Teachings of the Union Theological Seminary Severely Attacked in Report to the Assembly.

Churches that have been attending the annual conference of the Southern Presbyterian Synod at New York, confronted the commissioners of the Northern Presbyterian Synod at their annual meeting Monday afternoon.

The resolutions were contained in one of the minutes, recently adopted in the report of the committee on the re-establishing of relations between the church and the seminary. The report was signed by Rev. P. C. Moffatt, D. D., of Chicago.

The new theology was most vigorously attacked in the following paragraphs of Mr. Moffatt's report: "The new theology, which regards sin not as the result of an abrupt transition, but as a process, regards Christ not as God and man, but as God and man, who is ultimately divine, and who is not a man, but a man who is ultimately divine."

The Northern Assembly had been directed to bring about the election of Dr. John T. Stone as moderator of the annual conference to be held in the morning session, and to request that all persons who are to be present should be in the city by 10 o'clock on the morning of the conference.

The most prominent plan for the reorganization of the Presbyterian Church of America was made public before the Northern Assembly. It proposed a union of all the family of Presbyterian Churches, other than those which have received formal recognition from the Southern Synod.

BURNS EAGER TO SOLVE PHAGAN CASE

Famous Detective Expected to Arrive From Europe and Start Work Before June 1.

STARTLING NEW EVIDENCE IS REPORTED DISCOVERED

Important Revelation Looked For To-day—Search Being Pushed With Renewed Vigor.

Colonel Thomas B. Felder announced Monday morning that he had received word from William J. Burns that he would arrive in America before June 1 and would probably be on the scene of the Phagan slaying before that date.

Colonel Felder said the great detective had taken an unusual interest in the Phagan mystery and he would not be surprised to hear from him in America any day soon.

Burns is more interested in this case than J. has known him to be in another, said Colonel Felder. "I am advised that he will hasten his return from Europe on this account and be in America some days before June 1. He will, of course, come direct to Atlanta.

The meantime developments since his investigation has been here are more than satisfactory. The Burns detective convinced Mr. Dursey Sunday afternoon that he had touched upon heretofore overlooked evidence of importance, and in his report today we expect valuable information.

Search Grows More Active. With investigation into the mystery more active Monday than it has been at any time during the last two weeks, the detective was hopeful that important developments would be made during the day.

Colonel Felder, the Burns detective case for several hours Sunday at the home of Colonel Felder. The conference and Mr. Dursey discussed the case to acquaint the Burns man with the progress in the case by the other detectives and to obtain the necessity of personal examination of a number of witnesses.

J. WYLIE SMITH'S OWN STORY Tells a Tale of Many Thrilling Adventures He Fought Two Years for His Freedom

Wylie Smith as he is to-day, a mere phantom of his former self.

(The refugee president of the defunct Commercial Loan and Discount Bank.)

I was advised at a o'clock of the afternoon of June 14, 1911, with an amount of money that was a mere bagatelle—some folks believed and still believe that I have had a large amount of cash hid away somewhere, and it has caused me trouble more than once—I was obliged to depend on friends to get from place to place.

I Reach Mexico.

On July 1 I arrived in Chihuahua, a city of some 2,000 people in the State of Chihuahua. This event and another on the same day the following year have made July 1 a most important day to me than the anniversary of American Independence. It was the beginning of freedom when and the next year, not only for me, but through me for others.

I had no money and at first I strolled the streets bewildered and despondent. Then I spied a holy, the Robertson House. I have always been able to talk, no matter how ill I felt, and I was now no exception. I was a dark, keen-eyed youth with wavy hair over the head. Well before I went to bed that night I was leaning "Hondolita" George. He took me into his room and fed me at his table.

FRIENDS DEFEND MODERATOR FROM CHARGE OF 'POLITICS'

Story That Dr. Stone's Nomination Was Planned Long in Advance, Vigorously Denied—Wilson Warns Presbyterians That Interest in Religious Life Must Be Revived.

Accusations that the election of Dr. John Timothy Stone as Moderator of the Northern Assembly was a "frame-up," and instead of being a non-political action, was one of the most deplorable schemes ever perpetrated on a General Assembly, has aroused great indignation among the friends of Dr. Stone, and were vigorously denied Monday.

To the charges that six men were in conference the night before the election with a view to paving the way for Dr. Stone's election, the adherents of the new Moderator hold reply that such was not the case.

The burden of the charges of conspiracy rest chiefly upon the Rev. William H. King, of Monmouth, N. J., who placed Dr. Stone's name in nomination, and Mr. Ellis, editor of The Continent, who seconded the proposal of Dr. Stone to Reply in Detail.

Mr. Ellis did not approach me to communicate with me in any way as to the nomination of Dr. Stone," declared Dr. King in answering the charges, "and in so far as I am aware had no inkling of my intention. As a matter of fact, I had not the pleasure of Mr. Ellis' acquaintance until the day after the election."

Dr. Stone denied the rumors and said he would reply in detail in the Assembly.

With the opening of Monday's session of the three Assemblies, an important work will be taken up. The general convention, regarding the speech of the Warrenton, will be held in full in the Sunday afternoon. The reconstruction of the streets committee that $20,000 be appropriated for the rebuilding of Whitehall Street, will be read and referred to the finance committee.

Concussion Thomas's idea is that if bond money can be obtained to complete the sewer system outlined and to extend the park system, the city's normal income will be sufficient to carry on street improvements and other municipal work.

