TRY TO PROVE TIME TOO SHORT FOR FRANK TO DO AS NEGRO SAYS

The attorney for Leo Frank springs a surprise Thursday afternoon by recalling Detective Harvey of the Philadelphia, Pa. stand and getting from him that it required the Conley and seven ministers to write one note dictated to him from the laboratory found by Mary Phagan's body, when Conley had declared positively on the stand that he wrote four in Frank's office within five minutes and a half or two minutes.

This will prove one of the strongest foundations for the contention of the defense that it was a physical impossibility for all to have taken place which the negro described between four minutes of 1 o'clock and the time that Frank left for his "lunchroom" home.

Frank is said to have arrived home at 12 o'clock 1:30. By Conley's own statement he was imprisoned in a closet for five minutes to dispose of the girl's body. Additional time, according to the negro, was consumed by Frank washing his hands and in conversation about Frank's wealthy folks in Brooklyn. Conley's watch and other topics.

Time Point Made by Defense.

If it required Conley six minutes to write a short note, as Scott testified Thursday afternoon, it is the claim of the defense that it would have taken a half hour to write a copy of the note, with the disposal of the body and other things that the negro said were done at that time. It is also proposed to show that Conley would have required more than three-quarters of an hour to have done this time Frank was at home eating breakfast.

HOW CONLEY SAYS HE AND FRANK WENT TO THE FACTORY

DEFENSE TRIES TO BREAK DR. HARRIS' TESTIMONY; CALLS ITS OWN EXPERTS

Important bits of Dr. Harris' testimony and had put into the record Dr. Child's testimony in rebuttal. Harris asked the witness if he, in all his medical experience, had ever known of a physician of repute giving his opinion as to the inconclusiveness of a person with no more data than had been in the possession of Dr. Harris. Dr. Child replied that he never had.

The mysterious C. B. Dalton, who was expected to make sensational revelations of incidents in which Leo Frank was alleged to have participated in the National Pencil Factory, proved a very late and commonplace witness when he was called Thursday.

The most that Dalton could say was that, on several of his visits to the factory, he had seen women in Frank's office. He told of no compelling situations. He was not even able to identify the women. He did not know whether or not they were members of Frank's own family. All that he knew was that they did not appear to be stenographers as he never saw them writing.

Dalton, when he was questioned by Luther Rosser, was not even sure of his own birthplace. He thought it was somewhere in Laurens County. He explained his presence by saying that he had gone to the factory with a Miss Daisy Hopkins. He said that he saw Frank in the office with two or three women, and that cool drinks generally were in evidence. On one occasion he said Frank and his visitors were drinking beer.

Detective Rosser on the Stand. Detective Bass Rosser was on the witness stand for a few minutes and was questioned briefly. He testified that when he saw Mrs. Arthur White Monday after the crime she failed to tell him that she had seen a man in the factory the Saturday the girl was killed. He said he did not get possession of this information until May 6 or 7. It is the contention of the State that the defense suppressed these facts.

At the conclusion of Detective Rosser's testimony, Solicitor Dorsey announced that he was prepared to rest his case as Dr. H. E. Harris had been sworn by adjournment Wednesday afternoon. Dr. Harris was unimpaired as the physician took the stand. He forced Dr. Harris to say that there is much uncertainty in drawing conclusions about digestive functions and their time limitations.

Frank at the pencil factory," asked Mr. Rosser.

"Last fall some time."

Q. Where was Frank at that time?—A. At his office.

Q. Who was there with him?—A. Some ladies.

Q. Were there any other men in there with him?—A. No; he was the only man.

Q. Who was you with?—A. Miss Daisy Hopkins.

Q. Do you know the names of the ladies in the office with Mr. Frank?—A. No.

Q. Where did you go?—A. I went to the basement.

Q. Was Miss Daisy with you?—A. Yes.

Q. When did you go to the factory again?—A. Right before Christmas.

Q. Who introduced you to Frank?—A. Miss Daisy Hopkins.

Q. She just said to Mr. Frank, "This is my friend, Mr. Dalton," did she?—A. Yes.

Q. Went to Basement.

Q. You were never in his office after that?—A. No, sir.

Q. When you went into the factory with Miss Daisy, you went down to the basement with her, didn't you?—A. Yes.

Q. Where did you go down into the basement?—A. We went down the hallway by the elevator.

Q. Where did you go in the basement?—A. Right to where there were some boxes in the little room in the rear.

Q. Where did you live last year?—A. No. 121 East Hunter street.

Q. How did you work for?—A. Mr. Heltz, a contractor.

Q. Where did you work after that?—A. With Captain John McManis.

Q. What time did you see Frank in his office?—A. Some time between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Q. Were the windows up?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you see any curtains?—A. No, but the office was very light.

