

50 Girls Cremated
FACTORY GUTTED BY FLAMES
50 Others Injured

The Fire Spread So Rapidly Through Clothing Plant at Binghamton, N. Y., That It Was Impossible for the 125 Girls at Work to Make Their Escape.

MANY GIRLS LEAPED FROM BLAZING FACTORY AND WERE MANGLED

At First It Was Thought the Alarm Was for Fire Drill and the Girls Continued at Work Until Flames Swept Through Building—Most of the Injured Girls Received Their Hurts in Leaping From the Windows.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 22.—Fifty persons were killed, according to late estimates, and as many injured, a dozen or more fatally, in a fire which swept the four-story factory building of the Binghamton Clothing company this afternoon. The victims were chiefly women and girls.

Early tonight twenty-two bodies had been recovered. In the city hospital and in private institutions are thirty injured. Some two score persons are known to have escaped, as if by a miracle, from the building, which burst into flame like a tinder-box and became a roaring furnace almost in no time after the first alarm was sounded.

About 125 persons were in the factory when the fire broke out. Those unaccounted for, or most of them, are believed to be still in the red-hot ruins of the structure.

SEARCHING FOR THE VICTIMS.

Around the scene of the catastrophe, the greatest this city has ever known, thousands tonight watched the rescuers work in the glare of three big searchlights, many in the great throng being restrained only by the closely-drawn police lines from rushing into the ruins to seek the bodies of relatives or friends.

Many streams of water are being poured into the fiery pit, which a few hours ago was the cellar of the burned establishment.

As the ruins were cooled slightly, from time to time in a spot upon which the streams were centered, men went forward to dig as long as human endurance would allow them to work. Occasionally a body was found and quickly taken away.

This work will go on all night, and perhaps all day tomorrow, before the glowing mass gives up its last dead. It will take at least two days, the authorities believe, before the cellar can be cleared and the whole truth known.

LIKE THE TRIANGLE HORROR.

The big outstanding fact of the catastrophe is its suddenness. In this disaster bears a strong resemblance to the Triangle Waist company holocaust in New York city, where 147 lives were lost when the inflammable material upon which the employees were working and the waste littering the floors blazed up with inconceivable rapidity and set the imprisoned workers jumping from the windows to their death. The parallel here falls only in the lesser height and different construction of the building and in the length of the list of dead and injured.

Another resemblance to the New York disaster is that the fire today, it is believed to have been started by the careless throwing of a cigarette butt.

In the tragedy of this afternoon the deadly burst of flame followed quickly after the alarm. There was little opportunity to use ordinary even emergency means of escape. Fire drills had been carried on regularly, so frequently, in fact, that the employees had found them monotonous. The building was equipped with fire escapes and an automatic alarm system. The alarm tinkled at 2:30 o'clock.

Reed B. Freeman, wife of the proprietor, telephoned to the central fire station. The usual apparatus for a still alarm responded. Some excited person at Warren and Chenango streets, four blocks away, saw a burst of flames and pulled the box there.

PLANS DESERTION; IS SHOT BY BRIDE

Gainesville, Ga., July 22.—(Special.) Shot by his girl bride on the threshold of his home as he entered to bid her a final goodbye, Tom Wood, third baseman of the Gainesville baseball team, is lying in a local hospital dying with a bullet wound through his lung. The girl is in jail, prostrate and in a serious condition. She admits the shooting. Her surrender was made the instant she reached the hospital to which she had accompanied her wounded husband. She is only 19 and has been married but a few months.

Wood is not expected to survive the day. Although still conscious, he is being sustained by stimulants in an effort to prolong life as much as possible. He constantly accuses his bride and explains the shooting in her wish to see him dead rather than to have him desert her.

She Feared Desertion.

She has told Sheriff Spencer that she shot because the ball player was preparing to leave her and Gainesville never to return. So deep was her love for him, she declared, that it bordered on mania, and it was impossible to bear his absence.

It is reported that she also told the sheriff that her intentions were to slay herself upon shooting her husband. A charge of assault with intent to murder has been entered against her, but trial is pending her condition and Wood's probable death.

The shooting occurred Sunday night shortly after 11 o'clock. The Wood home was situated on Athens street in the outskirts of the city. At 11 o'clock the husband, who has been released from the ball club, arranged to leave for Atlanta on a midnight train.

Wanted Pistol in Hand.

Previously he had told his wife that he wished a separation and that he never would return. She is reported to have happily together. She had been informed of his plans to depart at midnight, but a trial that he would return home for a final goodbye.

As he reached the door of his residence, according to the story they both tell, she was waiting upon the threshold, pistol in hand and determined that he would either consent to remain with her or die, as she intended killing herself.

A few words passed, it is said. Passersby on the street saw the two standing in the doorway. Suddenly the pistol was aimed at the husband's body. The girl screamed, dropped the revolver and fainted in the hallway.

Men and boys ran from the street. Wood was conscious, but it required minutes to revive the girl. A passing automobile was stopped and his body placed in it to be carried to Downey's sanitarium. She pleaded to be carried in the machine and rode into the city with the head of the wounded youth in her lap.

The bullet penetrated the left lung just above the heart, ranged through the body and found exit in the back. It was fired from a .38-caliber pistol, a gift from the third baseman to his wife.

Would Stay With Husband.

Sheriff Spencer reached the hospital shortly after the automobile which brought the victim. Mrs. Wood was Miss Pearl Thomas before marriage, a pretty and popular native of Gainesville, in which her parents have lived for years. She has been married to Wood, who is only 22 years old, for only a few months. The wedding came after a short courtship following an introduction during a baseball game in which the third baseman had played on a trip to this city.

Wood is a ball player by profession and has been a member of the Gainesville club throughout the season. His career here was spectacular and he was a favorite with the local fans. He is a native of Nashville, Tenn., from which city his parents are expected to arrive in Gainesville Wednesday morning, having been notified this afternoon.

MAYOR PLANNING TRIP

May Go to Winnipeg, Paying His Own Expenses.

Mayor Woodward is thinking seriously of attending the convention of the League of American Municipalities which convenes in Winnipeg, Ontario, some time during the month of August. He said that in the event he made up his mind to go he would pay his own expenses.

Council on Monday passed up a resolution authorizing the expenditure of $200 to pay the expenses of two delegates to the convention. Mayor Woodward has not decided upon whom he will name.

NO BIBLE READING IN PUBLIC SCHOOL

Senate Committee on Education Turns Down Bush-Searcy Bill After Hearing From Many Ministers.

After being heard for the third time the much discussed bill which provides for the reading of the Bible in the public schools of this state was reported with the recommendation that it do not pass by the committee on education of the senate Tuesday afternoon by vote of 8 to 5.

The final hearing on the bill consumed almost three hours, ministers of many denominations speaking for and against the measure. The Baptists were divided upon their views on the measure, several of their ministers favoring the legislation while others were as ardently opposed.

Dr. John E. White, of the Second Baptist church, stated that the passage of the bill would mean a clash of state and church. "If you pass a bill like this the next step would be to furnish teachers who would interpret the reading and the state would thus undertake the direction of religious teaching. A similar bill to this has already been declared unconstitutional in Michigan and the Pennsylvania bill, from which this bill is copied, will have to go to the supreme court of that state."

Ask Passage of Bill. Dr. C. W. Daniel, of the First Baptist church, presented a resolution from the Baptist ministers asking that the legislature pass the Searcy-Bush bill. "There has been," said he, "an insidious and persistent effort to keep the Bible from being read to our children on the ground of mixing church and state, but why not dismiss your chaplain and do away with the Sunday laws if this is true?"

Dr. W. P. Lovejoy, presiding elder of the Methodist district of Atlanta, deplored the fact that the state made no provision to instruct her children upon the Christian religion and urged the passage of the bill.

A strong argument was presented against the bill by Rabbi David Marx, of the Jewish synagogue. "If you are going to pass this bill why not abolish the church and the Sunday schools and place religion entirely in the hands of the state? I deny the charge of the state being atheistic or immoral, but I think it immoral."

Against Spirit of Government. He argued the bill to be against the spirit of the government, the spirit of the constitution, the spirit of the state and the spirit of progress, in that religious teaching has always been corrupt and intolerant when the church and state are joined together. He argued the bill to be unjust since the code says: "No money shall ever be taken from the public treasury directly or indirectly in aid of any church, sect or denomination of religion or of any sectarian institution."

Rabbi Marx pleaded with the committee on the grounds that he represented the inalienable rights of the minority. "Constitution is the melting pot, weak against the strong," said the rabbi, "and no constitution is good which does not protect everyone."

"Last night I retorted 'democracy.' The public school is the melting pot out of which comes the American citizen. The public school is the public's school. All pupils must have equal rights there. It is not the business of the state to favor one religion or belief, what its idea of God shall be, or what religion it shall adopt."

All Against the Bill. Father G. S. Rapier, representing the state Catholics, said that the Jews, Catholics and Episcopalians were solidly against the bill. The Catholics object to the free interpretation of the Bible by teachers.

Dr. Jones, of the Grace Methodist church, spoke for the bill, and Dr. L. E. Barton, of the Jackson Hill Baptist church, spoke against it.

THOMPSON AND DAVIS CONFIRMED BY SENATE

Howard to Be Marshal of the Northern District and Davis of Southern.

Washington, July 22.—(Special.)—The patronage deadlock is being broken. Two more Georgians were confirmed as federal officials today after Senator Bacon announced to the senate the favorable action of the judiciary committee on the nominations of Howard Thompson, of Gainesville, and Joseph S. Davis, of Albany, to be United States marshals in the northern and southern districts, respectively.

Mr. Davis was reported to the senate first and confirmed, as Senator Bacon was expected to be prepared against any unexpected development which might interfere with the confirmation of both men at the same time.

The fight against Mr. Davis has been a determined one, and strong efforts were made to have Senator Smith fight the confirmation, but he declined to do so.

Both Mr. Thompson and Mr. Davis will be required to execute bonds to the government and will then be commissioned. They probably will not take office for a week or ten days.

No action has yet been taken by the treasury department on the nomination of David C. Barrow to be collector of the port of Savannah. Senator Bacon is standing firmly by his nominee despite the opposition which seeks to land the place for M. J. O'Leary, a prominent Savannah business man.

