Monday We Received 300 New Suits

*That, With What We Had, Set Our Ready-to-Wear Section
At the Very Height of Preparedness for the Easter Busy-ness*

Now, then, for the Easter suit!

At the time (the psychological moment, we might call it) when the greatest demands of the season will be made upon us to supply the women of Atlanta with suits of smart, correct styles, we can announce with all sincerity that we have brought the displays to their highest point.

It is all a part of the service that we strive to render—to secure styles that women want when they want them; let the effort be what it will. And this season it has required exceptional effort, it has not been easy to get the styles most desired.

But we have succeeded, and here are the suits that prove it.

The Belted Coats, the Severely Tailored Coats, the Wide Flaring Skirts and Pleated Skirts. Plenty of the Favored Navy Blues and English Checks

These are the general points—they differ, they are attractive in hundreds of individual ways, one woman will like the way the belt is tucked up under the arms, another will like the way the belt marks severely the waist line.

The greatness of the stocks is calculated to allow a woman that individuality of choice that she most likes, but does not always find.

Prices Go Gradually From $19.50 to $50. If Any Special Values Were to Be Mentioned They Would Be Suits at $25 to $35, For Misses, and for Women up to Size 46

New Coats

We have gathered unusually bountifully, perhaps because of the unusually attractive styles this year.

Sports coats—partly named since they have come into such general usage—hold the forefront. These are in coverts in larger-than-regulation checks called Pagliacci checks. Some are belted very properly, some are Empire in style, most all have pockets.

They are lined or unlined, and the materials are light in weight, just heavy enough for the cool mornings and evenings of our early spring days. Practical, serviceable affairs.

Other coats are of the always good taffeta and faille silks in black and navy.

New Dresses

Afternoon and evening dresses have a freshness of line and fashioning this season that is most delightful, and they are developed in beautiful fabrics.

The afternoon dresses oftenest of pussy willow taffeta and crepe de chine show in one way or another little coat effects, and yoke skirts very wide.

Evening dresses often have little cup or bell sleeves, misty masses of chiffon for bodices, and skirts queasily like great tulips—and as colorful, too!

And the really smart styles for street wear. Full skirted, many in the jumper effect; they are developed in silks of new colorings—sands and blues being among the favored.

New Millinery

Many little hats fashioned after Paris ideas are ready to-day.

Wonderfully smart models are priced $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00.

A World of New Blouses

Surely the Attractive Diversity of Styles AND THE PRICES Will Make it Easy to Select Yours for Easter

We just got in a most beautiful quantity of new and different blouses—literally hundreds of them that must inspire a woman at once with the thought that here she will find just what she wants.

The display is about as broad as are the styles for spring; and the prices—you shall see that they are, in several instances, low beyond reason.

All the favored fabrics are represented—

Georgette Crepes, Crepe de Chines and Pussy Willow Taffetas Lead

And the color card shows the new grays, blues, the sand shades, flesh, maize and white. High-low collars are the favored; loops and pearl buttons; long sleeves.

Among the Most Notable Values Are Blouses At $2.25, $3.45, $3.75, $5.75

At $2.25 A pussy willow (washable) blouse—with high-low collar, pearl buttons and loops, long sleeves—that is a bit more than the price would indicate. This in navy, sand, flesh and white.

At $3.45 A Georgette crepe waist that buttons high 'round the neck or turns back loosely, as you please; pearl buttons and loops. This in flesh and white. Another of pussy willow or crepe de chine has a tucked front—most attractive—in maize, flesh, peach and white. A lace and crepe de chine blouse at this price is smart—flesh and gold combined.

At $3.75 A small few of self-striped crepes de chine, in oyster white and flesh—with clear pearl buttons and loops down the front, the high and low collar and long sleeves. It is to be compared with waists selling at a considerably higher price.

At $5.75 Pussy willow, and crepe de chine blouses of distinctive styles, plain shades and white with colored stripes. They are priced so as to add to the effect of the stripes—and surely women must like the unusually large pearl buttons that are used.

And still we have told of but a mere handful of the styles—there are others and others—the finer lace and net blouses, copies of Paris models, priced at $10.00, $12.50 to $16.95.

CITY EXPENDITURES ARE CUT BY $11,250

Two Resolutions Are Held Up by Councilmen at the Mayor's Request.

