TO PROBE DEATH OF FLORIDA MAN

Defense Prepares to Show Glowing Discrepancies in Affidavit of the Negro Conley.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 3.—D. E. O. Painter, committed suicide last night, the question everybody here is asking.

Painter carried $1,178,000—perhaps more—on his life, most of which was taken out of his bank four months ago. His death was unexpected and mysterious. One more mystery has been added to the disappearance of the dead man's stomach and kidneys, forwarded from this city to the Johns Hopkins University for analysis.

Painter died at the life insurance companies' suspect was produced by an overdose of chloral which he probably took to end his life over from a trolleybus ostensibly on the way to his factory.

There was no trace to tell of his death, save inferences of two theories, suicide or insanity, and the suicide theories seem to be in the majority. But there are men who steadfastly maintain that his death was purely accidental.

In the meantime expert physicians and chemists in Baltimore are ready to analyze the brain, heart, liver, lungs, stomach and other organs of the dead man to determine whether they contain evidence of poison or disclose any other condition to explain his death.

Coroner C. D. Abbott, of Duval County, is holding an inquest over the death of Painter, who has been named but has gone no further than to view Painter's body.

An autopsy was performed by four physicians, two of whom were at the instance of Painter's family, one for the State and the fourth called in by the attorney general, who was directed to see if the Coroner had seen it and had an opportunity to subpoena a jury.

Six weeks ago three months ago, it has been reported to the life insurance companies concerned, Painter began taking chloral, perhaps not realizing fully what he was doing, shortly before his death, he became a very heavy user of the drug, which was recovered from the St. Johns River, and the suspicion that all was not right became fixed in the mind of the insurance companies. It was determined to set on foot a rigid probe of his death, and its cause, also, all the circumstances bearing upon it.

WHIPS HER HUSBAND.
ANNISTON, Ala., June 3.—Mrs. J. L. Thomas, of this place, was fined $500 and ordered to pay costs for whipping and throwing him to the floor. For talking back to the Recorder Mrs. Thomas was fined $2 more.

BLANK PICKS OCTOBER 1.
WASHINGTON, June 3.—Speaker Clark's prediction that Congress will be in session until October 1 is believed to be a result of a long and weary currency reform and a record-breaking debate on the tariff in the Senate, which has been adjourned after adopting a resolution to limit the legislative program in the House. Speaker, who had already cut out for Oct. 1, said "we'll be here until about October 1." Congress has been in almost continuous session for five years.

POET IN 250-MILE HIKE.
NEW YORK, June 3.—Arriving on the steamer "Star of Congo" from Liverpool with Richard Legallais, the poet, with his wife and daughter, after a three months' trip through the French colonies, Legallais, who left France, where he went to get ideas.

During the trip, Mr. Legallais and his wife wore "native" costumes and visited many notable persons, including Frederick Mistral, who is called the King of Provence. They walked altogether about 250 miles.

FELDER BEFORE GRAND JURY.
Colonel Thomas Felder appeared before the Grand Jury Tuesday morning to answer charges he had made against the police department and the city government. In the eyes of the city, to a condition of affairs that was startling in the extreme.

"I have not been served with a subpoena to go before the Grand Jury," Colonel Felder said, "but Mr. Hatcher, the attorney general, has told me in case I am called upon. The people of Atlanta have no idea how far-reaching the police force is. The social conditions as they are, and the men higher up will not escape. If the truth comes out, it will be the most sensational story that has ever been made into a drama in Atlanta."

FIGHT IS CERTAIN IN FRANK TRIAL

5. Or Painter Had More Than a Million Dollars of Life Insurance.

"Developments of a startling nature may be expected from day to day in the Frank trial," said Chief of Detectives W. T. Nichols.

"They may be expected right up to the date that the trial of Leo Frank begins in August.

With the continued activity of the detective it has become noticeable in the last few days that the defense is working hard to bring out all the little Mary Phagan. It was revealed Tuesday that will be used as exhibits Tuesday. They will be used as exhibits because of their many seeming deviations from fact.

The theory that will be presented by the defense is that Frank was the victim of drink-cracked Conley.

HELL FIRE SALES SWELL MYTH OF HOT SPRINGS, ARK., June 3.—Hell and holme are myths in the opinion of members of the International Association of Firemen, who are attending a convention here.

They ask ministers to discard the offending words.

JAPS CONTINUE PROTESTS.

TOKIO, June 3.—In response to the demands of members of the Diet, Dr. Naoto Makino, Japanese Foreign Minister, announced today that Japan could not institute legal proceedings against the Chinese alien land bill until the end of August, when the measure goes into effect.

In the meantime diplomatic protests will continue to be made.

