of the chamber of commerce took the matter of a semi-centennial in hand, to study it.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce, Wednesday afternoon, with twelve directors present, President Moore, after a long discussion, proposed that a committee be appointed to study the matter of a semi-centennial monument to the heroes of the battle of Atlanta.

All Efforts Will Be Concentrated at Inquest Thursday Afternoon to Show That Testimony of Witnesses Who Claim to Have Seen Girl After She Entered Factory on Fatal Day is Vague and Indefinite and Contradictory

NIGHT WATCHMAN EXPECTED TO TAKE STAND AND GIVE INFORMATION HERETOFORE WITHHELD

This Intimation Came From Detectives Thursday Morning After the Watchman Had Been Vigorously Questioned Behind Closed Doors for More Than an Hour—Women Employees of Factory Will Be Called—Witness Admits Mistake

When the coroner's jury reconvenes Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the city detectives will endeavor to eliminate all testimony which tends to refute the theory that Mary Phagan never left the National Pencil company's factory after she went there to collect her two days' wages last Saturday afternoon.

At Wednesday's inquest he said that he was positive that he saw the body and that he believed by comparison with Mary Phagan's features that it was the body of the girl who was killed.
