

MAY BE FIVE IN RACE FOR MACON MAYORALTY

Three Candidates Already in Field—Two More Prominently Mentioned

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MACON, Ga., Aug. 27.—Municipal politics is daily arousing more interest. With three men in the race for mayor, in addition to the aldermanic ticket of each, voters of the city find plenty of time to debate among themselves the probable success of the different candidates.

Bridge Smith's supporters have opened campaign headquarters at a prominent place on Cherry street, and the Wallace Miller followers have done likewise. A. L. Ector, Jr., third candidate, has his headquarters in the Georgia building.

Last night a meeting of the Young Men's business ticket, headed by Wallace Miller, was held, and the latter plans for his campaign were discussed. The meeting was largely attended.

It is being rumored that Attorney Julian E. Wright, formerly of Atlanta, will announce himself a candidate for mayor on September 1. Colonel W. H. H. is also mentioned as a probable candidate, making five in the race.

Annual Hay Fever
Convention Meets:
Oldest Sneezer 88

(By Associated Press.)
BETHLEHEM, N. H., Aug. 27.—The United States Hay Fever association began its annual convention here today with delegates from many eastern cities present to exchange reports of their sneezing affliction.

The oldest member present is Major Richard Mickle, of Philadelphia, whose eighty-third birthday was celebrated at a dinner by twenty-five officers of the Hay Fever association.

Major Mickle has been suffering from hay fever for seventy-five years, for he was seven years president of the association, the forty-third anniversary of which was celebrated here.

"BITING" FLY NO CAUSE OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS
Director of California's Hygienic Laboratory Explodes
Report of Danger

(By Associated Press.)
SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 27.—The stable of "biting" flies, which have been suspected by scientists of being a factor in infantile paralysis, was exploded in a report to the state board of health today by Dr. W. A. Sawyer, director of the state hygienic laboratory.

Dr. Sawyer's report is the result of a series of seven experiments conducted by him and Prof. Hoxar, of the University of California, to determine whether the biting fly was a cause of infantile paralysis to sick or well men.

The experiments were ordered after the announcement last September by Dr. Rosenau, of Harvard, that under laboratory conditions it was possible for the fly to transmit the disease.

LONG, FRUITLESS SEARCH FOR GIRL'S ASSAILANT
Maryland Posse Scours Country All Night Long in Vain
Effort

(By Associated Press.)
MID. BETHLEHEM, N. H., Aug. 27.—Empire-headed Deputy Sheriff Whalen and posse returned today after an all-night search for the afflige man who attacked the pretty seventeen-year-old daughter of a prosperous farmer. He stole the girl late yesterday, while the girl was returning home alone.

A lonely road. She fought the man, who was roughly dressed and her skin was cut and bruised. She eventually frightened him off. She is now recovering from her injuries.

The police of Washington and Baltimore were notified, as were the authorities of the surrounding counties. The arrest of the assailant is expected before night.

Farmer Returns From Revival to Find Wife and Niece Murdered—Bloodhounds on Trail of Slayer of Women

(By Associated Press.)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 27.—Meager reports of a terrible double murder in the Rock Springs neighborhood, four miles west of the village of Smyrna, reached Nashville today. The victims were Mrs. William Cook, wife of a prosperous farmer, and a niece, Miss Lucy Blanford, a young woman teacher in a nearby school.

Last night Mr. Cook attended a revival service at Smyrna, returning home about 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Cook was not in her room, but thinking she was in her niece's room, he retired. When he awoke this morning, he found his wife and niece lying dead on the back porch. He found her dead body covered with blood.

In the niece's room was the latter's dead body. The wife's body had apparently been dragged from the girl's room. Cook gave the alarm at once, a telephone call to the sheriff of Rutherford county at Murfreesboro, who went to the scene with bloodhounds.

Early reports did not indicate the probable motive of the murder. Great excitement prevails at Smyrna.

CONDEMN POUNDS OF OLD STORAGE MEAT AND EGGS

New Cold Storage Act Results in Ordering of Arrest of Dealers

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 27.—More than 200,000 pounds of meat and eggs which have been in the cold storage houses of this city since 1906 were condemned yesterday by agents for the state dairy and food commission and warrants were issued today for the arrest of the dealers responsible for the "unsafe products."

Early reports did not indicate the probable motive of the murder. Great excitement prevails at Smyrna.

Under the new cold storage act, which went into effect August 1, there must be a label on each container, or both for storing food more than four months, pork, sheep and lamb six months; veal three months; butter and eggs, six months; and poultry five months; and under ten months.

STORE KEEPER ASSAULTED FOR NOT GIVING CREDIT

Awakened at 3 o'clock in Morning, Asked for Credit and Refused

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, Ga., Aug. 27.—John E. Anderson, an aged storekeeper of North Landis, refused to extend credit to an intruder who came to his store at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. He was roughly cursed and threatened with a knife. The intruder was a two-year-old wife. The offender in the store was a young man of North Landis.

The intruder was a young man of North Landis, who was carrying a concealed weapon, and with assault and battery. According to the merchant, the man was armed with a knife and a pistol.

Court At Rome Looked Much Like a Pink Tea

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, Ga., Aug. 27.—When the case of Rose Miller, alleged kleptomaniac, with a passion for stealing only flowers, was called in police court yesterday afternoon, the case resembled a pink tea rather than a forum of justice.

The case against the woman was for the alleged theft of flowers from the veranda of Mrs. Paul C. Jack. The flowers were found in her possession by police officers, and with them other plants, alleged to have been stolen.

The prisoner stated that she had purchased the plants from a white man for $1.25. The police officers failed to show that she had stolen the flowers, and she was not bound over to court.

