STATE FRUIT CROP NOT HURT BY COLD

Danger to Georgia Peach
Now Seems to Be Thing of Past—Crop Safe, Says Worsham.

So far as can be learned, the fruit crop of Georgia passed safely through the cold weather of the weekend and Thursday morning, and the danger now seems to be a thing of the past.

According to reports, the frost predicted for Thursday night did not materialize. Fair and warm weather is expected on Friday, according to the Entomologist. Lee Worsham stated Friday that, from all reports he had received, the peach crop was in excellent condition and safe. As to the northern section of the state he was not so certain.

Thursday morning the weather was severe. Thursday evenings were kept during the day and night.

This helped make the day cool and the night cold.

The weather was cold and in very low places in the orchards there was a slight frost.

Worsham, however, expresses the opinion, however, that no damage has been done, and that middle Georgia will produce a record-breaking crop.

Florida Fruit Crop.

Augusta, Ga., April 16.—The fruit crop was not damaged in this section of the state by the cold last night.

Local weather bureau showed that the lowest temperature during the night was 40 degrees.

Two of the largest fruit growers in this section stated this morning that their crops were not injured at all.

There was a break wind during the night.

Missouri Crop Badly Hurt.

Spokane, Wash., April 16.—The fruit crop of the state was severely damaged.

The temperature last night was 59 degrees. The expected cold wave did not develop, a gentle rain falling throughout the night. No damage to fruit was noticeable in south Florida.

The Ocala, Gainesville section was visited by a blizzard yesterday afternoon, with some damage to fruits and field crops.

Florida Crop Badly Hurt.

Spokane, Wash., April 16.—The fruit crop of the state was severely damaged without any serious damage to the orchards, but gardens of Elko county, was done also to other fruits, the experts said. The minimum temperature was 40 degrees.

Little Damage Done in South Carolina.

Columbia, S. C., April 16.—Although light frost was reported during the night from various sections of South Carolina, little damage resulted to fruit.

Floyd Orchard Unharmed.

Roanoke, Ga., April 16.—(Special).—The frost which hit the orchard last night did not do any serious damage to the orchards, but gardens of Floyd county, was a little hurt, but the emergency measures prevented any permanent injury.

Arround Marietta.

Marietta, Ga., April 16.—(Special).—Fruit gardens in this section of the state were materially hurt by Friday morning's frost, but light frost and there was some ice. The thermometer went down to 34 degrees.

Little Damage Done in Calhoun.

Calhoun, Ga., April 16.—(Special).—The fears which were held in this section that the fruit crop would be unrealized when last night passed, with were unrealized when last night passed with the frost. Frost did not damage the fruit crop in this section except in the low-lying districts and in the orchards.

Fruit growers are of the opinion that the crop will be excellent, except for slight damage, if any at all, and there is a general feeling of relief that the frost did not damage the fruit crop.

The fruit crop is considered to be a very promising fruit crop.

It is expected that the fruit crop will be a very promising fruit crop.

*1,200 VOTERS ASK
CHEAPER GAS PROBE*

Petition Urging $5,000 Appropriation Goes to Council at Next Meeting.

One petition to which there are 1,200 signatures of voters attached is in the hands of the Georgia Consumers' League to be presented to the Georgia legislature towards forcing the Atlanta Gas Light company to reduce its rate from $1 per thousand feet to 75 cents.

City Engineer R. C. Turner, one of the leaders in the campaign to bring about a reduction of the rate of gas, presented the petition to the public power committee to be placed in the hands of council at the next meeting. The petition will continue the agitation of the 1,200 voters registered in 1913 which is the number required to force a bill to go to the city charter.

The petition will require the reduction of $5,000 for the use of the Georgia railroad company to make a line of road connecting the city of Atlanta with a view of forcing down the rate.

R. B. Arkwright, president of the Georgia Consumers' League, and head of the gas company, takes the stand that the company cannot reduce its rate below 75 cents per thousand feet of gas.

MAN KILLED IN SHAFT WAS MUCHLY MARRIED

Murder Theory Abandoned
When Coroner's Jury Hears Evidence of Accident.

That J. M. Rowes, the man found dead Thursday in the bottom of a freight elevator in the Emery-Water building, on the Peachtree Street, was a victim of a coroner's verdict to the contrary, was not true, the coroner's jury heard Friday, when a woman, known as one of the occupants of the flat in which the shaft, had many wives during his life, and he had secreted a number of them in his home.

Letters found in the dead man's pockets on the discovery of his body in the room he occupied, the coroner's jury decided, the man had two other wives, and a sweetheART, living at Gainesville. Letters signed "Your loving wife" were found in the dead man's pockets, known to have a living wife at Monroe, Ga., his old home, where he died.