REBELS BACK "NERV."

DOVER, DELA., June 3.—The plan of the Southerners to drop bombs from an aeroplane upon the Mexican Federal intervention in the town of Oriente has been abandoned.

It was found that the aeroplane, which is an antiquated machine, has not enough plane surface to rise beyond the danger zone of 3,500 feet, and that the bombs will not be dropped with sufficient courage to afford with sufficient courage to ascend in the aircraft.

PINE BUSINESS BETTER.

NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—More cheerful news came from the yellow pine industry yesterday, due to business conditions, car service and demand. From points west to the Mississippi River the movement with the increased demand a former tone in prices was noted. Supplies are now running out all over the country, and the orders asked were of considerable proportions. Stocks have generally been held up, as buyers are of the opinion that the market has not yet bottomed out. Buyers eager to get into their orders before prices make upward jumps.

PUSHES WINNER IN BARROW.

SPokane, Wash., June 3.—Roy McCampbell, of Okanagan, Wash., is cortexed by a dragoon corps, mounted on a high-backed saddle, wearing a helmet, trundling a gorgeously-trimmed and canopied wheelbarrow in which he is seated. He has won the bet.

He won the bet as to the probable date of entrance into Okanagan of the Great Northern Railway.

If the line had reached Okanagan April 1, McCampbell would have beaten his passenger.

LAUGHS HIMSELF SICK.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., June 3.—A veteran vaudeville joke heard for the first time by Julius Joseph, aged 34, of 300 West Division street, Milwaukee, during a performance at the Majestic, said that the show was interrupted until he was helped out to the audience.

He continued laughing until at the end of sixteen hours he became so weak he lost consciousness. Physical examinations and violent laughter will cause his death.

ALLIES GET 60,000 SQ. MILES.

PIRANCA, June 3.—The Allies have begun the evacuation of the 60,000 square miles of territory in Greece which the Turkish fleet invaded.

Engineer Oliver D. Touchstone, of Mason City, Iowa, death, was pronounced normal, though he had been severely injured.

The committee made no recommendations.

TRAIN PLUNGES INTO STREAM.

PITTSBURG, June 3.—The citizens of the Pittsburg school board found that Superintendent H. L. Heeter, of the Pittsburg schools, was guilty of a charge of keeping improper schoolroom conditions.

He was suspended for three weeks. The committee made no recommendations.

Hot Wave Withers Kansas Wheat Crop

HOT Wave Withers Kansas Wheat Crop

WICHITA, Kans., June 3.—Farmers and grain buyers in Southern Kansas estimate that the growing wheat crop will be reduced by the hot and dry weather of this week. Each succeeding day is adding to the loss.

It is feared that unless a general rain comes in a few days the 1913 crop will be 50 per cent short of production made last year.

The Agricultural Academy of Wichita has accepted the theory and will shortly apply preventive method.

NO DIPLOMAS FOR SICK.

INDIANA, PA., June 3.—Dr. James E. Ament, principal of the State Normal School, has issued orders that all students who are sick will not obtain certificates of perfect health before diplomas will be awarded.

Applicants for diplomas to teach in Pennsylvania must be examined by reputable physician and must produce certificate of health before they are eligible for diplomas.

COMMITTEE BAYS HIS GUILTY.

COLUMBUS, June 3.—The citizens of the city of Columbus, Ohio, have voted to condemn the actions of the police department in the recent shooting of a negro, and to demand that the police be held responsible for the killing.

Committee made no recommendations.

10,000 MARCH IN HALF-HOLIDAY PARADE

Bands, Vehicles of Trade and Happy Clerks in Five-Mile
"Emancipation" Pageant.

The mammoth parade of the retail grocers and butchers, continuing the half-holiday of the morning after the opening of the business, was the highlight of the day. The members of the Retail Grocers and Butchers' Association, started with a blare of trumpets Wednesday afternoon, and the clerks, drivers and market men of Atlanta closed their doors for the afternoon, and the holiday spirit is rife among the 10,000 participants in the event.

The parade began at 1:30 p.m. at the corner of Washington and East Mitchell Streets, and at 2 o'clock the march began down Washington Street to East Paul Street, then into Peachtree Street to Whitehall and down Whitehall and Peachtree to North Avenue.

Turing at North Avenue, the parade marched west along Peachtree and back up to West Baker Street, where they were reviewed by the grand marshals, assistant grand marshals and aides. After the review the march was to five points, where the pageant discontinued.

Mayer Rides Behind Band.

At the head of the parade came the city government, followed by the manufacturers in the first line, then Beissinger and D. N. McClellan. They were followed by an auto truck carrying the Fifth Regiment band, playing "The Star-Spangled Banner." Mayor Woodard and the members of his year holiday committee in automobile.