IN BALKAN COCKPIT POWERS OF EUROPE MAY SOON GRAPPLE

Action of Turkey in Reoccupying Territory Taken From Her by Bulgaria Threatens General War.

POWERS ARE RESOLVED TO CHECKMATE TURKEY

Russia Ready to Use Force Turkey, and Great Britain Will Likely Consent to Intervention.

London, July 22.—The European concert is faced by a most delicate and difficult situation, requiring the exercise of the utmost diplomatic tact, if Europe is not to be plunged into a general war by the Turkish reoccupation of Adrianople and Kirk Killiseh.

Bulgaria, helpless, sees the fruits of her dearly won victories snatched from her hand, and while negotiations for an armistice are proceeding in a leisurely manner at Nish, the Greeks and Servians continue to push their advantage.

Powers Exchanging Views. The official announcement made at Constantinople that the Turkish troops had reoccupied Adrianople created the worst possible impression in diplomatic circles, and the powers immediately began an exchange of views to find the best means of checkmating Turkey's action, which is looked upon as a clear-cut defiance of all Europe.

The next few hours are likely to decide whether forces hitherto unengaged shall enter the Balkan cockpit, Russia is understood to be ready to accept the mandate of Europe to compel the Porte to respect the treaty of London, and the British cabinet tomorrow will consider whether this government shall consent to active intervention by Russia.

Warning to Turkey. Premier Asquith's speech at Birmingham Monday evening was intended to warn Turkey against just such a development which would involve Russian occupation of both sides of the Bosphorus and the gripping of Constantinople both in the front and the rear.

In their advance the Servians have occupied Belgrade, northwest of Sofia, and desultory fighting continues all along the Servian front. The Greeks, advancing northward from Nevrokop, are meeting with stubborn resistance. The Bulgars, with heavy artillery, are fighting desperate rear-guard actions. Both sides are reported to be losing heavily.

The Greek claims to have captured strong Bulgarian positions on the heights stretching to the north of Petchova. In Sofia it is believed the Greeks intend to invade southern Bulgaria and occupy Philippopolis.

The Bulgarians exploded the ammunition magazines and blew up some of the government buildings before evacuating Adrianople. No serious fighting has occurred either at Adrianople or Kirk Killiseh.

General Miles Held in Sofia. Sofia, July 22.—Sofia is still isolated from the outside world, except by telegraph by way of Bucharest and Sebastopol, which is reserved exclusively for official dispatches and press telegrams. No private telegrams are accepted.

No mails from Europe have been received in the past fortnight, nor has agency news been published for four days. Consequently the public is in ignorance of the happenings of Europe. To all intents and purposes Sofia is besieged.

Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, and several Europeans are forced prisoners here. Surgeon Major Clyde S. Ford, U. S. A., medical corps, who did good work at Constantinople in connection with the American Red Cross, is also here. He has offered his services to Bulgaria, and his offer has been accepted.

WILSON'S CANDIDATE WINS BY BIG PLURALITY

Hart Carries Sixth New Jersey Over McClave Mentioned in the Lobby Probe.

Sussex, N. J., July 22.—Archibold C. Hart, democrat, was elected to the house from the sixth congressional district of New Jersey today to succeed the late James Martin. - Hart had the support of President Wilson.

The republican candidate, S. Woods McClave, who was mentioned in the Mulhall testimony before the senate lobby investigators, ran second, and Herbert M. Bailey, progressive, third, the returns were incomplete tonight, but indications were that Hart ran ahead of McClave by more than 5,000 votes.

Wilson Greatly Interested. Washington, July 22.—President Wilson, who was greatly interested in the result of the congressional elections in the sixth New Jersey district, retired near midnight just before the white house received definite news that the democratic candidate had been elected. The president stayed up nearly an hour later than usual waiting for the returns. He had usually indorsed Hart's candidacy.

JUST ONE OF HUERTA'S TROUBLES

News from the northern section of Mexico where the guerrillas are most numerous show why foreign governments are protesting against conditions. The hands of guerrillas have destroyed so much railroad track that transportation is demoralized. Passenger traffic to the north is practically suspended. Whenever the guerrillas commit depredations they burn and tear up track to prevent pursuit, and as a result trains are run at rare intervals and many branch lines have been abandoned. Workmen can repair the tracks only when guarded by troops, and the troops are busy trying to find the marauders.

BIG CROWD HEARS SUFFRAGE TALKS

Mrs. William L. Peel Presides Over Interesting Meeting at Which Subject Is Discussed From Every Angle.

Equal suffrage was discussed from every angle at a monster mass meeting in Taft hall last night. A big ovation was extended Mrs. Mary L. McLendon, president of the Georgia Woman's Suffrage association, when she was presented to the audience by Mrs. William L. Peel, the chairman of the meeting, and Mrs. Frances Whitesides, a leader of the Woman's Suffrage league, was also greeted with applause.

A hot campaign between the suffrage associations was waged during the evening, and application blanks, membership cards and badges were distributed by white-haired matrons and young girls not yet out of their teens.

Rivalry Between Leagues. Beneath the surface of the meeting was an undercurrent of rivalry between the Georgia Woman's Suffrage association and the new Woman's Suffrage league, formerly the Atlanta Civic league, which was barred from the recent state convention. Just before the officers of the state league were introduced by Mrs. Peel, Mrs. Frances Whitesides, a leader in the Civic league, left the platform, where she had been seated all evening.

Members of the Georgia Woman's Suffrage association, who construed this action by the leader of the faction which they recently refused to recognize, as an intended affront to their speakers, nevertheless showed no displeasure, because some of them had insisted that they would not take the platform alongside of Mrs. Whitesides.

Though the meeting was widely advertised as a joint debate, opponents to woman's suffrage were few and far between, and there was only one out-and-out anti-suffragist argument. This was by the Hon. Ernest Neal, a member of the legislature, and before he concluded his remarks he called attention to the fact that in his address he had merely summoned some of the anti-suffrage arguments, and that he didn't place much stock in some of them. He then summarized the suffrage fight in a poem, which brought forth a laugh as he jibed at the expense of suffragists, and rounds of applause as he recognized the merits of their cause.

Calls for Woods White. Woods White, who had just entered the hall, was then called to the platform by Mrs. William Peel, who asked him to address the meeting and immediately thereafter he called for "White" to alight over the house, but he said he would rather refrain from taking issue with the ladies on such an occasion.

Recorder Broyles came out strong for suffrage, and Dr. A. M. Hugglett followed with a scholarly appeal for the enfranchisement of women.

"Women are equal with men intellectually, they are equally capable and adaptable, and even more conscientious," he said.

"Do not twitter like the birds nor chatter like the monkeys," was Mrs. Whitesides' admission to the suffragists. Her address was well received, and in conclusion she urged all interested persons to attend the hearing.

Preparations are already being made in the courtroom on the first floor of the old chamber of commerce building where the case will be tried. Deputy Sheriff Plennie Miner, acting under orders from Judge Roan, had the janitors at work all day Tuesday putting in additional seats and benches and preparing for the crowd that is sure to attend the public hearing in which interest has centered for months.

Double the number of seats will be installed and after those directly concerned with the case have entered, a sufficient number of the general public will be allowed to come in until all vacant seats are taken. Then the doors will be closed and no one else will be allowed in the courtroom. The Deputy Miner has also ordered a dozen large electric fans which will be placed at intervals around the room to keep the air stirring and to draw as much fresh air through the large windows as possible.

UNCLE SAM URGED TO USE IRON HAND ON MEXIC REPUBLIC

GRAVITY OF SITUATION REALIZED BY SENATORS

Senator Bacon Insists That No Action Be Taken Until After Serious Consideration—Taft's Policy Blamed.

UNITED STATES WARSHIPS RUSHED TO MEXIC PORTS

Washington, July 22.—The gunboat Wheeling today was ordered to Frontera, Tabasco state, Mexico, where revolutionary activity has endangered the lives and property of Americans. She will sail from Key West tomorrow morning. The gunboat has 150 bluejackets, but no marines.

Washington, July 22.—The battleship Louisiana, which sailed from Vera Cruz under rush orders, has arrived at Tuxpan, Mexico, to protect Americans whose lives and property are endangered by fighting between federals and revolutionists.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, July 22.—(Special.)—Affairs in Mexico engaged the attention of the senate today and precipitated the most warlike discussion heard since the days immediately preceding the outbreak of the Spanish-American war.

Senator Fall's resolution declaring that full protection in his constitutional rights should go with every citizen of this country throughout the world caused the debate.

Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee, pleaded moderation, demanding of both Senators Fall and Lodge whether they favored invasion of Mexico by armed troops. At that they fell back upon statements that they did not believe that all diplomatic resources had been attempted or exhausted.

Taft Policy Blamed. The policy of delay on the part of the Taft administration was emphatically denounced by Senator Fall and blamed by him for the present critical situation which, he said, could have been prevented by a sterner national policy.

This declaration was approved by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, who expressed disappointment that the new president and new secretary of state had not inaugurated a different Mexican policy.

That the delicacy of the situation was keenly appreciated was evinced by the insistence of many senators, led by Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee, that approved pronouncement be deliberately and seriously considered before being acted upon.

Directed Against Mexico. Senator Fall's resolution would commit the government to full protection of the "constitutional rights" of American citizens in foreign nations. That the resolution was directed against Mexico, Senator Bacon declared, could not be concealed and in moving to refer it to the foreign relations committee he asserted that "words are very serious things some times and this is one of the times.

Senator Works, of California, asserting the Fall resolution constituted a declaration that the United States was prepared to make war on Mexico if Americans there were not protected, urged that no hasty action be taken.

Senator Fall averred that every act of his had been prompted by the earnest desire to prevent war and that he had vainly sought to bring the former administration to a realization of the fact that a stern Mexican policy would have prevented rather than have precipitated war.

Senator Bacon declared the facts did not warrant such a statement, but that under the Taft and Wilson administration the state department had made effort to secure protection for Americans and their property.

"The efforts have been continuous and unceasing," said Senator Bacon. "They may not have availed, but not true that this administration or the previous one has not made efforts to protect Americans."

"I have every reason to have faith," Senator Bacon continued, "from statements made to me by executive officers of the government that every diplomatic effort is being made to protect Americans in Mexico."

