

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.

State of Georgia,

No.

Vs.

Fulton Superior Court.

Leo M. Frank.

July Term, 1913.

And now comes the defendant in the above stated cause, Leo M. Frank, and amends his motion for new trial heretofore filed in this case, and says:

That the verdict in the above stated case should be set aside and a new trial granted for the following reasons, to-wit:

1. Because the Court erred in permitting the solicitor to prove by the Witness, Lee, that the detective Black talked to him, the witness, longer and asked him more questions at the police station than did Mr. Frank the day when he talked to the witness Lee at twelve (12) o'clock at night on April 29th.

At the request of Black and Scott, the detectives, Frank was induced to have an interview with Lee, the witness, for the purpose of eliciting information from him. The solicitor contended that Frank made no effort to find out anything from Lee, and to that end, sought to show and was permitted to prove by Lee that Black talked longer to him than did Frank at the time stated.

The defendant, then and there at the trial, objected to such evidence upon the ground that it was irrelevant, immaterial, and was a mere conclusion of the witness. The Court admitted the evidence, over such objections, and in doing so erred, because said evidence was unwarranted, immaterial and a mere conclusion of the witness and injurious to the defendant.

2. Because the Court erred in permitting, over objections the witness Lee to testify that Frank, on April 29th, when alone with him at the station house, talked to him a shorter time than did Mr. Arnold, one of Frank's attorneys, when he interviewed the witness just before the trial.

The detectives had induced Frank to talk to Lee alone on April 29th at the station house for the purpose of inducing Lee to talk. Mr. Arnold, in the presence of Lee's attorney, and the jailer, had interviewed Lee just before the present trial.

The solicitor, over the objections of Frank's atty's that the evidence offered was immaterial, irrelevant, and the expression of an opinion, was permitted by introducing said evidence to draw a comparison of the time occupied by Frank and Arnold to their respective interviews, and, in doing so, the Court erred because the evidence offered was immaterial, irrelevant and the expression of an opinion.

3. Because the Court permitted the solicitor, over the objection of defendant made at the time the evidence was offered that the same was irrelevant and immaterial, to show by the witness J. N. Starnes that the witness Lee, the morning the body was found, while in the office of the pencil factory and when under arrest was composed. Said evidence was objected to as illegal, unwarranted and hurtful to the defendant and movant now says that its admission was error for the same reasons.

This evidence was hurtful, because used by the solicitor in his address to the jury in contrasting the deportment of Frank who was claimed to be nervous and excited.

4. Because the Court erred in permitting the witness Starnes, over objection of the defendant, made when the evidence was offered, because it was a conclusion, to say that his conversation with Frank over the telephone the morning of the finding of the body, was guarded—that he was guarded as to what he said.

This evidence was objected to as unwarranted and a conclusion, and movant here assigns its admission as error for the same reasons

Movant contends this was hurtful to the defendant, and there was a dispute as to what Starnes said to Frank in that conversation, and the solicitor contended that Frank's words and conduct in connection with that conversation was evidence of his guilt. Starnes's statement that he was guarded in that conversation as to what he said, tended to impress the jury, that he was accurate in his memory as to the words of the conversation.

5. Because the Court admitted what purported to be a picture of the second or office floor, the street floor and basement of the factory. On this picture was traced red dotted lines extending from the back of the office floor, down the elevator to the basement, and down the basement near the back of the building. There were, also, Greek crosses on the picture. It was conceded by the State that these dotted lines and crosses were no part of nor represented any part of the building but were put in the picture for the purpose of illustrating the theory of the State, as showing where the body was found and where it was carried.

The admission of the picture in evidence, with the lines and crosses thereon, was, when offered, objected to because, as movant contends, it was argumentative, representing and illustrating the State's view of the case by means of red lines and crosses, which was no part of, nor illustrated any part of the building.

The admission of said diagram and drawing was error for the same reasons as set out in the above objections, the objection being that the same was illegal and prejudicial, and movant assigns error in their admission for the same reason.

6. Because the Court, over objection made when the evidence was offered, that the same was a conclusion, permitted the witness Black to testify that in a conversation had with Frank months before the tragedy that he didn't remember anything that caused him to believe that Frank was nervous, the hurtful purpose being to compare his then conduct with that after the tragedy.

This evidence here objected to was illegal, a conclusion, and prejudicial and movant says its admission was error for said reasons .

7. Because the Court, over objection made when the evidence was offered that the same was irrelevant, permitted the witness Black to testify that Frank had counsel, Messrs, Rosser and Haas about eight or eight thirty o'clock Monday morning while Frank was in the station house, brought there by detectives Black and Haslett.

Movant contends the employment of counsel, under the circumstances was no evidence of guilt; but the Court's conduct in ~~submitting the fact to the jury~~ was greatly hurtful to the defendant.

said evidence was illegal, irrelevant and prejudicial and its admission over objection is here assigned as error for said reasons.