Mrs. Rowes, formerly Mrs. Burton before her marriage to Rowes in Atlanta during March, 1912, declared that Rowes had told her he had secreted a number of women in his home in Gainesville, in 1912, when his habit of drinking became so repulsive that she could not tolerate it any longer.

Rev. C. C. Rowes, father of the dead man, stated Friday that he knew nothing of the recent marriage of his son to Mrs. Burton, and that he had told her he had secreted a number of women in his home in Monroe, Ga., he declared that he had told her he had secreted a number of women in his home in Gainesville, in 1912, when his habit of drinking became so repulsive that she could not tolerate it any longer.

Rowes, son of Rev. C. C. Rowes, a son of the dead man, stated Friday that he knew nothing of the recent marriage of his son to Mrs. Burton, and that he had told her he had secreted a number of women in his home in Monroe, Ga., he declared that he had told her he had secreted a number of women in his home in Gainesville, in 1912, when his habit of drinking became so repulsive that she could not tolerate it any longer.

The second, or possibly the third.

"My name was Mrs. Lula Burton before I married him. He and I have been divorced from him, but I have no interest whatever in him. I am sorry to say that he is a bad man, an intellectual man ruined by drink. I have no love for him, but I have been with him and no longer with him. He died the latter and I have not seen him since.

She stated that her acquaintances in Gainesville, Ga., were not up to the date of their marriage, when Rowes came to their home on Peachtree Street, and that he had secreted a number of women in his home in Gainesville, in 1912, when his habit of drinking became so repulsive that she could not tolerate it any longer.

Rowes' body was laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery, Friday afternoon, in the parsonage chapel, which was attended by the pastor, Mr. C. C. Rowes.

Rev. Charles W. Rowes stated Friday that he had abandoned the theory that his son had two other wives, and had thrown into the elevator shaft.

$200,000 INSURANCE
CARRIED BY MCKENZIE

In Addition, His Estate Is Reported Valued at Approximately $500,000.

A five-hundred-thousand-dollar estate and a five-hundred-thousand-dollar worth of life insurance are said to have been left by William C. McKenzie, State Treasurer F. W. Mansfield said in a public statement today that his estate is the largest in Georgia.

The public body said, "McKenzie's holdings were much larger than any man in Atlanta. His property holdings in Atlanta, in the surrounding country, and in the state, were of the order of $1,000,000. He recently turned over a considerable amount of his estate to his wife, Mrs. Mary C. McKenzie, and his son, C. M. McKenzie."

TREASURER DEFENDS SALE OF MASS. BONDS

Atlanta, April 10.—In defense of his recent sale of an issue of $100,000 state bonds "over the counter," rather than through the state auditor, State Treasurer F. W. Mansfield said in a public statement today that his sale of bonds at $78 compared with the last sale made under the old methods.

"The one thing that I sought to accomplish," said the treasurer, "was to increase the interest of the people in their state, to advance civil pride and to show the people that the government closest to the people."

The public body said, "McKenzie's bonds had the bid of the syndicate been accepted, he would have advertising cost offset this advantage."

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

Work is progressing rapidly on the Peachtree street paving, which is being widened for the coming Shrine convention. The cutting away of 5 feet on the sidewalks will begin at once on the paving and tiling.

This will permit ample room for the Shrine. Other paving will also be valuable to traffic in the future and will do probably more than any other single factor to increase the relative congestion in the main artery of north side traffic.

The plans of G. T. R. T. are to erect a two-story apartment apartment building on Eleventh street between the corners of Juniper and Peachtree. The proposed structure will cost $15,000. Marks' entrance will be on Peachtree, which will consist of five rooms.

Another apartment building is to go up in the Juniper street block, between Peachtree and Rogers. G. Moffett, son of W. H. and Rogers S. Moffett, at Jasper and Tenth streets. The plans were drawn by J. N. Cantor, the architect, and the work will be taken out Thursday afternoon.

Announcement has just been made of the opening of a new and promising real estate firm, the Reeves-Cline Realty company, offices 132 and 322 Baileys building, 10th and Peachtree, of which W. C. Cline, both of whom were formerly associated with the L. P. Cline company, are partners. They were active figures in the Oglethorpe university movement and have a number of other interests in the city and several years in Atlanta. F. M. Cheahard and S. A. Givens are sales managers for the new firm.

E. J. Knauer a Suicide.
New York, April 10.—Edward J. Knauer, 39, an architect in Chester, Pa., who killed himself today in a revolver shot, was reported to have been ill for a number of days. It was read that financial trouble and failing health had made his life no longer worth living.