Want Roosevelt for Ambassador. Denison, Texas, July 22.—A telegram to President Wilson, recommending the appointment of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as ambassador to Mexico, protection to American citizens in Mexico and steps by the United States to go to the assistance of our sister republic," was sent from here last night by a special train load of Americans who have just made a trip through parts of the Rio Grande valley.

"Alfalfa Bill" Wants Intervention. Washington, July 22.—Representative William H. Murray, of Oklahoma, well known as "Alfalfa Bill," introduced an elaborate set of resolutions today in which he invites the senate to concur, directing intervention in Mexico, if order and peace are not restored within thirty days after President Wilson issues a proclamation to that effect.

Murray's resolutions characterize Provisional President Huerta as an "usurping marauder," a "black-handed murderer" and his regime as "founded upon treachery, duplicity and murder."

HARRY LUCAS AND WIFE DITCHED ON AUTO TRIP

Savannah, Ga., July 22.—(Special).—Encased in mud and drenched to the skin, Harry K. Lucas and wife, of Atlanta, arrived from Atlanta today in their automobile after a two days' trip in which they narrowly escaped serious injury.

When only about fifteen miles from Savannah Monday night the automobile skidded and went into a ditch, all but turning over. After laboring for hours in an effort to get the car back and bleeding, Mr. Lucas had to abandon his effort.

Although the rain was falling in torrents Mr. Lucas and his wife started to walk to Savannah. They had some more than a mile when they encountered a farm house and induced the owner to assist them. With the aid of shovels, planks and a mule the machine was finally gotten out of the ditch. The Atlantans left home early Sunday morning. They are going to spend a few days at Tybee before returning to Atlanta.

HOT FIGHT COMING ON PARCEL POST

Congress Stirred by Burelson's Order Reducing Rates and Increasing Size of Packages—Question Authority.

Washington, July 22.—Concerted opposition has developed in congress to Postmaster General Burelson's order reducing parcel post rates and increasing the maximum size of packages to be handled in the service. The order was issued Sunday, to become effective August 15, and today the senate postoffice committee requested Mr. Burelson to appear before the committee next Thursday with an explanation for the authority for his action.

First Step in Bitter Contest. This was the first step in what promises to be a bitter contest. When the postmaster general has been heard, the committee is expected to undertake to have withdrawn before August 15 any authority he may claim congress has given him to change rates and sizes. It was contended in committee that the proposed changes would entail an enormous loss to the government, and some of the members complained strenuously.

Apparently there was no difference of opinion in the committee as to whether the postmaster general should change the rates, democrats and republicans agreeing that only congress ought to have this power.

The controversy has aroused extraordinary interest at the capital and in official circles, since the parcel post touches more or less directly nearly everybody in the country. Those who are supporting the postmaster general's position insist that the only loss imminent under the proposed changes would be to the express companies, which now carry the profit-making large size packages, while the government transports the unprofitable small ones.

Changes Ordered by Burelson. The changes ordered by the postmaster general would affect only the first or second zones, or territories within a radius of 150 miles of the point of mailing. The maximum weight of parcels would be changed from 10 to 20 pounds. The rate on parcels weighing in excess of four ounces, in the first zone, would be reduced from five cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof, to five cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof, and five cents for the second zone would be reduced from five cents for the first pound and three cents for each additional pound, or six cents for the first pound and four cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof, to five cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof.

ested to join the woman's suffrage league. Mrs. Amelia Woodall, president of the Atlanta Equal Suffrage League, auxiliary to the state association, was seated on the platform, next to Mrs. McLendon, and Mrs. E. Cunningham paid a high tribute to the leadership of the Atlanta Equal Suffrage League. "Suffrage means the protection of the home and of the helpless," said Mrs. Cunningham, in summarizing her remarks.

Dr. White for Suffrage. "We are not going to get woman's suffrage by militant efforts, but by earnest work and education of the people," said Dr. John E. White, in a suffrage speech, which brought down the house, and was frequently applauded.

"I favor woman suffrage, not because I believe women are prepared, but because they are not prepared," he said. "The woman's movement needs the daughters of the rich who have no idea of anything that resembles responsibility. They have no desire to be anything or anybody—many of them—all they want is to find an eligible man who can buy an automobile on the installment plan."

Mrs. McLendon, who was introduced as the "original suffragist," traced the growth of the state association which was organized twenty-three years ago by Miss Augusta Howard, through all its trials and triumphs, pointing out that it is the oldest suffrage league in Georgia, the only one with credentials from the national body, and with auxiliaries all over the state. To join the Atlanta Equal Suffrage League, which is the only Atlanta body auxiliary to the state association.

Grossman in Presented. After discussion joint debates which the state association is scheduled to have all over Georgia, Mrs. McLendon asked Mrs. Paet, the chairman, permission to call Attorney Leonard J. Grossman to the platform, and she presented him as the legal advisor of the Georgia Woman's Suffrage Association. "The basis of our government is the consent of the governed," said Mr. Grossman, who urged that all who play the game and obey the rules should have equal rights and opportunities.

The Daughters of the American Revolution turned out for the suffrage meeting in full force, not that they were all suffragists, but the debate was held under the auspices of the Habersham chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the money raised from the sale of tickets went to the Daughters of the American Revolution fund. Society was out in full force, in recognition of Mrs. Paet's active interest in the meeting, which was called to order at 8 o'clock.

Following the introductory organ recital by Dr. J. Percy Starnes, which was applauded and encored, Mrs. Paet announced the speakers of the evening. Several delegates from the state association had been asked to prepare addresses, but lack of opposition to the suffragists removed the necessity of additional speakers. Among these delegates were some prominent field workers of the Georgia Woman's Suffrage Association, including Mrs. M. C. Harding and Mrs. M. T. McWhorter.

Mrs. Paet's Address. One of the most interesting features of the evening was the introductory address of Mrs. Paet. It is as follows: Ladies and Gentlemen: It is eminently meet and proper that any discussion of the woman question should be conducted around a kitchen table.

TATE RECOMMENDED; WARNER IS BEATEN

House Committee on Constitutional Amendments Acts on Two Counties.

The house committee on constitutional amendments Tuesday afternoon recommended for passage an amendment creating Tate county, at the same time declining to recommend Warner county.

The proposed county of Tate will affect Gilmer, Pickens, Cherokee, Bartow and Gordon counties. Fairmont is the proposed county seat. With the practical certainty that no more new counties will pass the house this year, this makes the fourth county which is set for consideration. This will mean the loss of approximately, if not exactly, four days' work, or a waste of one-fourth of the working time left to the legislature. The earlier the county recommended will mean the loss of just one more day.

No More Special Orders. That the inadvisability of further squandering of time on the question of new counties is being realized by the committee on constitutional amendments is evidenced by a resolution which was drafted Tuesday afternoon to be presented to the house today, declining to set any more new county hearings for special orders, but to take up the matters pending before the committee by their house numbers. This resolution is not understood to be directed against hearing the cause of new counties, but to be for the purpose of fair consideration of all matters referred to the committee.

Tuesday afternoon on the question of Warner and Tate counties was largely a repetition of the proceedings in a majority of the other hearings. The same formal arguments were used for and against. The same tricks of juggling the sources of figures, new counties resorting to affidavits to boost the population and taxable values of the counties affected, while the old counties upon whom the burden was laid, and upon a figure available from the comptroller general and at the courthouses to place the figures low, were brought into play. The same strings were pulled to bring witnesses to their feet to answer set questions by both sides. The same charges and counter-charges of misrepresentation of figures and maps were made.

Professor Boyd for Tate. There appeared in behalf of Tate Professor J. W. Boyd, of Fairmont, the proposed seat of the new county, the like of whose oratory hath not been seen in these parts in many moons. What with his six feet and odd inches of stature and his white-hope arms swinging like a Dutch windmill, Ed Wohlwender, "the Flying Dutchman from Mooresboro," will have to look to his laurels!

Besides, there were Representative Neal, of Gordon, the recognized one-gallus champion schoolmaster of the mountains, and a Catholic clergyman, the creation of Tate, he said: "That strip of country that Tate wants is the most God-forsaken and at the same time the most God-blessed section I ever hope to see. They have got some of the finest people there I ever met and some of the meanest. The reason all of them are not good is they are too far from the seat of power and y' can't hold 'em down. Let 'em have the county and hold themselves down!"

The one-gallus school teacher did not hesitate to express himself on the subject of Tate county, saying that he had been so button-holed and lugged-about that half the time he had forgotten whom he had promised to support and whom he had not.

Appears Tate Creation. Colonel W. T. Day, of Jasper, in Pickens county, the sole surviving member of the convention of 1860, at which time he voted against secession and since which time he has not ceased to join the republican ticket, was present to oppose the creation of Tate county. Colonel Day made no bones about the fact, which, up to the time he took the floor, had been kept more or less in the background, that the creation of Tate county would add another republican county, although he admitted that he should not worry about that at all except for the fact that it cut into his own county.

The small portion of Murray county which would have been affected by the original amendment for the creation of Tate was eliminated by an amendment. The proposed line affecting Murray county would have cut in two, the Farris Carter estate, all of which was placed in Murray county some sixty years ago by a special enactment changing the Murray county line.

DUTRO IS DROWNED TRYING TO SAVE GIRL

Memphis, Tenn., July 22.—L. W. Dutro, a wealthy business man of this city, was drowned in the Mississippi river near Memphis late today while attempting to rescue a young woman from drowning. Mr. Dutro, formerly a prominent attorney at Memphis and had been prominently identified with political affairs in Tennessee for a number of years.

Since the days of Cain and Abel woman has been the purveyor of the human race. Besides giving man a magnificent start in life, she has fed him from the cradle to the grave. "Not only has she stuffed him with good things, but she has uplifted him in every way. "But for her man would still be walking on four legs. In the beginning the chief occupation of man—lord of creation—was in the image of God was warfare, his intention to annihilate, to exterminate, to kill! While engaged in this delightful pastime it developed upon some one to feed the family, and the woman, bearing her offspring in one hand, with the other to fend off the enemy's roots, thus necessitating an upright posture. Having introduced this fashion of upstanding it has come to stay. These are just a few of the little things woman has done for man.

