one place or drain the swamp or cover the cesspool in another.

Darwin told us that one single pair of flies in forty-eight hours—the quick breeding African fly—will lay enough eggs and brood enough maggots to devour a lion, leaving nothing but the white bones.

A few flies surviving through the Winter start the plague afresh the following year.

And one careless citizen leaving a breeding ground for mosquitoes supplies enough to infest the whole country.

Fortunately, for two or three years the people have been alive to the fact that their enemies are the tiny fly and mosquito and the invisible disease germs—enemies more deadly and dangerous than ever were the great monsters of prehistoric times or the wolves and lions of our day.

Discussion has begun, newspapers have taken it up and offered prizes. A few public officials have at least TRIED to do something. But only a beginning has been made.

The country must realize the danger and the duty. Children must be taught that the killing of flies is a good and necessary act, painful as it is to take life.

Do what you can to arouse public feeling for the sake of the public safety.

And in the meanwhile DO WHAT YOU CAN INDIVIDUALLY.

Kill the flies!

CITY LIFE SECTION

BEST HUMOR, MOVING PICTURES, VAUDEVILLE.

HEARST'S SUNDAY AMERICAN

ATLANTA, GA., SUNDAY, JUNE 1, 1913.

READ

The Scarlet Plague

By Jack London

It Starts To-day in the Magazine of HEARST'S SUNDAY AMERICAN

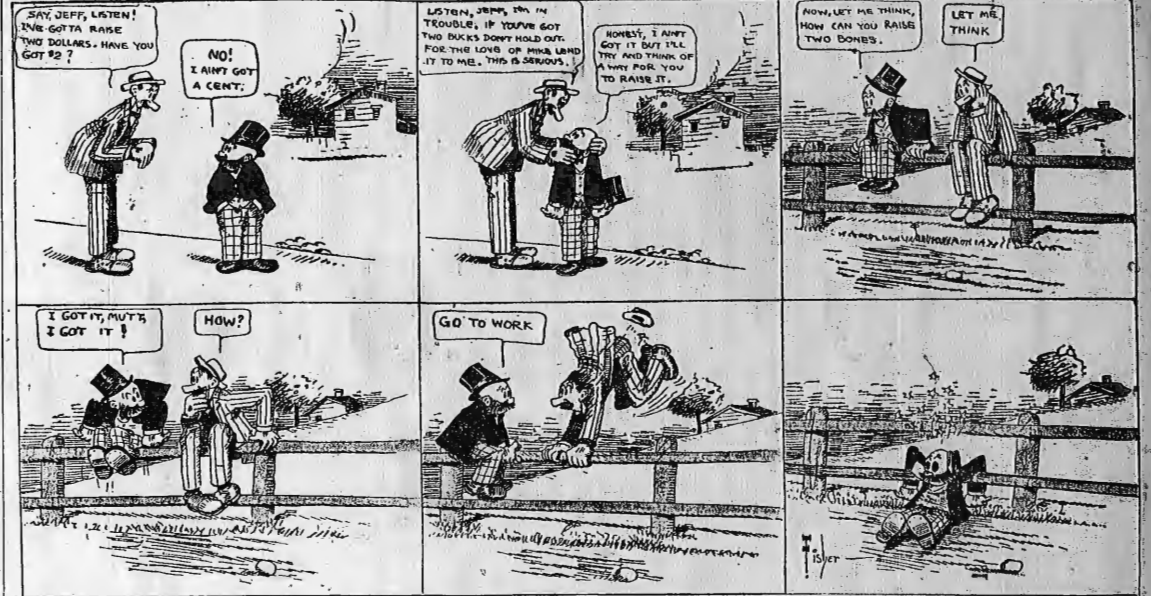

Do Husbands of Atlanta Need a Training School?

Jeff Might Have Known Better Than Suggest It

By "Bud" Fisher

Mutt and Jeff Every Day in The Georgian.

Copyright, 1913, by the Star Company. Great Britain Rights Reserved.

day to get here when I did."

"Know!" she snorted. "All I know is that's what you say. All I know is that I'm the goat of this house. All I know is that I get as much consideration as a dog. All I know is that your supper's cold." (More exproceed.)

"Well, honey," he urged, soothingly. "That's all right. I'm not hungry a bit. All I want to do is to smoke. Do you mind?"

"Mind? Who? Me? Oh, no, I don't mind. Don't think about me. You men seem to do as you please, anyhow, you and your Ad Men's Club."

A little bit of defiance crept into his tone, just a wee bit. It was the beginning of the end.

"Anyhow," he said, "I was at a committee meeting this evening."

"Committee meeting! Yes. Well, what did you do?"

"Nothing, I guess. You generally do. If we women could just vote and run things awhile."

"Yes, if you could vote! Then I guess there'd be no supper at all, and no home to come to and get bawled out. Well, maybe that would be the best thing."

"I'll have you know that home is just what you men make it. If you want to stay out all night, who's fault is it?"

If you want to keep supper waiting, who's fault is it! Home! Why, men are responsible for every ruined home!" (For-sissins.)

"Is that so? How about the wives who snort around and make a man think his home is a mad house?"

"And how about the man who will bat around, and keep his wife holding her hands over a cold dinner while he's drinking at some old club?"

"Why, darn it, I tell you—"

"There you go, swearing at me. And I guess you think Don't mind me, I can go over to Mrs. Smith's for the evening."

I'm going to keep sweet-tempered and amiable and 'oh-yes-do-as-you-like-John' with a man who's all the time using profane language. You don't want a wife, you want an angel. You—"

He had thought her scornful laugh by this time.

"GOOD NIGHT!" he said. "You sweet-tempered! You amiable!"

And again:

"Good night!"

The end was coming. Her voice trembled.

"Well, if you don't like things around here, you can just go back downtown to your club and your booze. After I've" been slaving my hands to the bone all day, to get this from you!" Well, go on. I guess men just can't help being selfish.

"Well, I'll go, then. I reckon I'll find somebody who can use these tickets to the show."

"Show! What tickets!"

"The Forsyth to-night. I thought I'd get a couple of tickets for us, but I wasn't looking for all this."

"Well, John, who's fault is it?" (Moderato.)

She had called his name.

He was aggrivated.

"Who's fault?" he said, surprisedly. "Well, say! For the love of Mike!"

"Well, clear, what can you expect, after I've gone and fixed you a nice dinner, and then have it get cold and spoiled! If you had telephoned now—you will, next time, won't you!"

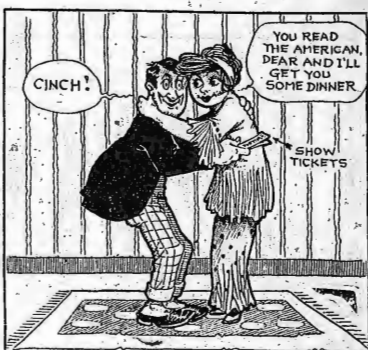

His laugh was relieved.

"Well, if that's all the trouble—"

Kiss.

"Say, honey," he said. "I'm hungry as a wolf. Ain't there something to eat around the house?"

"Well, there's the Sunday American over there. Sit down and read while I fix you something. You'll have to hurry, though, if we're going to the show."

home to you the last two hours. But that Chamber of Commerce committee—

Sorrowful laugh from her?

