PATIENTS TESTIFY FOR CHINESE HERB DOCTOR

Several Witnesses Swear to Efficacy of Dr. T. Z. Young's Medicine

Dr. T. Z. Young, the Chinese herb doctor, as agent, said the stand Monday at his trial in the federal court on a charge of fraudulent use of the mails. Following his testimony, an array of grateful patients gave testimonials as to the benefits they have received from the Chinese herb doctor.

Lee Hand, a laundryman, acted as interpreter, although Young spoke some English himself and one of his patients, said the Chinaman at his office spoke English.

Young admitted he had never registered in Fulton county as a doctor, but said it was not necessary, as he was really nothing but an agent. In reply to questions of Assistant District Attorney Henley as to whether medicine was necessary for a sick man, he said sometimes it was.

C. F. Bond, of Greenwood & Bond, undertaker, testified that Young, with his medicine, had cured him of an obdurate case of indigestion. Nick Nanogue, another witness, testified that he had cured him of a pain in his stomach.

A. H. Horner, a stereotypist, and Young's amanuensis, who said his business was such that he had to life himself several thousand pounds a day, said he had been cured of a weak kidney.

He testified as to having written for the letters Young sent to some of his patients. He said Young spoke English, a point that the government seemed to lay stress on in its case against him. Young testified through an interpreter.

SERVICE INCREASED ON TWO STREET CAR LINES

Double Truck "Paye" Cars Put on McDaniel and Ponce de Leon Routes

Increased service was inaugurated on the Ponce de Leon and McDaniel street trolley lines Monday morning when the Georgia Railway and Power company hooked these lines together in one through route and installed double-truck "paye" cars on the run. The schedule will remain at 10 minutes on the Ponce de Leon and at 15 minutes on the McDaniel street end. The through cars will pass Five Points at five minutes after the hour, 25 after and 45 after. The downtown route being over the Whitehall street viaduct along Peachtree and Whitehall. The cars running on the Ponce de Leon and only will enter Five Points from Broad street and Marietta, and leave at 15 minutes after the hour, 45 after and 58 after.

The West Fair line, formerly a part of the Ponce de Leon route, is linked by the new arrangement with the Peachtree street line, and through cars on that route will pass Five Points on the hour, 20 after and 40 after.

The increase in service on the Ponce de Leon and McDaniel street lines was given by the company of its own volition, without even a petition from the petting of the business community. The rearrangement of routes was necessitated by the physical impossibility of operating "paye" cars along certain curves and grades on the West Fair line. The Ponce de Leon line and only one in Atlanta's whole system that has shown growth in traffic every month since the war depression began, is now fast.

Y. W. C. A. WILL PRESENT PLAY AT ATLANTA APRIL 5

Fairy Story, "Will-o'-the-Wisp," Will Be Presented Entirely in Pantomime

Great and enthusiastic interest is being shown in the "Will-o'-the-Wisp," the beautiful fairy-tale play that is to be presented at the Atlanta Y. W. C. A. Monday, April 5, by the symposium classes of the Y. W. C. A.

The story of the play is adapted from an old Hungarian fairy tale and is to be given entirely in pantomime. No word will be spoken on the stage from start to finish. The most beautiful music has been carefully selected and adapted and will furnish vivid, uncanny, or bright, artistic accompaniment, as the story demands.

Much of the story will be portrayed through dances, the folk dances of the peasants, the wild, free movements of the greatest character dances of the soldiers, courtiers and court guests; and the descriptive dances of the fairies and forest spirits. The grouping and posing will be the most artistic and effective among stage settings that will be elaborated but thoroughly faithful to detail.

The leading parts will be taken by Miss Lawson Hines, Mrs. Hamilton Block, Mrs. Lee Thayer and Miss Hester. There will be many others in the play, the entire cast to include about two hundred.

Miss E. Betner, the physical director of the Y. W. C. A., has adapted and arranged the play and is personally directing rehearsals. She has had wide experience in this kind of work, having staged plays and pageants in Canada and in as many as two hundred thousand people in a single cast. Her work is notably artistic and original.

GIRL CAPTURES ONE OF FIVE SMALL BURGLARS

Miss Willie Day, 145 Spring, Not Appalled by Swarm of Gas Meter Thieves.

Five burglars, young but exceedingly spry, are an appalling spectacle to greet one lady and a very small dog on a Sunday morning, but Miss Willie Day thinks she proved equal to the occasion when she grabbed one by the nape of his neck and held him until a policeman arrived.

Miss Day arose at 9 a. m. Sunday at her home, 145 Spring street, and with Tootles, a pet poodle, opened the front door of her apartment to get the morning paper. She was met by a swarm of five men, who were engaged in rifling the gas meter in a closet beneath the steps.

HANK AND KNOBS--NO GETTING AWAY FOR HANK

WELL, HANK,
THE ONLY WAY
FOR YOU TO DUCK THAT GINK IN BLACK IS TO
JUMP A FREIGHT
AND GET OUT
OF THE STATE,
THEN HE CAN'T
FOLLOW YOU
ANY MORE!

GOOD GOD,
HANK,
IF YOU DO
IT, YOU'LL DO IT!

AN!

TA! TA!
YOU BOY
YOU'D BETTER
BE CASTING
YOUR SHADOW
ON ME!

ON WHAT'S THE USE?

I WEARLY
LOST YOU
THAT TIME!

NEW YORK, March 22.—Cotton advanced strongly today and afternoon opening at an advance of 10 to 15 points and making new high record for the season. The market was active and well supplied. The advance was due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of cotton in the South and a strong demand for the commodity. The market was expected to continue its upward movement.