Q. There were two windows in each office, weren't there?—A. Yes.

Q. Do you know whether there was anyone else in the factory when you saw Mr. Frank?—A. Yes, the negroes were there.

Q. Saw Negro Watchman.

Q. What time at night was it when the night watchman was there?—A. I don't know.

Q. Was it a negro watchman?—A. Yes.

Q. Was that this year?—A. No.

Q. Did you ever go to Frank's office with Miss Daisy Hopkins?—A. Yes.

Q. How long were you away from there?—A. I lived there twenty years.

Q. How long ago?—A. I don't know.

Q. Did you ever go with anyone to the pencil factory except Miss Daisy Hopkins?—A. Yes.

Q. How did you feel for the factory to close to work home with the girls?—A. Well, I used to go to the factory. Yes; Miss Laura Atkinson and a Miss Laura Smith, of No. 118 South Pryor street.

Q. Do you go there any more?—A. No, I haven't been to the Busy Bee since.

Q. Where were you born?—A. I don't know.

Q. When you first woke up, where worked you?—A. Somewhere in Walton County.

Gave Conley Money.

Q. As a matter of fact, you know where your family lived when you were born, don't you?—A. Somewhere near Lawrenceville.

Solicitor Dorsey took the witness on the redirect examination.

Q. Did you ever give Jim Conley anything?—A. Sometimes I would give him a quarter and sometimes 30 cents. Sometimes they would have cold drinks, and sometimes they would have beer.

Rosser took the witness again.

Q. When did you see her there?—A. On Saturdays afternoon—I don't remember the dates.

Q. Can you name specifically any time last fall that you went there?—A. Not the day, but it was some time after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Frank would have the cold drinks in a waiter in his office.

Can't Give Women's Names.

Q. And that is as definite as you can fix it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you know the woman besides the ones you named?—A. No.

Q. Can you describe them?—A. No.

"Come down."

Q. Did he know you were there?—A. Yes.

Q. Did Conley know you were there?—A. Yes.

Q. Who else?—A. The night watchman. I don't know who he was.

Q. Did you see any other men in the factory?—A. No.

Q. What was the first time she mentioned to you seeing a negro at the factory?—A. May 6.

Q. I want to record an objection to that, your honor," said Rosser.

Rosser took the witness.

She Made Statement.

Q. Did you ask her?—A. No, but she made a statement.

Dorsey took the witness on redirect.

Q. Did you take anything to Dr. Child's Smith?—A. Yes, some chips.

Q. Are these the chips?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you make a search of the alleyway around the elevator?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you find anything like this (showing the bugdon alleged to have been found by the Pinkertons)?—A. Yes.

Q. Would you have found it?—A. Yes.

Q. Attorney Rosser took the witness again.

Q. Don't you know this roller has been in the factory ever since it was may have been, but it was not on the first floor when we made our search.

State Wins Rolling.

Q. You made a good search?—A. Yes.

Q. Do you know these are the same chips?—A. Yes, I am sure of that.

Q. I don't know what the net is. If we did not, I want to under it now. I also want to enter these chips.

Attorney Rosser:

"They haven't been identified."

They were identified by Detective show indignation?—A. No. Very many people have indignation several years and don't know it. They don't even feel it themselves.

Q. How long does the stomach take to free itself when this salt?—A. That has been investigated rather thoroughly, but it varies. I would say about 12 hours.

Q. How long does it take some substance that the stomach does not digest to pass out?—A. That is hard to say. They probably pass through in a foreign body.

Q. How long would it take?—A. That depends. The common thing is like to free itself of meat until it is completely digested. Then it goes out very freely.

About Digestion of Cabbage.

Q. That is just the point. Does the stomach usually "cabbage" or corn?—A. Oh, yes; there is always a constant churning motion.

Q. How about corn?—A. It might pass through without emulsifying.

Q. Peas?—A. Yes.

Q. You would not attempt to compare what vegetables would pass through the stomach to the intestines?—A. No, I would not.

Q. Is it not a fact that the first knowledge of digestion comes from the stomach and animals for meat?—A. Yes.

Q. Is there any animal that does everything that man does?—A. Yes, the swine.

Q. Any other?—A. I rather think the cat does.

Q. Well, isn't the wildest carnivorous animal strictly?—A. I don't believe I have associated with one.

Q. You will admit that the experiments along this line are very limited with the exception of that Canadian case?—A. Yes.