"Yes, yes, go on," she said. "The last time it was the Ad Men's Club meeting. Well, let's hear this new one."

Again that lightning laugh from him.

"Now, dear, don't talk like that. They're the best fellows in the world."

"Oh, sure, sure. Fine fellows. Good company. Better company than your wife. More attractive than your dinner."

She is a great mimic, that woman in the apartment across the hall. This is what we heard from her (subtly tones):

"All right, boys. Let's have another drink. The old lady is at home keeping supper. No hurry. Why should I worry."

He protested.

"Now, honey," he whistled. "You know it's nothing like that. You know I had to fight off one of them the other"

Billy Gould and Belle Ashlyn In Chunks of Chatter

BILLY—Ah, good morning!

BELLE—Do you know anything else good?

BILLY—Yes, I've just sold my French bull dog.

BELLE—How much?

BILLY—That's some bull.

BELLE—And I have here a letter from father.

BILLY—What's he say?

BELLE—Come home; the District Attorney's dead.

BILLY—I hear that beads will be worn this season. Why don't you grow one?

BELLE—Well, I'd love to grow a beard, but I wouldn't know what to do with it at night.

BILLY—I mean I wouldn't know whether to leave it outside the bed covers or tuck it underneath.

BELLE—You're not supposed to worry about such a thing in New York.

BILLY—Huh. Anybody can tell you're from Brooklyn.

BELLE—Oh, can they?

BILLY—Sure. You're always moving about New York.

BELLE—Say, what's your opinion about the bumper and the bear, and how does it do?

BILLY—I think they're heavenly.

BELLE—Well, I'm writing a book about them and I just wanted to get a few opinions.

BILLY—You're writing a book? Say, how old are you, anyway?

BELLE—I've just arrived at eighteen.

BILLY—What do you do?

BELLE—Can you tell me what makes a man always give a woman a diamond engagement ring?

BILLY—A woman.

BELLE—I'm glad you admit it.

BILLY—And I went into a department store this morning to buy some stockings, and—

BELLE—And what?

BILLY—And the girl asked me if I wanted something for my wife or something expensive.

BELLE—You have an awfully good memory.

BILLY—Thank you.

BELLE—Because you know some of the oldest jokes I ever—

BILLY—Pardon me, how many grandchildren have you?

BELLE—Now, my dear Harry—

BILLY—Harry? You mean Billy, don't you?

BELLE—Excuse me, I was thinking this was Thursday.

BILLY—I saw, our maid Bridget pencilling her eyebrows the other night.

BELLE—She'd better look out. She'll be arrested.

BILLY—What for, arresting Nature?

BELLE—For changing the map of Ireland.

BILLY—I went fishing the other day.

BELLE—Catch anything?

BILLY—Don't say that. This is a new fish story.

BELLE—Well, go ahead.

BILLY—But as the story goes, I didn't catch anything anyhow. They told me the fish were all asleep.

BELLE—Asleep? Where do fish sleep?

BILLY—In the river beds.

BELLE—Speaking of water and things, how do you like my new bathing suit?

BILLY—I can't see it.

BELLE—Really?

BILLY—I mean it's a peach. There's nothing to it.

BELLE—What do you think of my complexion?

BILLY—It's the clearest I've ever seen.

BELLE—Really?

BILLY—I can see right through it.

BELLE—Well, my hair is all my own anyway.

BILLY—It's false.

BELLE—It's true. Didn't I pay for it?

BILLY—There goes a man down the street who has a regular baseball family.

BELLE—Greetings of the season.

BILLY—Yes. His wife is there with the curves. His son bats. The baby bats, and he himself has to steal home every night.

BELLE—Gawd's over!

BEAUL MILLER MORDED BY SIGNS, SAYS SCIENTIST

Prof. Munsterberg Explains the Power of 10-Year-Old Psychic Wonder of Warren, R. I.

BOSTON, May 31.—Professor Munsterberg has explained the mysterious power of Beulah Miller, the ten-year-old "psychic" wonder of Warren, R. I. The scientist investigated her amazing powers and decided that her art lies in her power to control her own mind.

"She cannot know anything which others do not know beforehand," says Professor Munsterberg. "Her powers are not supernatural, but they are not to be explained by the ordinary laws of psychology."

"Her mind is not in contact with the mind of any other person," says the professor. "She is in contact with her own mind, and she is able to control it in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people."

"She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people," says the professor. "She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people."

"She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people," says the professor. "She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people."

"She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people," says the professor. "She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people."

"She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people," says the professor. "She is able to control her own mind in a way that is beyond the power of ordinary people."

Cat With a Harelip Whistles Like Boy

Animal Never Has Mewed and Is Regarded as a Musical Prodigy

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., May 31.—A small white cat, which whistles like a boy, has become a sensation in Springfield, Mass. The cat, which is named "Whistle," has been owned by a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

"Whistle" is believed to whistle by an action of the vocal cords, but it is not known how it does this. The cat is said to whistle in a way that is very much like the whistling of a boy.

"Whistle" is believed to whistle by an action of the vocal cords, but it is not known how it does this. The cat is said to whistle in a way that is very much like the whistling of a boy.

"Whistle" is believed to whistle by an action of the vocal cords, but it is not known how it does this. The cat is said to whistle in a way that is very much like the whistling of a boy.

"Whistle" is believed to whistle by an action of the vocal cords, but it is not known how it does this. The cat is said to whistle in a way that is very much like the whistling of a boy.

"Whistle" is believed to whistle by an action of the vocal cords, but it is not known how it does this. The cat is said to whistle in a way that is very much like the whistling of a boy.

"Whistle" is believed to whistle by an action of the vocal cords, but it is not known how it does this. The cat is said to whistle in a way that is very much like the whistling of a boy.

"Whistle" is believed to whistle by an action of the vocal cords, but it is not known how it does this. The cat is said to whistle in a way that is very much like the whistling of a boy.

Count Szechenyi to Rest in U. S. Has Crippled His Wife's Dowry

Countess Szechenyi, who, when she married, had a fortune of $8,000,000. In five years Count Szechenyi has spent $4,000,000

Countess Szechenyi, who, when she married, had a fortune of $8,000,000. In five years Count Szechenyi has spent $4,000,000. The countess is believed to have spent the money on her husband's extravagance.

Countess Szechenyi, who, when she married, had a fortune of $8,000,000. In five years Count Szechenyi has spent $4,000,000. The countess is believed to have spent the money on her husband's extravagance.

Countess Szechenyi, who, when she married, had a fortune of $8,000,000. In five years Count Szechenyi has spent $4,000,000. The countess is believed to have spent the money on her husband's extravagance.

Countess Szechenyi, who, when she married, had a fortune of $8,000,000. In five years Count Szechenyi has spent $4,000,000. The countess is believed to have spent the money on her husband's extravagance.

Countess Szechenyi, who, when she married, had a fortune of $8,000,000. In five years Count Szechenyi has spent $4,000,000. The countess is believed to have spent the money on her husband's extravagance.

Countess Szechenyi, who, when she married, had a fortune of $8,000,000. In five years Count Szechenyi has spent $4,000,000. The countess is believed to have spent the money on her husband's extravagance.