AVIATOR WOULD CIRCLE ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND

Tries Flight of 1,600 Miles to Win Prize of $25,000

(By Associated Press.)
OBAN, Scotland, Aug. 27.—Harry G. Hawker, English aviator, who is trying to fly round the coasts of England and Scotland, a distance of approximately 1,600 miles, within seventy-two hours, left here early this morning to finish his journey.

He had to go 700 miles within the next twenty-four hours to win the prize of $25,000.

In the first six stages of his flight he covered 856 miles in 525 minutes flying time.

Hawker had to alight at two more distant stations before reaching the finishing point near Southampton. His next stop was to be Dublin, the second Falmouth.

Hawker ascended in his hydro-aeroplane at 4:40. Some trouble caused him to descend on the Irish coast at Larnah, a distance of 119 miles, and the aviator lost a precious hour in effecting repairs.

He was waiting the arrival today from Italy, of his daughter, Tillie, who fell in the disaster at Messina. It was nine years ago that Joe believed Tillie "spoiled" and left her with her grandparents in Messina. Then the earthquake came and no trace of the girl could be found. She was mourned as dead.

But Andrew often dreamed that his child was alive and two months ago when he presented his naturalization papers he told United States Commissioner Fiske about his dream. The commissioner sent a letter to the consul general at Genoa, who located Tillie in a city hospital there.

The consul general learned that Tillie had been caught in some wreckage and washed to shore. She was found three days later by Genoa, who accompanied her to Cross nurse.

BRAVERY IN NAVY GETS PRAISE FROM DANIELS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Five heroic enlisted men of the navy saved the lives of three drowning persons, and their bravery has been commended by Secretary Daniels in letters which they will receive today.

E. H. Smith, a machinist's mate, of the torpedo boat Jenkins, T. J. Glin, a quartermaster, and W. D. J. Pyott, a hospital steward of the torpedo boat Perkins rescued and resuscitated an enlisted man who went to the bottom of the sea, where a flat bottom boat sank. Two men were drowned, but Smith and Glin searched until they found the man they rescued.

Otto Huthelund, boatwain's mate on the battleship Kansas, will receive commendation for rescuing a shipmate who accidentally had fallen into the water. Timothy Collins, seaman on the Wasp, saved Mr. Huthelund's commutation for jumping overboard and rescuing a small boy who fell off a pier in New York.

Officer "Pulled"
Brother and Now
Must Arrest Son

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
ROME, Ga., Aug. 27.—A. P. Duncan, bailiff of the Lindale militia district, in this county, has a reputation for impartiality in the enforcement of the law, he having been called upon during recent weeks to arrest a number of his close kinspeople.

Now he has in his possession a warrant for his own son, Clifford Duncan, charged with using obscene language in the presence of females, and the bailiff asserts that it will be served at once, and his son brought into court.

Not long ago, when he resided in Murray county, he arrested his own brother and brought him before Judge Fite. Duncan states that it is not pleasant to arrest one's own kinspeople, but that sometimes it has to be done.

FOUND WITH THROAT CUT; WIFE ARRESTED

Joseph Sharp, on Point of Starting to New Orleans, Has Throat Slashed

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Joseph Sharp, who had been employed as a steward in a restaurant here pending the settlement of the estate left by his parents in New Orleans, was found dead with his throat cut last night.

Although Mrs. Sharp insisted that her husband had killed himself after slashing her with a razor, the woman was arrested charged with murder. Mrs. Sharp was badly injured. The couple had quarreled, declared the wife, and in a fit of temper, Sharp attacked her as she lay in bed. She telephoned for help before bleeding from weakness due to loss of blood.

The charge against the woman, the police said, was prompted by contradictory stories she told and by her statement that Sharp after he cut her throat, exclaimed: "Well, I did it!" This said the physician who examined the body for the authorities, was an impossibility, as death from the throat gash had been practically instantaneous.

SLAYER IS RUSHED TO ATLANTA FOR SAFETY

Fearing Lynching, Meriwether County Sends Black to Atlanta Station House

Walter Brewster, negro slayer of L. C. Marchman, prominent Meriwether county farmer, is held in the Atlanta police station. The black was captured in the northern part of Heard county by J. M. Wingo, a farmer, at whose house he sought refuge, and later in the day was brought to this city to be held by the police.

Marchman was forty-two years old and leaves a wife and five children. He had lived near Greenville, where he had large holdings, his entire life. The crime was committed last Wednesday. According to Brewster's version of the affair, on that day Marchman was captured by Wingo, who was armed with a revolver, aimed at the farmer, and then the latter was taken to the station house.

Marchman was taken to the station house and put in a cell. The chamber was empty and Marchman was put in a cell. The chamber was empty and Marchman was put in a cell. The chamber was empty and Marchman was put in a cell.

He fled twice, one lead entering the leg and another the back of the head. Brewster ran five miles to the home of Mr. Wingo, who captured him when he returned to some negro hands for a night's lodging.

Virgil Bennett, another negro, sought by the Meriwether county officers as an accomplice, was brought last Monday night. His bullet-riddled body was discovered hanging from a tree in a lonely spot Tuesday. The coroner held an inquest and a jury found that the negro had come to his death at the hands of persons unknown.

ALL THREE JUDGES OF ATLANTA CIRCUIT AWAY Judge Bell Will Return Thursday, However, Ready to Sign Papers

A president of a number of years is being taken by the absence from Atlanta of all three judges of the superior court, Atlanta circuit.

When the courts are not in session it has been customary for one of the three judges to remain in the city for the purpose of settling objections and similar papers, where time plays an important part, and to hear habeas corpus and similar cases.

John George L. Bell, who has been absent for only about a week, will return Thursday, however, and the lawyers will have a chance to request his signature on official papers.