Next came the wagons of this year's half-holiday, followed by the wagons of Cowan and Morley and their assistants, Messrs. Phillips, J. A. Word, G. C. Thompson, L. C. Thompson, Mrs. Nair, J. H. Walker, Willie Heitman and others. The wagons were drawn by horses and wearing red robes and uniforms. The wagons were followed by Mr. Weidner and his aides, heading the retail grocers and hardware men.

Others in the march were packing house representatives, recorded by Chief of Detectives Conley, commission men and jobbers, under the escort of Chief Aide J. F. McNair, and Mr. W. H. Morrison, Jr., his assistants. The line was brought up by the wagons of laundry and dry goods, followed by the wagons of various trade manufacturers, wholesale dealers, retail grocers and assistants. Aide J. H. Meritt and Assistants J. N. Davis, L. C. Thompson and W. E. Bullock.

Ice Wagons Come Next.

Next came the ice wagons and ice manufacturers' wagons, (scored by Chief Aides C. J. Wagons, C. J. Morris and his assistants). The line was brought up by the wagons of various trades—manufacturers, retail wagons, laundry wagons and others.

Candies, chewing gum, sandwiches and other foodstuffs were distributed from the wagons along the line of march by the merchants, who turned out to see the thousands of people who turned out to pass the parade were in no way disappointed.

Unique costumes won many words of approbation.

The parade was more than five miles long and more than 10,000 persons participated. It was under the supervision of F. E. Kamper, chairman of the half-holiday committee, and 400 signatures to an agreement to close at noon on Wednesday due to the number of participants. The local jobbing houses, commission men and others, who had agreed to make no delivery on Wednesday afternoon, and loaned their wagons and teams, were commended.

O. T. Camp, chairman of the holiday committee, now president of the Retailers' Association, and a spokesman of the commission and jobbing houses, said he had secured 400 signatures to an agreement to close at noon on Wednesday due to the number of participants.

STRANGE AFFIDAVIT IS MADE BY FRANK'S COOK

I understood that it was a tip for me to keep quiet. They would tell me to mind how I talked, and Miss Lucile give me a hat.

Q. Is that the reason why you didn't tell the Solicitor yesterday about this, that Miss Lucile and the others had told you not to say anything about what had happened at home there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that true?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that is the reason why you would rather have been locked up last night than tell this?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has Mr. Pickett or Mr. Cravens or Mr. Campbell or myself (Defective Starred) influenced you in any way or threatened you in any way to make this statement?—A. No, sir.

Q. You make it of your own free will and accord in their presence and in the presence of Mr. Gordon, your attorney?—A. Yes, sir.

Frank's Cook Was Counted Upon As Defense Witness

White police activities have turned the door behind him. At 1:30 he was summoned to the office of the attorney general of the state.

The theory of the defense, as outlined previously, is that Conley, lying in wait for the cook, Phagan coming down the stairs alone at the time, forced Frank to drop the body of his master into the basement, where he committed his crime.

If he has not told the whole truth," said the chief, "he will send for my wife, and if she comes, we will have to question her further."

The cook is one of the few witnesses upon whom the defense has relied to prove that Frank returned home for the first time on the morning of the afternoon of his master's murder, and that he therefore could not have been in the office dictating the notes at the time James Conley, the negro, negro maid, was absent.

He has, however, given a few statements which the defense has relied to prove that Frank returned home for the first time on the morning of the afternoon of his master's murder, and that he therefore could not have been in the office dictating the notes at the time James Conley, the negro maid, was absent.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Belz and Mrs. Frank will be one of the other witnesses called by the defense to prove that Frank did not come home from the factory on the fatal morning, and acquit him of the charge of killing Lee, who died Saturday morning, and movement Wednesday half-hour during the morning of August 4, 1913.

The detectives attached the greatest importance to her affidavit, in the hope of breaking the case, and the defense has relied upon her testimony to prove that Frank did not come home from the factory on the fatal morning, and acquit him of the charge of killing Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Belz and Mrs. Frank will be one of the other witnesses called by the defense to prove that Frank did not come home from the factory on the fatal morning, and acquit him of the charge of killing Lee.

Conley, the cook, has been examined by the coroner's jury, and as a result taken first before Solicitor Dorsey, where she hysterically denied that she was the husband of Frank.

She declared that she had been married to Frank, and that he was the man she was taking care of, and that he was taking care of her.

Albert McKnight, husband of Miss Lee, also works for the Beck & Gregg Company, and Conley, the cook, Pickett and Cravens that his wife had left him and arrived home at the time he was testifying before the coroner's jury.