BIG PRARIE DOG GOTTEN ON BY RAILROADS

Animals Interfering With Maintenance of Denver, Laramie and Pacific, Now Building.

CHEYENNE, WYO., May 31.—Five hundred million prairie dogs, the inhabitants of the largest prairie dog town in the world, are to be attacked by the Denver, Laramie & Pacific Railroad, which is building northward from Denver, and will pass through one corner of the town for a distance of about six miles.

The railroad officials plan to make a large hole in the prairie dog town, and to fill it with dynamite. The hole is to be made in a place where the prairie dogs are most numerous.

The hole is to be made in a place where the prairie dogs are most numerous. The railroad officials plan to make a large hole in the prairie dog town, and to fill it with dynamite.

The hole is to be made in a place where the prairie dogs are most numerous. The railroad officials plan to make a large hole in the prairie dog town, and to fill it with dynamite.

The hole is to be made in a place where the prairie dogs are most numerous. The railroad officials plan to make a large hole in the prairie dog town, and to fill it with dynamite.

The hole is to be made in a place where the prairie dogs are most numerous. The railroad officials plan to make a large hole in the prairie dog town, and to fill it with dynamite.

The hole is to be made in a place where the prairie dogs are most numerous. The railroad officials plan to make a large hole in the prairie dog town, and to fill it with dynamite.

Heart Breaks When Ball Team Is Beaten

Beethoven Pitcher Grieves to Death Because His Club Lost Game

ST. PAUL, May 31.—Had it not been, my school would have won the pennant, but it's too late now. We've lost. I'm so sad. I'm so sad. I'm so sad.

ST. PAUL, May 31.—Had it not been, my school would have won the pennant, but it's too late now. We've lost. I'm so sad. I'm so sad. I'm so sad.

ST. PAUL, May 31.—Had it not been, my school would have won the pennant, but it's too late now. We've lost. I'm so sad. I'm so sad. I'm so sad.

ST. PAUL, May 31.—Had it not been, my school would have won the pennant, but it's too late now. We've lost. I'm so sad. I'm so sad. I'm so sad.

ST. PAUL, May 31.—Had it not been, my school would have won the pennant, but it's too late now. We've lost. I'm so sad. I'm so sad. I'm so sad.

ST. PAUL, May 31.—Had it not been, my school would have won the pennant, but it's too late now. We've lost. I'm so sad. I'm so sad. I'm so sad.

ST. PAUL, May 31.—Had it not been, my school would have won the pennant, but it's too late now. We've lost. I'm so sad. I'm so sad. I'm so sad.

IMMIGRANTS DRIVES COMING TO SEEK HOMES

Figures Being Steadily Forward
Upon—New Record Expected

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than for any other year in the history of the country.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than for any other year in the history of the country.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than for any other year in the history of the country.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than for any other year in the history of the country.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than for any other year in the history of the country.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than for any other year in the history of the country.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than for any other year in the history of the country.

Tintype 75 Years Old Gives Woman Fortune

Mixer's Sister Identified After Long Search by Pictures Taken in Childhood

BRONX, N. Y., May 31.—A tintype photo taken more than 75 years ago, by a photographer named Woodard, has found her to be the sister of a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

BRONX, N. Y., May 31.—A tintype photo taken more than 75 years ago, by a photographer named Woodard, has found her to be the sister of a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

BRONX, N. Y., May 31.—A tintype photo taken more than 75 years ago, by a photographer named Woodard, has found her to be the sister of a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

BRONX, N. Y., May 31.—A tintype photo taken more than 75 years ago, by a photographer named Woodard, has found her to be the sister of a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

BRONX, N. Y., May 31.—A tintype photo taken more than 75 years ago, by a photographer named Woodard, has found her to be the sister of a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

BRONX, N. Y., May 31.—A tintype photo taken more than 75 years ago, by a photographer named Woodard, has found her to be the sister of a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

BRONX, N. Y., May 31.—A tintype photo taken more than 75 years ago, by a photographer named Woodard, has found her to be the sister of a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard.

Portrait of a woman

What Some Titles Cost American Girls

Countess de Castellane, formerly Anna Goddard, had to pay $11,500,000 for Count Boni's debts and extravagance.

Countess de Castellane, formerly Anna Goddard, had to pay $11,500,000 for Count Boni's debts and extravagance.

Countess de Castellane, formerly Anna Goddard, had to pay $11,500,000 for Count Boni's debts and extravagance.

Countess de Castellane, formerly Anna Goddard, had to pay $11,500,000 for Count Boni's debts and extravagance.

Beats Dogs in 500 Mile Race for Gold

Alaska Miner, Afoot, Chases Woman Who Has 250 Pounds of Precious Dust

TACOMA, May 31.—(Halving 600 miles, making from 10 to 40 miles a day, Ben Dahl, a miner, chased a woman who has 250 pounds of precious dust.

TACOMA, May 31.—(Halving 600 miles, making from 10 to 40 miles a day, Ben Dahl, a miner, chased a woman who has 250 pounds of precious dust.

TACOMA, May 31.—(Halving 600 miles, making from 10 to 40 miles a day, Ben Dahl, a miner, chased a woman who has 250 pounds of precious dust.

TACOMA, May 31.—(Halving 600 miles, making from 10 to 40 miles a day, Ben Dahl, a miner, chased a woman who has 250 pounds of precious dust.

Woman Just Escapes Being Devoured Alive

Lion Springs at Her Out of Cage, But Is Killed in Time by

ALTOONA, PA., May 31.—With the lion's head in his hand, a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard escaped being devoured alive.

ALTOONA, PA., May 31.—With the lion's head in his hand, a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard escaped being devoured alive.

ALTOONA, PA., May 31.—With the lion's head in his hand, a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard escaped being devoured alive.

ALTOONA, PA., May 31.—With the lion's head in his hand, a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard escaped being devoured alive.

ALTOONA, PA., May 31.—With the lion's head in his hand, a woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard escaped being devoured alive.

Must Throw Stones, As a Punishment

Class Organized by Massachusetts Judge to Discipline Young Offenders

MALDEN, MASS., May 31.—Judge of the local court has organized a class of young offenders to be disciplined by throwing stones.

MALDEN, MASS., May 31.—Judge of the local court has organized a class of young offenders to be disciplined by throwing stones.

MALDEN, MASS., May 31.—Judge of the local court has organized a class of young offenders to be disciplined by throwing stones.

MALDEN, MASS., May 31.—Judge of the local court has organized a class of young offenders to be disciplined by throwing stones.

MALDEN, MASS., May 31.—Judge of the local court has organized a class of young offenders to be disciplined by throwing stones.

WOMAN HAS TO PAY BACK $42,000 ALMOY

GRAND JURY IN NEW YORK

GRAND JURY IN NEW YORK. A woman named Mrs. J. W. Woodard has to pay back $42,000.

DEER INDIGNANT WHEN NOT FED, AND KICKS MAN'S FACE

MILWAUKEE, WIS., May 31.—A deer named Mrs. J. W. Woodard kicked a man's face when it was not fed.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., May 31.—A deer named Mrs. J. W. Woodard kicked a man's face when it was not fed.

PIONEER'S HEARSE LUMBER WAGON ON DEATH REQUEST

LANSING, MICH., May 31.—A pioneer's hearse lumber wagon was on a death request.

