NO EXTRA SESSION; SHIP MEASURE DEAD

Bill to Buy Vessels to Sleep in Conference While the Senate Works to Pass the Supply Measures.

Washington, February 18.—Blocked in their efforts to get a vote on the house ship-purchase bill, democratic senators today agreed to take up appropriation bills and sent the shipping measure to conference until February 27, when it must take its chance of being filibustered to its death on March 4.

Republican senators entered into a gentlemen's agreement with democratic leaders to let the bill go to conference on condition that appropriation measures be passed within the next ten days to avoid an extra session. The democrats, it was reported, agreed to a reasonable cut in the rivers and harbors bill and the republicans, in turn, gave assurances that they would not filibuster against any appropriation measures. Democrats further agreed that when the ship-purchase bill comes out of conference, if any agreement on it ever is reached, the republicans will be given an opportunity to renew their fight against it.

The compact which broke the long struggle was reached late in the day.

Administration leaders maintained that it was the best they could hope for and republican senators insisted that the action meant the bill was dead.

It seemed to agree there would be no extra session.

When the time came to put the agreement into effect, democratic senators and other senators opposed the bill.

It was said that the bill would be killed by a vote of 100 to 100.

Senator Hiram Bingham started the trouble by announcing that he would not support the bill.

DR. CHAPMAN ASKS, "IS THERE A HELL?"

At Close of Eloquent Sermon He Tells Audience to Pass Out in Silence, Go Home, and Think.

PROGRAM TOMORROW.

Meetings held at the Tabernacle, Peachtree street, above Ellis, each afternoon, excepting Monday and Saturday, and each evening, excepting Saturday. Doors open one-half hour earlier. Dr. Chapman will preach at all services, and Mr. Alexander will lead the choir singing.

Dr. Chapman's sermon topics for the remainder of the week follow:

Friday, 9 p. m.—Special address to "The Mothers of Atlanta."

7:30 p. m.—"Sowing and Reaping."

No services on Saturday.

The Constitution will give daily reports of the Chapman-Alexander revival and will be sent by mail, postpaid, from now till its close, five weeks hence, daily, 50 cents; daily and Sunday, 45 cents, delivered by carrier in Atlanta at 12 cents per week.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman preached a wonderful sermon Thursday evening to a capacity audience at the revival building on Peachtree. His subject was, "Is There a Hell?"

The sermon was not wonderful because he attempted to answer this question, that is so fraught with eternal interest, but because he left an awful doubt in the minds of his hearers and then, at the close of his discourse, he suddenly exclaimed:

"No go home and think. There will be no second chance. Pass out, but, all of you, in silence and go home and think."

The vast audience passed out in absolute silence.

The sermon might be called enigmatical. For instance, he stated at one time:

"I don't believe there is a single lost man in hell yet."

He said that he had been told that there was a man in hell yet—mark me, I may not yet."

That remark was not explained. It was one thing that the people had to go home and think about.

Perhaps if you read his sermon, which is given in full, it may help you to understand the matter better.

"Is There a Hell?"

Dr. Chapman talked on this question at the revival Thursday evening—a question, he said, that has much to do with eternity as has any of God's great plans. His first utterance was:

"I would rather speak of heaven and the love of God, but I will stand some day at the judgment and must answer for any failure to do my duty, and one is to warn of eternal damnation as well as to teach of eternal blessedness."

His text was: "If one went to them from the dead they will repent."

The invocation was by Dr. J. L. White, of the Baptist Tabernacle.

Dr. Chapman, just before the reading of the scripture hymns, asked the entire congregation to arise and sing: "How Firm a Foundation Ye Saints of the Lord," and more than five thousand voices were lifted up in the grand old anthem.

He read out a list of requests for special prayers. A mother asked that God would be petitioned to save her son from a drunkard's grave. Fathers and mothers asked prayers for children, and many wanted prayers for relatives and friends. It was stated that the prayers that had been offered up for Rev. G. W. Lewis had been answered and he was very much better.

Some of His Striking Remarks.

All the people that could be pressed out of heaven, the shepherd heard, "Peace and Good Will on Earth to Men."

There are two classes of parables in the scriptures. First, those of prediction; second, those that illustrate some great moral question.

It was once the belief that God made rich those whom he wished to bless. Under the new dispensation we know that poverty may be a savior sign of God's favor to men. What Did You Do With Jesus' Riches?

If a man knew what hell really was he would faint if he only thought of it.

If a man could realize all the misery of hell he couldn't stand it five seconds.

All we can imagine of the worst hell the human mind can picture is only a hint.

There is one place more than another where a man can find hell on earth. It is the place where a young man can find drink.

Christ's parables of the wicked no names are given. Why? Because we read in prophecy: "The name of the wicked shall rot."