The two men, Lee and McKnight, both employees at the Beck & Gregg Company, were sent into the room with her to make her escape.

It is said that one condition he exacted of the insurance agents who came to the house was that they pay him 10 per cent of the premium to go to the coroner's jury.

STARTLING AFFIDAVIT IS MADE BY FRANK'S COOK; HEARD TALK OF SUICIDE

Another sensational but strangely incoherent affidavit in the Mary Phagan mystery was made public this afternoon when the police gave out what purports to be a startling statement sworn to by Minola McKnight, negro cook in the Frank household, who was grilled for two hours at police headquarters Tuesday.

The statement quotes the McNight woman as declaring that she overheard Mrs. Leo Frank tell her mother that Frank had talked of murder and had threatened to get a gun and shoot him.

The Georgia informs its readers once again that police affidavits are not evidence until they have been accepted in court, and that judgment as to their reliability should be withheld until then.

Statement of Negroes in Full

The McNight woman's statement is given for what it is worth as follows:

STATE OF GEORGIA—County of Fulton:

Personally appeared before me, a Notary Public in and for the above State and County, Minola McKnight, who lives in the rear of 351 Fullman Street, Atlanta, Ga., who, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Saturday morning, April 26, 1913, Mr. Frank left home about 8 o'clock, and Albert, my husband, was there Saturday too; Albert got there I guess about a quarter after 1, and was there when Mr. Frank come for dinner, which was about half past one, but Mr. Frank did not eat any dinner and he left in about ten minutes after he got there.

Mr. Frank come back to the house at 7 o'clock that night, and Albert was there when he got there. Albert had gone home that evening but he came back, but I don't know what time he got there, but he come sometime before Mr. Frank did, and Mr. Frank eat supper that night about 7 o'clock, and when I left about 8 o'clock I left Mr. Frank there.

Sunday morning I got there about 8 o'clock, and there was an automobile standing in front of the house, but I didn't pay any attention to it, but I saw a man in the automobile get a bucket of water and pour it out. Miss Lucile (Mr. Frank's wife) was downstairs, and Mr. and Mrs. Selig were upstairs. Albert was there Sunday morning, but I don't remember what time he got there. When I called them down to breakfast about half-past 8 I found that Mr. Frank was gone. Mr. and Mrs. Selig eat breakfast and Miss Lucile didn't eat until Mr. Frank came back and they eat breakfast together. I didn't hear them say anything at the breakfast table, but after dinner I understood them to say that a girl and Mr. Frank were caught at the office Saturday. I don't know who said it, but Miss Lucile and Mr. and Mrs. Selig and Mr. Frank were standing there talking after dinner. I didn't know the girl was killed until Monday evening. I understood them to say it was a girl, and I asked Miss Lucile and she said it was a Gentile.

Frank Said: "It's Mighty Bad."

On Tuesday Mr. Frank says to me: "It is mighty bad, Minola; I might have to go to jail about this girl and I don't know any thing about it."

I heard Mrs. Rauzin, Mrs. Frank's sister, tell Miss Lucile that it was mighty bad, and Miss Lucile said: "Yes, it is; I am going to get after her about it." I don't know what they were talking about.

Sunday Miss Lucile said to Mr. Selig that Mr. Frank didn't sleep so good Saturday night. She said he was drunk and wouldn't let her sleep with him, and she said she slept on the floor on the rug by the bed because he was drinking. Miss Lucile said Sunday that Mr. Frank told her Saturday night that he was in trouble that he didn't know the reason why he would murder, and he told his wife to get his pistol and let him kill himself. He heard Miss Lucile say that to Mrs. Selig. It got away with Mrs. Selig mighty bad, she didn't know what to think. I haven't heard Miss Lucile say whether she believed it or not. I don't know why Mrs. Frank didn't come to see her husband, but it was a pretty good while before she come to see him, maybe two weeks. She would tell me: "Wasn't it mighty bad that he was locked up?" and she said: "Minola, I am going to go to jail about this girl."

When I left home to go to the Solon General's office they told me to mind how I talked. They pay me $3.50 a week, but last week she paid me $4, and one week she paid me $6.50. Up to the time of the murder I was getting $3.50 a week, and the week right after the murder I don't remember how much they paid me, and the next week they paid me $3.50, and the next week they paid me $6.50, and the next week they paid me $4. The next week $4.

One week Mrs. Selig give me $5, but it wasn't for my work, and they didn't tell me what it was for.

They just ask "Here is $5, Minola," but, of course, I understand what they meant, but they didn't tell me anything at the

FAIN NAMED IN VICE QUIZ AS RESORT VISITOR

Police Commissioner Accused Before Grand Jury of Brawl in Disorderly House.

