

PRASE FOR SLATON IN FLOOD OF MAIL

Of 5,000 Telegrams and Letters Reaching Him, Only 100 Condemn Frank Decision.

MANY FROM GEORGIANS

Troops Still on Guard at the ex-Governor's Home—Quiet in Atlanta.

Special to The New York Times.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 27.—Notwithstanding the demonstrations against ex-Governor John M. Slaton because he commuted the sentence of Leo M.
Frank, his decision was approved not only by many Georgians, but thousands of persons outside the State, according to information brought to him in a deluge of telegrams and letters. The vast majority of these communications came to him by telegraph.

Up to date, it is said, about 5,000 telegrams and letters have been received by Mr. Slaton, and of this number only about 100 have been condemnatory of his action. Governor Slaton is highly gratified by the fact that of the messages he has received probably 50 per cent. have come from persons in this State. Of course, the Governor recognizes the fact that he is unpopular with the masses in Georgia at present as a result of the case, but he believes that a little time will convince Georgians that he was right.

Among the messages he has received are telegrams from John Kendrick Bangs, Richard Harding Davis, and nearly 100 Judges, of all classes of courts, Governors, and United States Senators.

Governor Slaton, it was said, intended to leave Atlanta on Saturday, but since the mob demonstration he has decided to remain here until public feeling is quieted. Otherwise, he figures, many persons would think he was running away from the mob. This Mr. Slaton is anxious to avoid. He may leave Atlanta at any moment, however. Mr.
Slaton's last act before he went out of office was to send a telegram to Richard Harding Davis thanking him for his message.

Martial law continues in force at the country home of Mr. Slaton, and military authorities were unable to say when the troops would be removed. "Until further orders," was the only comment.
The entire Fifth Regiment is on duty at the Slaton home and in Atlanta.

No disturbance arose today. Only one man was arrested on Saturday night, and he was released this morning.

Yesterday Colonel Orville Hall of the militia heard that an attempt would be made to dynamite the railroad bridge on Peachtree Road, beyond the Brookwood Bridge. Soldiers searched the place and found the tin lid of a powder can.

Governor Slaton was visited today by many of his friends.

PASTOR LAUDS GOV. SLATON.

Dr. Reisner Calls Him One of the Country's Bravest Men.

Shaved ice and flowers were on exhibition on the platform of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, West 104th Street, last night, when the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Christian F. Reisner, preached his annual snow sermon. Object lessons were drawn from both, but the flowers were there principally to show a contrast. They were distributed among the congregation after the sermon.

In his sermon Dr. Reisner referred to former Governor Slaton of Georgia, who commuted the sentence of Leo Frank to life imprisonment.

"Governor Slaton has proved himself one of the bravest men in America," he said. "It would have been much easier to go to the cannon's mouth. He knew the temper of the State well enough to know that it meant political death and the loss of countless friends.
His motives have been impugned, his character assailed, and his life endangered. We can all stand physical danger better than we can stand the scoffs and abuse of the mob. The cool judgment of the whole land knows that the Governor did the right thing.

"America has been blessed with another such a man in the person of President Wilson. When the news came that the Lusitania had been sunk a very little fire would have kindled the mob spirit like that which drove Italy into the war. Had a hothead been in Washington we would today have been arrayed against Germany."