Declaring that the finance committee had placed him on the anxious seat by compelling him to make a proposal to come from for anticipated revenue, Mayor Woodward yesterday influenced that body to strike out two measures which will mean a total saving of $11,250.

"This is going to be the worst year in the financial history of Atlanta," declared the mayor. "You go right ahead in the face of this contract, more than $100,000 in revenue to the office today and they tell me our revenue will probably not exceed that of 1914."

"You have $150,000 anticipated. Receipts which it appears we are not going to have have been deposited in the marshal's office for a portion of it, and it doesn't look encouraging from that."

At the suggestion of the mayor Councilman Edwin P. Johnson, chairman of the finance committee, agreed to hold up the two bills until the marshal's office is compelled, his resolution providing for putting twenty thousand dollars in the police fund on an expense account of $30 per month.

Councilman Johnson also agreed to withdraw his resolution calling for $1,750 for car fares for the sixteen city trustees, and to withdraw his bill to draw up another resolution providing for only $300 for this purpose.

FEWER ARRESTS IN 1915. Judge Johnson's Policy Put End to Trivial Cases.

The number of arrests made by the police this year as compared with the same time last year shows a falling off of 60 per cent.

Up to March 22, 1914, the total number of arrests was 3,297. This year the number of arrests up to Monday was 2,380.

One reason assigned for the falling off is that the police department is the policy of Judge Johnson to dismiss cases that he believes to be too trivial to be worth the trouble. It is said, however, that there is no question but that there is to be no punishment, and this has caused them to be more careful about bringing trivial cases to the police.

NEXT BIBLE CONFERENCE WILL BE A BIG AFFAIR

Plans are being formulated which will make the Bible conference to be held in Atlanta in the month of July the greatest one held so far. The executive committee, composed of Rev. H. O. Peacock, Dr. W. L. Chapman, and J. J. Egan, have addressed a letter to the pastor of the First Baptist conference, requesting them to keep this matter in mind.

This year, owing to the protracted illness of Dr. Len Broughton, the founder and president of the conference, and on account of the opportunity of Rev. W. L. Chapman, Alexander, a revival meeting, the committee considered it wise to postpone the conference until the conference to the efforts of the revival.

SLIT THE STOCKING OF SLEEPING WIFE TO GET HER MONEY

For a husband to slit open his wife's stocking with a pocketknife to get her money was held very reprehensible by Judge Johnson yesterday.

That is what C. H. Johnson, of 41 Carroll street, did, according to the story told to the police yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Johnson said that she had married Johnson when she was a widow, and that he was the prisoner of being the man who had burglarized her home.

"He will talk," he stated to the reporter. "Saturday night when he came home and asked me for money I refused to let him have it. I saw him go down the street and when he came down and went to sleep he slipped into the room and slit open my stocking with a knife and took my money."

The Whitehall street merchant is accused of being a burglar and the sum of $100 is lost. No arrests have been made.

"Two well-known Whitehall street residents have been burglarized, and the total amount of money lost is the sum of $100 as lost. No arrests have been made."

The Whitehall street merchants are planning resolutions demanding of the police board better police protection.

"I must have been a very skilled operator," remarked the reporter, "to slit the stocking and not do any more damage."

Johnson pleaded no hard case, but so many of his friends said that he would do better if he was placed on probation. He showed that he worked hard, when not drinking.

Chinese Herb Doctor Will Know His Fate Before Night Comes

Ur. T. Y. Young, the Chinese herb doctor, will know some time today if he is to be found guilty or innocent of the charge of breaking and entering.

He is accused of breaking into the office of the Atlanta Journal yesterday.

"He will be tried Monday morning," the reporter said. "He has been held over to the police for the defense team.

There testified for the defense Monday a number of witnesses who stated that they had been treated by the doctor and were permanently cured or greatly benefited. Among the witnesses were Mrs. W. H. Carter, Dr. W. H. Shilling, Dr. John Marjorie Thomas, S. Thammas and Policeman J. H. Wilson.

CHANCELLOR BARROW OPENS BARROW COURT

Under Ga. March 22—(Special)—The first term of the superior court of Fulton county convened at Winter Barrow, the new county seat, at 10 o'clock this morning, with Chancellor David C. Barrow of the University of Georgia, for which the county was named, presiding.

There was a brief talk and followed this with a passage of the organ.

The organ was organized with Hon. H. H. Hart, Dr. W. H. Shilling and the trumpet player, Sidney Powell, the cathedral organist, will conduct.