As a climax of revelations made before the Grand Jury in its probe of vice conditions in Atlanta, Police Commissioner William F. Fain was named as the central figure in a carousal said to have been held in a house on Ivy Street some months ago, according to evidence presented at the Wednesday hearing.

Mr. Fain was also accused of brutally treating one of the women in the party. The grand jury, which adjourned its session yesterday, adjourned the place. It was said that Fain was arrested, but was immediately released by order of a man high up in police circles.

This startling information was given the Grand Jury by a real estate operator and friend of Fain's who was summoned by the tribunal to give testimony.

Whiskey For Reasons.

Before the witness left the hearing, it is declared that he held back some of the most sensational stories of the brawling, to light in the city. That the Grand Jury will probably probe to the bottom of it, and that its veracity will be given the thumbs up.

Another witness at the afternoon hearing was J. E. Skaggs, agent for Standard Fire Insurance Co. Mr. Skaggs was unable to testify as to shifments of whiskey and other liquors into Atlanta to places of ill-fame.

Chief Beavers also was called before the Grand Jury in the afternoon session. The police official is declared to have told the Jurors that his knowledge Atlanta was better now than ever before, and that he had been cleared.

The chief will be called again later in the investigation.

Gamblers Cleared.

Elimination of Chief of Police Beavers from all charges of graft and corruption in the Police Department, made by Colonel Charles B. Felder, may be followed by the same action in the Fulton County Grand Jury.

Colonel Felder made this distinction to Chief Beavers personally, and so far renewed his accusations against Chief Detectives Newport A. Lanford.

At the same time it was said evidence of corruption money being paid to the police had been given the Grand Jury.

There was a dramatic situation in the Grand Jury room when Felder, Beavers and Lanford came into the room, others 300 feet away, their words were flung back and forth.

"I want to say, to you right here," declared Felder to the police chief, "that I am going to make a stand against you. I do not accuse the other chief at the present station of protecting vice, and I have a superabundance of evidence to prove it."

Bribery To Be Probed.

Another unexpected turn in the investigation was disclosed yesterday, when it became known that the Grand Jury will take up immediately the bribery charges made against Colonel Felder, by the Police Department and counter-accusations sprung out of their diehard opponents.

Colonel Felder appeared before the Grand Jury, but, according to Dr. H. L. Darrow, the diehard committee, after reviewing a series of disapproving Party reports, have decided to drop the charges.

He declared to the Jurymen that the charges were absolutely false and the result of an

Tobacco Magnate's Donations to Trinity Pass Million Mark

DURHAM, N. C., June 4.—W. P. Few, president of Trinity College, at commencement exercises, today announced new gifts to the college that will add to the total endowment fund of $1,185,000.

This places Trinity on an equal footing with any college in the South. The amount is due in large part to the generosity of the Duke family—Duke and James B. Duke, the tobacco kings, who have given to Trinity a total of $1,148,500.

The annual budget of New York City gave $118,000, and the remainder was raised from small contributions of many people in all parts of the state, mainly coming from the tobacco industry.

The late Washington Duke, who developed the cigarette industry, was the staunchest supporter of the college ever had.

Atlanta Woman in Umbrella Battle

MACON, GA., June 4.—Because Leola Conner objected to Mrs. Fain's conduct of Atlanta as her husband, coming in at ten hours of the night, and also because she refused Edward C. Barnhill the privilege of seeing her until she had left, some lively scenes resulted in the Vinelake Station neighborhood where the police were called.

Barnhill addressed an umbrella over Mrs. Conner. In the police court hearing, Mrs. Miller testified that she looked on and laughed during the whole proceeding.

Militants Dynamite, Then Burn, Mansion

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.
 TROWBRIDGE, ENGLAND, June 4.—Damage estimated between $15,000 and $20,000 was done to Westgate, a large country residence belonging to a local real estate man, who is said to have made the arrangements for the dynamiting at the last instant, refused to disclose the mastermind of the plot.

The old mansion, which spans the entire spur of the neighborhood, evidently was shaken by a power or dynamite explosion. Residents of the neighborhood heard a loud detonation.

Ast U. S. Control of Cotton Shipments

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Chairman Adamson of the House Interstate Commerce Committee called his committee together this week to begin to-day, to frame a bill for uniform regulations governing the shipment of cotton in interstate commerce.

There are abuses in sampling, lack of uniformity in railroad regulations governing baling and lack of uniformity in ton charges are among the abuses which the proposed legislation is designed to correct.

At the same time it was said evidence of corruption money being paid to the police had been given the Grand Jury.

There was a dramatic situation in the Grand Jury room when Felder, Beavers and Lanford came into the room, others 300 feet away, their words were flung back and forth.