Processes Not All Understood.

Q. It is practically in its infancy?—A. Well, I would not say that. We are fairly familiar with the various juices and the process of digestion, but there is much to learn.

Q. Just what part does the mouth and saliva play in connection with the stomach and the gastric juices and the lower bowels? Is not this something that is not definitely known?—A. Yes, that is true.

Q. Don't you practice vivisection on these animals?—A. Yes.

Q. And you have never done it on humans and you don't know how the processes take place in the human like you do in the animals?—A. Except with the stomach.

Q. What is the hardest vegetable to digest?—A. I don't know. I don't know any experiments and I don't know any view point on this. I don't know that science has ever determined that may be what has given the general idea that cabbage is hard to digest.

Q. Do you say when you first testified that you couldn't tell anything about the bread in the stomach?—A. I don't think I made that statement.

Mr. Arnold read Dr. Harris' testimony previously given.

Dr. Harris: "If I said that, I do not mean it in that sense. I meant that you could tell nothing about it by observing with the naked eye."

Q. You said it was impossible to state absolutely how long that cabbage had been in Mary's stomach?—A. I mean I could not state within a minute.

Q. Could you tell within two minutes?—A. No, not within two or three. Probably not within 10 minutes. I probably told that it was somewhere between 12 and 18 minutes.

Q. Doesn't it all depend on how much digestion is believed?—A. To an extent.

Q. All you are attempting to say, then, is that the process of digestion had only gone on a certain length of time?—A. Yes.

Q. Don't you say that certain circumstances retard digestion?—A. Yes, but don't say that anything could retard the flow of the digestive juices. All one can do is retard anything could retard the digestive digestion.

Harris Would Not Retract.

Q. I believe you said that, looking on the bread did not cause any retardation on the part of the stomach?—A. Yes.

Q. Was it out through to the throat?—A. Yes.

Q. What article were there?—A. Only some trifling food vessels.

Q. I believe you said it might have had a good deal of it. Yes, it might. A cut on the hand usually causes a good deal of blood to flow.

Q. I believe you said it was not sufficient to have caused death?—A. Yes, I did.

Solicitor Dorsey then took the witness.

Q. Mr. Arnold was asking you to retract what you said. Was there any evidence on the subject of the presence of poison?—A. There could not have been any irritant poisons. Their evidence is always unimpaired.

Dr. Harris was excited.

Dorsey addressed the court: "Your honor, I don't intend to retract anything of evidence on this subject."

Arnold: "We want to object to all except the statement from Dr. Harris."

JIM CONLEY, THE EBONY CHEVALIER OF CRIME, IS DARK TOWN'S OWN HERO

By JAMES B. NEVIN. Now that James Conley has been dismissed from the Frank trial, now that he has stood safely the fire of Mr. Rosser's most exhaustive grilling...

Quite without previous design, I stopped at this negro's stand Wednesday afternoon, and it was not long before he mentioned the famous trial...

"Well, boss, that Mr. Rosser ain't made nothing on Jim yet, is he?" "George," I said, "I know his name is George, but that it so happens I address negroes unknown of mine that way..."

PROSECUTOR DORSEY SNAPPED IN ACTION

This shows the Solicitor in an argument at the Frank trial.

ROAN'S RULING HEAVY BLOW TO DEFENSE

Judge Declined to Order Out of Record Any of Jim Conley's Testimony.

Judge Roan administered a severe blow to the defense Wednesday when he ruled that all of Conley's story should stand; although portions of it he acknowledged, would have been inadmissible had objection been made at the time the testimony was offered.

It was a particularly difficult allegation to combat. Unlike many allegations, it was exactly as hard to fight in the courtroom as it was in fact. It was found on fact.

Mr. Coleman testified that Mary left home with the meek bag in her hand. The detective and policeman testified that they were on duty and had no trace of it either the morning after the crime or in the search that had been conducted since that time.

EXPERT LAST WITNESS CALLED BY THE STATE

DR. H. F. HARRIS. Dr. Harris, who on his testimony furnished evidence of ball-marks and leadmarks, to the prosecutors, seemed this morning to have heard Alexander's damning charge that Conley was a 'old black jack' while Dr. Harris was called as a 'Wagner' expert.

TRIAL AS VARIED AS MAIDWILLE EXHIBITION

Every Change in Chromatic Scale Brought — All Georgia Types Seen in Court.