"The first country to give to woman the right of franchise was New Zealand. Any schoolboy knows that New Zealand represents the most advanced civilization of any country on the globe. I have heard of a man who washes the dishes and answers the telephone in New Zealand.

"To the younger generation the attitude of conservative people fifty years ago toward woman is almost inconceivable. What woman would, if she could, go back and be what her mother was? Or what mother would, if she could, go back and be what her mother was? "And so it goes. Now, where are we at, and where are we going? We are met here this evening to discuss this very question in all its bearings. We have received letters of regret from Mrs. Felton, Mrs. Nellie Peters Black, Rev. E. H. Ord, Hon. H. H. Adams, of Savannah, and Bishop Nelson. "The meeting is now open."

FALSE TESTIMONY GIVEN BY LOBBYIST

Mulhall Retracts Charge that Watson Took Money From Lobby While in Congress. Indictment Is Threatened.

Washington, July 22.—Martin M. Mulhall, professed ex-lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, today retracted the most serious charge he has made before the senate investigating committee.

He swore yesterday that former Representative James E. Watson, of Indiana, had been employed by private interests in 1909 while he was still a member of the house to work for a tariff commission bill. He testified today that what he had sworn to yesterday was wrong; that Watson was not a member of the house at the time.

Reports that Watson, who is in Washington, was about to ask the District of Columbia grand jury to indict Mulhall for criminal libel were heard about the investigating room. Mulhall volunteered his retraction after the noon recess. He said he realized his mistake when he saw the date of a tariff convention to be held in Indianapolis in February, 1909.

The committee did not question Mulhall about the discrepancy in his own testimony. Watson is under subpoena and will take his stand later.

After Cardinal and Bishop. Just before the close of today's session the Mulhall letters began to refer to efforts to secure Cardinal Gibbons, presiding Bishop Daniel F. Tuttle of the Episcopal church of America; Ambassador James Bryce, the late Justice Brewer, of the supreme court; Vice President Sherman; Senators Borah and Dooliver, and other prominent men, to speak in St. Louis during a course of lectures to be given by the Citizens' Industrial Association. Cardinal Gibbons was mentioned in several letters between Mulhall and F. C. Schwedman, secretary of President Van Cleve, of the National Association of Manufacturers. Finally Chairman Overman asked for an explanation.

"I don't believe I saw the cardinal on that mission," said the witness. Mulhall said the association was organized for the purpose of delivering educational lectures and keeping the side of the people interested in it before the public.

Organized for Lobby Work. "Has it anything to do with lobby work?" he was asked. "Yes, sir; it was organized to protect its members or to work for legislation it wanted, including legislation against labor."

Mulhall swore it was a constituent member of the National Council for Industrial Defense. "Cardinal Gibbons and these other distinguished men did not know the real object of the organization, did they?" asked Senator Nelson. "No, sir," said Mulhall.

When Mulhall was in Danbury, Conn., in June, 1909, working on the famous strike of the Danbury hat-makers, he wrote Schwedman about Rev. Father Shanley, of that city: "I have had several long interviews with him and have won him over as a warm friend. Father Shanley is one of the most noted Catholic clergymen in the east." He said Father Shanley, he was sure, would be delighted to deliver a lecture in St. Louis. Mulhall's activities, detailed in letters put in the record today, were directed early in 1909, to work in behalf of a tariff commission, although he told of occasional excursions to break strikes and do other odd jobs for the National Association of Manufacturers.

Weekly Press Association Holds Largest Convention

LaGrange, Ga., July 22.—(Special).—The Georgia Weekly Press association met here in annual convention today. The attendance was the largest in the history of the association.

At today's session the editors were welcomed by Mayor John M. Edmondson and W. A. Reeves, president of the LaGrange chamber of commerce, a response being made by Editor C. S. Coleman, of The Cedartown Standard.

Mrs. John N. Holder read a paper prepared by her husband, editor of The Jackson Herald, who was unable to attend. The theme was "The Influence of the Georgia Press on the Government of the State."

At 11:50 o'clock the convention delegates left for West Point, where a big barbecue was tendered this afternoon, followed by a reception at the home of W. Trox Bankston editor of The West Point News. They return to LaGrange this afternoon.

LENOX SWEEP BY FIRE Heavy Loss Sustained in Early Morning Blaze.

Tifton, Ga., July 22.—(Special).—The town of Lenox, fourteen miles south of Tifton on the Georgia Southern and Florida railway, came near being wiped out by fire at an early hour this morning. The fire was discovered in the building occupied by the Lenox Drug company about 1 o'clock. This building was destroyed, together with adjoining buildings occupied by Lotz-Allen & Co., general merchandise, and the Farmers' Supply company, general merchandise.

The Lenox Drug company estimate their loss on stock and fixtures at $12,000, with insurance of $7,000. Lotz-Allen & Co. loss is about $4,000, with $2,000 insurance. The Farmers' Supply company's loss will amount to several thousand dollars, on which there was some insurance. The buildings were of brick and artificial stone, and occupied the east side of Railroad street.

WOULD GIVE FELONY CONVICTS A CHANCE

What Prison Reform Association Expects to Do by Indeterminate Sentence Law.

That the proposed bill to make prison sentences indeterminate in length of time will not only improve convict conditions in Georgia, but will also increase the efficiency of the convicts in road building, is declared by Philip Welter, prison expert and secretary of the Prison Association of Georgia.

Mr. Welter declares that the indeterminate sentence is based on justice and common sense rather than on sentiment or mercy, and that wherever it has always tended to embarrass the creak by keeping him in up to the limit, yet keeping the door of opportunity open to the occasional offender whom kind treatment and hope can reform.

The bill creating indeterminate sentences has been recommended favorably and will be placed upon its passage shortly in both the house and senate.

"LOOK AND LEARN," CHINESE STUDENT SAYS IN A SPEECH

"If everybody would just look about and learn what they can learn from the other people around them, the world would be a lot better."

This was the philosophy expressed by Timothy Tingfang Law, a young Chinese student of the University of Georgia, in an interesting speech he made Tuesday at the opening of the new "King Ling Lo" restaurant, at 85 1/2 North Broad street.

Among his audience were a number of the most prominent business men of Atlanta, who were entertained on the occasion in royal style. The dinner was unique and savory.

FELDER GIVES OPINION ON BORROWING POWER

Says Governor May Borrow for Deficiency Due to Delay in Collecting Taxes.

That the governor is authorized by law to borrow money up to $500,000 to meet a temporary deficit caused by a delay in collecting the taxes, is the substance of an opinion handed Governor Elton yesterday by Attorney General Felder. The opinion was written in reply to a request from the governor for a construction of the recent amendment to the constitution increasing the amount which the governor is allowed to borrow from $200,000 to $500,000.

AUTO WAS TOO MUCH FOR ENRAGED BULL

Elgin, Ill., July 22.—Matadors may be succeeded by automobiles as bull-fighters. This was proven today when Peter Green, a farmer, 60 years old, of Huntley, Ill., was being zored by a bull while in one of his pastures.

His screams attracted an automobile party of three men who were in the road. The men witnessed the attack for a moment, then the driver of the big touring car, made a dash into the pasture and after the bull. The horn was tooted and tooted, and the bull was finally driven away from the helpless farmer.

STATE SENATE VOTES FOR TARVER MEASURE

Bill Provides for Recovery of Damages in Cases of Homicide.

After a two-hour debate the Tarver bill, providing for recovery of damages by certain parties in cases of homicide, was passed as amended by the state senate yesterday morning by the vote of 27 to 10.

Senator B. S. Miller, of the twenty-fourth, who opened the argument on the bill in an hour talk, submitted a substitute omitting some of the drastic features of the Tarver bill. He declared that the caption of the Tarver bill would be more appropriate if it said, "An act to better the condition of the damage suit lawyers of this state. The Miller substitute was defeated.

MAY BORROW FOR INSTITUTIONS

The attorney general answers: "Under the constitution as amended I think money can be borrowed to meet appropriations which have been made for the institutions of the state, if at the time there is a deficit in the treasury caused from the necessary delay in the collection of the taxes for the particular year in which it is proposed to make the borrow, and that the loan so made can be repaid out of the taxes when collected."

The governor will transmit to the general assembly both his queries and the attorney general's answers without comment. Several bills are now pending authorizing the governor to make a loan for the specific purpose of paying the school teachers.

AKIN EXPLAINS PURPOSE OF THE DRAINAGE BILL

Says Government Offers Business Opportunity Not to Be Lost by State.

Action will probably be taken by the appropriations committee of the house at its next meeting tomorrow afternoon on the bill of Representative Akin, of Glynn, to appropriate $5,000 for a preliminary survey of the swamp lands of the state, with a view to their drainage.

The author regards this measure as one of the most important which the general assembly will have to act on this year. Its importance is out of all proportion to the size of the appropriation asked for, he says.

"If we get this little appropriation from the state," Mr. Akin said Tuesday, "the sum will be duplicated by the United States government, and, in addition, the government will furnish the surveyors to do the work. Blueprints will be made showing the results of the survey, copies of which will be available to parties interested."

"Then owners of land in the swamp section of the state, which includes 4,500 square miles, will know just what is necessary to have their lands drained, what the cost will be, etc.

A Great Business Chance.
"I do not see how our state can afford to miss this opportunity. It is a chance which every business man would grab at. By making available for agricultural and other purposes this vast tract of land, millions of dollars will be added to the taxable values of the state, and the state's revenue increased proportionately."

Government to Co-Operate.
"I know that the government is now eager to co-operate in the work, but the policy of the government is to help those who help themselves. We have seen both the present secretary of agriculture and his predecessor in office, and I have their word that the government will help us in the present method, if we make this appropriation."

OPPOSES REDUCTION OF RECORDER'S POWER

Senator G. M. Huie Will in All Probability Insist on Changes in Charter Bill.

It has developed that the Atlanta charter bill which passed the house last week will in all probability be fought in the senate by Senator G. M. Huie, of the thirty-fifth district, of which Fulton county is a part. The objectionable feature of the bill to Senator Huie is that section which provides for the reduction of the power of the city recorder.

This section reduces the power of the recorder in sentencing prisoners from sixty to thirty days and in fining them from $500 to $200.

Senator Huie stated that in view of the fact that the bill was passed by the house at the instigation of Fulton county's representatives and was not approved by the city council he felt compelled to fight this section until otherwise requested by the city council.