NO EVIDENCE FOUND IN JAMES MURDER CASE

Under Ga. March 22—(Special)—

The coroner's jury in the S. W. James murder case found no clue. The verdict was that he was killed by an unknown party.

ROBBERS WERE BUSY DURING SUNDAY NIGHT

Whitehall Merchants Planning to Demand Better Police Protection.

When downtown shopkeepers opened up their stores early Monday morning, they were disturbed to find that the burglar alarm of Atlanta's secret order of armed burglars Saturday and Sunday nights was not restricted to the original charge.

"Two well-known Whitehall street residents have been burglarized, and the total amount of money lost is the sum of $100 as lost. No arrests have been made."

BEAUTIFUL RENDITION OF STRAINE'S CRUCIFIXION BY THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR

Next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Philip's Cathedral, there will be a devotional musical service, at which the "Crucifixion" will be sung by the choir.

The work is designated "A Meditation on the Sacred Passion of the Redeemer." The words of the text are the words of the crucifixion according to St. John.

Mr. Conk, says that this is the second time that the cathedral choir has sung the "Crucifixion" in public.

The losses, though, "Mr. Conk says, "are fully covered by burglary insurance."

The monument was unveiled by Dr. Julius Davenport and Clarence Vaughn. Schools were dismissed and places of business closed during the time of the service.

JUROR FINDS THIEF IN MAN ON TRIAL AND ACCUSES HIM

Harrison Barker, a youth from Richmond, Va., was arraigned in city criminal court Monday morning on a charge of $177.50 for which he had been held by Judge Calhoun than A. L. Headington, a juror sitting upon the case, arose in the courtroom and accused the prisoner of being the man who had burglarized his home.

"He will talk," he stated to the reporter. "Saturday night when he came home and asked me for money I refused to let him have it. I saw him go down the street and when he came down and went to sleep he slipped into the room and slit open my stocking with a knife and took my money."

BUY CRUSHED STONE TO COMPLETE SEWER TO CRACKERS' PARK

The sewers and drains committee of the council yesterday authorized the purchase of crushed stone for 1,000 feet of the sewer line to be built in the rear of the new city hall and land across the county line by the county board.

The principal address was made by Editor Henry McIntosh, of The Albany Herald, who was interested in the sewer line.

He said that the sewer line will be a high eulogy to his late co-worker and friend, Dr. W. H. Shilling.

The monument was presented to the county in a speech by Representative J. W. Hopkins, and received by J. T. Culver, chairman of the county commissioners.

Atlanta Censor Plans
To View "The Nigger;"
May Forbid Production

"The Nigger" has been taught in Atlanta as well as in August. Hank Cassidy, manager of the Grand theater, and Leon H. Gambie, managing director, and W. H. Peacock, president, and Hon. John H. Chapman, attorney for the stage, and Chancellor David C. Barrow of the University of Georgia, for whom the county was named, received a letter yesterday from C. C. Peacock, president of the Atlanta Censor, in which he advised that the picture will have to be withdrawn from the stage.

DISHONEST ADVERTISING.

Atlanta is awakening to the practice of the "commercial pirate," whose methods in other cities the country over, have aroused a national campaign against this comparatively new form of marauding legitimate business. Fortunately, Atlanta has not been much troubled with the past with this form of commercial buccaneering, the success of which depends entirely upon the ease with which the public permits itself to be deceived in diverting its business from legitimate and trustworthy sources to the fly-by-nights, whose interest in any community is measured by their ability to squeeze good money for inferior goods, and who invariably pass on to the next community before their victims have had time to discover that they have been looted.

Those engaging in this sort of business take no part in the upbuilding of the community, assume no burden of municipal obligation, contribute little or nothing to the various channels of trade and industry, and can in no sense be regarded as being actuated by the community spirit that makes all stand or fall together.

Elsewhere we publish a symposium from business men whose names are synonymous for integrity, good citizenship and devotion to the permanent civic welfare of Atlanta. Its tone is unstinted endorsement of the position taken in that editorial by The Constitution in behalf of honest advertising. It is led by F. J. Paxton, president of the Atlanta Retail Merchants' Association, and includes letters of similar cordiality from Grover Megaree, secretary of the association, and from the heads of other business houses of the same standing in the commercial world.