By I. F. WOODRUFF. Every change in the chromatic scale has been rung in the Frank trial. With the ample exception of the skylight window that will mark the last scene of the trial, everything that has ever been done in the trial of a criminal case has been conducted to the letter in the experimental spirit of the National Police Academy.

Jim Conley was on the stand longer than fifteen hours. He was a first-time competition with the wisecracking, sarcasm, and then came Dr. Harris with his medical evidence full of soundness and leadmarks, to the prosecutors, it seemed this morning to have heard Alexander's damning charge that Conley was a 'old black jack' while Dr. Harris was called as a 'Wagner' expert.

Jim Conley made an attempt to get the street of the night before, giving the Frank trial a new twist in the language of the laboratory and the library.

Jim Conley did not utter a word of more than one syllable. Dr. Harris was as 'payable' as the 'word' 'heterogeneous' was in the latter's hands to gain after the shift.

He said that it might be worked more times, at least, it necessary. True, Conley already has been in jail seven times that he admits, and several times more that he cannot recall precisely, and that Jim's terrible charge against Frank, it perhaps in common sense, now to let it proceed to the corroborating of Conley, if it can corroborate him.

Now, however, Jim has been in 'old Jim's' trial, and it is a matter of fact, not in a matter of fact, not in a matter of fact, not in a matter of fact. He said that it might be worked more times, at least, it necessary.

At first, all that negro did was stare at his feet. A long argument over the admissibility of Conley's testimony in relation to Frank's alleged conduct with him on the morning of the crime, was concluded, and the debate was resumed in the afternoon.

Dr. Harris was recalled to complete the testimony which he was giving when he collapsed on the stand this Friday before. He reported his amnesia to the time Mary Phagan came to her death after eating dinner at her home in Bellwood Station shortly before noon.

JIM CONLEY, THE EBONY CHEVALIER OF CRIME, IS DARKTOWN'S OWN HERO

By JAMES B. NEVIN. Now that James Conley has been dismissed from the Frank trial, now that he has stood safely the first of Mr. Rosser's most exhaustive grilling, what of him? If Frank is convicted, Conley subsequently will be convicted, no doubt of being an accessory after the fact of Mary Phagan's murder...

TRIAL WAS STAGED AS WAREHOUSE EXHIBITION

Every Change in Chromatic Scale Rung—All Georgia Types Seen in Court.

By L. P. WOODRUFF. Every change in the chromatic scale has been rung in the Frank trial. With the single exception of the skyrocked oratory that will mark the last stage of the trial, everything that has ever been done in the trial of a criminal case has been repeated in the light to fix on the superlatives of the National Penitentiary the guilt of the murderer of Mary Phagan. There has been comedy. There has been tragedy. There has been periods as dull as a bookworm victim. There have been occasions as startling as the feat of a circus daredevil. There have been palcos and performance worthy of a clown. The matter has been mixed with the gay until the entire trial seems the work of a futuristic artist who has had a hard night with the drinking cups before he started the painting.

ROAN'S RULING HEAVY BLOW TO DEFENSE

Judge Roan administered a severe blow to the defense Wednesday when he ruled that all of Conley's story in his case so far as it rested upon the testimony of Conley when at the trial he testified he was in the factory...

The snapshot shows Father Rosser and Father Arnold looking at Arlist Carter's sketch of their "fighting faces" in The Georgian. Below is a small reproduction of the sketch which was declared by their friends to be the best likeness ever published of the two attorneys.

When it might be worked out more time, at least, if necessary. True, Conley already had been in jail seven times, that he admits, and several times more that he had not recall precisely, and that had served to make him something of a hero in Darktown, but Jim's involuntary residence in advance jail hereafter has been in police circles and mere county chicanery exclusively. So that didn't make him a particularly big hero—albeit it made him a hero not altogether to be sneezed at.

Here is the massive force of Father Rosser attacking every opponent with a battalions ferocity. Here is the erudite, Arnold, with rapid retorts to end the death blow when the enemy he beaten down by the more direct assault of his ally. Here is the young solicitor, Alexander, against tremendous odds, upholding tradition by fighting Rosser with his own fire.

His direct examination was his declaration that while he was writing the murder notes Frank told the pencil under his hand and then a penitent later made him rub out the "of" he had written as he spelled out the "of" Conley said he wrote the note. A long list of black negroes did not say a word.

Frank's Attorneys Fight Desperately Against State's Closing Witnesses

ANTI-SUIT COMBINE IS CHARGED

'Dry' Reported Allied With Tax Reform Foes to Defeat Governor's Bills, Hold Whip Hand.