He Represents Atlanta.
"Of course," said Senator Huie, "my position in the matter is not a personal one, although I do not think the recorder's powers should be reduced, but is in the interest of my constituents in Atlanta. The three representatives from Fulton represent the county and not the city of Atlanta and as a result I feel that I have the right to present the status of affairs to the city council and await their action on the matter. Until I hear officially from the council my position will be hostile to the section reducing the recorder's power."

May Be Attack on Broyles.
"The bill may be an attack upon Judge Broyles by the Woodward faction and for that reason I want to be sure of the people's wishes in the matter. I have consulted many prominent Atlantans, telling them my position in the matter, and I have been advised by them that I am entirely correct in waiting until I hear from the city council."

TALBOTTON CAPTURES HOT WEATHER RECORD
What is believed to be the top-notch record for hot weather in the entire state came yesterday in the report mailed in from Talbotton, Ga., in which the official temperature at that place on last Saturday reached 110 degrees. Records were broken at practically every station in the state with the exception of Rome, Atlanta and Savannah, and in Atlanta the temperature of 99.4 degrees came within six-tenths degrees of reaching the record mark of 100 years ago.

Showers are forecasted for today again and, according to the weatherman, about the same temperatures will prevail. Nearly 75 inches of rain fell Tuesday in Atlanta and the moisture served to cool off the atmosphere to a great degree.

General rains have fallen within the last two days over nearly the entire length and breadth of Georgia and reports from the farming sections are much more encouraging than when the dry, hot spell was at its height. Practically every station reported at least a quarter of an inch of rain and in many places the fall was heavier.

Breaking Rocks, Breaking Men, and A Death in Camp

Last Thursday night a man slept chained to others. Doubtless the drag of the shackle on his leg disturbed his rest. In the cool of Friday morning he shuffled out of the convict camp. Linked with clinking steel to others, he came through the woods to the rock quarry.

The guard unlocked the gang chain. The man scrambled down into the pit. Work started. The sun mounted higher. Its beams sought and found the laborers. Men began to feel it as they toiled. Twelve pounds is the weight of the ordinary quarry hammer. Theirs weigh forty-nine pounds at this quarry. One, buying them for the county, said: "Strength is not required to crush stone with these. They come down of their own weight. THE ROCK BREAKS."

YEA, AND SO DO MEN! Forty-nine pounds to the hammer! You could scarcely raise one. Consider, then, what you do when you force the man to do that which you could not endure. Lifting this hammer—crushing stone with it when the thermometer registers nearly one hundred degrees. And doing this at the bottom of a funnel-shaped pit of stone into which the sun's rays pour and beat, enveloping in wave on wave of agonizing heat the suffering striped and shackled working men!

Friday each minute the heat grew worse. The atmosphere quivered with it. The quarry became a pit of torment. From its depths, to his keeper, the man cried: "I am sick." The guard replied: "You didn't say so this morning." Later the man fell fainting at his work. Stripe-clad, shackled men lifted him tenderly. They carried him out. Through the woods a jolting, springless wagon bore the dying man to the convict camp, where he died. The man had not been condemned to death. He was only a misdemeanor convict. The utmost punishment provided by your law for him was twelve months in the chaingang, six months in jail and a fine of one thousand dollars.

AND YOU HAD NO WISH TO KILL HIM. BUT THE MAN IS DEAD. Across the ages rings the question of God: "What mean you that you break my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor?" Down the centuries comes the voice of Jesus saying: "Woe unto you! for you load men with burdens grievous to be borne and you, yourself, touch not the burden with one of your fingers." Do not deny responsibility for the man's death. Your laws—our laws—placed him in the convict camp. Your servant, a public official, made him work the day he died. He feared your lash—our lash. God will require of you and of us his blood and the blood of others.

AMATEUR SCHEDULE

The following games will be played in the Greater League at Plaza, Piedmont park, Journal v. Kamper's, at northwest diamond, Piedmont park. Grant Park Elks v. Jones Company, at northwest diamond, Piedmont park.

JEANETTE BESTS JOHNSON.

New York, July 22.—Joe Jeanette, the negro heavyweight, tonight out-fought Lester Johnson, a South American negro, in a ten-round bout here. Jeanette had nearly twenty pounds advantage in weight, and several times knocked down the South American. Jeanette weighed 154, Johnson 124.

Wet Saucer Postponed Races; Marathon to Be Run Tonight; Rich Prize for the Winner

The hard rain of Tuesday morning made it necessary that the motorcycle races at the motorrome scheduled for last night be postponed. They will be run tonight, weather permitting. The same excellent program will be pulled off. The feature event will be the 100-mile race, 105 laps of the track, with all ten riders on the saucer at one time and a cash prize of $500 for the winner. This promises to be the most exciting speed event ever staged in Atlanta, with spills more than likely from both rain and mud. The riders are sure to go like mad men from beginning to end. Five points every few minutes for the grounds. Ample car service has been provided to handle the huge crowd that is expected.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Phillies Win Two. Philadelphia, July 22.—Chicago lost both games of a double-header to Philadelphia today 6 to 5 and 8 to 6. Cravath's home run into the center field bleachers in the eighth inning won the first game for the locals. In the second game Philadelphia knocked Humphries off the rubber in the fifth inning, scoring four runs. Chicago scored five tallies in the third. The locals tied the score in the same inning when they scored three runs by bunching four hits off Reulbach with three errors.

Dent pitched great ball Wednesday. He pitched probably the best game of the Southern League season. Only thirty men faced him.

WHIFFS

ELLIOTT DENT, the Crackers' big right-hander, twirled the best game of the Southern League season when he shut out the Memphis Turtles Tuesday afternoon. Only three men reached first base, two in the fourth inning and one in the ninth. Only one man got to second base. In seven innings it was three up and three down for the Turtles, only thirty men facing him in the entire nine innings. He allowed three hits, did not walk a man and his team mates gave him errorless support.

Looks Like Winner. THIS DENT looks like he is going to cut in on that Southern League pitching leadership before he gets through. He has looked better every time he has pitched. Tuesday he could hardly have pitched a better game had he tried. Careful search of the records will reveal where any Southern League twirler has pitched a better game this season. Dent has won 7 games, lost 4 and tied 2. He has pitched four starts Dent has won 3 and tied 1.

Carl Thompson Will Go After His Fifth Straight Victory Today. The locals want this game from the Turtles, and with Wallop Smith back in his hitting stride, they stand a fine show to cop it. To date the road trip has resulted in an even break. Here's hoping we'll have the odd game in our favor by tonight.

A Fan, in a card printed elsewhere, takes exception to one of our Whiffs Monday. We compared Clark's debut to Dent's. We showed the coincidence of his debut and Dent's by commenting on the fact that they both lost their first game. The fan in question misconstrued our meaning. We were trying to refer to the fact that they both lost through as well as Dent had the fact that he lost his first game was a good omen.

The Same Fan Misconstrues Another Statement, wherein we stated that "Dent" did not look good the first few times on account of the lack of steady work." The same inference was being drawn to Clark's case. Dent, through heavy warming duty with Washington, was not able to pitch the kind of ball of which he was capable the first few starts here. He had not had enough work, and his arm would not stand the strain at first. We were complimenting him in this by inferring that now that he had worked regularly, he was showing his class. We were hoping that a plenty of work would have the same effect on Clark. Dent is deserving of all the praise that we have given him, and the more he works the better he looks. Let's hope Clark will do the same.

Is Regrettable. GIL PRICE, the Crackers' star southpaw, has been sent home and suspended indefinitely by Manager Smith for lack of condition. Gilbert has been his own enemy all season. Here is a fellow with the greatest prospects of any young left-hander that has ever hurled in this league. He can and will do it. We are sure that the "big tent" if he will stay in shape. No one would like to see him "go up" any more than we would like to see him. Every big league manager is looking for good left-handers, in good condition. A little pep.

What They Think. A BIRMINGHAM paper has the following comment about Carl Thompson: "Carl Thompson is a fine fellow with the greatest prospects of any young left-hander that has ever hurled in this league. He can and will do it. We are sure that the 'big tent' if he will stay in shape. No one would like to see him 'go up' any more than we would like to see him. Every big league manager is looking for good left-handers, in good condition. A little pep."

The Opinion expressed in The Chattanooga News recently that Atlanta is a better ball club than the other clubs that will fight it out for the flag, is gaining in strength around the circuit. In this connection, after a comment on The News' column, The Birmingham Ledger says of the locals: "The Crackers are strengthening right long for the stretch and there is little doubt that the Atlanta club will be either the rag winner or the runner-up." Coming from our most deadly rival, this compliment strikes our fancy.

Where They Play Today. Southern League. Atlanta in Mobile, Chattanooga in St. Louis, Nashville in Mobile, Birmingham in Montgomery. South Atlantic League. Jacksonville in Albany, Columbus in Charleston, Savannah in Macon. National League. Cincinnati in Boston, St. Louis in Brooklyn, Pittsburgh in New York, Chicago in Philadelphia, Washington in Chicago, Philadelphia in St. Louis, New York in Detroit, Boston in Cleveland. Empire State League. Waycross in Cordelia, Amer. in Thomaston, Brunswick in Valdosta. Georgia-Alabama League. LaGrange in Anniston, Talladega in Gadsden, Opelika in Newnan.

LAY ON SATURDAY FOR PAYNE TROPHY. The qualifying round for the J. Carl Payne golf trophy will be played at the East Lake Country Club of the Atlanta Athletic club Saturday.

Tinker Suspended. Boston, July 22.—Manager Joe Tinker of the Cincinnati National League team, was suspended today for an altercation with Umpire Ord.

NORFOLK. Norfolk, Va., July 22.—The Norfolk team won the first game of a double-header from the Richmond team today by a score of 4 to 0.

Vols 6, Gulls 2. Mobile, Ala., July 22.—Nashville won this afternoon 6 to 2 in a game played on a muddy and slow field. Hogg was hit opportunely, while the great hitting behind Williams aided him in keeping Mobile from scoring more runs, and the outfield playing fine ball and making twelve put-

GEORGIA INVITATION DECLINED BY BACON

Senator Cannot Leave Washington Because of Pressure of Public Business.