LANSING, MICH., May 31.—A pioneer's hearse lumber wagon was on a death request.

Green Park Hotel, Green Park, N. C.

Green Park Hotel, Green Park, N. C. A hotel in Green Park, N. C.

DROPSY SPECIALISTS
Specialists in dropsy, heart disease, and other ailments.

Famous Mineral Springs
Outdoor Gymnasium
Atlanta, Georgia

Magee's Physical Culture Health Home
CASCADÉ SPRINGS
Former Physical Director of Y. M. C. A.

10¢ a box
Guaranteed pure
The amoebic
White or Pink
Talcum
Talcum
Talcum

Give Quinine and Sural
Cure For All Sore Feet
The following is absolutely the surest and quickest cure known to date for all foot ailments.

NEVER LOSE A FISH!
By Using the
GREER LEVER HOOKS
ORDER BY MAIL
Greer Mfg. Co.
2-12 Walton St.
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

NOTICE

If you have any difficulty in buying Hearst's Sunday American, please apply to the South North Circulation Manager, Hearst's Sunday American, Atlanta, Ga.

HEARST'S SUNDAY AMERICAN EXTRA

VOL. I, NO. 9

Copyright, 1913, by The Georgian Company.

ATLANTA, GA., SUNDAY, JUNE 1, 1913.

★

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Captain Scott's Tragic Death in Polar Wastes Told in Photographs

THE SUNDAY AMERICAN, in this issue, publishes seven pictures—the only ones in existence—showing the last dash of the ill-fated Scott expedition to the South Pole. These pictures vividly depict the brave struggle of the British explorers in their quest for the goal. They show the start of the expedition on the final dash; they depict their arrival at the pole, where, to their intense disappointment, they found the tent and flag of the courageous Captain Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer who had preceded them to the coveted goal; they show the pathetic tent death in which Captain Scott and his brave comrades perished; and lastly, they show the cairn marking the final resting place of these heroic men.

These pictures are the most remarkable ever published of a similar tragedy and give some idea of the terrors of the Antarctic wastes. They should prove a most instructive study to both young and old, and as such, The Sunday American presents them. They will be found on pages 2, 3, 4 and 5 of the Second Main News Section.

CONFESSION OF CONLEY MAKES NO CHANGES IN STATE'S CASE

Negro Will Be Used as Material Evidence Against Frank, Says Solicitor Dorsey.

LEE LIKELY TO BE FREED

Sweeper Sticks to Story Accusing Head of Pencil Factory of Phagan Slaying.

The startling confessions by Jim Conley of the part he played in the Phagan murder mystery have not changed the State's case in any of its essential features, according to an announcement from Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey, at the close of a long examination of the negro yesterday.

Stormed at for several hours by the Solicitor and the city detective, Conley's story was unchanged and he threw no new light on the case.

He has told everything he knows of the crime, one of the detectives said as the negro was led from the Solicitor's office to be taken back to the police station.

Regarded as one of the most significant announcements from the Solicitor was that the negro would be prosecuted as an accessory after the fact unless some development connected him more directly with the crime.

To Be Material Witness.

The Solicitor also outlined his intention of using Conley as a material witness against Lee M. Frank. He explained that the negro, being under indictment as an accessory, would in no way interfere with his being used as a witness.

When the Grand Jury meets next Friday, it is more than likely it will take some action on the bill of indictment drawn at the same time with that of Phagan's slaying.

Developments since the indictment was drawn have greatly clarified the mind of Lee from the case, except in the capacity of a witness, and a "no bill" is expected in the indictment.

Conley Offered for Hours.

For hours Saturday James Conley, negro sweeper, whose sensational confession accused Superintendent Lee M. Frank of the murder of Mary Phagan, explained in detail to Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey.

Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

Statesmen Accept Spelling Bee Defi

Congressmen and Newspaper Men Will Be Matched in Contest Before National Press Club.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Although many statesmen have declined for the reason, as they admit, that they are poor spellers and "were not going to stand up there and make darning fools of themselves," sixteen have accepted the challenge of the Washington newspaper men and will meet in an old-fashioned spelling bee on Thursday next, to mark the annual "ladies' day" of the National Press Club.

The challenge had its origin in the comment by Chairman Underwood, of the Ways and Means committee, on a dispatch sent out criticizing the conduct in respect to the duty on "dimethylbenzylalcohol" in the tariff bill. Underwood forgave the criticism, but condemned the spelling. Hence the meeting at which Secretary of Agriculture Houston will be "teacher."

Head of Morgan Co.'s Trunk Being Watched

Treasury Department Investigates Charge That Storebought Bought - In Necklace Worth $70,000.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—The Treasury Department is investigating the charge that a number of trunks belonging to Edward T. Keeler, head of the banking house of Drexel & Co., and senior member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., were recently passed as free of duty by customs officials at this port.

It is alleged that the trunks contained a necklace belonging to Mrs. Storebought and valued at $70,000. Another version of the story is that the trunks contained chiefly valuable furs and that duty would not exceed $200.

Cigarette Wins Wife For Austrian Officer

Likes Brand, Chicago, Budapest Girl of Verse Sufferer Uses.

NEW YORK, May 31.—I'm engaged to the finest soldier in Austria and all because of a cigarette," said Miss Rose Roth, of New York, Hudson and Chicago, when she arrived from Europe on the Friedrich der Grosse.

That was smoking in a cafe in Budapest. Lieutenant John H. Farnsworth sent her a box of favorite brand of cigarettes.

An introduction followed and soon afterward the engagement was announced.

NEAR-TORNADO WINDS ATLANTA; DAMAGE HEAVY

Windows Smashed and Signs Broken as Gale Sweeps Business Section of City.

BIG TREES ARE UPROOTED

Peachtree Pedestrians Have Narrow Escapes From Falling Glass.

Hundreds of dollars damage was done late Saturday afternoon when Atlanta was swept by one of the most violent wind and rain storms of the season.

The traction service and street traffic was paralyzed and thousands of persons who had come downtown were detained, most of them getting thoroughly drenched.

Streets were blown out and a portion of the scaffold built around the new Wincoff hotel was blown down, narrowly missing a crowded street car.

Paris at Ball Park.

At the Penn. Delco ball park, where a game was in progress, came the report that for a time panic reigned as the bats tore down a part of the fence and threatened the grandstand, which was crowded.

At the Piedmont Hotel junction, where the winds eddied with terrific force, pedestrians were all but blown from their feet and many barely escaped falling by being blown over.

At the Delehoe clothing store, in the downtown, the wind blew out a large upstairs window and the falling glass showered upon the sidewalk, narrowly missing a group of women who were walking into the doorway to seek shelter.

Storm Comes Suddenly.

The wind and downpour of rain followed the hottest and most sultry day of the year. The storm came from the northwest and broke with sudden fury.

Automobiles who were caught driving up Peachtree in an effort to reach hotels were forced to "lay to the curbs, as the dust and falling glass made driving impossible.

Street cars were stopped before the full force of the storm broke and service was interrupted for nearly half an hour. Falling trolley wires tied up some lines for even longer.

Every Hotel Hit.

Casualties were so widespread that reports came into the police station showing that the storm enveloped the entire city was indicated early.