Judge Bell is in North Carolina. Judge W. D. Ellis is visiting relatives in South Carolina, and Judge John T. Preston is making a tour of the north and east.

MACON BOOSTER TRAIN TO TOUR SOUTH GEORGIA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) MACON, Ga., Aug. 27.—Business men from the chamber of commerce have decided on another booster train for Macon. Those interested in the trip are urged to secure a sufficient number of passengers. It was decided to operate the train through central and south Georgia.

An itinerary has already been decided on. Some of the largest towns in central and south Georgia will be visited. The train will leave Macon on the morning of September 14 and return four days later. A hundred passengers in addition to the Macon train and baggage corps will be carried along.

A brass band and organ concert will be given at the auditorium Thursday evening of this week, under the joint auspices of the Fifth Regiment band, national guard of Georgia, and the Atlanta Music Festival association.

The proceeds of the concert will be for the benefit of the band and association. The association will use its part in helping pay for the free Sunday concert, which will have become a permanent feature of Atlanta's musical life.

The program will be as follows: March, "Grand Entry," Barber; Overture, "Tannhauser," G. Rossini; Overture, "A Hunting Scene," P. Bouchard; Selection, "The Sunny South," Lampe; Organ Selection—Sheldon; Overture, "Romance," (organ accompaniment) Schubert; Medley-overture, "Remicks Hits 1913"—Lampe.

Grand Fantasia, "Home, Sweet Home, the World Over," (Dedicated to John Philip Sousa, descriptive of the manner in which he had to play "Home, Sweet Home" to each nation on his famous "around the world tour").

The band leader will be Chief Musician C. E. Barber, of the Fifth Regiment, and the organist will be Charles Sheldon.

Owing to the keen popular interest in the concert, particularly among friends of the Fifth Regiment, it has been decided to make the price of admission 25 cents and 10 cents. It is hoped that the auditorium will be crowded. The program will be noted in a of a daily popular tone. The band selection, a grand march, is the composition of Mr. Barber.

BLEASE GREET SULLER AS NEW YORK GOVERNOR

COLUMBIA, N. Y., Aug. 27.—In a recent letter Governor Blease congratulated William Suller as governor of New York and urged Lieutenant Governor Glynn for his conduct in attempting to assume the duties of the office. Governor Blease stated that he has felt the sting of persecution through imprisonment to the action of the investigation committee of last summer.

"Trust in God and the white people and you will always be a winner," is the South Carolina governor's advice to the impeached governor of New York.

PRIMARY DATE A TRICK, SAYS MAYOR WOODWARD

Says City Political Ring Is Striving to Perpetuate Its Control of Council

Mayor Woodward asserts that the action of the city executive committee in fixing September 10 as the date for the city primary reveals a plot by Atlanta's city political ring to perpetuate its control of the general council.

City primaries in the past have usually been held toward the latter part of October. This year the city executive committee moved the date back nearly a month and devised that the restriction for the primary shall close on September 9.

"It is an outrage," Mayor Woodward declares. "The politicians are afraid of the people. They won't trust their political future to the voters."

It is the mayor's belief that the politicians, fearing a new charter ticket in all wards, actually fixed the situation and then had the date for the primary hurried up in the hope to get the advantage of a new charter would not have the people at a special election set by the legislature for September 24.

"It is time for the people to wake up and take an interest in city affairs," says the mayor. "Despite the fact that the politicians have fixed a date to suit themselves for the primary, it is still not too late to bring out a ticket of candidates who have no political axes to grind and whose only interest will be to give the people a straightforward, businesslike administration of city affairs."

Now Are the Days Children Need Care

Summer Heat Dangerous to Little Ones Whose Bowels Are Neglected

A mother cannot do better for her children than to teach them from their earliest days regularity of the bowels. Regularity can be promoted without the child knowing it by watching its food and by so varying the food that all the elements of digestion are met when nature will do the rest. The future health of the child depends upon this.

But try as you will there are times when the little one will become constipated and bilious. In wet weather immediate attention is necessary, as many serious diseases result from stuffed-up bowels. It is not safe to cathartics or purgatives, as they are too harsh, but give a gentle, pleasant-tasting bowel stimulant like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

It has been used by the children of this world as a former generation and thousands of families are proud to speak well of it, among whom we can mention Mrs. Louise Reynolds, 368 Jackson st., Lynchburg, Va., who is glad to recommend it, and Mr. Chas. W. Allen, Manor, Tex., who writes that he often felt 100 years old, but feels younger now than his years.

ATLANTA AS MARKET INTERESTS THE WORLD

Chamber of Commerce Industrial Bureau Receives Letters From All Nations

The world is becoming interested in Atlanta as a manufacturing and commercial center. The statement may seem broad, but letters which are coming daily to the new industrial Bureau of the chamber of commerce indicate that the city's fame is being spread to many portions of the globe.

A few days ago a letter was received from South America, asking about the general trade condition and for specific information about Atlanta's chamber of commerce and the industrial bureau.

These are but two of hundreds of letters that are pouring in, and the bureau is steadily widening the scope of its correspondence and its usefulness.

Furniture Opportunities Are Flitting

You'll Pay from 10% to 50% More for This Furniture After Saturday: Same as Once Did a Foolish Woman

"What a fool I was not to have bought this furniture during our February Sale," remarked a woman last March as she turned over $235 to us for furniture which she could have bought in February for $187.

The same experience may be yours if you need furniture and don't buy within the next three days. The sale positively ends Saturday at 1 p. m.

For ten months in the year our regular prices are marked to compete with stores that are forever holding sales. In February and August—and those two months only—we drop our regular prices from 10 per cent to 50 per cent.

