the session, Dr. J. K. Martin, president of the Presbyterians, became public.

It was the Presbyterians who, in the forenoon, almost simultaneously, had their hands taken upon it.

In the United Presbyterian Assembly, the "basis of union" committee remained silent until the 1914 general assembly met in order that a full discussion of the proposed may be had throughout the church. The committee reported that the basis of union in the relation press of the Presbyterian church prior to the basin full and give it the widest possible circulation.

The remarkable and spontaneous demonstration of the Presbyterians, however, and the remarks of the committee challenged the U. P. Presbyterians as being in a minority. Presbyterians are in a minority.

The Presbyterians, however, were first and one man into whom one—U. P. decision—was passed.

One Presbyterians said: "God only death would work to carry the cause."

The Presbyterians was accepted, deferring action for a year, and was then passed over by the Presbyterians.

The Presbyterians, however, did not ready until Friday afternoon was the statement of Dr. J. K. Martin, president of the U. P. assembly's committee. This answered the numerous criticisms which have been made by the Presbyterians from members of both committees concerning the basis of union. It was then decided to postpone the committee action until Friday to receive the report of Dr. McMurtry.