We may think if you give way to riches and the lusts of the flesh that you shall find the thrill of happiness. You will feel the thrill of hell.

If a man has been in a city that has gripped me more than Atlanta with its beautiful beauty as seen from the outside, but your people are not taking hold of the cross of Christ as they should.

As Sam Jones said, Dives was not tormented by the worms that ate him. You will go to hell if you stand on the devil's platform.

The devil's platform is the open saloon, the brothel and the man who frequents it.

The man who stands on the devil's platform is he who, despite God's love and mercy, says, "I will not believe."

If you ever get into hell it will be over the Bible. Over God's love, over your mother's prayers, over your preacher's pleadings.

If there is anything that could make the angels weep it is to see a young girl drunk.

Steady Looked Around.

In the midst of his discourse, a woman in the audience fainting, for Dr. Chapman paused and called out: "Look at me; keep your eyes on me. Whatever anyone falls, they will be taken care of. Wait, wait, keep your eyes on me. Let a few fathers come down the aisle."

No one looked around, not even a newspaper reporter, and just exactly continued on Page Eight.

COSMOPOLITAN LIFE

WILL QUIT BUSINESS

All Policy Contracts, Amounting to More Than $1,200,000, Have Been Reinsured.

At the annual meeting of the directors and stockholders of the Cosmopolitan Life Insurance company, held Wednesday in the Third National bank building, favorable action was taken on the recommendation that the company should liquidate the former action of the board of directors to reinsure its policy contracts, amounting to more than $1,200,000, in the Pan-American Life Insurance company, of New Orleans. This action is the result of the recommendation of the president, James O. Wynn.

The company's financial condition is first-class. It has a paid-up capital of $1,000,000, and a surplus of $1,200,000. The company also has other assets in the way of notes, accounts, furniture, and fixtures, which are more than sufficient to cover any probable depreciation in the value of the assets. On account of the general financial depression and the low rate of interest, conditions which have existed in this section for some time, and still exist to a great extent, Mr. Wynn stated that he did not feel that it was sufficient volume of business at a normal rate to justify the expense of continuing without possibly impairing the surplus. This he surmised. This he surmised.

The Cosmopolitan has reinsured its policies in the Pan-American Life Insurance company, of New Orleans. That company has over $250,000,000 of assets, of which $1,000,000 is paid-up capital, and over $700,000 surplus. It has a force approximately 10,000 strong, this giving it a premium account sufficient for all purposes, without making it necessary to in any way encroach on its capital. The Cosmopolitan has been in business for short a time to build up a sufficient premium account, and as stated, Mr. Wynn was not willing to use any part of the subscribed capital surplus or even any part of the undivided profits for expense account.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the company Wednesday the management was very "lively" and the splendid manner in which the affairs of the company were conducted. The stockholders all seemed pleased when they were informed that the company had set back all the money which they had put into the company and that it was a profit. It is unusual for a life insurance company to retire from business with such a favorable record.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin"

To Show Next Week But Under New Name

Famous Play Will Be Revamped, Refreshed, and Will Be Advertised as "Old Plantation Days."

There'll be a Tom show at the Atlanta theater next week, but it won't be produced under the title of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," but revamped and refreshed, and will be advertised as "Old Plantation Days."

This decision was reached Thursday afternoon following a meeting of the executive boards of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and Federated women's clubs of the city.

Homer George, manager of the Atlanta theater, and Walter S. Baldwin, manager of the Baldwin-Mallory theater, were present at the meeting. They agreed to cut out a number of lines and scenes from the play, and as a final concession, they consented to changing the name. They were informed that the title "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was objectionable to the members of the organization.

Resolutions Adopted.
The following resolutions were adopted: "Whereas, the very name of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' has associated with it and carried suggestions that are alien to the true spirit of the South and the people; and

"Whereas, the play, 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' is a representation of the life of a man who lived in the South, and who was a slaveholder; and

MAYOR TO PROBE DELAY

IN FORSYTH ST. PAVING

Property Owners Tell Woodward That the City Is Responsible.

Mayor James G. Woodward will today make a personal investigation to learn the cause of the delay in the Forsyth street paving.

Representative citizens and property owners of Forsyth and intersecting streets called on the mayor Thursday morning and declared that the city is responsible for the delay. The mayor called up the water department and was informed that the water mains had been lowered and all service connections made.

The Georgia Railway and Power company also informed the mayor that it had completed its work on the street, and representatives of the company declared that they were anxious to have the pavement completed. The telephone company and others who have been working on the street declared that they were through their jobs.

Mayor Woodward called up one of the county commissioners, and he was informed that the county is ready to throw a large force of men to the work, as soon as the city gives the word.