The Savings of a Half or About Half are on the odd pieces such as we quoted Monday and Tuesday. The savings of 10 per cent to 20 per cent are on the standard pieces of furniture. Notable among this class of furniture is this:

$885 Chinese Chippendale Mahogany Dining Suits at $750 Solid mahogany throughout consisting of 12 pieces as follows: Seven-foot sideboard; 48-inch serving table; 60-inch circular table, extends to 10 feet; 54-inch China Cabinet, full mirror lined; 6 side chairs; 2 arm chairs.

$705 Colonial Crotch Mahogany Dining Suit $757 Four piece suit consisting of 6 foot sideboard; 60-inch circular table extends to 10 feet; 50-inch China Cabinet; 48-inch serving table.

THEME FOR WILSON

ation by the authorities at the capital is evidently impossible by any other means than force.

MURTA HAS FAILED TO MAKE GOOD HIS PROMISES

"Difficulties more and more ensue those who claim to constitute the legitimate government of the republic. They have not made good their claim in fact. Their successes in the field have proved only temporary. War and disorder, devastation and confusion seem to threaten to become the settled fortune of the distracted country."

"As friends we could wait no longer for a solution which every week seemed further away. It was our duty at least to volunteer our good offices—to offer to assist, if we might, in effecting some arrangement which would bring relief and peace and set up a universally acknowledged political authority there."

"Accordingly I took the liberty of sending the Hon. John Lind, formerly governor of Minnesota, as my personal spokesman and representative to the City of Mexico, with the following instructions:

INSTRUCTIONS WILSON GAVE TO GOVERNOR JOHN LIND

"From very earnestly upon the attention of those who are now exercising authority or wielding influence in Mexico, the following considerations and advice:

"The government of the United States does not feel at liberty any longer to stand idly by, while it becomes daily more and more evident that no real progress is being made toward the establishment of a government at the City of Mexico which the country will obey and respect."

"The government of the United States does not stand in the same case with the other great governments of the world in respect to what is happening or what is likely to happen in Mexico. We offer our good offices not only because of our genuine desire to play the part of a friend, but also because we are expected by the powers of the world to act as Mexico's nearest friend."

ACTED FOR THE GOOD OF MEXICO'S FUTURE ALONE

"We wish to act in these circumstances in the spirit of the most earnest and disinterested friendship. It is our purpose in whatever we do or propose in this perplexing and distressing situation to do so to pay the most scrupulous regard to the sovereignty and independence of Mexico—that we take as a matter of course to which we are bound by every obligation of right and honor—but also to give every possible evidence that we act in the interest of Mexico alone, and not in the interest of any person or body of persons who may have personal or property claims in Mexico which they may feel that they have the right to press."

"We are seeking to counsel Mexico for her own good and in the interest of her own peace, and not for any other purpose whatever. The government of the United States would deem itself discredited if it had any selfish or ulterior purpose in transactions where the peace, happiness and prosperity of a whole people are involved. It is acting as its friendship for Mexico, not as any selfish interest, dictates."

"The present situation in Mexico is incompatible with the fulfillment of international obligations on the part of Mexico, with the civilized development of Mexico herself, and with the maintenance of tolerable political and economic conditions in Central America. It is upon no common occasion, therefore, that the United States offers her counsel and assistance. All America cries out for a settlement."

"A satisfactory settlement seems to us to be conditioned on:

MURTA ASKED NOT TO BE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

"(A)—An immediate cessation of fighting throughout Mexico, a definite armistice solemnly entered into and scrupulously observed."

"(B)—Security given for an early and free election in which all will agree to take part."

"(C)—The consent of General Murta to bind himself not to be a candidate for election as president of the republic at this election, and (D)—The agreement of all parties to abide by the results of the election and co-operate in the most loyal way in organizing and supporting the new administration. "Mr. Lind executed his delicate and difficult mission with singular tact, firmness and good judgment, and made clear to the authorities at the City of Mexico not only the purpose of his visit but also the spirit in which it had been undertaken. But the proposals he submitted were rejected, in a note the full text of which I take the liberty of having before you. I am led to believe that they were rejected partly because the authorities at Mexico City had been grossly misinformed and misled upon two points. They did not realize the spirit of the American people in this matter, their earnest friendliness and yet their determination that some just solution be found for the Mexican difficulty; and they did not believe that the present administration spoke through Mr. Lind, for the people of the United States. The effect of this unfortunate misunderstanding on their part is to leave them singularly isolated and without friends who can effectively aid them."

"So long as the misunderstanding continues we can only await the time of their awakening to a realization of the actual facts. We cannot thrust our good offices upon them. The situation must be given a little more time to work itself out in the new circumstances, and I believe that only a little while will be necessary."

"For the circumstances are new. The rejection of our friendship makes them new and will inevitably bring its own alternative on one whole aspect of affairs. The actual situation of the authorities at Mexico City will presently be revealed."

IT IS OUR DUTY TO BE VERY PATIENT

"Meanwhile, what is it our duty to do? Clearly, everything that we do must be rooted in patience and done with calm and disinterested deliberation. Impatience on our part would be childish, and would be fraught with every risk of wrong and folly. We can afford to exercise the self-restraint of a really great nation which realizes its own strength and seems to nations in the matter of neutrality by forbidding the exportation of arms of any kind from the United States to any part of the Republic of Mexico—a policy suggested by several interesting precedents and certainly dictated by many manifest considerations of practical expediency. We cannot in the circumstances be the partisans of either party to the contest that now distracts Mexico, constitute ourselves the virtual umpire between them."

"I am happy to say that several of the great governments of the world have given this government their generous moral support in urging upon the provisional authorities at the City of Mexico the acceptance of our proposed good offices in the spirit in which they were made."