In the editorial in question The Constitution quoted from an article by Arnold Doesch, in February Pearson's Magazine, in which he flayed the commercial pirates who, by purchase and misuse of the name of honorable establishments or fake and misrepresentative advertising, swindled right and left, did a grave injustice to the firms whose very roots are planted in the city's life, and then sailed away with their loot.

Buccaneering of this character cuts two ways: (1) it "stings" the consumer by pinching off shoddy on him at high prices; in other words, getting his money under false pretenses. (2) it hurts both the consumer and his fellow-citizen, the merchant who stays in town the year round, who pays taxes and whose lot is cast with that of the community, by robbing the merchant of his ability to contribute his regular share to the civic upkeep.

It is in human nature to love a bargain. When such is advertised, as it often is, by the man whose name you know stands for something you have a guarantee that you will not be gullied. The man's reputation is back of that advertisement, and you know he is going to live up to it.

Not so with the commercial pirates that sail the business seas in many towns and try to scuttle honest business by fake methods and fake advertising. They are like the three-shel men who follow the circus, bounces every one who will "fall" for their game, then jump the town, leaving their victims heavy of heart and light in their pocket.

This shenky are vampires and honest business in everywhere turning its hand against them.

As for The Constitution, it can get along without such business!

Like the representative Atlanta business men quoted, its lot is also cast with that of the community.

That is our conception of a mutual square deal and of business ethical!

BACKING THE FAIR

Any lingering skepticism as to the practical, dollar and cents value of the Southeastern fair to Atlanta is torpedoed into extinction by a testimony from four American and one Canadian communities that maintain such institutions as a permanency. Joseph Oliver, president of the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, declares that city has doubled in size as a result partially traceable to the exhibition, and is corroborated by Peleg Howard, president of the Imperial Bank of Canada. Evidence varying in degree only, and all to the same effect, comes from Dallas, Texas; Richmond, Va.; Springfield, Ill.; Des Moines, Iowa. Fairs tending to bring out to the visitor the commercial possibilities of these cities and the industrial and agricultural possibilities of the territory tributary to them have proved handsome dividends.

The methods that have brought wealth and development to these cities and sections do the same thing for Atlanta and the sections surrounding. The process is the same. The result follows inevitably, with the difference that, given the superior advantages of Atlanta and the territory of which it is the commercial center, we are bound to get results proportionately in excess of those manifested in these other localities.

The committees assigned to solicit subscriptions for preferred stock to the Southeastern fair ought to find their work three-fold done for them. The proposition is simply a business one. Investing money in this enterprise is like investing money in the promotion of your own business and that of every other man in the community. It is not, of course, expected that Atlanta will next fall reap all the benefits that other cities have reaped by years of cumulative effort. But the fair next fall is to be a long stride in that direction, and the quicker the keen-witted business men of Atlanta begin to cash in on this opportunity the better for them, the city, the section.

These annual fairs are proved builders of retail and wholesale trade and of the interests of the country contiguous. The evidence from five widely-separated sources demonstrates the facts by arithmetical process.

BE IT ENACTED.

In one of his recent North Carolina addresses former President Taft told his hearers that within the past five years congress had passed more than 55,000 laws. "He said the tendency was to yield to the magic of 'It is enacted.' That fact he believed responsible for the glut of legislation from which he said the country was in sad need of a good rest.

Like a great many of the things Mr. Taft has been saying since he retired, these statements have a large basis of truth. The "Be it enacted" "bug" has not been confined to congress. It has been and still is the great American epidemic, afflicting banquets, towns, cities, states and the federal government itself. It looks so simple to say: "Go to let us correct this far-reaching and ancient economic error or condition by passing a law, decreeing a probe or creating a commission." The politicians, and especially those of the demagogic school, have preached and practiced the doctrine freely. They have taught the people that almost any ill affecting the country could be cured by a law. Several thousand of them have reached office simply by doing it. "Elect me and I'll see that you get the moon."

It is true that the period of such recklessness, misleading and costly bungo games appear to have passed high tide. People are becoming educated. They are finding out what law will accomplish much they will not accomplish anything. They are finding out that the great many office seekers could not get the laws passed even after the voters took them at their word and elected them. In other words, we seem in for an era of sanity, or at least of something nearer sanity, or than we have enjoyed in a good many years.

The average voter is gradually discovering that progress in government is about as slow and painful as progress in business and governed by just about the same rules. That is why we are going to have quality instead of quantity in legislation in the future. The change will not come in one day, but the drift is all in that direction.