Suspicious Sailors Damage Imperator

Vessel's Accident and Kaiser's Refusal to Make Trial Trip Brand Her 'Joneston Ship.'

Special Cable to The American.

LONDON, May 31.—A large portion of the equipment and furnishings of the Imperator has been irreparably damaged by vandals, according to statements made by German shipping matters to-day.

Windows were broken and a portion of the costly paintings and carpets which the cabin were furnished have been cut and slashed.

These acts are believed to have been committed by seamen who were angered at being forced to accompany the ship to a remote part of the coast near Clatsop after the Imperator had rounded in the Kluw at her berth.

Sailors regard the Imperator with great suspicion, and this has become more marked since it has been learned that Emperor William has refused to go on the trial trip.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—Lloyd Williams, 17, of Chicago, a student in Phillips-Exeter School, who dropped from Boston with 17-year-old Edythe Miss Howe, daughter of railroad official of Boston, and who was arrested with her in Lewiston, Pa. in a motor car belonging to Mrs. Helen Clayton Haverford, was brought back to this city early to-day. The girl was taken back to Boston by her parents to-day.

Two days ago I met Miss Howe at a football game and saw her often after that," said Williams. "Three weeks ago when I was on a vacation we decided to elope. We went to New York and lived in a five apartment. We paid for a day for the room. The money we fast, and May 14 I told Edythe we were broke and advised her to go home and let me start to walk to Chicago.

"I started with you," she said, "and I am going to stick." We went as far as Trenton on a trolley and then he had 5 cents left. We walked into Philadelphia. Our shoes were worn out and Edythe was so exhausted that I had to actually drag her along. When we reached Philadelphia she was so tired that I made her sit on a packing box. I looked up and saw an automobile.

"I never ran an automobile, but I looked around and got the thing started.

"When we arrived in the country, I managed to get the machine stopped. With my last nickel I bought a loaf of bread. We each ate half of it.

"When we reached Lewiston the machine stopped dead. We had run out of gasoline.

"Nothing can separate us, I intend to marry her. I acted as a groom on the trip. Edythe will substantiate what I am saying."

"The girl ran past her parents and throwing her arms around Williams neck, kissing him. Then the couple broke down, and Williams was led away to the railroad station to come to the city.

YOUNG ELOPERS COME TO GRIEF IN STOLEN CAR

Schoolboy and Girl Companion Live in Style While Money Lasts—Land in Jail.

GASOLINE OUT IN CRISIS

Long Walk to Philadelphia Tired Feet but Didn't Cool Air, So They Took Car.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—Lloyd Williams, 17, of Chicago, a student in Phillips-Exeter School, who dropped from Boston with 17-year-old Edythe Miss Howe, daughter of railroad official of Boston, and who was arrested with her in Lewiston, Pa. in a motor car belonging to Mrs. Helen Clayton Haverford, was brought back to this city early to-day. The girl was taken back to Boston by her parents to-day.

Two days ago I met Miss Howe at a football game and saw her often after that," said Williams. "Three weeks ago when I was on a vacation we decided to elope. We went to New York and lived in a five apartment. We paid for a day for the room. The money we fast, and May 14 I told Edythe we were broke and advised her to go home and let me start to walk to Chicago.

"I started with you," she said, "and I am going to stick." We went as far as Trenton on a trolley and then he had 5 cents left. We walked into Philadelphia. Our shoes were worn out and Edythe was so exhausted that I had to actually drag her along. When we reached Philadelphia she was so tired that I made her sit on a packing box. I looked up and saw an automobile.

"I never ran an automobile, but I looked around and got the thing started.

"When we arrived in the country, I managed to get the machine stopped. With my last nickel I bought a loaf of bread. We each ate half of it.

"When we reached Lewiston the machine stopped dead. We had run out of gasoline.

"Nothing can separate us, I intend to marry her. I acted as a groom on the trip. Edythe will substantiate what I am saying."

"The girl ran past her parents and throwing her arms around Williams neck, kissing him. Then the couple broke down, and Williams was led away to the railroad station to come to the city.

ROOSEVELT WINS SUIT

Awarded 6 Cents Damages for Libel 'Achieved My Purpose,' He Says

Amount of 'Balm' Is Fixed by the Jury After Sued Editor Had Declined to Submit a Defense and Confessed Judgment.

Colonel Declares He Believes That the Defendant Acted in Good Faith and Requests That the Nominal Sum Be Given.

Michigan Newspaper Publisher Had Charged Former President With Drunkenness—Accused Made Determined Court Fight.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 31.—I have achieved my purpose and am content," said former President Theodore Roosevelt, addressing the Marquette county circuit court this afternoon.

The trial of his $10,000 libel suit against George Nevitt, editor of The Independent from Ore., came to its final and terminating stage when Roosevelt took the stand and, after a preliminary of the court made a statement in which he declared he had published allegations of Roosevelt's intemperate habits in fact and faith and that in view of the testimony now adduced he is convinced he was mistaken.

By agreement of the counsel Attorney William P. Elden announced a court of fifteen minutes during which Roosevelt would make a statement of his own. It was held that Colonel Roosevelt asked permission of the court to himself make a statement.

"I did not go into this trial for any vindictive purpose nor with any vindictive feelings toward the defendant as my counsel had repeatedly stated my reputation had been an issue and it is an issue because I have made it an issue."

"This reason I have done that is because I wish thoroughly and completely to deal with these slanders and libels to deal with them in such a way that never again can any person or any publication repeat this slandering to do so in good faith. I have achieved my purpose and am content. I am convinced that the defendant did act in good faith and that therefore ask this honorable court to assess merely nominal damages."

At the suggestion of Attorney Elden, Judge Phelan then announced a court of fifteen minutes during which counsel was to confer as to the nominal amount of damages. Roosevelt was awarded six cents damages.

Yokum Refuses to Disclose Frisco Move

Group of Bondholders Will Meet to Save Or Threatened Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace

CHICAGO, May 31.—Bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Baltimore Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

Negro Pair Sought in Stevens Slaying Case Under Arrest

Witness and Half-Braced Maynard Pointed Out on Street by Sign Woman's Son.

Walter Wilkes, the negro preacher, and Ernest Maynard, the half-breed, wanted for the murder of Mrs. William Stevens and her daughter, Nellie, on the McDonough Road, were taken into custody late Saturday afternoon.

The negroes were pointed out to detectives by Wade Stevens' son of the murdered woman, at the corner of Peters and Heerman Streets.

They were taken immediately to the police station, where they will be put through a grueling cross-examination.

MISS YOKUM COMPLETES PLAN FOR JUNE WEDDING

NEW YORK, May 31.—Miss Beulah Yokum, one of the first brides of June, has completed the plans for her wedding on Wednesday to Francis H. Lanckin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lanckin. Their marriage will take place in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church and Miss Yokum will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Paul Ding Purdy, Mrs. George Bourne and five bridesmaids.

Kun'l Henry on Colonel Teddy and 'Getting Drunk'

LOUISVILLE, May 31.—In a long editorial upon getting drunk, Colonel Henry Waterman makes the following remarks about the Roosevelt trial in The Louisville Courier-Journal:

"History and literature are so studied with the habits of vicious hilarity, all the way from Noah and onward through some of the notable persons who are not commonly represented as examples of strict sobriety, that it would seem a much ado about nothing in Colonel Roosevelt to ask to be by his own invitation to drink to his own ruin, and which he actually did, and the precise number of drinks he has not had for breakfast."