WILL TRIUMPH AS MEXICO'S FRIEND INSTEAD OF ENEMY

"We have not acted in this matter under the ordinary principles of international obligation. All the world expects us in such circumstances to act as Mexico's nearest friend and intimate adviser. This is our immemorial tradition towards her."

"There is nowhere any serious question that we have the moral right in the case of that we are the nations of the world to settlement and of good government, not for the promotion of some selfish interest of our own."

"We further motive we need not state. Our own good will towards a sister republic and our own deep concern to see peace and order prevail in Central America, this consent of mankind to what we are attempting, this attitude of the great nations of the world towards what we may attempt in dealing with this distressed people at our doors, should make us feel the utmost length of patience and forbearance in this painful and anxious business."

"The steady pressure of moral force will before many days break down and we shall triumph as Mexico's friends more than we could triumph as her enemies—and how much higher and finer satisfaction of conscience and of honor!"

"The government of the United States will be glad to play any part in this statement or in its carrying out which can play any honorable and consistently with international right. It pledges itself to recognize and in every way possible and feasible to assist the administration chosen and set up in Mexico in the conditions of the country."

"Taking all the existing conditions into consideration, the government of the United States can console of no reasons sufficient to justify those who are attempting to do so to be feared, increased danger to the non-combatants in Mexico as well as to those actually in the field of battle."

"While we wait, the contest of the rival forces will undoubtedly for a little while be sharper than ever just because it will be plain that an end must be made of the existing situation and that very promptly; and with increased activity of the contending factions will come."

"The policy of friendship thus offered to the non-combatants in Mexico as well as to those actually in the field of battle."

"The position of outsiders is always particularly trying and full of hazard where there is civil strife and a whole country in upset. We should earnestly urge all Americans to leave Mexico at once and should assist them to get away in every way possible—not because we would mean to slacken in the least our efforts to safeguard their lives and their interests, but because it is imperative that they should take no unnecessary risks when it is physically possible for them to leave the country."

"We should let every one who assumes the air of authority in every part of Mexico know in the most unequivocal way that we shall vigorously watch the fortunes of those Americans who cannot get away and shall hold those responsible for their sufferings and losses to the strictest account. That can be and shall be made plain beyond the possibility of a misunderstanding."

NO ARMS OR MUNITIONS ALLOWED TO EITHER SIDE

"For the rest I deem it my duty to exercise the authority conferred upon me by the law of March 4, 1912, to see to it that neither side to the struggle now going on in Mexico receive any assistance from this side of the border. I shall follow the best practice of The verdict of the jury must have been a severe blow to Frank, say his friends, and they have nothing but admiration for the way he received it."

"It has been disclosed that had an acquittal resulted, he would have returned to New York to live with his mother and father. Now it is probable that his mother may remain in Atlanta to be near her son until the appeal which his attorneys will take is definitely decided."

Your activity also as a member of your class basketball team for four years makes me firm in the conviction that you would be impossible to a man of your mental and physical caliber to have committed the crime with which you are charged."

"In his letter to Straus, Fehr says: 'As a gentle and as a New Yorker, I would not say positively that a bill against Conley will be presented Friday, but stated that in all probability it would be given to the grand jury then. The present grand jury was an effort to indict Conley several weeks before the trial of Leo M. Frank commenced, as a principal in the murder. The effort was blocked, however, by the solicitor general Hugh M. Dancy."

"In view of the fact that a jury has returned a verdict of guilty against Frank there is little probability of the jury attempting to indict him now as principal."

"When Conley is arraigned in court following his indictment, he will answer to a charge of guilty of being an accessory after the fact of the murder in three years in the penitentiary."

No legal moves in the Frank case are expected for several weeks. Attorney Reuben T. Arnold, of counsel for the defense, is expected to make an attempt to clear the character of Leo M. Frank, who was convicted of the murder of a girl of 15 in Atlanta, Ga., on Monday and sentenced to death. White Fehr, No. 187 Seventh avenue, sent letters today to Oscar S. FRANK WILL REPLY TO DORSEY IN LONG PUBLIC STATEMENT tells those he talks to that he is innocent and it is plain that he hopes to gain freedom notwithstanding the fact that he is sentenced to die on October 18. The verdict of the jury must have been a severe blow to Frank, say his friends, and they have nothing but admiration for the way he received it."

"It has been disclosed that had an acquittal resulted, he would have returned to New York to live with his mother and father. Now it is probable that his mother may remain in Atlanta to be near her son until the appeal which his attorneys will take is definitely decided."

"I am happy to say that several of the great governments of the world have given this government their generous moral support in urging upon the provisional authorities at the City of Mexico the acceptance of our proposed good offices in the spirit in which they were made."

"We have not acted in this matter under the ordinary principles of international obligation. All the world expects us in such circumstances to act as Mexico's nearest friend and intimate adviser. This is our immemorial tradition towards her."

"There is nowhere any serious question that we have the moral right in the case of that we are the nations of the world to settlement and of good government, not for the promotion of some selfish interest of our own."

"We further motive we need not state. Our own good will towards a sister republic and our own deep concern to see peace and order prevail in Central America, this consent of mankind to what we are attempting, this attitude of the great nations of the world towards what we may attempt in dealing with this distressed people at our doors, should make us feel the utmost length of patience and forbearance in this painful and anxious business."

"The steady pressure of moral force will before many days break down and we shall triumph as Mexico's friends more than we could triumph as her enemies—and how much higher and finer satisfaction of conscience and of honor!"