The "dry" members of the House of Representatives and those members who oppose the enactment of tax reform measures have formed a combine to defeat all bills introduced or favored by Speaker Burwell, he is reported to have said.

The formation of the combine is virtually a defiance of Governor John M. Slaton and a refusal to accede to his wishes that tax reform measures and bills putting the taxation system of the State on a business basis be passed.

In addition to trying to defeat the bills of Speaker Burwell and Governor Slaton, the combine will make every effort possible to resurrect the Hinson-Searcy "Webb" bill from the pigeon hole to which it has been consigned by the Temperance Committee.

Organized Fight on Burwell. We intend to defeat every measure offered or favored by Speaker Burwell or the men who aided in the defeat of the resolution ordering the Temperance Committee to report back the Hinson-Searcy bill.

White Against Tax Reform. It was agreed, it is generally understood, that the enactment of tax reform was to support the kids resolution on condition that the prohibition members aid them in their efforts to present the passage of tax bills. The idea was this: If the Hinson-Searcy bill were brought out from the committee and

JIM CONLEY, THE "BUTT IN" CHEVALIER OF GRAVE, IS DARKTOWN'S HERO

Now that James Conley has been dismissed from the Frank trial, there being, perhaps, some subtly humorous connection between "Butt In" and "double-headed", it is not improbable that Jim Conley ever gets back to Decatur street, and heretofore he is permitted to tread the primrose way of the "Butt In" bar over on Peters in all probability the drinker will not cost him anything for many days.

It is not improbable that many of the foaming "double-headed" has been dumped into dirty cesspools along the way of the "Butt In" or late-in honor of Jim, and the way he "done best of de amariest of am-over dar In de big court!"

Jim Conley ever gets back to Decatur street, and heretofore he is permitted to tread the primrose way of the "Butt In" bar over on Peters in all probability the drinker will not cost him anything for many days.

Not far from Five Points, a little one east along one of the big thoroughfares meeting there, there is a negro bootblack who now and then, when he is on the job, which frequently he isn't, gives me a "blings" as much as my liking that I'll bring me back on other days.

As a sort of Jim Conley negro—at least, he has a smattering of education, an insatiable air, and a polite, particularly when it pays him to be.

Quite without previous design, I stopped at this negro stand Wednesday afternoon, and it was long before he mentioned the famous trial. He having started the conversation, I asked him a few questions, and he replied, given herein in part, rather set me to thinking.

"Complimented on all sides," "George!" I said—"but that I know his name is George, but that it happens I address negroes unknown to me that way—"What do your friends down on Decatur street think of Jim Conley's story over yonder in the big court?"

"Well, boss, dat Mr. Rosser sh't made nothin on Jim yit, he's respiced George."

I ventured the opinion that Mr. Rosser failed, at least, to make Jim Conley so many different kinds of a liar that his story might not hold in spots.

"Well, boss," continued my bureau of information, "dem sizzers down on Decatur street, dey ain't talking of nothin but Jim Conley. He's de best talked about nigger anywhar, I guess. I hear him complimented on all side!"

"In other words, Jim's a sort of hero among Decatur street nowadays?" said I.

"Teehr, dat's it—Jim's a hero. Niggers ain't talking about him. He done got de best of de smartest of 'im. Nobody can't fool er nigger like Jim!"

Have around "Butt In" bar, over there the name of the same condiment prevails over on Peters street—particularly in the neighborhood of the "Butt In" bar.

AMERICANS SHOT IN SACKING OF DURANGO

Stores Belonging to Foreigners Burned by Rebels—Women and Girls Attacked.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—A Leon, a business man of San Francisco, told Secretary of State Bryan today a thrilling story of the sacking of the city of Durango by Revolutionary forces on June 18, which he witnessed.

The entire city was looted, he says, and German, French and American stores were burned, causing a property loss of more than $500,000.

Scores of Mexicans were shot down and dragged through the streets. Jesse Palmer, an Englishman employed by the Mexican National Railways, was killed because he failed to open a safe.

Carlos Bombardieri, mining man, and L. W. Steep, both Americans, were wounded by a bomb aimed to force the door of the McDonald institute, where many of the foreigners had assembled for protection.

J. W. Steep, an American civil engineer, was shot through the leg because he failed to discover 500 guns he did not have.

Each saw a number of women sought safety in the revolution's palace but the bishop was taken prisoner and held for ransom of half a million pesos. Hundreds of women and girls were outraged.