"With what purpose is his proceeding and to what end? Whether he drinks wine or beer, or cocktail, or mint julep, or any other drink, as all may be said, in a general way, he is not sober, but his own, assuredly nobody's business, and the immediate step should be taken."

"A group of bondholders, anxious to see what can be done to save the threatened crash in the Frisco beer at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action."

CHICAGO, May 31.—Bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Bondholders of the Frisco Beer Drinking American Menace group of bondholders will meet to-day at 10 o'clock at the Frisco hotel at the Frisco hotel and formulate a plan of action.

Spectacles Blamed For Family Break

Wife of 33 Years Says Husband Wanted to Use Glasses All the Time, Except When Asleep.

CLEVELAND, May 31.—Mrs. Louis Magrander blames a pair of spectacles for the troubles between herself and her husband, Frank, to whom she has been married 33 years.

"I need them part of the time, but he wants to wear them all the time, except when he goes to bed," she says. "And he stays up late just to keep hold of them. They fit us both perfectly."

The husband's vision, as related in a divorce proceeding, charges that Mrs. Magrander best him with a club, the "police interfering to save a knock-out, and refused to cook his meals. Magrander wants the court to compel his wife to pay him $1,000 a month.

Alfonso Blamed for Miss Ferrer's Death

Anarchistic Newspapers Declares the Spanish King Mastered End of Daughter of Man He Executed.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE AMERICAN.

PARIS, May 31.—Anarchistic newspapers to-day made a sensational attack on King Alfonso in regard to the recent death of Max Ferrer, the young actress-daughter of the Spanish teacher, whose execution caused world-wide stir.

Miss Ferrer's death, it is asserted, was directly due to the shock of her removal from Fontainebleau, where she was critically ill with tuberculosis. She was taken in an automobile to an adjoining town by order of the police, who feared a demonstration on the occasion of the visit to Fontainebleau by King Alfonso.

Miss Ferrer had won distinction in her dramatic roles. She did not share her father's anarchistic views.

WHICH OF THESE CALLS IS FOR YOU? Call from country to city by those who want good help. An usual, the people at the Summer resorts need the services of a stenographer who can get. There is room for many kinds of adobe. Calls from city to country by those who want good help. An usual, the people at the Summer resorts need the services of a stenographer who can get. There is room for many kinds of adobe. Other calls, as timely as sunshine and roses in June, will be sounded in the SUNDAY AMERICAN AND DAILY GEORGIAN WANT AD SECTION. If you need help in Store, Shop or Home; employment for Hands or Brains, Capital, a Partner, a Business Opportunity, you will read this section carefully.

SOLICITOR WILL USE CONLEY IN TRIAL OF FRANK

Negro Lee Probably Will Be Freed of All Connection With Phagan Slaying.

Continued From Page 1.

Victor General Hugh M. Dorsey the grand inquest of the National Penitentiary on April 24, explaining many things that had not been clear to the officials, but sticking tenaciously to the story he told the investigators.

Conley was taken to the Solicitor's office at that official's request and put through a severe cross-examination. With an elaborate diagram, drawn for the Solicitor by Bert Green, a Georgia newspaper editor, the negro traced the various scenes in the factory after the slaying of the girl.

He told just where he first came to have found her and how he and the superintendent of the factory were the only ones in the factory at the time.

At Conley's own request, through William Smith, his counsel, the negro was later transferred to the police station. The negro had been so pleased by questioners at the county jail that he asked to be put within the shelter of police headquarters, where he had been closely guarded and where none but policemen had been allowed to interrogate him.

Conley intimated that he had been threatened at the jail, but little credence was put in his statements. He had told his story so often each time, it may be noted, in almost the same words that he was tried, the police agreed that he had answered enough questions from outside and he was moved.

Police Urges New Test. A determined effort is being made by the police department to bring Frank face to face with his accuser.

The detectives wish to learn how Frank came up through the window confronting the man he accuses of directing the disposal of the body of the girl. Conley's statement of that scene was that he was there by accident.

They desire also to give Frank an opportunity to deny the story which Conley is repeating. It is said that Conley is reporting to the police that he was the man who saw the body of the girl in the Tower.

He has had nothing to say in regard to the crime, when the police brought to talk with him on the subject, unless it was his own intimate friends who have visited him in his cell.

He will refuse to have anything to do with the case, unless Conley brought to his cell, except by the permission of his attorney, Luther Z. Hooper, and in Mr. Hooper's presence.

Plan to Ask Hooper. The detectives intend to take the matter up with Attorney Hooper. They will represent that the case has reached a stage where it is necessary to mention Conley's statement of that scene. Conley went over the scene of the crime step by step on Friday and never wavered in his tale involving Frank deeply.

Now, it is desired to have him appear before the very men who so strongly accuse and have him repeat the terrible charges. Some believe that if Conley is more guilty of the crime, this offer will be the final one that will bring about the full confession.

Hornes' Hooper agrees to the plan. The negro will be taken at once to the cell of Frank. Conley will in an unsettled state from his three-day sitting by the detectives, and is thought to be just in the frame of mind to break down and make a full confession, if he can be brought back to the crime that he already has committed.

In the event that the meeting is arranged, it will be the first time that Conley has been seen in person by the case. It may have taken some time to get the negro to the cell. His own counsel, William Smith, has been seen in the cell and has been seen in the cell and has been seen in the cell.

They declare that he never so much as mentioned the subject of the slaying of the girl, except in relation to the Sheriff, himself, but that he has in an almost imperious manner refused to discuss the case.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

'Conley Unwittingly Proves Frank's Best Friend' Old Police Reporter Calls Negro's Tale Mass of Lies

Rosser Reflected in Policy of Silence of Man Accused of Murder of Mary Phagan—Black Is Trying to Free Himself.

By AN OLD POLICE REPORTER.

Developments came thick and fast during the past week, and one is able to appreciate consideration of the Phagan case to-day with more assurance and ease of mind than heretofore.

Plainly he has evaded the truth, so I think, from about Leo Frank, and if not yet clear in the mind of the public, they have, nevertheless, I think, been able to get a measure of the situation in.

Leo Frank, snatching eagerly at the faintest ray of light, may think the negro Conley for it—about Conley it is not necessary to say anything.

business men, heads of families, non-emotional, middle-aged persons, who are not in the least bit interested in a case of national-wide interest. Not only is Leo Frank in the jail, but the State of Georgia is in the same predicament.

What would be in Anselm, the man who is the only one who has been seen in the jail, and who is the only one who has been seen in the jail, and who is the only one who has been seen in the jail.

Police Urges New Test. A determined effort is being made by the police department to bring Frank face to face with his accuser.

The detectives wish to learn how Frank came up through the window confronting the man he accuses of directing the disposal of the body of the girl.

They desire also to give Frank an opportunity to deny the story which Conley is repeating. It is said that Conley is reporting to the police that he was the man who saw the body of the girl in the Tower.

He has had nothing to say in regard to the crime, when the police brought to talk with him on the subject, unless it was his own intimate friends who have visited him in his cell.