"I want to say, to you right here," declared Felder to the police chief, "that I am going to make a stand against you. I do not accuse the other chief at the present station of protecting vice, and I have a superabundance of evidence to prove it."

PAINTER MYSTERY DEEP Disappearance of Organs Unsolved Family Discredit Suicide Theory

E. O. PAINTER, Jacksonville fertilizer man, whose body was found in the St. Johns River is being investigated by insurance companies because of the fact that he had taken out over $1,000,000 life insurance in four months preceding his death.

Johns Hopkins Authorities Know Nothing of Loss of Parts of Body; Bonding Concern in Hunt.

BALTIMORE, June 4.—The mystery surrounding the death of E. O. Painter, the Jacksonville man whose body was found in the St. Johns River last month, was heightened Wednesday by the fact that nothing could be learned concerning the disposal of the body which had been removed from Mr. Painter's body.

At the Johns Hopkins Hospital, where the heart, stomach and kidneys were removed, Dr. John C. Morgan, medical director, said he had no impression Saturday for evidence of poison. It is safe to say that none of their whereabouts had been received.

Dr. Lewis, a local real estate man, who is said to have made the arrangements for the examination at the hospital, refused to discuss the matter.

Mysterious Slaying Of Two Years Ago Is Revealed by Woman

A remarkable story of the alleged murder of a young man on the Chapel Road two years ago that never has been solved has been disclosed by a woman who became known as the "girl in Chief" of Detectives Newport A. Lanford Wednesday morning by G. C. Daniels, once a railroad detective and now a police officer.

So good an impression did Daniels' story make on Chief Lanford that he has prepared to start an investigation.

Daniels said he got his information when he heard several women, friends of Mrs. Daniels, talking. He heard one of the women remark that there had been a murder on the Chapel Road two years ago that was never heard of.

According to the story she told, a young man was murdered by a man who was described as a man over 60, and the body was buried in the back of the road. Later the murderers, so the story goes, exhumed the body and cut off the head, which had been removed from Mr. Painter's body.

At the Johns Hopkins Hospital, where the heart, stomach and kidneys were removed Saturday for evidence of poison, it is safe to say that none of their whereabouts had been received.

Dr. Daniels declares he did not learn the name of the man who is supposed to have been murdered, or the name of the man who was responsible for the killing.

Mrs. Daniels' story was corroborated by officers.

New Throat Disease Has Europe Puzzled

LONDON, June 4.—Physicians in Europe are puzzled over a mysterious throat complaint, the chief symptom of which is a limp condition of the tonsil or at least of the back of the throat. It has caused several deaths.

The complications include epipharynx, high temperature and weakness of the heart muscle. Some physicians believe that it is a form of scarlet fever or mononucleosis.

By COLE E. MORRAN.

JACKSONVILLE, June 4.—Edward O. Painter, the family and intimate friends reluctantly state their belief that his death in the St. Johns River on May 28 was accidental and not premeditated or due to mental aberration, as is alleged in Jackson ville.

They declare his business was in excellent condition, his home life ideal and that he had no cause to seek self destruction.

The instance of insurance salesmen to write policies, because he was a prominent man, was cited as having been a chief factor in causing competition among insurance rivals had ensued this spring, are the explanations offered for his death at a time when death was not expected.

More Insurance Reported.

In addition to $1,178,000 insurance carried by him, it is known that he had $1,000,000 more which he did not secure. A $16,000 policy was issued by Dr. Equitable Life, but before he died he was issued the agent's certificate to him.

Painter was discovered, however, when he was over weight. His blood pressure showed 160 in the medical examination.

On May 11 Painter asked the company to give a check for the premium and accept it. Before it could be delivered on Monday a telegram came from the office that it had been returned.

On April 12 a $16,000 application was made with the Travelers. On May 18 the company responded the same day.

On May 14 Painter applied to the Florida Life for $10,000 insurance, the application was rejected by the company because of his high blood pressure.

10,000 MARCH IN HALF-HOLIDAY PARADE

Bands, Vehicles of Trade and Happy Clerks in Five-Mile
'Emancipation' Pageant.

The monuments portrait of the retail grocers and market men marking the beginning of the Wednesday afternoon march of the employers of the city, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and Business Association, started with a blare of trumpets Wednesday afternoon. Over 100 retail grocers and market men of Atlanta closed their doors for the half-holiday, and the bands and marchers filled among the 10,000 participants in the big events.

The parade began to form at 1:30 p.m. at the corner of Washington and Peachtree Streets, and at 2 o'clock the march began down Washington Street to East Fair, where it turned into Broadstreet Street to Whitehall and down Whitehall and Peachtree Streets.