By John Corrigan, Jr. Washington, July 22.—(Special)—Senator Bacon has been forced to decline the invitation of the general assembly to address them. He was anxious to do so, but after conferring with his colleagues was urged not to leave Washington just now because of the pressure of important public business.

In addition to the tariff debate which formally opened on Monday delicate diplomatic problems are pending upon which the advice of Senator Bacon, as chairman of the foreign relations committee, is constantly needed. He is depended upon to defend the administration's foreign policy on the floor of the senate.

Senator Kern, chairman of the democratic caucus, on being consulted by Senator Bacon about accepting the invitation wrote him this letter: "With our slender majority in the senate it is of the highest importance that every senator should be present every day while the tariff bill is being considered, as the absence of any one may put us at the mercy of our adversaries."

"There is another potent reason why you should decline the invitation which will take you away from the capital, and that is that our relations with certain foreign governments are so strained that as chairman of the foreign relations committee your presence here might be imperatively demanded at any moment. I sincerely hope that all democratic senators will remain at their posts, however much they may desire to accommodate their constituents."

Senator Bacon upon receipt of this letter wrote the joint committee of the Georgia legislature advising them it was impossible for him to leave his post of duty at the present time.

GOVERNMENT CLERKS MUST PAY THEIR DEBTS

Washington, July 22.—Clerks in the government departments either must pay their debts or relinquish their jobs. The latest department to emphasize this order is the war department, and an order signed by Secretary Garrison is being handed to all the employees today. The order says that "creditors and collectors will be denied access to employees" during office hours, and adds:

"But while the department will not permit itself to be used as a collection agency, it will not consider as a fit employee anyone who neglects to make payment."

It was denied at the department that there was any epidemic of bad debts among the employees there, and the statement adds that the order, an old one, merely was called to the attention of the clerks. Similar regulations are in force in the departments of state, agriculture, navy, interior and commerce, but they are not considered so drastic in effect as the interpretation of the order issued today by Secretary Garrison.

HEARING THURSDAY ON KINDERGARTEN BILL

There will be a hearing before the house committee on education on the kindergarten bill at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. At this time those who are interested in the passage of the bill will be given an opportunity to be heard.

The bill has received a favorable report already from the senate committee and the chances of favorable action are good in both houses when once it comes up for passage.

KETRON AND PEACOCK TO HELP CUNNINGHAM

Athens, Ga., July 22.—(Special)—The report that Cunningham's place will be more than filled this fall at Georgia university by the choice of Harold Ketrone of Washington, and "Emperor" Peacock as assistants to Coach Cunningham through the football season, "Ketrone" has been coaching for half a dozen years each fall—his duties in congress as special aide to the sergeant-at-arms of the house allowing him to be free practically through the entire football season—congress convening the week after the football season closed. Peacock, captain of the team last year, will be welcome help.

NEGRO BAPTISTS MEET

Eighteenth Annual Convention of B. Y. P. U. in Session.

The eighteenth annual convention of the state Baptist Young People's Union (colored) began its sessions at the Beulah Baptist church, Rev. W. F. Paschal, pastor, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. A. W. Bryant, D. D. president, Savannah, presided. Vice President W. A. Flagg, Macon, conducted the devotions. Professor J. H. James, A. B. of Central City college, conducted the annual expression meeting, which gave an opportunity for many of the delegates to give glowing accounts of their local unions.

The evening session was marked by a large increase of delegates from the various parts of the state. Dr. W. R. Forster, of Macon, presided while President A. W. Bryant delivered his annual address and the election of officers. The following officers were elected for next year: A. W. Bryant, D. D., president, Savannah; W. A. Flagg, vice president, Macon; C. F. Thompson, M. D., clerk, Boston; C. B. McEvoy, assistant clerk, Macon; C. L. Watson, treasurer, Columbus; T. Anderson, secretary, Americus; W. R. Forbes, D. D., musical director, Macon; Pearl E. Thweatt, organist, Macon; Ida Melvin, librarian, Cordele.

Rev. J. B. Davis, of Thomasville, installed the newly elected officers. Rev. J. H. Smith, D. D. of Columbus, delivered a powerful address.

The welcome address on behalf of the local Baptist Young People's Union of the Beulah church was delivered by Jennie B. McNeal. Rev. H. F. Taylor, A. B. of Bainbridge, responded. Dr. T. J. Simpson, of Albany, delivered the convention sermon.

HUSBAND AND WIFE FIGHTING FOR SON

Macon, Ga., July 22.—(Special)—Application has been made to the Hibbs superior court for a writ of habeas corpus by H. W. Hamilton, the husband of Mrs. Adelle Hamilton, a young Macon woman who is in charge of the cigar and news counter at the Hotel Dempsey, to obtain possession of her little son, Meriwether, indicated. The writ was served on Mrs. Hamilton today and the hearing will be held Saturday.

The child was awarded to Mrs. Hamilton's husband in a divorce action in Louisville, Ky., about a year ago, but the boy was brought to Macon by Mrs. Hamilton. The divorce action was based on the allegation that Mrs. Hamilton had gone from Louisville, Ky., to Memphis, Tenn., and remained a week with another man, the government having given in behind the man on a white slave charge.

Since the divorce action in the Kentucky court Mrs. Hamilton has been residing here with her mother on Napier avenue.

COMMITTEE HEARING ON SOFT DRINK BILLS

After hearing at length from both sides on the bills proposing to increase the tax on soft drinks, the ways and means committee of the house yesterday decided to report them all to a subcommittee to report later.

Senator Stark, author of one of the bills, appeared to speak in favor of it. Judge John S. Candler, Representative C. H. Pickett and others opposed increasing the burden of tax imposed on soft drink manufacturers and dealers.

MURRAY IS KILLED BY ELECTRIC WIRE

Gainesville, Fla., July 22.—Charles D. Murray, an employee of a local telegraph company, was killed today when he stepped on a live electric light wire while on a pole repairing telegraph lines. Murray was 27 years old and the son of James B. Murray, a prominent merchant of Blackshear, Ga.

French Aviator Killed.

Chalons, July 22.—Lieutenant Gabriel, a French military aviator, was killed and his mechanic was hurt when their machine toppled over and fell upon them as they were about to leave the ground today.

David Clewis Nabbed.

Thomasville, Ga., July 22.—(Special)—Sheriff Singletary has returned from Perry, Fla., bringing back with him David Clewis, a young man from here who is charged with collecting and appropriating $200 belonging to the bottling works of the Cherry Cola company. Clewis had been arrested in Perry some time ago, but refused to come without a requisition, which the sheriff obtained and went for him.

M'KEE WILL RESIGN SOON, SAYS REPORT

Atlanta Postmaster Is Now in New York Awaiting His Daughter's Arrival

Reports received yesterday from Washington indicate that Postmaster Hugh McKee and his assistant, Dewitt C. Cole, will soon resign their positions and that their places will be filled by the new administration within the next thirty days.

Postmaster McKee is now in New York, where he is awaiting the arrival of his daughter from Europe, and is expected to return to the city within the next few days.

He left Atlanta on last Tuesday, hastening his trip to the east, it is said, on request from Washington. Arriving there he held a conference, dealing, it is said, with the "betterment of the service with the first assistant postmaster, General Daniel G. Roper on Thursday, and on the following day, Mr. McKee, Mr. Roper and Postmaster General Burleson had a meeting.

Just what was discussed at these conferences is not known, but it was following them that the report became current that an early change would be made in the Atlanta office. It had been generally understood that Mr. McKee was to serve out his appointed term, which would have left him in office until January 1, and it was said that he had been assured of this course from Washington.

Recently there was an inspection of the Atlanta office and the report is now in the hands of Mr. Roper. The investigation was preliminary, it is said, upon charges of inefficient service, lack of discipline among clerks, and dissatisfaction with the service in Atlanta.

Reports from Washington for several months indicated the appointment of Holling Jones, of Atlanta, as Mr. McKee's successor.

DON'TS FOR CHAUFFEURS

Keep Away From Liquor, Dr. Butler Tells Negro Drivers.

The Atlanta Colored Chauffeurs' association held their first public meeting at the First Nazareth church, colored, last night. There was a good attendance, the main address being delivered by Dr. H. R. Butler, a colored physician. He congratulated the association and urged upon the chauffeurs to keep away from liquor and keep a clear head. He said that if they do not believe that they are going to be compared with the others of the staff of the Cracker.

HAYDEN IS RELIEVED IN WHITE SLAVE CASE

Washington, July 22.—Thomas E. Hayden, of San Francisco, associate counsel for the government in the Diggins-Caminetti white slave case, against whom vigorous protests recently were made on the ground that he was too inexperienced as a criminal lawyer to participate in the case, today tendered his resignation to Attorney General McReynolds.

Hayden asked to be relieved because, he said, he found he would be absent from California a good part of the trial. The case will be prosecuted by Attorneys Sullivan and Roche, the government's principal counsel.

CARNEGIE'S "BOMB" JUST JUICY CHEESE

New York, July 22.—The mystery of the "bomb" sent to Andrew Carnegie yesterday in care of the secretary of the Carnegie corporation was solved today. It was a juicy cheese inclosed in a small-proof case of zinc, a Scotch cheese, according to an expert called into conference after the bureau had definitely determined that the "bomb" contained neither nitro-glycerin, dynamite or other deadly explosives. On a vacant lot officials of the bureau of combustibles fired four bullets from a safe distance through the box before they opened it.

Larned and Wright Win.

Boston, July 22.—William A. Larned and Beals C. Wright, both former national singles champions and partners of high standing a decade ago in tennis, won in combination today. They defeated R. D. Little and T. H. Pell, of New York, in the best of three sets in the second round of a dual tournament for the eastern doubles championship at the Longwood Cricket club. The scores were 7-5, 6-7, 6-1.

Grand Circuit Races.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 22.—Straight heat racing marked the opening of the grand circuit this afternoon at the Port Erie, Ont., track. The only contest occurred in the Dominion of Canada stake for 212 trotters. Tommy Horton won the first two heats, but in the final Peter McCormick, equal favorite with Tommy, crossed wires with a scald lead. Local lead was a trifle slow, the best time for the mile being 2:09 1/2. The surprise of the afternoon came in the opening event for 219 trotters, which Ed Geers, Bertha Cary, won in straight heats. In the 218 pace Strathmore also won in straight heats.

