IT'S TERRIBLE FOR AN INNOCENT MAN TO BE CHARGED WITH CRIME

Leo M. Frank is apparently the strain of the tedious trial, and the expression of the face of the man charged with the crime is a study in itself.

Frank is quoted as having made only this comment before Saturday's session started: "It is terrible for an innocent man to be charged with a crime, but if it is proved he is guilty, he will accept the punishment."

Dr. H. F. Harris will take the stand again Monday afternoon and will probably be under cross-examination for several hours. Conley will be the state's last witness, and a big battle will rage around his testimony.