Turning at North Avenue, the paraders marched into West Peachtree and back up to West Baker Street, where they were reviewed by the grand marshal, Mr. W. H. Morrison, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, who was in Five Points, where the parade disbanded.

Mayor Rides Behind Band.

At the head of the march came the city marchers, followed by the grand marshals of the day, Harry L. Schlesinger and D. N. McMillion. They were followed by an auto truck carrying the portraits of the Atlanta band leaders.

Following the band leaders were the Mayors of Atlanta, the

GIRL STICKS TO STORY AIDING FRANK

Her Narrative Believed to Bear
Out Kill Claim Defense Will

Try to Prove.

Developments in the Phagan case Wednesday indicated that the detectives have expended all their energies to break down the strong alibi which had been established by the two men who were believed to have known Leo Frank on the day he was murdered.

Minnie McNeight, the colored cook at the Frank home, furnished the most notable example. She was free again Wednesday, but only after she had been put through the severest of examinations by the coroner's jury, who had threatened her with corporal punishment if she was not released.

It was learned Wednesday that in the trial she stuck to her story favorable to Frank.

The cook is one of the five witnesses upon whom the defense has relied to prove that Frank was not guilty of the killing of 119-year-old Mary Phagan Saturday afternoon of the murder and that he therefore could not have been in the office dictating the notes at the time James Conley, the negro waiter, left his service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Bell and Mrs. Frank will be three of the other witnesses called by the defense to prove that they were separated from the factory on the fatal day. An acquaintance will tell of seeing Frank at the street car that day, and another will relate riding back to town with Frank to Story.

It is understood that the negro woman, in spite of the cold first of June, was still in the kitchen when the cook left for more than two hours, maintained substantially the same story that she told when arrested on suspicion of having been a member of the Klan. West, important to her affidavit, in the hope of breaking her, turned to the coroner's jury.

"O. K.'d by T. R." Is Liquor Ad Caption

BSPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 4.—The faring announced by a local liquor firm in its advertisement for its product in regard to the public "milk punch, rare old Madras wines and mutton juleps." The slogan is in type, one inch high and extends across five columns.

Under the heading "Milk Punch" the advertisement says:

"T. R. is probably the rural dweller who gives his first punch by his mother's host."

"My dear sir," he said, "you ought to thank God every day of your life for having a cow that will give such milk."

10,215,000 Microbes
Found in One Mud Pie

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.

LYON, FRANCE, June 4.—A noted bacteriologist of this city has given the world a mud pie which contains 10,215,000 microbes.

He found 10,215,000 dangerous microorganisms in the cubic inches of pie, classified as follows:

Diphtheria, 1,800,000; miasma, 12,400,000; mucus, 800,000; pus, 4,000,000; epidermis, 800,000; faeces, 15,000; tubercle bacilli, 800,000.

Germany and Prussia Floating New Loans

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.

BERLIN, June 4.—Announcement that the Imperial and Prussian Governments are floating two large public loans caused dismay in financial circles here yesterday.

It was reported that the loans had been floated because of corporal proceedings if she was not released.

The loans redeemable in 1925 will both bear 4 per cent. The money is intended for the expansion of state railroads, particularly military time lines.

Money Magnates to Reveal Wage Scales

CHICAGO, June 4.—The power of Chinese magnates, a number of bankers, to-day were summoned to appear before the Illinois Senate White Slave Committee and tell how many men of employ were connected with their institutions.

Franklin West, important to her affidavit, in the hope of breaking her, turned to the coroner's jury.

Judge Finds "Most Dangerous Woman"

NEW YORK, June 4.—A big crowd of curious persons flocked to Judge Swan's chambers in the Bronx yesterday to witness the arraignment of Miss Gertrude Wingate, called "The Most Dangerous Woman in New York," who was charged with having tried to trap wealthy men for her favors.

A subpoena had been issued for Miss Wingate to come into court and explain why she caused the arrest of Joseph Rahm May 7.

PARIS, June 4.—The differences against American securities in Paris are abating.

The Journal des Bourses, after reviewing the series of attacks on American stocks, has accepted as probably legitimate there that ability only counts in business.

Baby Girl Becomes Masonic Order Ward

BUFFALO, June 4.—With ceremonies used in this country for the first time since 1771, Ruth Katherine Dugan, baby daughter of Dr. Noyes H. Dugan, was initiated into the Masonic Lodge Cathedral here.

The ceremony made the baby a member of the Masonic Order.

Mary Phagan entered the factory at about 12:30 in the afternoon. It is to be presumed that it was about this time that she was summoned to an evidently arranged audience from her original story to lead the detectives to regard her testimony as valuable and sufficient to sustain the defense.