He will refuse to have anything to do with the case, unless Conley brought to his cell, except by the permission of his attorney, Luther Z. Hooper, and in Mr. Hooper's presence.

Plan to Ask Hooper. The detectives intend to take the matter up with Attorney Hooper. They will represent that the case has reached a stage where it is necessary to mention Conley's statement of that scene.

Now, it is desired to have him appear before the very men who so strongly accuse and have him repeat the terrible charges. Some believe that if Conley is more guilty of the crime, this offer will be the final one that will bring about the full confession.

Hornes' Hooper agrees to the plan. The negro will be taken at once to the cell of Frank. Conley will in an unsettled state from his three-day sitting by the detectives, and is thought to be just in the frame of mind to break down and make a full confession, if he can be brought back to the crime that he already has committed.

In the event that the meeting is arranged, it will be the first time that Conley has been seen in person by the case. It may have taken some time to get the negro to the cell. His own counsel, William Smith, has been seen in the cell and has been seen in the cell.

They declare that he never so much as mentioned the subject of the slaying of the girl, except in relation to the Sheriff, himself, but that he has in an almost imperious manner refused to discuss the case.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

POLICE REPORTERS HAVE BEEN TREMENDOUS AID IN SOLVING MYSTERY

Perhaps as many of the great murder mysteries of history have been solved through the efforts of police reporters—men assigned by newspapers to "cover" criminal cases—have been solved so definitively. At any rate, the police will always admit that police reporters have had a large part in unraveling the knotty problems.

In a case of this sort the police reporter's analysis is particularly good, for he is simply seeking the truth. He, unlike the police, is not held responsible for the production of evidence, and, therefore, whatever line of thought he pursues is solely in the interest of clearing up a baffling mystery.

business men, heads of families, non-emotional, middle-aged persons, who are not in the least bit interested in a case of national-wide interest. Not only is Leo Frank in the jail, but the State of Georgia is in the same predicament.

What would be in Anselm, the man who is the only one who has been seen in the jail, and who is the only one who has been seen in the jail, and who is the only one who has been seen in the jail.

Police Urges New Test. A determined effort is being made by the police department to bring Frank face to face with his accuser.

The detectives wish to learn how Frank came up through the window confronting the man he accuses of directing the disposal of the body of the girl.

They desire also to give Frank an opportunity to deny the story which Conley is repeating. It is said that Conley is reporting to the police that he was the man who saw the body of the girl in the Tower.

He has had nothing to say in regard to the crime, when the police brought to talk with him on the subject, unless it was his own intimate friends who have visited him in his cell.

He will refuse to have anything to do with the case, unless Conley brought to his cell, except by the permission of his attorney, Luther Z. Hooper, and in Mr. Hooper's presence.

Plan to Ask Hooper. The detectives intend to take the matter up with Attorney Hooper. They will represent that the case has reached a stage where it is necessary to mention Conley's statement of that scene.

Now, it is desired to have him appear before the very men who so strongly accuse and have him repeat the terrible charges. Some believe that if Conley is more guilty of the crime, this offer will be the final one that will bring about the full confession.

Hornes' Hooper agrees to the plan. The negro will be taken at once to the cell of Frank. Conley will in an unsettled state from his three-day sitting by the detectives, and is thought to be just in the frame of mind to break down and make a full confession, if he can be brought back to the crime that he already has committed.

In the event that the meeting is arranged, it will be the first time that Conley has been seen in person by the case. It may have taken some time to get the negro to the cell. His own counsel, William Smith, has been seen in the cell and has been seen in the cell.

They declare that he never so much as mentioned the subject of the slaying of the girl, except in relation to the Sheriff, himself, but that he has in an almost imperious manner refused to discuss the case.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

GRANDMOTHER WRITES NOVELS FOR PASTIME

Mrs. Junie Candler Garret's Romance, 'Janice,' Just Published, is Old-Fashioned Love Tale.

Having reared her two children to full maturity, having been the great pain of her grandchildren for many years, she now the proud possessor of three great-grandchildren, Mrs. Junie Candler Garret, 685 Washington Street, has devoted her spare time to the writing of books.

Conley was taken to the Solicitor's office at that official's request and put through a severe cross-examination. With an elaborate diagram, drawn for the Solicitor by Bert Green, a Georgia newspaper editor, the negro traced the various scenes in the factory after the slaying of the girl.

He told just where he first came to have found her and how he and the superintendent of the factory were the only ones in the factory at the time.

At Conley's own request, through William Smith, his counsel, the negro was later transferred to the police station. The negro had been so pleased by questioners at the county jail that he asked to be put within the shelter of police headquarters, where he had been closely guarded and where none but policemen had been allowed to interrogate him.

Conley intimated that he had been threatened at the jail, but little credence was put in his statements. He had told his story so often each time, it may be noted, in almost the same words that he was tried, the police agreed that he had answered enough questions from outside and he was moved.

Police Urges New Test. A determined effort is being made by the police department to bring Frank face to face with his accuser.

The detectives wish to learn how Frank came up through the window confronting the man he accuses of directing the disposal of the body of the girl.

They desire also to give Frank an opportunity to deny the story which Conley is repeating. It is said that Conley is reporting to the police that he was the man who saw the body of the girl in the Tower.

He has had nothing to say in regard to the crime, when the police brought to talk with him on the subject, unless it was his own intimate friends who have visited him in his cell.

He will refuse to have anything to do with the case, unless Conley brought to his cell, except by the permission of his attorney, Luther Z. Hooper, and in Mr. Hooper's presence.

Plan to Ask Hooper. The detectives intend to take the matter up with Attorney Hooper. They will represent that the case has reached a stage where it is necessary to mention Conley's statement of that scene.

Now, it is desired to have him appear before the very men who so strongly accuse and have him repeat the terrible charges. Some believe that if Conley is more guilty of the crime, this offer will be the final one that will bring about the full confession.

Hornes' Hooper agrees to the plan. The negro will be taken at once to the cell of Frank. Conley will in an unsettled state from his three-day sitting by the detectives, and is thought to be just in the frame of mind to break down and make a full confession, if he can be brought back to the crime that he already has committed.

In the event that the meeting is arranged, it will be the first time that Conley has been seen in person by the case. It may have taken some time to get the negro to the cell. His own counsel, William Smith, has been seen in the cell and has been seen in the cell.

They declare that he never so much as mentioned the subject of the slaying of the girl, except in relation to the Sheriff, himself, but that he has in an almost imperious manner refused to discuss the case.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

WOMAN HAS TO PAY BACK $42,000 ALIMONY

COURT JUDICIAL, COV., May 31.—A divorcee in the Superior Court of Massachusetts placed Mrs. W. S. Manning, 107 North Main Street, in an embarrassing situation by ordering her to pay back $42,000 alimony awarded her by her former husband.

Having reared her two children to full maturity, having been the great pain of her grandchildren for many years, she now the proud possessor of three great-grandchildren, Mrs. Junie Candler Garret, 685 Washington Street, has devoted her spare time to the writing of books.

Conley was taken to the Solicitor's office at that official's request and put through a severe cross-examination. With an elaborate diagram, drawn for the Solicitor by Bert Green, a Georgia newspaper editor, the negro traced the various scenes in the factory after the slaying of the girl.