Book agents are canvassing the "Lives" of Villis and Carranza. No doubt there are rival patriots in Mexico who are anxious to take them.

Municipal marriage fees in New York have been reduced to 25 cents. This gives the quick marriage class a chance to start early for the divorce lawyers.

Irv Cobb goes to the war front again. Another evidence of the appreciation of a man with a real imagination.

Only a few theaters are running in Paris, and a flight of Zeppelins is made the occasion of a Parisian holiday.

When a Mexican general sees a movie man following him around he feels that it's up to him to stamp a battle.

The good people are cauassing the "Lives" of Villis and Carranza. No doubt there are rival patriots in Mexico who are anxious to take them.

Municipal marriage fees in New York have been reduced to 25 cents. This gives the quick marriage class a chance to start early for the divorce lawyers.

Not so with the commercial pirates that sail the business seas in many towns and try to scuttle honest business by fake methods and fake advertising. They are like the three-shel men who follow the circus, bounces every one who will "fall" for their game, then jump the town, leaving their victims heavy of heart and light in their pocket.

JUST FROM GEORGIA

Paul L. Stanton

The "Warmer Prospect." The weather blights the blossoms—March violence. The blizzard blurs the blue that blest the sky. But cheer up, earthly travelers, we are contented with you, too. There's a better day to come, by and by.

The summer sun's rise. And blister earth and skies. There's a hotter day a-comin' by and by!

Why weary of the weather when the world is in the cold? The Snow Man's icy legions have night.

Take a glance toward the future—for "the world has been cold,"

Old Summer'll have a turn.

And it's then you'll blaze and burn.

There's a hotter day a-comin' by and by!

A blitzyll sermon. It was the summer sun's rise. And blister earth and skies. There's a hotter day a-comin' by and by!

PECULIAR FEATURE IN SUTKER WILL FILED IN SAVANNAH

Savannah, Ga., March 22.—(Special)—The will of Max Sutker, who died suddenly Wednesday night of last week, was filed in common form in the office of the probate court at 10 a.m. by M. A. Berens, the attorney for the testate. A feature of the will is the provision that if any of the children, who are now too young to be shown, are not of good moral character, in the opinion of a committee named in the will, the child so found guilty in this respect, the child so named may be cut off with $5 and not allowed to inherit. It is also provided that the children may only those of the Hebrew faith. The will is to be worth between $100,000 and $125,000. It represents the savings and the income of the late Max Sutker, who was engaged in business in Savannah for about that length of time.

RECIPE TO STOP DANDRUFF

This Home Made Mixture Stops Dandruff and Falling Hair and Helps It Growth.

To a half pint of water add Bay Rum 1 oz., Balsam of Rosemary 1 oz., Balsam of Sweet Marjoram 1 oz., Glycerine 1 oz.

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from a druggist at very little cost and make them up to apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until the mixture is used. A hair pin should be enough to hold the hair off dandruff and kill those damn germs. It stops the hair from falling out, relieves itching and scalp cases.

Although it is not a cure, it acts upon the hair roots and will darken streaked, faded, gray hair in ten or fifteen days. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes harsh hair soft and glossy.

$100,000 SAVING
ON STREET WORK

Members of Council Committees Believe City Will Gain That Much by Using Lutz Heaters.

By leasing yesterday afternoon two lots heaters for resurfacing the streets, the finance and street committees of council anticipate a saving of about $100,000 in street repairs during the ensuing year. The contract between the city and manufacturers will be drawn up by City Attorney W. E. Phillips, of the city, and the money will be ordered by wire.

Chairman A. W. Farling declared yesterday that the city would afford to the proposition of funds needed to repair the asphalt and Belgian block streets with an amount much reduced costs.

Nym Hause, superintendent of construction, reported that on Washington street, Whitehall, Peters, Auburn and Peachtree there is 11,000 square yards of asphalt and Belgian block.

Other sections of the city there is sufficient work to be done to make the repairs cover an area of at least 200,000 square yards.

It is estimated that the average cost of resurfacing a small block asphalt street is $1.25 per square yard, against $1.25 for new paving. This would mean a saving of more than $100,000 on the work.

The cost of resurfacing asphalt streets will be $1.25 per square yard for a period of two years.

During the life of the contract asphalt will be $1.25 per square yard, a royalty of 5 cents per yard is required and the city must guarantee payment of the royalty.