MEDIATORS CLEARING RAILROAD SITUATION

New York, July 22.—The Erie road informed the board of mediation and the position taken by the Erie relieved the tenseness of the railroad situation at once. The mediators appeared to believe that the roads will soon withdraw their stipulation that their own grievance be submitted for arbitration along with the men's demand for better wages.

A FAN PROTESTS.

To Editor of Sporting Page of Atlanta Constitution: In the interest of fair play I write to protest against the "knocks" that from time to time have been handed to pitcher Elliott Dent. While it is true that late in the season he has been somewhat out of the credit due him, at the same time the papers of the city seem to grasp every opportunity to heap upon him what I believe to be unjust criticism. I am a lover of baseball, and a fairly regular attendant at the games on our local diamond. From the conversation I have had with others I find that I am not alone in my opinion that Dent has been "knocked."

One paper recently intimated that the Atlanta club had been handed a money paid for Dent. Today, in a more or less kindly criticism of the latest addition to our pitching staff, the Atlanta Constitution did not look good the first few times on account of lack of steady work. I am further add, "Dent lost his 'hat' all things considered, Dent deserves commendation all the way through."

It is not in the interest of good ball or the making of a pennant team to blame a pitcher for games lost through errors of others, especially when the pitcher happens to be, as I believe him to be, the best pitcher on the Atlanta team.

The old and experienced professional ball player told me one recently that he considers Dent one of the best pitchers in the Southern league. You say that Dent lost his "hat" game. Well, suppose your statement is correct. He was a new man on the team, and had been out of the box for several weeks, and was put in to pitch his first game as a Cracker on a day when there was an unusual crowd and unusual excitement, all of which was especially hard on a new man in a strange place.

Did he really lose his first game? Is it not true that Agler's error at a critical period in the game was the beginning of the end? Up to that time the game was practically level, and if appearances count, Agler threw the game away, only three scattered hits had been made off Dent. He always goes into the breach willingly and to the end, if he pitches a splendid game, which, owing to rain, resulted in a tie. Or, take the game of July 8. Memphis made only two runs, both due to errors! With any kind of support the game should have been a shut out for Dent.

Since Dent has been a member of the team no other pitcher has been put in such hard and difficult places. It is Dent who is hit out of the bases are full or the game is practically lost, and if appearances count, he always goes into the breach willingly and to the end, if he pitches a splendid game, which, owing to rain, resulted in a tie. Or, take the game of July 8. Memphis made only two runs, both due to errors! With any kind of support the game should have been a shut out for Dent.

We have a good team, and it is unfortunate that errors are responsible for the loss of games that are sometimes credited as a loss for the pitcher. H. F. S.

DR. HURT TO TAKE STAND FOR DEFENSE

Lawyers for Mrs. Crawford Will Probably Present Her Side of Case Today.

When the hearing of the civil suit over the $250,000 estate of the late Joshua B. Crawford, who Charles Z. Crawford, a nephew, and about 25 other relatives claim was poisoned four years ago by his widow, Mrs. Mary Belle Crawford, is renewed this morning it is expected that defense will place its first evidence before the auditor.

Attorney Burton Smith and Reuben R. Arnold representing the widow in the contest, do not know whether Colonel J. S. James, for the plaintiffs, is ready to close his side of the case. In the event that he closes today they are expected to call to the stand Dr. J. W. Hurt, who declares that Mr. Crawford died of pneumonia and that he, while treating him, prescribed morphine preparations for him in his last days, which would account for the drug which it is stated was found in his stomach.

Dr. Willis Westmoreland is also expected to be called upon by the defense to give expert testimony for the defense.

The hearing has been postponed on account of Colonel P. H. Brewster, who is interested in the case, having to attend court in Carrollton the first two days of this week.

MISSISSIPPI OFFICIAL GIVEN YEAR IN JAIL

Jackson, Miss., July 22.—Leigh Watkins, deputy state land commissioner, arrested July 15 on the charge of embezzling state funds, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a year in jail. Watkins pleaded guilty to issuing a forged refund warrant for $325.

Watkins is the second man to be sentenced as a result of the investigation of alleged widespread irregularities among Mississippi state officers, chiefly those connected with the prison system.

COTTON RELATED LATE IN THE DAY

Market Opened Higher in N. Y., but Sudden Drop in July Cotton at N. O. Caused Decline in Prices.

New York, July 22.—A firmer Liverpool market than expected and apprehension over weather conditions in the central and western belts notably Texas and Oklahoma, chiefly explained the steadiness which prevailed in the local cotton market most of the season today. Opening prices were 2 to 5 points net higher, and most of the improvement was sustained during the day until about an hour before the close, when a sudden drop in July cotton at New Orleans unsettled the local market and caused a sharp reaction to lowest levels of the day, the close showing a net decline of 1 to 8 points.

Although New Orleans subsequently recovered half its loss, the market continued under pressure and was nervous right up to the close. Underlying sentiment in New York, however, notwithstanding this break in the south, was rather apprehensive about the crop outlook in the western belt, particularly in Texas, where the forecast indicated dry weather for a day or two longer at least. Complaints about crop deterioration in that state from drought have begun to appear in considerable numbers, and it was believed that unless general rains soon appear, previous liberal estimates may have to be materially reduced. Throughout the eastern belt further good showers provided an abundance of moisture, and crop accounts were generally favorable.

Arrivals of cotton at New York today were 6,007 bales, including 4,018 bales consigned, it being understood that most of the latter cotton was intended for delivery on July contracts. Cotton spot quiet; middling uplands, 12.40; middling gulf, 12.65; sales, none.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, July 22.—The feature of the day in the cotton market was the break in July 1912, which was 45 points under yesterday's closing quotation. This was due to the early trading, when the new crops were displaying more of less firmness on reports of drought conditions in the cotton region. Selling was generally accredited to holders of long contracts, who were tired and letting go in the face of the possibility of tender. By some it was said that bull interests who have been operating heavily in July for some time were letting go and other traders aimed at these interests had already liquidated and that today's selling came from trailing losses who were scared out by the stories of new bales appearing at New Orleans.

Dry Goods.

New York, July 22.—Cotton goods markets for staples are steady. Foreign lines of cotton cloth delivery are easier. Foreign lines of men's wear for delivery after January 1 will be substantially lower in accordance with new being suggested. Dealers report a steady house trade on near delivery goods.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, July 22.—Our market showed an underlying strength during the day on the account of unfavorable weather reports for the week which showed that Texas and Oklahoma, in spite of the fact that the cotton crop there has been excessive. In the last hour, the liquidation of July cotton in New York brought a position which the European market followed here in sympathy, causing a reaction. We do not believe that the European market will follow this decline. It is still a question of whether a rise will come in time to save the Texas crop, which is fast approaching a most critical stage.

Broad Street's Available Supplies.

New York, July 22.—Special communications received by Broad Street show the following changes. Available supply of cotton in the United States, west Rockies, decreased 21,000. United States, west Rockies, decreased 201,000. United States, west Rockies, decreased 2,000,000. Total supply decreased 2,423,000. United States and Canada, decreased 2,461,000. COTTONS PREGIEAR COOLER WEATHER IN NORTHWEST INDUSTRIALS SHOWED GAINS, WHILE HEAVEN CLOSED AT DECLINE—BONDS HEAVY. PRICES FALL.

Chicago, July 22.—Fading away of the rust scare allowed the wheat market today to ease off. Closing prices were steady at a net decline of 3/4 to 1/2%.

A fairly strong opening, due in part to the higher level quoted in London, soon gave way to general declines, notably in New Haven, California Petroleum and some of the obscure stocks, while Illinois-Fargo added 9 points to its 11-point position of the previous day. The decline in New Haven issues resulted largely from the announcement that the company purposes to issue $67,500,000 of debenture bonds, some two-thirds of which will be utilized in paying off maturing notes.

On the other hand, a few of the better known railroad issues, such as Baltimore and Ohio and the Chesapeake and Ohio, were consistently strong. Great gains were recorded among the industrials. Republic Steel preferred rose eight points. Reading, Union Pacific, and Canadian Pacific attained their best prices in the final hour, but realizing sales in the latter soon caused it to yield, while the balance of the list receded fractionally.

The weekly weather report was of a mixed character, but favorable in the main. It is clear, however, that some sections, particularly the middle west, are suffering from drought. Money conditions reflect greater ease and continued activity.

The general bond market was heavy with special weakness in Steel five, 10 and 15 year bonds, and the government bond list, the second and Panama seconds declining 3/4, and United States four and Panama three 1/2% on call. Total sales, par value, were $1,870,000.

Members of Social Circle Board Fight Move.

Monroe, Ga., July 22.—(Special).—At a largely attended meeting of the board of trade at Social Circle Monday night the following resolution was introduced and was unanimously adopted: Resolved by the board of trade of Social Circle, duly assembled, that we are opposed to the cutting off of the territory of Walton County. We believe it an injustice to our people and a move in the wrong direction in creating more counties in the state, especially where the counties to be cut off are as small as Walton. We, therefore, urge our senators and the senate to oppose any bill pending for Barrow County.

AT THE THEATERS.

"Les Miserables." (At the Grand.) A great, big, sure enough success has been secured to the "movie" fans who have been to the Grand this week. The "fans" have heard so much about the feature being advanced, that they have been more or less skeptical. "Les Miserables," that famous novel by Victor Hugo, is the attraction. It is in nine reels, 12,000 feet of wonderful film, making four acts that last two and a half hours. On Monday attendance was good, but on Tuesday neighbors told neighbors about the merit of the offering, and the Grand was packed to its holding capacity. There was wonderful picture unusual. There has never been an inch of film exhibited on a local screen that has caused such interest.

"Good Morning, Judge."

Lovers of musical comedy are finding this week's Bijou attraction one of the most entertaining and pleasing shows of the season. The play is a fact it would not be true that the theater has been sold out at every performance. Those who have thought that they might get desirable seats at any time need make no such mistake. John P. Conroy and his diving models have created a sensation. The wonder of this week should be by the way, that a trained athlete, a life saver, who has been awarded every medal that has been presented for heroism.

How Farmers Lose Where Roads are Bad.