Several important matters presented to Council Monday afternoon will be Mayor Woodruff's veto message on the fire probe committee's report, published in full in the Sunday American. The reconstruction of the streets committee that $20,000 be appropriated for the rebuilding of Whitehall Street, will be read and referred to the finance committee.

Concussion Claude L. Ashley will demand a report from the police committee on his race segregation ordinance. He is charged that the police committee wants to kill this ordinance by pigeonholing it. A bitter fight will develop if its adoption is insisted on, not only because being opposed to it by many influential white men, who own houses rented to negroes.

The new fire ordinance also will be presented. Councilman Claude L. Ashley championing it and Alderman James W. Staddon, a grading contractor, leading the opposition to it, has been mentioned as having proposed to sell the city's water supply in the Sunday American. Life-Boats are being sent to any supply place in the South.

COUNCIL TAKES UP SEWER BOND ISSUE

Special Committee to Be Named to Report on Plan for Improvements, Says Thomson.

Concussion Albert Thomson Monday said Council would approve his resolution creating a special committee to consider a sewer and park bond issue. Several Councilmen have shown interest in his plan for municipal improvements.

The object of the committee is to have a detailed report on the desirability of a bond issue.

Concussion Thomson's idea is that if bond money can be obtained to complete the sewer system outlined and to extend the park system, the city's normal income will be sufficient to carry on street improvements and other municipal work.

Five prominent Atlantans had a remarkable escape from death at a railroad crossing on the East Lake road Sunday afternoon when a Georgia Railroad passenger train struck the big White Six automobile in which the party were riding and hurled them all.

The automobiles were J. H. Hirsch of 445 Myrtle street and driver of the car, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Carmichael and the 18-year-old son and 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael. All escaped without a scratch, except Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael, who were slightly bruised, but badly shocked.

Winter Aldred and Eugene Roberts came up in a machine that after the accident happened. Mr. Aldred took the car to the station and rushed her to her home, 645 Rockwood Avenue inman Park.

Hirsch Tells of Crash. The accident occurred about 8:30 o'clock as the party were riding into town over the beautiful East Lake road. Mr. Hirsch told the story of the accident to a Georgian reporter.

There is a little house and an automobile that had been left on the crossing and I could not see it. I was walking past and I noticed a train, but could hear nothing.

Just as we came upon the track the train stopped. I was on the iron monster, but was upon the ground. I was on the iron monster, but was upon the ground.

We were almost on the track. I showed on my emergency and turned my car about a quarter of a mile in the direction the train was going.

That was all that saved us. In about five minutes the train was in the track and we were all safe.

Excuse me, I checked none of us were hurt by anything, anything.

FORREST ADAIR THANKS
HEARST PAPERS FOR WORK
IN THE SHRINER VICTORY

By FORREST ADAIR.
I HARDLY can find words in which to express my high appreciation of the good work done for Atlanta by Mr. Hearst and the Hearst newspapers in the matter of bringing next year's meeting of the Imperial Council of the Mystic Shrine to Atlanta.

Not only did Mr. Hearst give us the free and unlimited support of The Atlanta Georgian and The Sunday American, but every newspaper he owns in the United States was working for the Gate City.

I REGARD IT AS SIGNIFICANT THAT IN EVERY CITY, WITHOUT EXCEPTION, IN WHICH MR. HEARST HAS A NEWSPAPER, THE DELEGATIONS ATTENDING THE SHRINE MEETING IN DALLAS WERE FOR ATLANTA FIRST, LAST, AND ALL THE TIME.

I saw the effects of Mr. Hearst's work, time and again, as the fight progressed, and always it was hearty and effective in Atlanta's behalf.

NEW PHAGAN

Solicitor General Dorsy Declares
Work of His Greatest Detective
Has Been Completed.

WELCOMES AID OF BURNS
IN CLEARING UP MYSTERY

Handwriting Expert at Work on
Cleans Furnished by Notes
Found in Pencil Factory.

Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsy said today that his "greatest detective in America" would not figure again in the Phagan case, and that it was extremely doubtful whether he would be recalled to testify at the trial.

Grand Jury Meets Wednesday.
The Solicitor General said today that the Grand Jury would meet next Wednesday for an extra session, but said it was hardly probable that the Phagan case would be considered there.

Mr. Dorsy said that his interview of Friday, in which he said the Burns men would work under the same conditions as the Pinkertons, had been misconstrued by some to mean that the services of the great detective were not needed.

With powerful microscope, magnifying glasses and a series of reflecting mirrors, Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsy and the city detectives, assisted by a handwriting expert, who is said to be one of the best in the country, are minutely examining the "handwriting clues" in the Phagan mystery. They confidently expect important developments.

Solicitor Dorsy would not disclose the identity of the expert on penmanship because, he said, it was absolutely necessary to place him on the witness stand. The solicitor said, however, that he was anxious to get the handwriting of the two men who were in the Tower in connection with the case.

The two notes found in the basement of the pencil factory, specimen of the handwriting of the two men who were in the Tower in connection with the case, Friday morning, have been subjected to rigid tests. Accurate measurements of each letter and each word in the notes, and the formation of the letters and the formation of certain letters that experts claim no two men can make, are some of the tests applied.

Burns Man Works Quietly.
The Burns investigator who took up the case Friday morning has not yet reported to the office of the Solicitor General. He is quietly and systematically working out his own idea of the case after a comprehensive outline given him by Solicitor General Dorsy. He has succeeded so far in his work that he has been able to identify the handwriting of the two men who were in the Tower.