"The government of the United States will be glad to play any part in this statement or in its carrying out which can play any honorable and consistently with international right. It pledges itself to recognize and in every way possible and feasible to assist the administration chosen and set up in Mexico in the conditions of the country."

NO ARMS OR MUNITIONS ALLOWED TO EITHER SIDE

RICH PARENTS BESIEGE MARTHA BERRY SCHOOL

But It Is Institution for Poor
Boys and Girls, and Must Decline All Others.

Something as it may seem, the Martha Berry school near Rome, Ga., which is a Christian industrial school for country boys of limited means, is being besieged with applications from wealthy parents who prefer this school to any other for their boys and girls, but the school is compelled to decline such applications because its aim is to educate not rich, but poor children who cannot get an education elsewhere. Desires of getting their sons and daughters away from the city and into a wholesome atmosphere, where they can receive not only high class academic training but training for home-building, citizenship and parenthood, a great many fathers and mothers of liberal means have decided that the Berry school is exactly the institution for their sons and daughters. Numbers of parents have gone to the school in person to urge their applications and have offered sums of money for the education of their children.

The school finds it impossible to consider these applications, because, first, it is established for country boys and girls of the south who are unable to attend schools charging the actual cost of board and tuition; and, second, because it cannot accommodate all the boys and girls from the country who desire admission, turning away fifty or more every year.

Another reason why it cannot take boys and girls whose advantages have been superior is that such pupils would be far ahead in their studies of country pupils of similar ages.

In a recent letter emanating from the office of Miss Martha Berry, director of the school, the following comment is made in connection with the above-stated facts:

"It is a pity that so many youths from the best homes in the land should be denied the privilege of a much needed Christian industrial education for free, and independent citizenship. Why cannot our churches provide it in their sectarian schools? Why cannot private educators provide it, as they provide other forms of education? How long must the children of the rich and the children of the city dwellers lack for the opportunities of a real education because no one has provided a place where these advantages can be secured at any price?"

BANKERS' SECRETARY TO LOOK ATLANTA OVER

Every Effort Being Made to Secure Convention of American
Bankers' Association

With the view of examining Atlanta facilities for taking care of the 1914 convention of the American Bankers' association, at which over 3,000 of the leading financiers of very section of the United States will be present, Fred E. Farnsworth, secretary of the association, will visit Atlanta soon.

The Bankers' association has not yet decided upon the place for the convention. Several places are under consideration and all are being visited by the secretary in the effort to select the town best suited for handling the convention. While in Atlanta Mr. Farnsworth will be entertained at a dinner to be given to the Hotel Men's association. Mutual facilities will play an important part in the selection of the convention city.

"Farmer Bill" Zimmer Marries Detroit Miss

Romance of Fifteen Years
Ended Tuesday Night and
Now Kimballville Has a Mrs.
Zimmer for Mistress

The famous Kimballville farm gained a new boss Tuesday evening when V. Zimmer, known over half the United States as "Farmer Bill," quietly, and almost secretly, became a householder. The bride went to Detroit last night at which hour she became Mrs. Zimmer was Miss Mabel L. Lays of Detroit, Mich. The Rev. J. B. Robbins, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church, performed the ceremony at the farmhouse.

The marriage is the culmination of a romance of fifteen years. At that time "Farmer Bill" first met his bride-to-be. Only three or four of the most intimate friends of the couple were in the secret. Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Butler, of Detroit, and one or two others the couple drove to the farmhouse early Tuesday evening, half an hour later they left, man and wife.

Later the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Zimmer, will be at the home of Mrs. J. M. and Mrs. T. A. Chancellor, Clarendon, Mich. Mrs. Zimmer, Mrs. J. M. and Mrs. T. A. Chancellor, Clarendon, Mich. BEAVERS MEETS FRIEND OF 30 YEARS BACK

A touching reunion of boyhood friends who had not seen each other for nearly thirty years was enacted at the police station Wednesday when Mr. Joseph Hill, Mrs. Ella Hutchinson, James Mercer, and E. R. Tucker, of Detroit, and the Piedmont hotel to enjoy a wedding dinner. Later the couple started on an automobile tour from Atlanta to Savannah and Tybee. They will be at home at Kimballville in about ten days.

The police head staff of the station old friend at first, but when informed of the identity of his visitor, the old-time pals laughingly and affectionately embraced.

Hotel to Be Razed

ROME, Ga., Aug. 27.—Rome's city council has ordered the old House of Representatives hotel torn down upon the ground that it is unsafe and liable to cause injuries to the twenty people who are employed there. The hotel is a historic landmark of Rome and was occupied by federal officers during war time.

Fred House, of the Hotel Men's association, declares Atlanta is well fitted in this respect, with 191 rooms sure to be at the disposal of the bankers.

THEATRES

Criticism of initial performance of the new feature was given by members of the Journal staff. All other quarters appearing in this column is furnished by the theater management.

Svenall, at the Forsyth, has made people guess how he performs one of the most wonderful stunts ever seen on a local stage. The star introduces his subject and after placing her in a hypnotic condition seats her at a grand piano. He explains that he will visit the audience and that any request for an international grand or comic opera will be played or sung by the subject, and that he will not speak a word in sending her the request. Out in the audience Svenall sets any number of people to request an opera, and with song and sing, and just as suddenly will break into the new request that has been whispered to Svenall.

Fred Bond and Fremont Benton present the very best laugh-winning playlet that has been seen at the Forsyth. The Meredith Sisters sing themselves into favorite position.

There are absolutely no features and a splendidly acting make-up a bill that is thoroughly entertaining.

For next week the star acts will be Sam Mann and company in "The New Leader," a wonderfully clever vaudeville idea. William Simms and company, in their funny well-paced skit, and Alexander and Scott, the character singing comedians.