He told just where he first came to have found her and how he and the superintendent of the factory were the only ones in the factory at the time.

At Conley's own request, through William Smith, his counsel, the negro was later transferred to the police station. The negro had been so pleased by questioners at the county jail that he asked to be put within the shelter of police headquarters, where he had been closely guarded and where none but policemen had been allowed to interrogate him.

Conley intimated that he had been threatened at the jail, but little credence was put in his statements. He had told his story so often each time, it may be noted, in almost the same words that he was tried, the police agreed that he had answered enough questions from outside and he was moved.

Police Urges New Test. A determined effort is being made by the police department to bring Frank face to face with his accuser.

The detectives wish to learn how Frank came up through the window confronting the man he accuses of directing the disposal of the body of the girl.

They desire also to give Frank an opportunity to deny the story which Conley is repeating. It is said that Conley is reporting to the police that he was the man who saw the body of the girl in the Tower.

He has had nothing to say in regard to the crime, when the police brought to talk with him on the subject, unless it was his own intimate friends who have visited him in his cell.

He will refuse to have anything to do with the case, unless Conley brought to his cell, except by the permission of his attorney, Luther Z. Hooper, and in Mr. Hooper's presence.

Plan to Ask Hooper. The detectives intend to take the matter up with Attorney Hooper. They will represent that the case has reached a stage where it is necessary to mention Conley's statement of that scene.

Now, it is desired to have him appear before the very men who so strongly accuse and have him repeat the terrible charges. Some believe that if Conley is more guilty of the crime, this offer will be the final one that will bring about the full confession.

Hornes' Hooper agrees to the plan. The negro will be taken at once to the cell of Frank. Conley will in an unsettled state from his three-day sitting by the detectives, and is thought to be just in the frame of mind to break down and make a full confession, if he can be brought back to the crime that he already has committed.

In the event that the meeting is arranged, it will be the first time that Conley has been seen in person by the case. It may have taken some time to get the negro to the cell. His own counsel, William Smith, has been seen in the cell and has been seen in the cell.

They declare that he never so much as mentioned the subject of the slaying of the girl, except in relation to the Sheriff, himself, but that he has in an almost imperious manner refused to discuss the case.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

Don't Put Ice in The Drinking Water

Safe Drinking Water for Summer

Is Always at hand in liberal quantity in the "Built-in" Porcelain-Lined Water Cooler of the Automatic Refrigerator

Let the same ice that cools your food cool your drinking water. Investigate the AUTOMATIC.

C. H. MASON 6-8 W. MITCHELL ST.

DETROIT 2 TRAINS DAILY Lv. 7:12 AM, 5:10 PM

White City Park Now Open

DETROIT 2 TRAINS DAILY Lv. 7:12 AM, 5:10 PM

White City Park Now Open

DETROIT 2 TRAINS DAILY Lv. 7:12 AM, 5:10 PM

White City Park Now Open

DETROIT 2 TRAINS DAILY Lv. 7:12 AM, 5:10 PM

White City Park Now Open

DETROIT 2 TRAINS DAILY Lv. 7:12 AM, 5:10 PM

White City Park Now Open

DETROIT 2 TRAINS DAILY Lv. 7:12 AM, 5:10 PM

White City Park Now Open

DETROIT 2 TRAINS DAILY Lv. 7:12 AM, 5:10 PM

Prediction That Lawyer Will Not Hasten Trial of Case Will Wait Until Popular Mind is Thoroughly Cooled.

Frank swore that he wrote the note the day after the killing. Finally, he gave out a statement, sworn by him, which seems to be about the most willing avowal that ever came down the pipe—saying that he actually had helped to dispose of the body of Mary Phagan.

business men, heads of families, non-emotional, middle-aged persons, who are not in the least bit interested in a case of national-wide interest. Not only is Leo Frank in the jail, but the State of Georgia is in the same predicament.

What would be in Anselm, the man who is the only one who has been seen in the jail, and who is the only one who has been seen in the jail, and who is the only one who has been seen in the jail.

Police Urges New Test. A determined effort is being made by the police department to bring Frank face to face with his accuser.

The detectives wish to learn how Frank came up through the window confronting the man he accuses of directing the disposal of the body of the girl.

They desire also to give Frank an opportunity to deny the story which Conley is repeating. It is said that Conley is reporting to the police that he was the man who saw the body of the girl in the Tower.

He has had nothing to say in regard to the crime, when the police brought to talk with him on the subject, unless it was his own intimate friends who have visited him in his cell.

He will refuse to have anything to do with the case, unless Conley brought to his cell, except by the permission of his attorney, Luther Z. Hooper, and in Mr. Hooper's presence.

Plan to Ask Hooper. The detectives intend to take the matter up with Attorney Hooper. They will represent that the case has reached a stage where it is necessary to mention Conley's statement of that scene.

Now, it is desired to have him appear before the very men who so strongly accuse and have him repeat the terrible charges. Some believe that if Conley is more guilty of the crime, this offer will be the final one that will bring about the full confession.

Hornes' Hooper agrees to the plan. The negro will be taken at once to the cell of Frank. Conley will in an unsettled state from his three-day sitting by the detectives, and is thought to be just in the frame of mind to break down and make a full confession, if he can be brought back to the crime that he already has committed.

In the event that the meeting is arranged, it will be the first time that Conley has been seen in person by the case. It may have taken some time to get the negro to the cell. His own counsel, William Smith, has been seen in the cell and has been seen in the cell.

They declare that he never so much as mentioned the subject of the slaying of the girl, except in relation to the Sheriff, himself, but that he has in an almost imperious manner refused to discuss the case.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

SEABOARD ANNOUNCES LOW RATE BALTIMORE AND RETURN.

Nervous Debility

Its Symptoms and the Errors in Methods of Treatment

By DR. WM. M. BAIRD

WHEN I began the practice of medicine, these cases were entirely treated from the symptomatic outlook rather than from any real knowledge of the causes that were underlying the peculiar symptoms from which they suffered.

The consequence was that men would consult a physician for some lowering of nervous vitality, elderly men finding their vital powers slackening perhaps, and the doctor would simply prescribe for them from that point of view without ever looking into the causes that brought on the symptoms from which they suffered.

The laymen little appreciate the intricacies of the nervous system, the peculiarities of the nerve elements themselves and indeed it is only through the last years that we have had a proper conception of these elements, or the minute anatomy of the nervous system. A better knowledge of it has entirely revolutionized our ideas on the subject, and that during the last couple decades.

When I pointed out some two or three years ago in one of my Sunday talks the peculiar pain and distress that occurred around the base of the brain, running down the neck, due to trouble originating in the prostate glands and its annexes, I was laughed at by some doctors. One gentleman met me on the street and said that my idea on the subject was all nonsense, and yet in the last year I have noticed several articles in medical journals that point out the truth of the idea that I then stated.

No one realizes excepting him who has been delving in these subjects for years how much an irritated congested prostate gland, or a chronic seminal vasculitis due perhaps to some errors in earlier years will keep up the distressing nervous symptoms. So that he that understands his business to-day

Dr. Wm. M. Baird, 56 Broad St., Atlanta, Ga.

CHAS. P. GLOVER REALTY Our Rent Department

is very thorough 21-2 Walton Street

is very thorough 21-2 Walton Street