Washington, July 22.—Where bad roads prevail, farmers are forced to move their crops not when the market price is favorable, but when the roads are favorable, and frequently at heavy percentage loss, as a result, according to the office of public roads of the department of agriculture. In a statement today it cites specific cases of such losses, the information being based on data gathered by its experts. "Excessive fluctuations in market prices are seldom due to over production," the statement asserts. "They frequently take place in regions where the local production does not equal the consumption. There are counties rich in agricultural possibilities, burdened with bad roads, where the annual incoming shipments of food exceed the outgoing shipments in the ratio of four to one. Many such counties with improved roads would not only become self supporting, but would ship products to other markets."

A COMPARISON IN VALUES

SOME PEOPLE BELIEVE, and are very set in their belief, that a real estate agent will knowingly sell you a slow piece of property. We believe that this is a mistaken idea, and one that causes you to lose many a good trade and, incidentally, money, when an agent sells you a money-maker you will buy from him again; for when he leads you, you will put him up in the future. We know that it is to the agent's interest to put you on live propositions, and we try to offer to our customers propositions that are money-makers, so that you will come back, and with this idea in mind, we have been comparing prices on Roswell road across against prices on Peachtree road, and we can answer right back that property on Peachtree road was selling at $25 per foot before the car line was even thought of.

In comparing values we have come to the conclusion that property on the Roswell road is the best buy in Fulton county for the following reasons:

It is without question the prettiest drive leading out of Atlanta.

It has on it the most beautiful scenery of any road leading out of Atlanta.

It is certain to be widened into a 60-foot drive, making it the most beautiful auto drive in Fulton county.

You can buy the property today on Roswell road at $150 to $200 per acre that would cost $1,500 per acre the same distance out on Peachtree road, and $600 to $800 per acre the same distance out on Peachtree road.

In our opinion, there's big money to be made on Roswell road, as all it needs to start big profits going is for one or two of the big fellows to build homes on it, and they will come to it pretty soon.

We are backing our opinion by buying ourselves, and only ask that you let us show you the following places. We believe that you will see the profit.

$4,500—32 ACRES ROSWELL ROAD—$4,500

THE PRETTIEST BUILDING SITE around Atlanta, bar none; it has trees on it that are worth a fortune. Price $4,500, on easy terms.

35 NEGRO CONVICTS BURNED IN THEIR PEN LOWER HOUSE TO MEET ONE HOUR EARLIER NOW

Jackson, Miss., July 22.—Eighteen charred bodies of convicts were removed today from the ruins of the Oakley state convict prison fire in which a total of 35 convicts, all negroes, perished early today. The bodies were found huddled together in the corner watchman from where the fire started.

When the alarm was given all possible means of escape for the imprisoned men had been cut off by the flames, but prisoners in another pen were formed in a relief squad and worked desperately to fight back the fire. The thirty-five prisoners had perished in less than an hour after the fire started.

Sergeant John Deeds, in charge of the farm, said today it was his opinion that the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion among a lot of hay, molasses and other farm products under a stairway. It was the burning of this stairway that prevented the escape of the prisoners. A can of gasoline was also on the same floor and it is believed that the combustion was aided by water dripping from the cells above where the prisoners bled.

Twenty minutes before the fire was discovered the warden had made his rounds and announced all well. Twenty minutes later another watchman discovered the entire building in flames, the stairway aflame and the prisoners trapped.

Coroner J. W. Beal after an inquest, announced the following verdict: "We, the jury, find that the thirty-five prisoners came to their death by an unavoidable accident. S. P. Boyd, hospital sergeant in charge, is completely exonerated."

J. C. Cathings, penitentiary superintendent, went to Oakley today to make a thorough investigation of the circumstances surrounding the fire and report his findings to the board of prison trustees.

Most of the convicts burned to death were serving life sentences and among them were noted negro criminals.

Shortly after noon the house and senate convened in joint session to consider the report of the committee on Senator A. O. Bacon, of Bibb.

The consolidation showed that the first senator to be elected by popular vote under the new federal enactment was elected about opposition by a vote of 25,529, and the president declared the senator elected.

The following tellers were appointed: President Anderson, of the senate, presiding, counted the votes; the twenty-first, Taylor, of the third, Tarver, of the forty-third, Turner, of the seventh, and Bush of the eighth.

From the House of Representatives the following bills were introduced: Sibley, Smith of Fulton, Culpeper of Meriwether, and Edmondson of Brooks.

Local Bills Passed. The following local bills were passed by the house today morning: By Mr. Parris of Walker—To incorporate Chickamauga.

By Mr. Shadburn of Owanett—To amend the charter of Owanett.

By Mr. Thompson of Madison—To repeal act incorporating town of Danielsville.

By Mr. Thompson of Madison—To incorporate town of Ocon.

By Mr. Smith of Fannin—To create new charter for McCasville.

Firemen Were Delayed. That meant ten minutes delay for part of the firemen. But even those who arrived first were unable to do anything. The first puff of flames was hardly discerned before the fire leaped along the stair cases and walls up the elevator shaft, along the floors and ceilings, and out the front, front and rear, and the flames belched forth clear across Wall street, on which the building fronted, withering the shade trees on the river bank, and scorching a building across an alley at the rear.

After this fierce blast the fire seemed to burst from every part of the building at once. Upon the fire escapes girls, women and men were clustered, and inside others were waiting to get onto the iron ladders. But the flames were too quick for them.

The slow starting of the fire drill may have contributed to the disaster, the delay in getting all the firemen to the scene may have been responsible for part of the loss of life. But persons who were early on the scene said that these things did not materially affect the result.

When the firemen arrived in response to the telephone alarm they were unable to get within 200 feet of the burning building and the ends of the streets were filled with smoke that turned into steam without effect upon the fire.

Life Nets Were Useless. Life nets and extension ladders were equally useless. The nets were for those caught on the upper floors, except the last resort to jumping, and this many took, while others fell, shriveled and crumpled with the heat. Scarcely one of the patients survived to give a connected account of what took place on the upper floors of the factory when the employees there—mostly women and girls—realized that the fire call was no false alarm and that death was sweeping upon them.

The fire escapes were not large enough to hold all who rushed to the exits and the patients who were in the windows, the trapped victims shrieking from pain as the flames swept upon them from behind and seared their bodies.

Leaped From Top Floor. Then from windows and fire escapes bodies began falling rapidly. The building was four stories high and many who jumped even from the top floor died. You contractors are looking for a site to build an apartment on that will rent at good prices to splendid, high-class tenants, to say nothing of your profits from a selling proposition, this cannot be beaten in the entire city. It will pay you to investigate this. Prices and terms gladly furnished at our office. Think what you can do with a lot 101x320 this near in "NUFF SAID." We leave it to you.

As soon as the first of the fire victims were brought to the hospital convalescents among the other patients set to work tearing bandages, physicians and nurses were available for splints to bind up broken limbs. Fathers Ellis, Walsh and McLoughlin, together with Rev. Mr. Francis, came to offer spiritual consolation to the desperately ill.

With the injured and the dying lying all about the hospital doctors and nurses worked with amazing rapidity and coolness. Scarcely an hour after the fire all the patients were receiving medical attention. Most of them were badly burned.

Most Pathetic Case. One of the most pathetic cases at the hospital is that of Miss Ruth Crotty, who is slowly dying with a broken spine. She has been in Binghamton one week, having come here from Port Jervis to work with her two sisters, neither of whom, so far as can be learned, escaped from the fire.

"When I first heard the alarm," said Miss Crotty, "I jumped from my chair and started for the stairs, but when I reached them they were so crowded with other patients that I could not get down and in another instant the whole floor was ablaze."

Miss Crotty jumped from a window. Mary McDonough, an employee, said she was on the fourth floor when the fire broke out. The employees on that floor thought it was a fire drill and marshaled in line slowly. When the flames burst upon them many fainted and a panic ensued.

"It was all over in a flash," she said. "The fire burst upon us. There was great confusion. I do not know how I got to the street, but think I fainted and was carried off by some one."

Vernon Wilbur, superintendent of service in the burned factory, said: "Lynn Dibble and I ran to the fire escape and climbed up our ladder. We dropped two girls to the men below. They were standing five or six feet deep in each window with the flames directly behind them. They were mad with pain, and the sound of their cries was as if the wind was howling in our ears."

Joseph Johnson Dies After Eventful Life. Joseph A. Johnson, a pioneer Atlantian, died early Tuesday morning at the old age of 86, after living in Atlanta forty-seven years. For many years he was a leading manufacturer, but for the past twelve months he has been totally blind, and broken in health.

During the Mexican war he won the rank of sergeant fighting under General Scott, and later he was captain of the National Grays of Richmond, where he lived before coming to Atlanta.

He is survived by three sons, George, Orle and W. L. Johnson, and by two nephews in Richmond, George and Charles Crawford. His death follows but a few years after that of his devoted wife, to whom he had been married for fifty-five years.

The funeral will be from the residence, 302 Luckie street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and interment will be in Oakland. The pallbearers will be Captain Henry Jennings, Frank Whitley, A. Q. Adams, George H. Sims, James Hudson and Andrew Klassest.

Husband Is Betrayed By Wife's Jealousy. Chicago, July 22.—How a wife's jealousy caused her to supply information which led to her husband's betrayal to the police was revealed today when Detective Charles F. Mellen, of New Orleans, left Chicago for the southern city with Jules A. Zatarain, 32 years old, who is charged with larceny involving $3,700. Zatarain was arrested here yesterday.

Zatarain formerly owned a tailor shop in New Orleans and obtained $2,700 worth of cloth from a Chicago firm without paying for it a year and a half ago. Later Zatarain disappeared, but subsequently was seen in New Orleans in company with another woman. The wife traced the couple to Chicago and notified the police.

MEXICANS ENTHUSE OVER NEW JAP MINISTER

Mexico City, July 22.—Thousands of students, bearing Japanese flags, greeted the new Japanese minister, Minochiro Adachi, on his arrival at noon today, in spite of the suggestion of the Japanese legation that a demonstration be prohibited. With the exception of excited remarks by some of the orators there were no anti-American utterances. The minister, speaking from the rear of the train, characterized Mexico and Japan as brother nations. Strong forces of soldiers and mounted police served to counteract any tendency to disorder.