"It looks as though everyone is finishing work on the street except the city," the mayor commented. "It is more than a week since the work was started, and it looks to me as though it should have been finished much more than six months ago."

"I don't know," the mayor said, "but I am sure that the city is responsible for the delay. I am sure that the city is responsible for the delay."

"I don't know," the mayor said, "but I am sure that the city is responsible for the delay. I am sure that the city is responsible for the delay."

DRINKING NO PROOF

OF BAD CHARACTER; NEW TRIAL GRANTED

A little drink one way or another is not to be held against a man's character in the effect of the ruling of Chief Justice Russell, of the court of appeals, in an opinion handed down yesterday reversing the judgment of Judge H. L. Patterson, of the Blue Ridge circuit, in the case of Walter Dunn, convicted of the voluntary manslaughter of Henry Tankersley, in Fannin county.

In a new trial granted previously by the court of appeals, the state had asked for a new trial on the ground that the defendant had been convicted of the crime of manslaughter, and not of murder, as charged in the indictment. The lower court in the present appeal held the lower court in error when it admitted testimony upon this point.

The plea of Judge New Morris, attorney for Dunn, upon this point is as follows:

"Movant insists that sacred, ancient and modern history, almost from the dawn of creation down to this ruling by the court, teaches us of the good character of man who at some time in his life has got drunk; this fact includes Noah, Prince of the House of David, kings, rulers, emperors, presidents, senators, governors, judges, lawmakers, solicitors, clergymen, preachers and teachers."

"The Bible tells us that Noah got drunk and also that Noah was a just man and perfect in his generation, and that he walked with God. This is a fact, and a fact which is not to be denied. A judicial decision should not be based on the character of a man, but on the facts of his life. This is a fact, and a fact which is not to be denied."

"Movant respectfully contends that a man at some time in his life has been gotten drunk, and still that his general character can be good."

Yaarab's Patrol Will Form Official Escort For Potentate Smith

News that Yaarab Temple's patrol and band were selected last Saturday by Imperial Potentate Frederick R. Smith to form his official escort in the Shrine pageants in Seattle this summer has enthused all members of the Temple and led impetuously to the plans to make the patrol a more formidable one. The patrol will be composed of the long phyllophagans.

The second in a series of entertainments contemplated by those plans is announced for next Wednesday evening at the Lyric theater, when a veritable night of grand concert, opera, society, ball dance and all, will be offered to the public.

Among the artists announced for the evening is Mrs. Nellie Owen Hartley, of Chicago, whose fame as a concert singer is nationwide. She is the wife of Noble Hartley, of Medina Temple. Others are Mrs. Evelyn Hirschberg, soprano; Miss Edna E. Bartholomew, pianist; George Papageno, violinist; and Noble H. H. Bates, baritone; Frank Russell, tenor; E. C. Buchanan, violin; and Edwin Arthur Kraft, piano.

Bloodhounds Must Prove Their Ability, Says Appeals Court

Unless it is established that bloodhounds have "scenters of scent and discrimination" and that they have been trained and accustomed to these qualities in the tracking of human beings and in charge of persons accused of crime, bloodhounds are not competent witnesses, according to the ruling Thursday of Chief Justice Russell, of the court of appeals, in the case of R. A. Pitt, of Kennesaw, who was convicted of shooting W. T. Whitaker. The conviction was largely upon the circumstantial evidence of tracks, bloodhounds. The lower court was reversed and Pitt gets a new trial.

FARMERS ORGANIZE TO AVERT CALAMITY

URGES J. J. BROWN

"Unless farmers organize all over we have not yet seen such a calamity as we have seen in Georgia," said J. J. Brown, president of the Farmers' Union of Georgia, in an open letter urging all farmers to join the union.

After declaring that "since the outbreak of the European war there are being perpetrated the most disastrous speculative schemes ever known upon cotton producers, that the struggle to wean farmers to reduce grain crops, while we are suffering from drought, is a cruel and a wicked one," he urged farmers to join the union.

"We urge upon every member of the union the importance of using his best efforts to induce his neighbor to join the union at once, in order that we may secure first a safe, sound rural credit system to enable us to redeem ourselves from the mortgage and time-price systems under which we have labored since the civil war, and to improve our farms permanently, so as to produce a greater amount per acre at a less cost, and establish markets for by-products satisfactory to the consumer as well as to the producer. With a complete organization Georgia may have the south from impending bankruptcy, but unless farmers organize at once we have not yet seen such a calamity as we have seen in Georgia. For should the farmers go down, they drag with them every other enterprise."

LYRIC TO PRESENT HIGH-CLASS FILMS, BEGINNING MARCH 1

URGES J. J. BROWN

The Lyric theater will reopen March 1, which is a week from next Monday, with moving pictures, after having been dark for ten weeks. This is the announcement of Hugh Cardozo, who has been directed by Jack White to take over the management of both the Lyric and the Grand as moving picture houses.