Her story, however, was not accepted as probably legitimate there, unless the form of a statement and later was signed and sworn to.

Unless the State is able to bring down the charge of conspiracy to commit murder on the part of the McHughes, and the fact that Frank did not arrive home at the time he testified before the Coroner's Jury, the two men informed the coroner of McHughes' conduct, and as far as the coroner was concerned, she was taken first before Solicitor Dorsey, where she hysterically denied that she had ever had such a desire to kill her husband.

She declared that she had had a "flame" with her husband, and that he was taking this means to get into the house.

KING AND QUEEN IN THRONES AT THE DERBY

Record Crowd Swarms to Epsom Downs for Greatest British Turf Event.

EPSOM, ENGLAND, June 4.—Craugnon, owned by C. Bowes Jams and ridden by Johnny Kenny, an American jockey, won the derby at Epsom, Downs to-day.

EPSOM, ENGLAND, June 4.—A record crowd swarmed Epsom Downs to-day to witness the greatest of the annual races of the British turf. Among them were many American tourists who had hoped that their money would be paid back in better up-to-date horses, owned by citizens of the United States. In this, however, they were disappointed, for the only American-owned horse, Nitham Croker's Knights Key, was scratched.

The weather is brilliant and the track hard and fast. The day favors, in the opinion of C. H. Horner, the Englishman, D. R. H. Hargreaves' Shamus and W. H. Hapshur's Lexington, George, who started four hours in the blue ribbon event, and Queen Mary traveled from London, accompanied by a number of members of the Court of St. James. The presence of royalty, the fact that the race is always won by the British, never revealed its qualities of attraction.

Daring Split Downs Won.

Daring French styled of dress, which included some ornate leather-chaps and other French race costumes, were worn by the spectators, notably the Queen's Guard, who noticed that the Queen's Guard was simple almost to the point of being old-fashioned. The Queen's Guard, the swaggers said, however, were split apart to nearly reveal the wearer's knicks.

Although there were no American horses in the race, the British, however, represent the cream of English turfmen. They have been trained from childhood to the art of racing to-day.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken to guard the Derby candidates on account of threats made by men who have been known to bleed horses. Special guards have been employed for weeks to guard the stable.

MILLION DOLLAR CRAGNON.

A total of $1,000,000 was wagered on Craugnon, the American jockey. Thousands had ever, but on Lord Rosse's pride in his horse, and the Duke of Cambridge riding this horse.

The overnight racing was Craignon, 2 to 1; Lingin, 2 to 2; Louis, 7 to 1; Nimbus, 9 to 1; Day Cloud, 10 to 1; and the Grand Sport, 100 to 1 against. Odds on the others ranged into very high figures.

Another horse, the entry, Yesterday, did not arrive from the United States.

White, Hermon, Durys and other American turned their faces elsewhere, but it was not for any reason or another. The Derby is worth approximately $1,000,000.

The distance is about one mile and a half.

W. H. Hapshur's Tagus was the event last night.

Couple Arrange by Wireless to Wed.

BOSTON, June 4.—H. W. Philiberry, proprietor of the Manchester, N. H. Union, arrived on the steamer Oceanic from Europe yesterday with his bride, who is in the United States to ride with him.

A wedding meeting was arranged at the home of the man on the Cleveland and the woman on the Cincinnati, a few moments after arrival.

For the marriage had been made by wireless, and the distance was 1,000 miles from that port.

CN

Keep your jelly close!

free from roaches

No vermin can thrive where CN is used, because CN kills roaches and destroys the breeding spots.

It is a great aid to bring a powerful cleanser, is a disinfectant five times as powerful as carbolic acid, but not so strong.

Keep a bottle on the kitchen shelf.

It is a leading hotel and cafe use CN regularly.

All stores, drugstores, hardware, grocery, etc., use CN.

presumption could be that he had left and gone downtown.

Qulin left about 12:30. He had later Frank went on the fourth floor ladder to the roof of the Arthur White. This hour is the only time of length that is unaccounted for in the movements of Frank during the time it is the presumption of the police that he was away.

Frank's testimony is that he completed the dead at this time it would have been necessary for him to have in hiding means of getting away from the police.

After getting away from the building a few minutes of 1 o'clock, Frank's testimony is that he left the building himself at 1 o'clock, locking the door behind him. At 1:10 he was seen walking down the street.

Extraneous precautions have been taken to guard the Derby candidates on account of threats made by men who have been known to bleed horses. Special guards have been employed for weeks to guard the stable.

MILLION DOLLAR CRAGNON.

The theory of the defense, as outlined previously, is that Conley was guilty of the crime and that the negro was in the building with him and attacked her.