8. Because the Court refused to permit the witness Black to testify on cross examination that when he found a bloody shirt in the bottom of a barrel in Newt Lee's house, that he carried the shirt to the station house showed it to Lee, and, when Lee was asked by the witness if the shirt was his, the solicitor objected that the witness should not be allowed to answer the question: "Did he (Lee) say that the shirt was his?"

The Court would not permit the witness to give Lee's answer that the shirt was his.

This answer of Lee's was, as movant contends, part of the res gestae of the shirt transaction, and Lee's answer ought to have been heard.

The Court erred, as movant contends, in ruling out the answer of Lee and not allowing it to come out as a part of the entire transaction.

9. Because the Court, over objection made by the defendant at the time the same was offered, that it was immaterial and irrelevant, permitted the witness Darley to testify that on the morning the body was found Newt Lee was composed.

Defendant objected to this evidence as illegal, irrelevant and prejudicial to defendant which objection was overruled and movant assigns its admission as error for said same reasons.

This evidence was not only irrelevant and immaterial as movant contends but hurtful, because this evidence was heard upon the theory of comparison between the conduct of Lee and Frank.

10. Because the Court erred in failing, refusing and declining upon motion of the defendant made while the witness Conley was on the stand, to rule out, withdraw and exclude from the jury each and all of the following questions and answers of the witness Conley:

Q. "What did he mean?"

A. "Well, what I taken it to be, the reason he said he wasn't built like other men. I seen him in a position I hadn't seen any other man in that was got children."

Q. "What position?"

A. "I have seen Mr. Frank, in the office there about two or three times before Thanksgiving and a lady was in the office, and she was sitting down in a chair and she had her clothes up to here (upto her waist) and Mr. Frank was down on his knees, and she had her hands on Mr. Frank and I found them in that position."

Q. "When you came into the office before Thanksgiving day, now, when the lady was sitting in the chair?"

A. Yes, sir: he saw me when he came out of the office, he saw Me."

Q. What was said when they saw you?"

A. " When Mr. Frank came out of the office Mr. Frank was hollering 'Yes, that is right, that is right' and he said, 'That is all right, it will be easy to fix it that way.'"

Q. " Well, did you ever see him on any other occasion?"

A. "Yes, sir; I have seen him on other times there."

Q. "What other occasions?"

A. I have seen Mr. Frank in the packing room there one time with a young lady lying on the table."

Q. How far was the woman on the table?"

A. "Well, she was on the edge of the table when I saw her."

The motion was made while the witness Conley, was on the stand, and before any cross examination had been had upon either of the circumstances referred to in said questions and answers, but after cross examination upon other subjects had progressed a day and a half. The motion to rule out, withdraw and exclude was made because, as stated to the Court when the motion was made, said questions and answers were immaterial, irrelevant, illegal, prejudicial, and dealing with other matters and things and crimes irrelevant and disconnected with the issue in the case then on trial.

Movant contends this evidence was highly prejudicial, and the failure of the Court, upon proper motion, to rule it out was a great injury to the defendant. And the failure of the Court to rule out said prejudicial and irrelevant and immaterial evidence is here assigned as error and a new trial should be granted.

~~irrelevant~~
cial and involved other transactions not legitimately under investigation, and the same amounted to accusing the defendant of other and independent crimes.

11. Because the witness Conley, at the instance of the solicitor, was permitted to testify that he had seen Frank in a position with women than he had not seen any other man in that has children; that he had seen Frank in the office of the Pencil Co., about two or three times before Thanksgiving, and a lady was in the office and she was sitting down in a chair and she had her clothes up about her privates, and Frank was down on his knees, and she had her hands on Frank; that Frank saw Conley when he came out of the office, that when Frank came out of the office he was hollering "Yes, sir, that is right, that is right" and he said "That is all right, it will be easy to fix it that way;" that at another time he saw Frank in the packing room of the factory with a young lady lying on a table---she was on the edge of the table when he saw her.

While Conley was on the stand, and before he was crossed about seeing the circumstances testified about, and after cross examination upon other subjects had been had for a day and a half, counsel for the defendant moved the Court that the next above stated testimony of the witness Conley be ruled out, withdrawn and excluded from the jury, stating at the time that such motion ought to be granted, because the testimony was irrelevant, immaterial, illegal, prejudicial, and dealing with other matters and things, and crimes, irrelevant and disconnected with the issues in this case.

The Court declined to rule out, withdraw, or exclude this testimony from the jury, but permitted the same to remain before the jury.

The action of the Court was erroneous and highly prejudicial to the defendant, and demands a new trial.

Such action of the Court was error because said evidence was illegal, irrelevant and hurtful to the defendant and involved other transactions not legitimately under investigation, and the same amounted to accusing the defendant of other and independent crimes.