The Grand will continue as a 5-cent movie picture house. The Lyric, however, will set a price of 35 cents. The opening film will be "Hypocrites," with Lord Dunsany in the lead. This is reputed to be one of the most elaborate productions of the genre. Admission will be by seat checks, as at regular theatrical performances.

UGLY WORDS PASSED BY PALMER AND FARR

Washington, February 18.—A bitter verbal clash between Representatives Palmer and Farr of Pennsylvania, on the floor of the house tonight, held up final action on the annual appropriation bill. Debate took a wide range, and the discussion soon degenerated into a personal attack. Palmer said that Farr was a "bad-pole statesman."

The incident will probably be passed tomorrow.

Jake Abel to Fight Frank Whitney Here Feb. 24

EDITED BY DICK JENKINS.

STATE LEAGUE MEETS TODAY AT THOMASVILLE

Thomasville, Ga., February 18.—(Special.)—President Dick Jenkins, of the Georgia State League, arrived here Thursday afternoon for the meeting of the directors of the league. The object of the meeting is to re-arrange the schedule for the coming season, and to attend to whatever business that may come up.

However, the main reason for the meeting is to discuss the salary limit. An attempt to raise the limit to $500. The present limit is $400. The salary limit is only $700, and so much dissatisfaction has been manifested over this, that the league has decided to hold a meeting to discuss the salary limit. The meeting will be held here this afternoon.

Jake Abel and Frank Whitney Matched for Next Thursday

Jake Abel, one of the most popular boxers in this section of the country, will be Frank Whitney's opponent at the Bijou theater next Thursday night instead of Frankie Howard.

Promoter Mike Saul, closed the match yesterday. Max Abelson, Abel's brother, closed for him. While Whitney and Abel have fought here before on a number of occasions and have been hard rivals for some time.

Whitney threatened to go to Chattanooga and fight Abel in his own home town when Abelson announced the match. Whitney, who is a native of Georgia, wanted the best stage on Tuesday night, but Abelson held out for Thursday.

The bout should be a regular crowd puller. They clashed in a hot ten-round row about a year ago, but both have since won more and more.

Next Thursday night they will have a chance to settle the question of who is the better boxer. It should be a corking battle, one worth going miles to see and all time.

Whitney and Abel have already agreed to have the three newspaper men award the decision. Saul will handle the men in the ring. The new arrangement of handing down the verdict is a new one. It will be a public in every way.

Jake Abel has been doing light work for the last two weeks in anticipation of returning to the ring. He will continue heavy work until the day of the match. While fought Whitney here and knows just what he is doing. Whitney is training at the Metropolitan club. He will work with Eddie Flanton and Butling Budd. Both boys are promising to be in great shape for the fray, and Promoter Saul could not have brought two more popular and evenly matched boys here.

The two games today, will start promptly at 7 o'clock. The G. M. A. and Boys' High play on the Wesley Memorial court while Peacock plays Donald Fraser on the Deane court.

The latter game should prove a hummer from the start. Peacock's only win of the season was secured from Donald Fraser recently on the Peacock court, and the Deane lads are doubly anxious to avenge this game and thereby even up the count for the season.

INDOOR TENNIS. Touchard and Lovibond Play Today for Title.

Valdosta, Ga., February 18.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the baseball committee this morning it was definitely decided that the local State League team for this season will be the Valdosta team. President Dick Jenkins visited here this morning and the local baseball rector invited the team to hear what he had to say.

Valdosta went on record as being open to the idea of having a team for this season. The old organization of last season was maintained and the new team will be re-elected.

The ride will start Sunday at 10 o'clock and will be a day's ride. The club will be accompanied by a large number of spectators.

LOCALS DETERMINED TO DOWN COLUMBUS

Both Teams Are in Good Shape for Championship Struggle Saturday.

Atlanta is very confident of taking Saturday night's game from the Columbus Y. M. C. A. aggregation, and thereby win the southern basketball championship, and so confident are the club members that they are waging equal money on the local boys to win.

Atlanta will take their final workout tonight, only a light practice being indulged in as Coach Joe Bean does not wish to have his men overworked for the match.

Columbus is training, faithfully and hard for the struggle and will enter the game in the height of form. Their defeat at the hands of Georgia, which they suffered last Monday night, may have served as a notice to make them put up a stiff argument for the title.

A date was offered them by the local team, but they were refused. No reason was given for this, and just why they refused to play is not known.

The game will start promptly at 8:30 and the regular weekly date will follow.

The way the two teams will line up is as follows:

Atlanta. Position. Columbus.
Forbes. R. P. Felt.
Dillard. J. M. Steinach.
Weaver. R. G. Newman.