The Grand is the home of Kimballville and growing very popular with its new policy. The wonders of the natural color pictures have attracted a great many hundreds of people who are going to the Grand and tell their friends what a really great treat the pictures are. The Grand is open daily from 2:30 until 10:30 o'clock and the "get acquainted" scale of prices is 5 cents from opening time until 7 p. m. and 10 cents after that time.

For today and tomorrow the Kimballville feature will be "The Scarlet Letter." A wonderful three-act story that was a long feature at the Kimballville theater in New York. The beauty of the picture has been reviewed in art books and drew the critics of a great many artists in New York. This is the same story and the fact has been outside of New York.

In addition to Kimballville features the Grand is also offering an exclusive set of first run pictures, that cannot be seen anywhere else in Atlanta. Kimballville cannot be seen anywhere else in Atlanta.

Seats are now selling at the Lyric theater box office for Emma Bunting's

SUICIDE ATTEMPT IS THWARTED BY WIFE

When Hutchins Cried, "I Will Blow Out My Brains!" Wife and Sister Save Him

Determined resistance by his wife and sister alone prevented James W. Hutchins, of 236 McDaniel street, from shooting a pistol and blowing out his brains as he threatened to do Tuesday night about 10 o'clock.

Hutchins went home early Tuesday evening and after brooding some time told his family he had lost $500 in a business deal earlier in the day. He continued to brood all evening and while sitting in the room with his wife and sister, suddenly arose and cried, "I will blow out my brains."

Hutchins then started for a dresser in the room, in the top drawer of which was a revolver. His sister and wife seized him and a struggle ensued. Hutchins seemed determined to reach the weapon and the struggle became more strenuous.

Neighbors were attracted by the noise and called the police station, declaring Hutchins was beating his wife. Call Officers Milam and Palmer were sent out on the case and when they arrived the struggle was still going on.

The officers stopped the row and Hutchins seemed to grow calm and promised he would not again make such an attempt. Hutchins was formerly a bailiff in a justice court and was indicted three years ago for shooting a negro he was attempting to place under arrest. He was tried on that indictment and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary but an appeal was granted and now he is out on bond awaiting a new trial.

Fire Loss $1,000.00
RAY POINT, Cal., Aug. 27.—Fire in the lumber yards of the C. A. Smith company here caused damage estimated at $1,000.00 early today. It was checked by dynamite and by a change of wind.

Management at that house next week. Miss Bunting's stay at the Lyric this time is limited to one week only. She begins with a special holiday matinee on Monday. The play which she will offer is called "The Circus Girl" and has some standard through the fact that it was first presented in London at the close of the war and in New York by the Lyric master of dramatic art, Augustin Daly, at the Lyric on Broadway, which still bears his name. Miss Bunting herself has a role said to be fitted to her dainty personality, and a splendid part assigned to her leading man, Mr. Whitaker.

Prize For Best Alma Song For The Boys' High School Atlanta

An alma mater song for the alumni of the Boys' high school to sing in years to come may grow from a suggestion voiced at the reunion last week of the class which graduated from that institution in 1910.

A cash prize will be offered for a contest which will open to all students attending the school during the term which will commence next month, and the prize will go to the contestant who submits what is adjudged to be the best collection of original verses for that song.

At the 1910 class banquet the suggestion was acted upon by the naming of a committee. This committee will arrange the details of the contest, and those details will be announced later. The Boys' high school claims among its graduates not only a number of the leading men of Atlanta, but also men of distinction in other parts of the country. The movement for an alma mater song is receiving cordial approval among the alumni.

DELTA TAUS LEAVE FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION

Local Members of Fraternity en Route for Indianapolis to Attend Karnes

About twelve members of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity left Tuesday for Indianapolis to attend the Karnes, the national convention of the fraternity. They came from many points of the state and left Atlanta on a special car over the L. & N. at 5:10.

Several members of the present party were in Chicago in 1911 to attend the last biennial convention. There they had the pleasure of being present at the largest fraternity convention ever held, held there from every section of the country registering. This record is considerably expected to be eclipsed at Indianapolis, where an attendance of over 5,000 is practically assured.

Those in the party were Kenyon B. Zahner, T. B. Bean and J. S. Jones, Jr., of Atlanta; H. H. Hudson, East Point; M. M. and H. S. Cowart, of Arlington, Ga.; J. H. C. Cawson, E. R. Pind and C. H. Jordan, Delta at Knoxville and Lexington, Ky., will join the party. At Lexington the Atlanta car will be switched to the special Delta train leaving that point Wednesday morning.

Lanford Rests

Chief of Detectives Lanford, wearied by the long drawn out Frank trial left Tuesday for DeKalb county, to get a much needed rest. He is accompanied by his family and will remain until Sunday.

When You Get Acquainted With This "SIX" You Will Surely Want One

A drive in the Studebaker "SIX" will charm and convince you.

If there has ever been confusion in your mind concerning the qualities of a worthy Six, your questions will be fully answered after you have driven this "SIX".

And even if you are aware what some good sixes can do, you will enjoy a greater glow of satisfaction when you drive this car.

As you sit behind the alluringly smooth and responsive motor, no one will need tell you why you like it. You will know perfectly well.

Buy It Because It's a Studebaker

Studebaker "Six" Engineering
The design of a fine six-cylinder car, especially in the motor, calls for exceptional skill and wide experience.

Efficiency at all speeds and the absence of vibration, which are the unique advantages of a worthy Six, can only be attained by the most scientific engineering.

To attain perfect results we use experimental laboratories of large size and full equipment, where every idea built into the Studebaker "SIX" has been proved correct beyond the possibility of error.