Because the witness Conley, and testified that he watched for Frank, at the Pencil factory, four times on Saturdays, not on the day of the murder, and once on Thanksgiving day 1912, while Frank was with women in his office, detailing certain signals by which the witness Conley was to look and open the door. When the first question was asked by the solicitor seeking to elicit whether witness had ever seen Frank up there in his office doing anything with young ladies before April 26, 1913, the defendant objected on the ground that the evidence sought was irrelevant and immaterial. The Court ruled that the evidence would be immaterial, but further questions were asked by the solicitor and elicited the evidence here complained of.

While Conley was still on the stand, and after cross examination a day and a half on other subjects, defendant's counsel moved to rule out, exclude and withdraw from the jury all the testimony, both direct and on cross, detailing Frank's association with women and Conley's watching at other times than the Saturday of the murder, to-wit: April 26, 1913. Said motion was made upon the grounds stated and argued at the time the motion was made, that such testimony was immaterial, irrelevant, illegal, prejudicial, and dealt with other matters and things and crimes irrelevant to and disconnected with, the issues on trial on this case.

The Court declined the motion made at the time upon the grounds, as stated, and in doing so erred, because the evidence sought to have been ruled out for the reason stated, and the same amounted to accusing the defendant of other and independent crimes.

13. Because the Court, upon motion made when the witness Conley was still on the stand, declined to rule out, exclude and withdraw from the jury each and all the below questions propounded to witness Conley, and his answers thereto:

Q. Now, tell what kind of work you had done for him the other Saturdays. A. I always stayed on the first floor, like I stayed on the 26th of April, and watched for Mr. Frank, while he and a young lady would be on the second floor chatting.

Q. They came back and went down? A. No, sir, they didn't go out. She came down and says: "All right, James", and I would say: "All right". and a place on the first floor that leads into another department, and after you get into this other department, there's a trap door and stairway that leads down in the basement, and they pull out that trap door and go down in the basement.

Q. And that time, she came down and says: "All right, James"?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. She knew you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Because she worked in the office? A. No, sir, she didn't work in the office, she worked on the fourth floor.

Q. Then you went through that door--a door right behind the elevator? A. No, sir, there isn't a door back of the elevator; there's a big wooden door, just a step there.

Q. I know, but it goes back in the back there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you opened that door? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then came back and opened that trap door? A. I came and pulled up the trap door.

Q. And then they went down there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She said "All right, James"? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you went and opened that door? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She didn't tell you to open it? A. Yes, sir; she said, "All right, James"—something like that.

Q. She said All right, and then you opened the door? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What made you open the door? A. Because she said she was ready. I knowed where she was going; Mr. Frank told me to watch.

Q. Mr. Frank told you to watch? A. Yes, sir.

Q. But he didn't tell you where they were going? A. Yes, sir, he told me where they were going.

Q. How came him to tell you that? A. I don't know, sir.

Q. When did he tell you that? A. That day.

Q. That they were going to the basement? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That he was going to stay in his office? A. He didn't say where he was going to stay.

Q. Well, he stayed there? A. As long as I stayed there I didn't see him go out.

Q. She said all right, and went through that door? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Opened it and they went down? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You shut that trap door? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that was in July? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the first time that ever happened? A. Yes, sir.

Q. First time anybody ever asked you or talked to you about it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, they went down the basement? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did they stay there? A. I don't know, sir how long they stayed there.

Q. What became of them? A. Well, they came back up.

Q. About what time? A. I couldn't give no time, because I don't know what time it was when they went down there.

Q. Well, about what time? A. I don't know, sir;

I couldn't give you what time they came back up.

Q. It was after 3:30 when this whole thing started? A. Yes, sir
~~it was after 3:30 when this whole thing started.~~

Q. He told you to go down; they came up after a while?

A. Yes, sir, they came up after a while.

Q. Came up the same way they went down? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Up through the same door? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You kept that door locked all the time? A. No, sir, I didn't keep it locked, I just kept it shut and stayed there by it.

Q. Stayed there the whole time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And never left? A. No, sir.

Q. Well, what did they do after they came up through the door?

A. After they came up through the door me and Mr. Dalton stood and talked at the steps. Mr. Dalton gave me a quarter and he went out laughing, and she went up the steps.

Q. Where did she go? A. She went and stood at the top of the steps a little while first, before she ever went to the office.

Q. Did she go to the office? A. Yes, sir, she went to the office.

Q. How do you know she did, you couldn't see her go there, could you? A. No, sir, I couldn't see her go in the office, but I could hear her go there. I heard her walking in there.

Q. How long did they stay before they came down?

A. Didn't stay very long before they came down.

Q. What next happened? A. They came down and left, and then

Mr. Frank come down after they left away.

Q. What time did Mr. Frank leave? A. I don't know, Sir, what time Mr. Frank left.---

Q. Give us the best you can? A. Frank left some time about half past four, I believe.

Q. Then they stayed there an hour. A. I don't know, sir; I guess so.
