PREACHERS INDORSE SCHOOL BIBLE BILL

Methodists and Baptists Adopt Resolutions and "Junior Order" Adds Support

The issue was drawn Wednesday morning by the proposed measure which would require the Bible to be read in all public schools supported by the state. The Methodist ministers of Atlanta, in a formal resolution of their association at a called meeting, endorsed the measure emphatically, asserting that it is a Christian country, and that the Bible is the foundation of the American civilization. The Baptist ministers of the city, by a formal vote of their conference, endorsed it with the qualification that one condition should be made for "secular" children from the hearing thereof, and that parents be required to sign a statement of their dissent if they do not wish their children to be taught the Bible. The Junior Order of United American Mechanics, in session in Atlanta Tuesday night, also is pending in the senate, having been reported by the committee for further consideration. The committee for further consideration of the measure has referred it back to the committee for further consideration, and a pronounced opposition on religious grounds. The committee will hold its hearing on Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the senate chamber.

MAN ONCE PARDONED BY WOODWARD IS SENTENCED

Judge Broyles Gives Griff Freeman 29 Days—Woman "Turned Him Up"

You are one of the worst kind livers that Atlanta ever knew. I have succeeded in driving most of the other notorious whiskey sellers out of business, but you have managed to dodge me again. Now I think the evidence is clear against you and that you will be convicted. I hope you are convicted. That was Recorder Broyles' opinion of Griff Freeman, 374 West North avenue, expressed to Freeman in recorder's court Wednesday morning. The recorder had just sentenced Freeman to twenty-nine days in the city stockade and bound him over to five district courts for selling liquor, assessing a fine of $1,000 in each case. Freeman was arrested on a previous conviction under a $1,000 bond when he was arrested on the new charges. The veteran ministers' fund of the Atlanta Baptist association has just been organized and a contribution of $3,000 made by George M. Brown. The officers of the fund are W. W. Chace, president; Rev. A. H. Gordon, vice president; Rev. A. C. Ward, secretary and treasurer. The other trustees are Dr. C. W. Daniel, Dr. M. G. Campbell, Walker Dunton and George M. Brown. The rules of the fund provide that any minister or missionary who has been in service for the period of twenty-five years, five years of which must be in the city stockade, shall be eligible to receive a pension from the fund. A similar provision is made for the widow of such deceased minister or missionary, and after the death of such widow, the principal amount at no time to be encroached upon. Only the income of the fund is to be used for the purpose of the pension. It is believed that this fund will grow so that many people will contribute to it. No class of persons can make a stronger appeal to the charity of the people than those veterans of the Cross who, having given their lives to money-getting, but to the service of their country, have died in the line of duty. The fund will be organized at a meeting to be held at the residence of George M. Brown at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. Freeman at intervals during the past week has been buying whiskey from

That She Who Reads May Save—Telling of a Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company Disposal of Three Hundred New Styled Summer Dresses

Perhaps you have waited for a Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company announcement to this effect. If you have you done well. Tomorrow a summer dress in a style that you will like is going to cost you less than you would ordinarily pay for the material of which it is made. The occasion of this sale is a shaking up of stocks with us, and true to the methods that Atlantians know us to employ at such times, prices suffer and you benefit. With us there is no half-way of doing things; the first loss is the best one and we take it. But from your viewpoint—included are dresses for practically every summer occasion—for street wear, for wear around the house, for afternoons. They are the most attractive styles that we were able to find for the prices you see so greatly changed now. Could a woman wish for more! But the true significance of this sale depends upon your seeing the dresses and noting the little details of their style, their "get-up" that cannot be shown in this announcement.

$2.75 For $5 and $5.75 Dresses. These are lovely embroidery dresses of batiste, in white and tan, with bands of lace let into the waists and skirts; also ratine and linen dresses; the ratines are in Copenhagen and tan, the linens in white, blue and (a few) purple. There will be many exclamations of delight when women see what a choice $2.75 brings.

$3.75 For $5.75 to $10.00 Dresses. Voiles, sheer, and neatly striped and figured. They at once suggest cool mornings around the house, or for those a-vacation going, comfort at the mountains or the seashore—they are daintily and trimly adorned about collars and yokes. These were $5.75 to $6.98. Then there are white serge dresses, all white and white with collars and cuffs of black and white silk. These were $8.75 to $10.00.

Twenty-five messaline and soft silk petticoats, were $2.98, in light shades, join in this sale at $1.00.

$5.00 For $12.50 to $21.75 Dresses. To give the whole price range—they were $12.50, $15.00, $16.95 and $21.75. The variety is very great—a fine choice is possible, although there are only one or two of a kind, which precludes the possibility of all sizes in every style. Ratines and linens in Copenhagen, tan, brown, rose, lavender and white. One may be pretty because of its buttons or its embroidered collar, another because of its little coat effect, another by virtue of its novel waist or skirt—there are many reasons—too many to enumerate them.

$7.95 For $21.75 to $35.00 Dresses. Get the full import of this price. Dresses that were $21.75, $25.00 to $35.00 are now $7.95! There are linens and there are ratines; there are hand-embroidered lingerie dresses and there are charming, striped crepes and voiles. The linens and ratines have buttons and pipings and embroidered collars and cuffs—white, pink, blue. The lingerie, crepe and voile dresses are hand-made, usually all white, but a number showing bits of color in the hand embroidery. It would not be wise to delay if you would have one of these.