We work by knowledge, not by theory. Every ton of steel we buy is first made according to Studebaker formulas and later rigorously tested to be sure it is up to standard.

Throughout the manufacture, which is carried on entirely in our plants, from forty huge power hammers which forge out over 250 parts for every Studebaker "SIX", to the last operation, accurate to the one-thousandth of an inch, the "SIX" is built with a scrupulous regard for fine work and the best materials.

Studebaker Standards of Luxury
From the beautifully balanced chassis to the deep upholstery and complete equipment, the "SIX" shows careful attention to appearance and comfort.

It is, of course, electrically lighted and started.

The auxiliary seats, making ample room for six passengers, are exceedingly comfortable and yet may readily be folded to one side.

The painting is lustrous, requiring twenty-four operations, including many days of drying and aging, before it is finished. We use Studebaker-Jiffy storm curtains, the most ingenious improvement ever made in automobile curtains.

The Studebaker "SIX" is a car of complete comfort and strikingly handsome appearance.

JOURNAL WANT AD Horoscope

Children born on this date need special care and attention. They should not be allowed to criticize their companions and they should not be allowed to dwell upon the dark side of life.

Virgo children are very keen to observe and their attention must be directed to all that is beautiful and true. They are natural students. They should find their companions among those who are jovial and cheerful in disposition.

They should not be given too much medicine nor drugs. Pure medicine and good food, kindness and firmness will impart wisdom and cheerfulness.

The Journal Want Ads will be under favorable planetary conditions for the coming week in advertising real estate, apartments, houses to rent and the sale of rooming houses.

Some Want Ads are inserted free in the Journal. For charge ads, ask that they be read for or telegraphed them to Main 2000, or Atlanta 423.

POULTRY, PIGEONS AND LIVE STOCK

Prepare to Take Care of Your Feed This Year

GEORGIA undoubtedly has this year the largest feed crop that has ever been grown in this state, and especially does this apply to corn. The bountiful yield will not only make many people careless and not appreciate what they have, and I fear it will not be taken care of as it should be. We know that many western states have suffered terrible drought and know that a great shortage will be produced in many sections that have heretofore furnished us a part of our supplies. We should appreciate this fact and use every effort to take care of and house every pound of feed that we possibly can this coming winter.

If the farmers of this country would cut and shock their corn, we would have a million or more bushels of feed and fodder alone to feed and fatten a million or more head of cattle. It has been carefully figured out that the stalks and fodder of corn are worth 60 percent of its value and the grain 40 percent, but how few people realize this. By cutting the present crop of corn now growing in Georgia, and shocking it in large shocks, it can be perfectly cured, and the use of a shredder, which can be had very cheap, even if several in a community had to combine and buy it, these stalks and fodder could be converted into a better roughage, that is far better than 60 percent of the western hay that is sold to our people.

And as the cost now to gather the corn and shock it, it can be readily seen that the cost of the feed is not near so apt to be covered by the feed as it is when put into the crib.

These little things have to be guarded against, and it is this extra percentage of profit that our farmers are now wasting that we must learn to save. This tremendous amount of roughage will fatten thousands of head of cattle and horses, and even if all is not eaten through by the stock, it will go back into the land as a better condition to be utilized and fertilize the next growing crop than it would be if allowed to remain on the land in the shape of whole stalks. This saving will be to Georgia worth millions of dollars.

If the western farmers have all found out this to be the best method, why not our southern farmers wake up to this possibility and be benefited by the experience of others? There should be in Georgia now, ready for distribution, at least 10,000 shredding machines, and the different implement manufacturers should be ordered to make these for any one, on two or three years' terms, which would enable you to pay for them a dozen times over before it had to be done.

There is no excuse for any corn that is not shocked. If the shocks are made large enough. Many make the mistake of making them too small. By tying four or five shocks together, they can be shocked for the corn around. It will make a shock that will not fall down, and make a shock around four stalks that will enable any one to put up a shock of corn in a few minutes. It is easily done and a great quantity can be saved by this method that will now go to waste throughout the entire state.

With our supply of cotton seed meal, a small amount of it sprinkled over the corn and the shredded corn, the feed will be better. There would be millions of tons of the finest feed possible to winter our cattle and horses on during the coming winter. And there is a ready market at $15 to $20 per ton of feed. If you have a few acres of corn, you can make a good profit by shredding and shocking it, and with the present price of hays and hay, and the high price of feed, it will pay you to practice this method and will convert this feed through live stock into cash this winter is the man who will find himself independent this winter in making the money that many others are now losing.

Another important thing, if the farmers of this state will take advantage of the growing of crimson clover and plant a majority of the acres of their farm that is now in cotton and corn, during the month of September, millions of tons of crimson clover hay can be had in April to feed along with the shredded corn early in the spring, and while this crimson clover hay is growing and making hay, it will pay you to plant to each acre it is being grown on during the winter, it will be producing from a ton to a ton and a half of the richest hay while it is making the ground rich. This crimson clover hay will pay you $10,000 worth of hay each year if our farmers would take advantage of these opportunities and we now have hay that would be worth more than any other hay already made on our lands.

We have never been forced by necessity to save and economize as we have in the other sections of the country, but it is high time we were learning, and the sooner we begin the better off we will be. Will not this state be the best in the country if we have one-half of Georgia's corn stalks and fodder in the shape of shredded feed, and convert it into cash and keep in Atlanta some of the $10,000 per day that is now being made by our beef and feeding house products? Try shredding your corn this year, and when you once get into the habit of it, it will allow you to save money and with it pay for it as it now does, and your neighbors will do likewise. One good progressive man in a community can be the means of saving thousands of dollars in his own state, and your neighbors will do likewise and others see the great benefits to be derived from it, the better off our country will be.
